

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

SATURDAY'S NEWS

Improves Home— G. O. Howard is making some extensive improvements about his home on Gresham street, which he recently purchased...

Hunters Return—

Messrs. Hoyt, Robinson, Henry Bailey and Robert Casey have returned from a week's hunting trip in the region of Red Mountain...

Overheard at the Elks' Club—

Glen Simpson said to Hubert Bentley, "Ever hear the story of the three eggs?"

Garage Deal Made—

The Class A garage, in the Hotel Ashland building, was sold Monday of this week to Harold Prose, a local man formerly employed in Enders' department store...

Former Resident Visits—

John Zimmerman, a former Ashland resident, and his son-in-law, Charles Laughlam, of Turlock, Calif., arrived yesterday and are visiting friends here...

Portland Visitor—

K. W. Withers, of the Pacific Coast Adjustment company at Portland, was in the city yesterday on business connected with the Billings agency.

Ranch Visitor—

Clarke Hamaker was in the city yesterday from his ranch just outside the city limits, assisting in the construction of a small building at the home of his son, Mark Hamaker...

At Jacksonville—

Mrs. I. D. Applegate is at Jacksonville, spending a two weeks visit with Mrs. H. H. Sargent.

Return from Josephine Caves—

Ben Howe, of the Plaza market, and Mr. Sperry, who have been spending the last two weeks in the vicinity of Josephine Caves, near Grants Pass, hunting for deer, returned yesterday—without the deer.

Oklahoma Arrival—

H. H. Taylor, of Lawton, Okla., is a recent Ashland arrival and has taken a position with the East Side market. Mr. Taylor expects his family to arrive in Ashland early next month.

Medford Arrival—

Louis Crane, of Medford, has accepted a position at the Square Deal grocery. Mr. Crane has been in the employ of the Marsh grocery store before coming here.

Return from Portland—

M. M. Murray, wife and children, who have just returned from Portland and are on their way to Arizona, were dinner guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Greenwood Wednesday.

FRIDAY'S NEWS

Leaves for Eugene— Miss Bernice Myers left this morning for Eugene, where she will enter the state university for the coming school year.

Duck Hunters Return—

Frank Barnhouse and Arthur Troutfether have returned from Klamath county after a week's duck hunting expedition.

Leaves for Eugene—

William McMillan left today for Eugene where he will attend the University of Oregon.

First Oregon Apple Sale—

The first car of Oregon apples to be sold at auction in the east this season realized good prices.

York and as the supply fixed apples available was limited and the demand good, the market was a firm one. The prices obtained on the Oregon fruit were: Extra fancy, large, $4.25 @ 4.65; medium, $3.50 @ 4; small, $2.60 @ 3.25; fancy, large, $3.50 @ 3.75; small to medium, $2.50 @ 3.25; choice, large, $3.25 @ 3.55; small to medium, $2.50 @ 3.

To Apopkin Fair Board—

Action taken at a recent meeting of the Chamber of Commerce directors calling for the appointment of a board of twenty-five directors for the coming winter fair.

Smith-Hughes Worker Arrives—

Miss Bertha Davis, state supervisor for the Smith-Hughes work in dressmaking classes, arrived in Ashland yesterday to confer with the Parent-Teachers association in charge of the local dressmaking classes.

Medford Visitor—

Alice Poor, of Medford, has been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph C. Poor, 187 Sherman street, for the past week.

Missionary Society Entertained—

Mrs. Hattie Silaby was hostess to the Presbyterian women's missionary society yesterday. A very interesting and enthusiastic meeting was held.

First Jackson County Baby—

At the recent pioneers' meeting at Ashland it was stated that the first white boy born in Jackson county was Basil Derry, who was born March 20, 1853.

To Give Dinner Armistice Day—

The Wednesday Afternoon club is planning an Armistice Day dinner, November 11, in lieu of the dinner or entertainment formerly given February 22.

Taken to Portland Hospital—

E. Marcey who has been ill for some time, is in a Portland hospital. Mr. Marcey, proprietor of the Overland garage, was accompanied to Portland by Mrs. Marcey on Monday of this week.

Visit at Klamath Falls—

Mr. and Mrs. Emil Peil and Miss Grace Chamberlain were visitors at Klamath Falls recently. Miss Chamberlain states that Klamath Falls club women are enthusiastic over the Ashland idea of a community house.

Returns from California—

Benjamin Balis has returned from Dunsmuir, Calif., where he was called by the death of his sister's husband, George Mueller, a former employe of the Southern Pacific company.

Return from Crater Lake—

Mr. and Mrs. Linn Slack, Miss Gladys Inlow and "Bill" McMillan made a trip to Crater Lake, leaving home Tuesday morning and returning Wednesday evening.

Move to Merrill—

The Newman family has moved to Merrill, where they occupy their ranch home. Clay Sugg recently took a truck load of the Newman furniture to Merrill.

Eight Pound Baby Boy—

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hall, B Street, are the happy parents of an eight pound baby boy that arrived at the Hall home this morning.

through the agency of Mrs. S. L. Allen, real estate dealer. F. R. Ross, father of the owner, will take immediate charge of the property with the intention of making several improvements. The new owner purchased the home for an investment.

Local Man Makes Seattle Address—

Professor H. G. Gilmore was one of the main speakers at a meeting of the Amphion male chorus, of Seattle, Wash., according to an extended account of the affair published in a Seattle newspaper.

Return from Outing Trip—

The Shepard and McKee families have returned from a five days outing and motoring trip spent in the vicinity of Shasta Springs.

J. H. Fuller to Attend State Fair—

John H. Fuller, secretary of the Chamber of Commerce, has announced his intention of attending the Oregon state fair at Salem.

Jesse Winburn Returns—

Jesse Winburn returned to the Hotel Ashland yesterday afternoon after an extended motoring trip to Seattle, Wash., and other northern points.

Local Pastor Speaks at Medford—

Rev. W. Judson Oldfield addressed the Medford Chamber of Commerce at a forum luncheon Wednesday, on the duty of the citizen to the Chamber of Commerce.

Moves to Reed Apartments—

Mrs. Anna Russell, formerly at 104 Third street, has taken apartments at the Reed apartments, over the Eastern Supply company.

Alaskan Visitors—

Mr. and Mrs. Hanta, prominent business people of Haines, Alaska, arrived in Ashland yesterday and made a short visit with Miss Evelyn Danford.

THURSDAY'S NEWS

Former Coach at Roseburg—

Charles King, former athletic coach at the local high school, and later of Medford, has moved to Roseburg where he will take up his duties at the high school of that city.

Leaves for Los Angeles—

Mrs. C. P. Good, of Los Angeles, who has been visiting at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Arnold, for the past three weeks, left this evening for Los Angeles.

Leave for U. of O.—

Misses Mary Moore, Kee Buchanan and Bernice Yeo, and Edgar Buchanan and Melvin Kaegi left this morning in Dr. W. E. Buchanan's auto for Eugene, where they will attend the university the coming year.

To Teach at Riddle—

Miss Ruth York will leave Ashland next week for Riddle, Ore., where she will teach school during the coming year.

Move to Dunsmuir—

Mrs. J. B. Duncan, with her mother, have rented their home on Hardman street, and have moved to Dunsmuir, Calif., for a time.

Moves to Douglas County—

Vernon Recker, who lives on Eighth street, has rented his place and gone north to join his wife who has been in Douglas county for several weeks past.

To Winter in California—

Wilmer Foley and family and Mr. Foley's mother expect to go to California next month to spend the winter.

Return from Salem—

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Guiley recently returned to Ashland from Salem, where Mr. Guiley has been employed during the summer.

Former Resident to Return—

Mr. and Mrs. Dale Guiley, of Sunnyside, Wash., are expected in Ashland soon. Mr. and Mrs. Guiley formerly lived in this vicinity and it is understood that they are returning here to live.

Motorists to Return—

The W. A. Cooper family, who left Ashland recently on an extended

motor trip, arrived at their destination, Grangerville, Ida., Friday of last week. They are expected to return to Ashland within a short time.

Recovers from Illness—

Mrs. Phoebe Wright, who has been very ill at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Hattie Lynch, for several months, has got able to return to her home where she is being cared for by Mrs. Ada Clark.

Heirloom Stolen—

A sneak thief entered Mr. C. O. Johnson's home on Fifth street Tuesday night and stole some valuable jewelry. One article was an heirloom which Mrs. Johnson cherished very highly.

Moves to Main Street—

Mr. MacMichael, who has been living in housekeeping apartments at the home of Mrs. Phoebe Wright, on Liberty street, during the summer, has moved to East Main. His children have come from the coast and will attend school here this winter.

Leave for California—

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Rowe, of Vallejo, Calif., who have been visiting in Ashland and vicinity for a few days, left for their home Tuesday.

Repainting Home—

Mr. Wild, who recently purchased the Murray residence, is having the house repainted. Mr. Wild and family are new people here, but are already so well pleased with our city and vicinity that they have also purchased the Whytock ranch about two and a half miles out of town.

Time for Duck Shooting—

The state game commission has issued a warning that hunters must observe standard time of sunrise and sunset in the shooting of ducks and geese, and not the visibility. According to the game commission the sun is not up or down until the almanac says so.

Complete Rocky Point Road—

Chris Natwick, who has the contract from the county court for the graveling of the Rocky Point road in the Trail district, reports that the work will be completed this week.

Takes Auto Trip—

Miss Estelle Jones, who was librarian during the summer months during Miss Hicks' absence, is taking an auto trip now for a vacation. She is accompanied by her mother.

Leaves for Silverton—

Miss Ethel Freeman, who has been spending the summer in Ashland with relatives, left last evening for Silverton, where she will be employed as teacher in the schools.

Improves Home—

Mike Morgan is making a number of improvements on his home place, 351 North Main.

Million Homes Improved—

W. B. Million is making extensive improvements on his already attractive home at 603 Lower Oak street.

Visit Friends Here—

Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Murray, who sold their residence on Liberty street a short time ago and made a trip to Portland in their new auto, arrived in this city yesterday. After a few days' visit with friends here, they will continue their journey to Arizona, where they will spend the winter.

Loveland to Direct Band—

Carl Loveland has again taken charge of the Ashland band, following his recent return from Seattle, Wash. The band was under the direction of L. L. Landon during Mr. Loveland's absence.

WEDNESDAY'S NEWS

Former Resident Visits—

Mrs. Dawson Fortis, of Santa Barbara, Calif., is here for a two weeks visit with friends and relatives. She will be remembered as Miss Gusie Uptagraff.

Attend California School—

The Misses Ruth and Alice Brown write that they are very pleasantly installed in their winter quarters at San Jose, Calif., and are taking up their school work.

Delegation to Klamath Falls—

Rev. Charles A. Edwards, H. T. Elmore, George M. Frost, and John H. Fuller, secretary of the Chamber of Commerce, left at 10:20 o'clock this morning for Klamath Falls, where they will represent Ashland at a forum luncheon entertainment of Medford business men tomorrow noon by the Klamath Falls Chamber of Commerce. The carrying out of the scenic loop project will be discussed at the luncheon. Ashland business men will be tendered an official reception at a later date not yet set in reciprocation of the recent forum luncheon given for the Klamath Falls business men at the Hotel Ashland.

Form Two C. E. Societies—

The Endeavor society of the Christian church met Sunday, with the result that there are now two societies instead of one. A senior class of twenty-one members, and an intermediate class of twenty-seven. They expect soon to have a junior society also.

To Leave for Eugene—

Edgar and Kee Buchanan and Bernice Yeo, all graduates of the Ashland high school with the class of 1921, will leave tomorrow for Eugene, where they will enter the University of Oregon.

Teaching at Eagle Point—

Miss Hazel Green is teaching at Eagle Point, and Miss Inez Reeder at Norton, Ore., this year, after graduating from the Ashland high school where they completed the teaching course.

Co-Ed Entertained—

A group of friends of Miss Bernice Yeo gathered at the home of Mrs. Perozzi and gave a delightful supper and shower for Miss Yeo, who leaves shortly for the University of Oregon. Those present were: Mrs. Yeo and Miss Bernice, Misses Margaret Johnson, Jessie Guthrie, Margaret Campbell, Caroline Tilton, Lucille and Thelma Perozzi, and Mrs. Perozzi.

Visit Relatives in Portland—

Claude Saunders, following the return of his father, "Doc" Saunders, from Portland, is now in the northern metropolis visiting relatives. Claude is indefinite as to the time he will be gone, having planned on a visit with friends in Tacoma, Wash. "Doc" Saunders reports prosperous business conditions and extensive building in Portland.

To Leave for Eugene—

Miss Mary Moore, 364 Vista street, will leave tomorrow for Eugene, where she will attend the University of Oregon.

New Civic Club Member—

Mrs. T. J. Coffman, wife of the new proprietor of the Hotel Ashland, was presented as a new member of the Civic Improvement club at the noon luncheon of that organization yesterday.

Leaves for California—

L. J. Orres left today for points in Northern California on a three days business trip.

Grants Pass Visitors—

W. A. Sharp and R. A. Dozier were Ashland business visitors from Grants Pass yesterday, frequenting local real estate offices.

Ranch Visitor—

Boyd Tucker, rancher seven miles east of Ashland, was in the city yesterday purchasing supplies. Mrs. Tucker and daughter started work Monday in a fruit packing plant at Medford.

Load Exhibit Car—

A car load of Jackson county exhibits for the state fair was loaded yesterday, and left this morning for Salem. E. R. Oatman, the county fruit inspector, who will have charge of the exhibits during the fair, left with his wife by auto this forenoon for Salem. While the car load of exhibits left this morning, supplementary exhibits will be expressed to Salem next Saturday evening.

Returns to Medford—

Mrs. J. C. Clark, who has been visiting Ashland friends for the past several days, has returned to her home in Medford.

MONDAY'S NEWS

Drain Visitor—

Dr. H. A. Canfield, of Drain, was a Saturday visitor at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Garrett, on Manzanita street. Mrs. Canfield has been visiting her parents for the past week. Dr. and Mrs. Canfield left Sunday morning for their home at Drain.

Return from Fresno—

M. J. Love, employe of the S. P. company, returned Friday from San Francisco, where he has been in the company hospital for four weeks. His health is much improved.

Prospectors Return—

Will Patton, J. E. Welch and Alex Lilligreen returned Saturday from a ten days' hunting and prospecting trip down through Josephine county and as far as Crescent City.

Called by Father's Death—

Mr. J. E. Welch, of this city, was called to Portland Saturday by a telegram announcing the death of his father, J. W. Welch, of that city. Mr. Welch was a prominent Odd Fellow and had been a resident of Portland for a number of years.

To Undergo Operation—

Mrs. Julius P. Wolff, 536 E street, entered the Sacred Heart hospital at Medford Sunday, where she will undergo an operation.

Army Planes Pass—

Eight army De Havilland planes of the government forest patrol service passed over the city Saturday en route from Eugene to Mather field at Sacramento, Calif. The ten remaining planes of Eugene will return to Mather field the first of next month.

Portland Pastor Visits—

Rev. J. C. Austin, of Portland, assistant director of the Baptist board of promotion for the Baptist state convention, delivered the Sunday sermon at the local Baptist church yesterday.

Bear Hunters Return—

David Peterson and E. Dougherty have returned from a week's hunting trip and now are feasting on venison and 250 pounds of "one bear."

Russell Picture Exhibit at K. Falls—

A picture of a blazing forest fire painted by Mabel Russell, of Ashland, was taken to Klamath Falls by the Ashland delegation which attended the recent forum luncheon in that city, and hung in the dining room of the Klamath Chamber of Commerce, where it received much favorable comment.

Duck Season October 1—

The duck hunting season will open October 1 and not twenty days later than that date, as believed by some sportsmen, according to Captain A. E. Burghuff, state game warden. The deer hunting season closes October 20 and some sportsmen have confused that date with the opening of the duck season. All prospects are for an excellent duck season, according to the game authorities.

Returns to California—

Dawson Foster, of Santa Barbara, Calif., has been a visitor with home folks of late. Her husband, Dawson Foster, is salesman in a leading shoe establishment in that California town.

Returns to Los Angeles—

Mrs. Susie Arnold Good has returned to Los Angeles after an extended stay with the home folks, her mother having been seriously ill.

Injured in Runaway—

Lou Grisson, farmer, near Lake Creek, sustained a broken leg and numerous bruises Saturday when a team of horses he was driving became frightened and ran away. Mrs. D. N. Davis, accompanied by a local doctor, left Ashland Saturday evening for the Grisson home. Mr. Grisson is the son-in-law of Mr. and Mrs. D. N. Davis.

Hunters at Big Elk—

Among a party of hunters who have spent the last two weeks-end hunting at Big Elk were Ike Fridegar, Henry Enders, Nate Bates and A. Ross. The first time Enders succeeded in wounding a buck and lost him after following the trail for a hundred yards. But yesterday the only experience they had worth mentioning was running into a rain-storm.

To Attend State Fair—

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Hinthorne left this morning by auto on a motoring and vacation trip in the northern part of the state. Mr. and Mrs.

Hinthorne, who expects to be gone two weeks, will attend the Oregon state fair at Salem.

Friday Afternoon Club Meets—

The Friday Afternoon club was entertained Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. J. R. Lilly, Union street. Those present besides the hostess were: Messdames O. W. Long, Walter Prulan, C. A. Cotter, Dyrud, H. C. Emery, Guy Jacobs, Mark Smith, Joseph Poor, Love, O. H. Hedburg and Frank Nelson.

Portland Visitors—

Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Ward, of Portland, were over-Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Coffman, of the Ashland hotel. They are old-time friends of the Coffmans.

Singular Prune Seedling Queried—

Bert Freeman sent a sample of a seedling silver prune that grows in his yard, at 261 Oberlin street, to Corvallis by his brother, Rolley, when he went up to school last week. It is seldom that a seedling shows the characteristics of the parent in its fruit, but this specimen is rich in flavor and as large as the fruit of the parent.

Motor to Copco, Calif.—

Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Long and Mrs. J. R. Lilly motored to Copco, Calif., yesterday for a visit with Raymond Long, who is employed there as an electric operator by the Oregon-California Power company.

Dinner Party Entertainment—

Mrs. F. H. Walker, 419 Liberty street, was the hostess at a dinner party given Friday evening at her home in honor of Mrs. Walker's sister, Mrs. Grace Dreyes, who will leave soon for her home in Baldwin, Mich. Mrs. Dreyes had been visiting in Ashland during the summer months. Cards and musical selections featured the evening's entertainment. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Greenwood, Mr. and Mrs. James Rudd, Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Watkins, Mr. and Mrs. Olsen and daughter, E. K. Hall, Mrs. Julia Van Wegen, Mrs. Lulu Wilson and daughter, Janet; Mrs. Grace Dreyes and Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Walker, son Frank and daughter Janie.

To Winter in Ashland—

Mrs. N. Z. Stewart from Hill, Cal., has moved to Ashland for the winter and has taken apartments on B street. Mr. Stewart works for the Fruit Growers Supply Co., and has been transferred to Susanville, Cal., where the same company has extensive interests.

Missionary Workers to Meet—

The women of the Presbyterian church who wish to study the new book, "The Why and How of Foreign Missions," are invited to meet at Mrs. Shinn's, 174 Oak street, Thursday, 2:30. Mrs. James Rudd, class leader, is preparing thoroughly to make this a profitable class. If you want a book, phone to Mrs. C. W. Nims. They are 50 cents, paper cover. If you don't care to buy a book, come anyway and listen. Bring your sewing and come anyway.

Guild to Meet—

The Westminster guild will meet next Sunday evening at 6:30 o'clock at the Presbyterian manse. The meeting will be the first to be held since the closing of summer vacation.

Returns from Business Trip—

L. J. Orres has returned from a few days' business trip spent at points in northern California.

Hill Visitors—

Jens Hagar and John Larson, of Hill, Calif., have been in Ashland for the past few days on business. They will return to Hill tomorrow morning.

Oregon Banking Laws

are designed to meet the problems of the citizens of this particular state.

This state-chartered bank carries out not only the letter but the spirit of these banking laws.

The Citizens Bank Ashland, Oregon