SUIT IN EQUITY FOR A DIVORCE

In the Circuit Court, in and for the County of Jackson, State of Oregon.

Pearl Spencer, Plaintiff, vs.

Lester H. Spencer, Defendant.

To Lester H. Spencer, the above named defendant:

In the Name of the State of Oregon, you are hereby required to appear and answer the complaint of the plaintiff on file in the above entitled cause with the Clerk of Court, Jackson County, Oregon, at the court house in Jacksonville, Oregon, within six weeks from the date of the first publication of this summons.

You are further notified, that in case you fail to appear and answer the complaint of the plaintiff on file in said cause within six weeks from the date of said first publication, that the plaintiff will apply to the court for the relief demanded in the complaint, namely, that the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between plaintiff, Pearl Spencer, and defendant, Lester H. Spencer, be dissolved, and that plaintiff be given the custody and control of the two minor children, Dorothy Spencer and La Verne Spencer, and that defendant be ordered to contribute $25.00 a month toward the support of the two minor children and $25.00 a month toward the support of the above named plaintiff.

This summons is served upon you by publication by order of the Honorable F. M. Calkins, Judge of the said court, made and dated August 29, 1921, and by said order you are required to answer within six weeks from the date of the first publication of this summons in the Ashland Weekly Tidings.

Date of First Publication: September 7, 1921.

BRIGGS & BRIGGS,
Attorneys for Plaintiff.
Postoffice address: Ashland, Oregon.

Distribution of State Bonus To Veterans of World War

Blank Forms

4. Blank forms necessary for the administration of the act shall be prepared in the office of the commission, and distributed by the secretary to such individuals as are entitled thereto, and through such agencies as may be authorized by the commission. Such forms, together with the instructions printed thereon, shall have the same force and effect as these regulations.

5. All claims for benefits under the act shall be made on the proper blank forms furnished by the commission, and shall be supported by such evidence as may be required by the commission.

6. The following basic forms shall be furnished each person who claims to be eligible for the benefits of the act:

Form SAC-1. Application for cash bonus or loan (for veterans only).

Form SAC-2. Relatives application for bonus (for relatives of deceased veterans only).

Form SAC-3. Application for loan on city or town property.

Form SAC-4. Application for loan on farm property.

7. The appropriate form from the following shall be furnished to each person who has established eligibility and who has indicated his desire for a loan under the provisions of the act:

Form SAC-2. Application for loan on city or town property.

Form SAC-3. Application for loan on farm property.

Verification

8. Initial applications shall be carefully checked under the supervision of the secretary with all available records, to verify the truth and accuracy of the statements made therein, and to determine the applicant's eligibility, length and quality of service, residence and proper deductions.

Proof of Service and Residence

9. Applicant's original discharge or "certificate in lieu of lost discharge," issued by the war or navy department, or original order of discharge containing all endorsements, or order placing applicant on inactive duty, must be attached to the initial application. In addition to discharge or order of discharge, persons who served as commission officers shall furnish a certificate of service from the war or navy departments. These documents will be returned by registered mail as soon as the claim is disposed of by the commission.

10. In cases where a verification of the answers to the questions contained in the initial application shows actual residence of applicant as within the state of Oregon at time of entering service, and that enlistment, induction, warrant or commission occurred within the state of Oregon, and that applicant received travel pay to some place in Oregon at the time of discharge, completion of the affidavits incorporated in the application will be deemed sufficient proof of such residence at time of entering service.

11. In cases where a verification of the answers to the questions contained in the initial application show that the applicant was enlisted, inducted, warranted or commissioned, or registered for the draft in another state, but application claims actual residence in Oregon at the time of such registration or entry into the service, in addition to the affidavits incorporated in the application, applicants must furnish such other proofs of residence as may be required by the commission.

Deductions

12. Where answers to questions in the initial application indicate that the applicant has received educational aid from the state of Oregon, the amount so received will be verified from the records in the office of the secretary of state, and deducted from the amount of cash bonus or loan the applicant is entitled to receive; provided, that if any such money has been refunded by the applicant to the state or Oregon, the amount so refunded will be credited to the applicant before the deduction is made.

13. If the applicant desires the cash bonus and the answers to the questions in the initial application indicate that applicant has applied for or received a bonus or gratuity from another state or country or extra compensation from any source for service in the war between the United States and the German empire and its allies, the amount so received will be verified by the sec-adequate supply of necessary blanks forms published by the commission and of all instructions circulated by the commission, and shall furnish free assistance and advice to applicants in regard to the provisions of the law and making application for the benefits thereof.

24. Each attorney shall carefully examine all abstracts or certificates of title insurance referred to him by the commission, and shall report his findings to the commission.

25. If examination of the abstract or certificate of title insurance shows satisfactory title, the attorney will accomplish the execution of all necessary instruments, cause same to be recorded, where required and have abstract or certificate of title insurance including record of mortgage, extended to date. Applicant will be required to furnish the necessary fire insurance policies and deliver the same to the attorney. The attorney will forward to the commission, together with his final report on examination of title, all abstracts, certificates, title instruments, notes, mortgages, insurance policies or other documents pertaining to the case.

26. If first examination of the abstract or certificate of title insurance shows defective title the attorney will inform the applicant of the defects and if applicant so requests will hold case in abeyance for a period of not to exceed ninety days, pending correction of defects by the applicant. All such cases will be reported promptly by the attorney to the commission.
