What will not luxury use?
Earth, sea and air
Are daily ransacked for the bill of fare.—Gay.

If the powers collaborating with the United States in the arms conference do not bow to the line of sincerity and good faith as to the great issues before the conference,
the United States will not hesitate about letting the world know the unpleasant truth.

Roy Gardner lost all claim to public sympathy when he showed that he was insincere in his promise to reform. The only place for Gardner is prison. He would be a public menace at large. To turn him loose would be to put a premium upon crime.

The would-be revolutionists in Mexico do not seem to be able to put the "rise" in uprising. President Obregon is wielding an effectually firm hand in governing, down
there.

China comes before the arms conference with ten points. She perhaps remembered the unlucky "fourteen points" and kept the number
down.

That proposed naval holiday will be the world's Fourth of July, Thanksgiving and Christmas all rolled into one.

High Surtax Holds

The person with an income of $200,000 a year or more must pay
one-half of income into the United States treasury. This is the decision of congress, although President Harding has urged a maximum rate
of not more than 40 per cent surtax. The house voted to accept the senate rate of 50 per cent.

The division on this proviso of the tax-revision bill was not rigidly partisan. It was more sectional and class, than partisan. The agricultural bloc of the Middle West and the Far West voted almost solidly for the 50 per cent rate. Republicans joined with democrats in this.
Representatives of the granger states arrayed themselves on the side of high taxes for those of swollen incomes.

President Harding's argument
was, in effect, that a very high surtax, would yield less revenue than a more moderate rate, and also that a heavy surtax would tend to discourage business investments and industrial activities. The house, however, went counter to the president in this, and agreed to the high rate already voted by the senate.

The effect of this rigorous surtax will be watched with interest. Even though it may have dampening effect on business and industry, it will be beneficial, on the whole, for the country to know what revised tax rates are to be, though they may not be altogether satisfactory. Uncertainty about rates plays more harmful with economic activities than would the rates themselves, be they ever so high.

FIRST COMPANY MASQUERADE BALL IS BIG SUCCESS

At the First Company's masquerade ball at the Armory last night, prizes for the most elaborate costumes were awarded to C. E. Heath, who appeared as a Japanese gentleman; Mrs. Dorothy Plymate, Turkish lady; Mr. and Mrs. Harry Silver, Spanish don and senora; Mrs. Henry Carter, Mrs. Benton Bowers, Jr., Mrs. Carl McCune and Miss Evelyn Paddock, as chanteuse. For the best grotesque costumes, prizes were given to W. E. Leer, who imitated Charlie Chaplin; Florence Thompson, the Dice lady, and Francis Winters and Miss Hazen, Hot Tamales.

The patrons and patronesses, who acted as judges, were Messrs and Mesdames H. T. Elmore, Victor Mills, and Sylvan Provost, and Mrs. T. J. Coffman.

The decorations consisted of colored streamers forming a canopy above the dance hall and women artistically around the windows, rich reds and yellows being in keeping with the season.

The event was thoroughly enjoyed by both dancers and spectators, who lingered until the "wee sma' hours" of the night.

The scene of festivities. The spacious drill hall was a veritable kaleidoscope of color as the throng of gaily dressed merry-makers tripped the light fantastic to the seductive strains of the Loveland orchestra.

In keeping with the occasion, the musicians were all dressed in outlandish costumes, which did not prevent them from furnishing unusually fine dance music. The numerous solos sung by Mr. Loveland through a megaphone were especially appreciated.

Crowns, cowboys and Mexicans seemed to predominate among the men, while fairies, Turkish ladies, gypsies and Spanish señoritas ap-

BALING UNDER WAY AT TRIGONIA WELLS

The work of baling out the Trigonía well began Saturday afternoon, and oil gas and water started flowing, causing a rumor in the evening that oil had been struck.

For a time owing to gas pressure, the water bubbled over the top of the casing like an artesian well. As soon as the water was shut off the work of drilling will continue. A fine showing of oil has been made.

Health Brings Beauty A Pretty Skin Follows Good Blood

Peshastin, Washington—"When I was about fourteen years of age I had an operation for appendicitis and the doctors said it would retard development until I was 18 or 19 years of age, but I heard how good Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription was for young girls so I took four bottles of it and came into womanhood within a year. Then I started getting healthy and strong. Before I took Dr. Pierce's medicines I weighed only 72 pounds—now I weigh 107. Later in life I took a breaking-out on my face. I wrote to Dr. Pierce and he advised me to take the 'Golden Medical Discovery'. I took two bottles of it and my skin is as smooth as I could wish for. I would like to tell every sufferer about Dr. Pierce's great medicines."—Miss E. L. Carroll, Box 24.

Write Dr. Pierce's Invalids' Hotel in Buffalo, N. Y., for free medical advice or send 10c for trial package of any of his medicines.

THE RIGHT THING AT THE RIGHT TIME

By MARY MARSHALL DUFFEE

Behavior is a mirror in which every one displays his image.—Goethe.

THE housing problem is a bigger one now than it has ever been before in this country. Therefore a good many of us are either buying or building houses and we are coming up against unaccustomed problems.

The first thing to remember, whether you buy a house from a total stranger or from your next-door neighbor, is that the transaction is purely one of business. It should be carried on in an absolutely businesslike way. Just because you know the man you are buying the house from is no reason why you should not have everything about it put down in the legal form. And just because the man who is buying the house from you is a friend of yours is no reason why you should feel any offense because he wants to be purely businesslike about the transaction.

On the other hand, the well-bred buyer or seller of a house tries always to do the courteous thing. If you are selling a house and know that it would be a great convenience to those who buy it to take possession a few days ahead of the specified time, let them do so if you can manage to.

Remember when you sell a house that the garden goes with it. If you want to transplant any of your favorite flowers after the house is sold it is the courteous thing to ask permission of the persons you have sold it to. And remember that once the deed is signed everything about the house belongs not to you, who have sold it even though you are still living in it, but to the person who has bought it. And although you are entitled to live in it until the date agreed upon, you are not entitled to take anything away from it that goes with the house.

When you buy a new home it is quite probable that your friends will want to see it. The best way to avoid unpleasant feeling and to make matters easy for you is to specify a given date when you will be at home in the new house. It is even sometimes a good plan to give an informal tea or at-home to welcome your friends to your new house and thus to give them a chance to see it.

WOMEN OF OTHER LANDS

Belgian women have been employed in the railway, postal and telegraph services since 1882.

Japanese women do the painting and decorating of the thousands of fragile toys that the country exports.

CREPE AND VELVET

Favorite Fabrics Beautified by the Use of Lace.

Afternoon Frocks Are Shown Plain
and Sometimes With Beads—Side Drapes Used.

Crepe, velvets and brocades are specialties of one manufacturer. Several of their black evening gowns are made up with lace, while afternoon frocks are shown plain and sometimes with beads.

Side drapes of lace, which extend from the shoulder to the hem and form tiny sleeves, characterize a black costume of canton crepe which has inserts of the same lace in straight lines down the front. A navy canton crepe has side drapes formed of squares of double crepe heavily beaded in red. Lines of the same beads outline the collar, cuffs and shoulders.

Three tiers of white crystal beads in long loops cover the entire skirt of a canton crepe gown built on straight lines. One tier of loops covers the waist, supplemented with bands of designs in the beads. A black chiffon velvet with long bodice straight in front and gathered at the sides, features a curved hem, longer at the sides than in the back and front.

In brocaded chiffon, two deep turquoise frocks are shown, one with a scalloped tunic over an underskirt of the same color in charmeuse, and the other with the flower design of the brocade on the lower part of the skirt emphasized by blue beads.

A dress with a separate cape is shown in brown canton crepe. The bodice is long waisted and plain with a corded belt and long side panels. The cape is of the same color and also plain, except for the corded border of the wide collar and the bottom.

COLLAR AND POCKETS OF FUR

Live cat collar and two big pockets of the same fur, give a unique touch to this winsome street suit.

FAVORITE SHADES FOR HATS

Fuchsia Tints Prominent in Display of Millinery—Drooping Feather to Be Seen Again.

Lovely and varied are fuchsia shades seen in the autumn display of millinery. American Beauty, too, bright and becoming, takes a prominent place. Shapes are large and small alike. In trimmings there are beads and embroidery, and the high front effect is quite noticeable.

There are modifications of the tri-corn shape, and Spanish effects in trimmings that include dangling earrings. The drooping feather will be seen again this winter. Even kid is included in the trimmings, one very attractive shape of navy blue velvet having kid morning glories in blue covering the upturned brim. A large picture hat is charming in fuchsia shades, with panne velvet facings in lighter shade. French velvet flowers are fastened round the graceful, slightly drooping brim. Spanish draped effects are also featured, and delicate figured veils will be much worn. A graceful hat is a toque of fuchsia duvety, with a glycerized ostrich feather mount.

The total stress of the wires in a Steinway piano is equivalent to a weight of 72,000 pounds.
