

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

MONDAY'S NEWS

Publicity Man Here—

C. W. Borland, advertising representative of the Josephine county fair, was in Ashland Saturday evening placing publicity for the big fair that takes place September 15, 16 and 17.

Leave for Vancouver—

Lynn Mowat left Sunday for Vancouver, Wash., where he goes to conduct a Chamber of Commerce drive for the American City bureau. Lynn has been with the bureau for the past year and has worked in many cities throughout the West. He says that work has been a great experience to him as he comes in contact with the best brains of every community he serves.

Crater Lake Picture on Postage—

The picture of Crater Lake will probably appear on the new postage stamp, according to the following dispatch from Washington: "Postmaster General Hays will be asked in the next day or two to outline the views of the postoffice department with reference to size, design and lettering of postage stamps commemorative of Portland's exposition in 1925. Senator McNary has received photographs of Mount Hood and Crater Lake from Julius L. Meier, of the exposition committee, and advisability of their use will be discussed."

Work Will Be Rushed—

Work on the survey of the new highway to Crescent City is to be rushed so that work on the construction of the road can commence next spring. A new location party is to be started next week, one party already being on the ground. With the two surveying parties, the survey can be completed this winter and have the stakes laid out for an early start in the spring.

On Deer Hunt—

S. D. Taylor left today to join C. F. Koehler at the Lindsay ranch. Mr. Lindsay got a fine buck Friday, and with the Sunday school superintendent for reinforcements, the Presbyterians are all predestined to enjoy venison steaks.

Dennis Russell Known in Medford—

The news has recently leaked out that Dennis Russell, the man whom it is alleged was murdered by Dr. Brumfield, was a former Medford resident. It is said that he lived with the Larkin family in West Medford and that he worked on a paving crew in and near the city for a considerable time. Many Medford men were formerly acquainted with him.—Medford Mail Tribune.

Returns from Cinnabar Springs—

A healthy, growing and very kinky black beard has returned to Ashland in company with Henry Provost, who has been spending the past several days at Cinnabar Springs. The erstwhile camper refused to commend himself to the hands of a barber until he had approached several friends with "hello bo."

Returns from Vacation—

Mrs. C. E. Lane has returned to her work at the Tidings after a week's vacation spent in various and sundry places, such as Grants Pass, Ashland canyon and numerous huckleberry patches.

Medford Visitors—

Medames E. N. Warner and Joseph Turney, of Medford, attended the missionary pageant at the Presbyterian church yesterday evening.

Pennsylvania Tourists—

Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Walker, auto tourists from Pennsylvania, camped in the park Sunday and attended services at the Presbyterian church.

Oakland Visitors—

Mr. and Mrs. Merle Peters and son, of Oakland, Calif., have been visiting for the past week with Grandma Payne, 508 North Main street.

To Teach at Jacksonville—

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Hake and daughters drove to Jacksonville Saturday. Miss Nellie Hake will teach the primary department there this year.

Returns from Lake O' Woods—

Clark Butterfield, Orlando Nelson and Moreland Smith, members of the Boy Scout encampment at Lake O' Woods for the past week, returned yesterday as they expressed it, "on a donkey, one mule and a horse." The scouts assisted in planting the 10,000 black bass yesterday at the lake.

Returns to Seattle—

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Roach, who have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. Earl Roach and family, on Third street, left yesterday for their home in Tacoma, Wash. While here Mr. and Mrs. Roach made the trip to Crater Lake accompanied by Miss Virginia Roach. Albert and Earl Roach are brothers.

Vacationers at Lake O' Woods—

Mrs. T. L. Parvell and sister, Mrs. J. E. Welch, are spending a few days vacation at the Powell cottage at Lake O' Woods.

Return from Newport—

Miss Alleen Walker and Miss Pearl Wilshire returned yesterday from a two weeks vacation spent at "Newport-by-the-Sea," and Portland. They report a very enjoyable time.

Return from Lake O' Woods—

The Misses Hazel and Ethel Powell, in company with their uncle, A. C. ("Shorty") Patton, returned from an outing at Lake O' Woods yesterday.

Dead Indian Campers Return—

Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Wood and daughter, Viola, and Miss Mabel Roach have returned from a two weeks outing spent at Dead Indian soda springs.

Weather for the Week—

"Generally fair and normal temperature" is the weather prediction for the ensuing week by the weather bureau at Washington, D. C.

Falls Man Honored—

Marshall Hooper, the Klamath Falls banker and former state bank inspector, who is well known in Ashland, has been appointed by Charles Hall, president of the state chamber of commerce, as one of the three delegates at large from Oregon to attend the 1925 exposition conference at Portland September 8.

At Crater Lake—

Mr. and Mrs. William Briggs and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Robertson left yesterday for a trip to Crater Lake.

Remodels Home—

Frank Crowson has been doing some extensive remodeling on his home place on Eighth street.

Plant Fish at Lake O' Woods—

Louis Dodge and Harry Hosler accompanied Mr. Barron, manager of the Elk Creek hatchery, to Lake O' Woods yesterday for the purpose of planting the 10,000 black bass received here Saturday, in the lake. The party returned today.

Montague Visitors—

Mr. and Mrs. Pearl Rhughan, of Montague, passed through Ashland Saturday on their way to Grants Pass where they will visit Mrs. Rhughan's parents. Mr. and Mrs. Rhughan are former Ashland residents and are well known here.

Antelope Valley Visitor—

Andrew Gresson, of Antelope Valley, was in the city Friday on business.

Visitors from Yreka—

Mr. and Mrs. James Morgan, of Yreka, Calif., are visiting Mr. Morgan's parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. Morgan, on Mountain avenue.

John H. Fuller Returns—

John H. Fuller, secretary of the Chamber of Commerce, returned Saturday from Crescent City, Calif., where he has been spending the past several days.

Ardent Fishermen—

Bill Paul and Ben Bowers are ardent fishermen these days. Both anglers returned Saturday from below Table Rock on the Rogue river with a fine mess of steelhead.

Bend Visitors—

Mr. and Mrs. Horace Richards and daughter, Imogene, and son, Horace Jr., were visitors at the C. B. Lamkin home on East Main street last week. The party left here for Crater Lake Saturday. Mrs. Richards, who is a member of the Bend school board, is a niece of Mrs. Lamkin. Mrs. Richards visited the Ashland schools, stating that she was well pleased with the school system here, and that she had gained many new ideas for the Bend schools.

D. H. Barneburg III—

D. H. Barneburg is confined by illness to his home at 159 North Main street.

Move to Nutley Street—

Clint Dunlap, employee at the creamery, will soon move, his family to Nutley street surroundings, a location much more convenient to his work.

Afternoon Party—

Mrs. John H. Dill entertained yesterday afternoon in honor of the Bert R. Greer family who will leave September 1 for Southern California. Mr. Greer, editor of the Tidings, will return to Ashland after spending a week in Huntington Beach and Burbank, Calif. Guests at the party given by Mrs. Dill were: the William Barber family, F. Whittle family, Thomas Hudson, Miss Amy Ramsey, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Fraley, and Mr. and Mrs. Earl Fraley.

Moves to Ranch—

T. D. Le Masters, who recently sold his home at 108 Fifth street, is now residing on the Black ranch, north of Ashland.

Pear Shipment Nearly Over—

The Ashland Fruit and Produce association will load the last car of Bartlett pears for the cannery on Wednesday, August 30, and those interested are reminded to take notice.

Band Rehearsal—

According to the announcement of Director Leedom, the Ashland band will meet this evening at 7:30 o'clock for rehearsal at the city hall. Plans are being made for a concert in Lithia park Wednesday evening.

Returns from Alaska—

Miss Alpa Fritchhoff, domestic science teacher at O. A. C., is visiting Mrs. C. Guy Crosby. Miss Fritchhoff, who has just returned from Alaska, will spend a week in Ashland before leaving for Corvallis.

Ashland People Return—

Frank Porter and wife have returned to Ashland from Dunsmuir, Calif., where they have been living for some time.

Improvement on Ranch—

Frank Salisbury has installed a new windmill on his ranch across Bear creek.

Grasshoppers Are Pest—

The grasshopper crop is said to be quite prolific this year on the other side of Bear creek. They seemed to have tired of dry grass, according to reports, and are stripping the oak trees of their leaves as well as trimming up some of the orchards in that vicinity.

Visitors from Prineville—

Mrs. Ruth Fitzgerald and her two sons, Raymond and Clifford, came through Ashland last week from Prineville. They stopped over for a short visit with their relatives, the J. V. Wright family of Mountain avenue.

Roseburg Visitor—

William Creason, Fourth street, went to Roseburg recently on a business trip of a few days duration.

SATURDAY'S NEWS

Knew RZ-2 Victim—

The grim tragedy that overtook the American dirigible RZ-2 in England Wednesday, with a loss of 44 lives, finds an echo in this city. Attorney Frank P. Farrell knew Lieutenant Charles G. Little, of Newburyport, Mass., one of the victims. They served in the aviation branch of the navy together in the late war.—Medford Mail Tribune.

Back from Motoring Trip—

Rev. Walter A. Evans and family returned yesterday from a three days motoring trip to Crescent City.

Illinois Visitors—

Miss Vera Peterson and Miss Laura Withuhn, of Elgin, Ill., are visitors at the homes of Mrs. B. O. Wallgren on Second street.

Return from Marshfield—

After having a "sizeable good time" at Marshfield, Bob Warner and Hubert Bentley have returned from that place, none the worse after participation in the state "round up" of Elks.

Liberty Street Home Sold—

J. E. Wild, a new arrival from Frisco, Colo., has purchased the M. M. Murray home at 279 Liberty street. The deal was made through the E. E. Phipps realty agency. The Wild family will take immediate possession.

Move to Klamath Falls—

Mr. and Mrs. Mok Clark have moved to Klamath Falls, where Mr. Clark will remain with the Oskor Huber company.

Will Return from Crater Lake—

Miss Gertrude Troutfether, of Ashland, and the Misses Walters, Merle Clacy and Edna Burns, of Medford, will return tomorrow from Crater Lake, where they have been spending the past week. Referring to a hiking party up Mount Garfield, Miss Troutfether writes to friends here, "not again for $500." Friends concede that $500 isn't of quite the same value as it was in the "good old days," but, nevertheless, it is alleged that the sum will buy several postage stamps.

Returns from San Francisco—

Mrs. Anna Zeigler, North Main street, returned yesterday evening from San Francisco.

At Lake O' Woods—

Sam Jordan left yesterday for Lake

O' Woods where he will join Mrs. Jordan, who has been at the lake for the past three weeks. They are expected back the first of next week.

Leave for Crater Lake—

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Beck and David Whittle left yesterday morning for a few days vacation at Crater Lake.

Dennis Family Return Monday—

Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Dennis, who have been making an extensive auto tour of the northwest and eastern states, expect to arrive in Ashland this coming Monday, according to a letter received yesterday by their daughter, Mrs. J. L. Oskar.

Return from Lake O' Woods—

Dr. F. H. Johnson, with Miss Margaret and Miss Caroline Tilton, returned from the Lake O' Woods yesterday. They expect to go back about Tuesday. They report the scouts and everybody happy at that popular summer camp.

Returns from Frisco—

Miss J. C. Brady, 486 Allison street, has returned from San Francisco and Sacramento, Calif., where she has been spending a two weeks visit with friends and relatives.

Oakland Visitors—

Mrs. Nellie Conner, widow of the late John Conner, one time proprietor of the Hotel Oregon, now the Hotel Ashland, arrived yesterday from Oakland, Calif. Mrs. Conner will make a short visit with her son, D. R. Conner, before continuing on a trip to Salem, where she will visit friends. She will then go to Seattle, Wash., where she will join her mother who will return with Mrs. Conner to Oakland. Mrs. Conner is also visiting the Charles A. Pierce family.

Purchase Seventh Street Home—

C. R. Stewart and family arrived yesterday from San Diego, Calif., and took immediate possession of a home purchased by Mr. Stewart through the E. T. Staples realty agency, at 132 Seventh street. The property was formerly owned by Mrs. Mary Roylston.

Return from Diamond Lake—

M. McCurry, R. C. Stoner and B. M. Coffey have returned from a week's deer hunt at Diamond lake.

Leave for Sacramento—

Mrs. William Schaumloeffel and daughter, Elizabeth, left this morning for their home after a visit with Mrs. E. J. Van Zant.

Returns from Albany—

H. E. Stearns, proprietor of the Plaza Market, and family have returned from a two weeks motoring trip to their old home at Albany, where they visited Mrs. Stearns' parents.

To Crater Lake—

The redoubtable "Billy" Briggs, city attorney, has gone to Crater Lake for a few days vacation.

Visit Parents Here—

Misses Maude and Madge Putnam, of San Francisco, Calif., arrived in Ashland Thursday for a visit with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Putnam.

Grants Pass Visitors—

Mrs. C. M. Cline and her two sons, of Grants Pass, are visiting friends in Ashland.

Seattle Visitor—

Mrs. Larson, of Seattle, is the guest of O. E. Hurst and family on Beach street. Mrs. Larson used to own property on the Boulevard fourteen years ago, and has not been back since that time. She sees a great improvement in the city.

Moves to Main Street—

R. F. Brown and family, formerly living on Gresham street, are now located in the Henry White residence on East Main street.

Vacationers Return—

E. W. Flackus and family have returned from a two weeks vacation spent at Pacific Beach and other places of interest in the northern part of the state. They had an enjoyable trip.

Game Law Violators Fined—

Game Warden P. C. Bailey, who has been nosing around in the upper Rogue river region looking up fish and game violators, and one of the results of this trip was the arrest of C. A. Snyder of Fort Klamath for fishing without a license in the river in the Woodruff Meadows district. Snyder pleaded guilty and was fined $25 and costs of $2.50.

FRIDAY'S NEWS

Phone Service "Unsafe"—

The present telephone equipment and service in the city is unsafe according to a statement made before the city council recently by an inspector of the state telephone company. He stated that the company would share half of the expenses incidental to making improvements which would conform with the state regulations if the city would take the matter up. The matter was referred to a committee with power to act.

Return from Salt Lake—

Mrs. M. Gale has returned from an extended visit to Salt Lake City and expects to make her home here. For the present she is stopping at the Columbia hotel.

Move to B Street—

Frank Brown and wife are moving their furniture from the Beach place on Gresham street to one of the Blacklock houses on B street. They will return to Klamath Falls for a couple of months, after which they will make their home here.

Recovers from Illness—

Dale Leslie, son of Mr. and Mrs. I. D. Leslie, 591 Fairview street, who has been ill for the past several days, has recovered from his sickness.

Leave for Seattle—

Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Boslough, former residents on Allison street, have left for Seattle, Wash., where they will visit their daughter and afterwards continue on a trip to Denver, Colo., where they will visit their son.

Christian Workers Band Meets—

The Christian Workers Band held a business meeting in Lithia Park yesterday evening and outlined plans for several weeks ahead. Among other things they decided to hold a "song fest" at the Methodist church Sunday at 2:30 o'clock.

Eugene Visitors—

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Neil, of Eugene are visiting at the R. P. Neil home on Factory street. The two brothers are now on a hunting trip.

Portland Visitors—

Henry Beckner, his sister, Miss Lilly Beckner, and Miss Agnes Wesley, who have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. Yarbrough, 533 Seaside Drive, left yesterday for their home in Portland.

Venison Dinner Party—

Mrs. O. Winter entertained this week with a "venison party" by way of celebrating the hunting achievements of her son, Francis Winter, who brought in his first deer for the season. The guests were Mrs. Giddings and daughter, Mrs. Donnelly, Mrs. Van Sant and daughter, Mrs. Schaumloeffel and Misses Elizabeth and Nellie Russell.

Return from Coast Tour—

W. J. Wallace and wife returned Wednesday night from a month's trip along the coast. They left here with some friends who had been visiting them, and the whole party toured as far as British Columbia.

Business Trip to Frisco—

H. C. Chireth who recently sold his home at Union and Fairview streets, is on a business trip to San Francisco and various points south.

Overheard at the Elks' Club—

Ben Bowers said: "Wouldn't it be funny if John Kohagen said to Dr. Parsons, 'Ever hear the story of the dirty window?' and Dr. Parsons said, 'No,' and Kohagen said, 'No use to tell it, you couldn't see through it.'"

Return from Auto Trip—

J. O. Merrett and family have returned to their home, at 134 Nursery street, after a thirty-two day motoring trip in their Columbia Six to points in the northern part of the state.

Vallejo, Calif., Visitor—

Warren Lynch, a former resident of this city, now living at Vallejo, Calif., is a new arrival in Ashland and is visiting friends in this city and Talent, where he is well acquainted.

Recovers from Operation—

Wright Hicks is recovering from an operation at a local hospital, after having the metal plates removed from his limbs. Metal plates were placed in his limbs following an automobile accident about six years ago. Mr. Hicks has been working in California and returned to his home here for a visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Hicks, and to have the plates removed.

Huckleberry Pickers—

Fred Homes, the Boyd Tucker family and Mrs. Charles Homes are at Johnson's paradise picking huckleberries.

Thrown from Horse—

Mrs. Dan Watson has recovered from injuries sustained after being thrown from her horse, and later taken to the hospital in an unconscious condition. Mrs. Watson's baggage, who was riding on the front of the saddle at the time of the accident was uninjured.

Will Locate Here—

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Fish, who left this week for their old home at Chico, Calif., where they will straighten up business matters, will return to Ashland in time to place their children in school here beginning the new school year. The Fish family had been making an extended visit with friends and relatives in Central Point.

Campers to Dunsmuir—

Misses Ramona, Louise and Helen Harrell are at Dunsmuir, Calif., visiting their brothers. They are planning a three weeks camping trip near Dunsmuir.

Returns from Lake O' Woods—

J. D. Beeson has returned from Lake O' Woods where he has been engaged in construction work, having completed several cabins. The cabin being built for Miss Georgia Coffey was finished this week.

Medford Visitors—

Misses Emma and Minnie Borchardt were business visitors in the city yesterday from Medford.

Deer Hunt on Unipqua River—

O. W. Long, an employee of the Southern Pacific company, left yesterday for the "big sticks" on the Unipqua river for venison.

O. A. C. Professor Here—

Professor J. R. Honner, O. A. C., and family were business visitors in Ashland yesterday. They are returning to their home at Corvallis, after an extended motoring trip in eastern Oregon.

Visits Mother Here—

Mrs. Sweet and her sister-in-law, Mrs. Lloyd Goodyear, of Santa Rosa, Calif., are visiting the former's mother, Mrs. Robert Goodyear, of this city.

May Locate Here—

Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Foster, of Nyssa, who have been considering the purchase of property in this city, left for Roseburg yesterday. They stated that they may return to this city with plans for locating here.

Takes Vacation—

Charles Rose, of Rose Brothers confectionary, has announced his intention of spending a two weeks vacation at Lake O' Woods, beginning today. Dwight Gregg will preside over the drinks and other related business affairs during the absence of Mr. Rose.

Dr. Maude Hawley Visits—