

Local and Personal

(From Monday's Daily)

High School Basketball—The Ashland high school basketball team will play the Talent high school team at the local high school gymnasium Tuesday evening.

Ladies Aid Will Meet

The ladies aid of the M. E. church will hold a business and social meeting at the home of Mrs. Van Fossen on North Main street Wednesday afternoon.

Chamber Commerce Luncheon

Ben Scovell, dramatic reader and humorous entertainer, will be the principal speaker at the Chamber of Commerce luncheon at the Hotel Ashland Tuesday.

Annual Banquet

The annual banquet of the chamber of commerce will be held Tuesday evening, January 24 at the Armory.

Epworth League

Prof. I. C. Wilson lead the Epworth League Sunday evening. The subject was "Campus Life" and pertained to the influence that the church has over the lives of college students and the help that it gives along this line. Miss Caroline Tilton delighted the leaguers with a piano solo.

Visits From Klamath Falls

Miss Minnie Walker of Klamath Falls has been visiting with Mrs. W. H. Sams for the past week. She will return home Tuesday.

To Play Grants Pass Here

The basketball team of the local Epworth League will meet the Grants Pass league team Saturday evening, Jan. 21, at the gymnasium of the Junior high school building, and hope to be able to hold the laurels they have already won.

Property Changes Hands

John F. Butler has sold his house and two lots at the corner of 8th and A streets to E. N. Butler. The deal was made through the Ashland Realty company for a cash consideration.

Card Party

Mr. and Mrs. Billy Hartman will entertain at cards Monday evening. The guests will be Mrs. Glikinson, Miss Roberta Ward, Harry Pierson and G. M. Bleen.

Saw Mill to Open

A. E. Kruse, lumberman of Portland, with a large interest in Klamath county, dropped over Sunday at the Hotel Ashland. He expects to open his mill near Klamath Falls this week. Mr. Kruse stated that the weather in Klamath county is extremely cold, the thermometer having registered 32 below zero during the past week.

Income Tax Expert Here

For the purpose of assisting the taxpayers of Jackson county in making up their income tax returns for 1921, Deputy Collector George G. Hewitt, of the internal revenue office, will be at the following named places, on the dates given below: Ashland, city hall, February 11 to 16 inclusive. Medford, post office building, February 17 to 25 inclusive. The law provides that all returns must be in the office of the internal revenue collector at Portland, on or before March 15, 1922.

Hotel Ashland Guests

The following are registered at the Hotel Ashland: M. Kopp, Yakima, Wash.; J. D. Sheet, B. M. Du, rant, G. H. Smith, Charles Minnan.

Children's Colds
better treated without dosing

Apply Vicks to throat and chest. A warm glow follows. Medicated Vapors are inhaled for hours after—Camphor, Menthol, Eucalyptus and Turpentine! It breaks the congestion. This outside treatment is just as good for all the cold troubles of all the family.

VICKS VAPORUB
Over 17 Million Jars Used Yearly

W. W. Woodruff, F. B. Emmons, J. L. Gray of Portland; L. A. Lemmon, Oakville, Wash.; E. R. Skimouk, Oakland, Calif.; B. M. Larkins, San Francisco; Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Forbes, Burlington, Wash.; Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert R. Foler, Denny C. Noonan, W. R. Powers, Seattle; Dr. George Merryman and H. C. Merryman, Klamath Falls; and H. J. Thralls, Roseburg.

Leave for Long Beach

Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Dodge left Saturday evening for Long Beach, Cal., where they expect to remain for a couple of months.

Yakima, Wash., Visitor

M. Kopp of Yakima, Wash., is in town selling Yakima potatoes. He sold one car load lot.

Infant Undergoes Operation

Joseph Edward, the year old son of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Beebe of Talent, underwent a serious operation Friday at a local hospital. The patient is recovering nicely. This is the second operation in less than a month that this little fellow has had to endure.

New China for Hillah Temple

Hillah Temple has purchased through Loomis and Nelson of Fourth and B streets, one gross sets of elegant china for use in their banquet hall. The china is specially made by the Onondago Pottery company, of Syracuse, N. Y., and decorated with the Shriners insignia, and the words "Hillah Temple, Ashland, Oregon." This purchase entails an expenditure of about $300.

Baby Girl

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Don D. Watson, of Baron precinct, at their apartment on Granite street, a fine baby girl, Friday, January 13. The little miss has been named Ella Josephine.

Roads Open to South

F. E. French, who has just driven through from southern California, says that the roads are somewhat rough between Yreka and Red Bluff, but that they are passable and not dangerous.

To Attend Area Conference

Rev. C. A. Edwards, Homer Billings, John Riggs, and Dr. G. W. Gregg will leave tomorrow for Eugene to attend an area conference which is being held in that city this week. The conference is in regard to centenary work. They will return Thursday.

Large Money Order Business

The post office reports that J. D. Mars of the Overland shoe shop, sent more C. O. D. packages through the mail during the last half of 1921 than any one firm and more than all of the general public collectively.

Medford Church Dedicated

The Christian church of Medford held a dedication service Sunday, January 15. The purpose of this service was to finish paying off the debt that has hindered their progress for several years as well as dedicating the church building to a greater usefulness in the days to come.

To Attend Funeral at Klamath Falls

G. W. Benedict and Mrs. W. A. Cooper left Monday morning for Klamath Falls to attend the funeral of Mrs. Clarence Benedict, who died Monday morning at 5 o'clock. Mrs. Benedict has been ill for some time.

Construction Work Begun

Construction work is to start at once on the Robert E. Strahorn project in Klamath county. Five camps are already established and it is expected that about 250 men will be used in this work. It is said that there is sufficient money behind the project to push it to an early completion. When finished this road will connect Klamath Falls, Lakeview and Bend.

Klamath Falls Visitors

Mr. and Mrs. Bert McDonald, of Klamath Falls, are visiting at the home of Mrs. McDonald's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Patterson, 247 Second street. They report the weather at the Falls as very cold.

Baptists Ladies' Aid

A joint meeting of the Baptist Ladies' Aid society and the Missionary society will be held at the church Wednesday, January 18, at 2:30 o'clock. Officers will be elected for the year. Talks by Mrs. W. L. Evans, Mrs. Alice Gilmore and Mrs. S. A. Peters Jr., on plans for devotions, programs and membership, will be given. All members of the church and congregation are cordially invited.

(From Saturday's Daily)

Visiting Madame Tracy Young

Mrs. Mattie Rumberg, noted contralto soprano, who has recently returned from abroad, where she has been visiting friends and giving concerts, anticipates giving a concert in Ashland before leaving for Los Angeles, where she is booked for a number of engagements.

Visiting from New York

Miss Roberta Ward, of New York City, who is visiting her sister, Mrs. F. C. Stevens, 235 Fifth street, is taking a course of piano instruction from Madame Tracy Young. Miss Ward considers herself very fortunate in having such a noted and thoroughly efficient instructor here in Ashland, and is taking up her work with much enthusiasm.

Visiting from Klamath Falls

Miss Norma Campbell of Klamath Falls is visiting her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Newton, living on A street, this week.

A Baby Girl

Mr. and Mrs. Herman F. Stooks, 124 Morton street, are rejoicing over the arrival of a nine pound baby girl born January 11. Everybody concerned is doing finely.

Entertained Local Teachers

Miss Fannie Spencer, of 490 Palm avenue, entertained Misses Blume, McCredie and Beaver with a dinner Thursday evening.

Visits at Central Point

Miss Winnie Spencer, of 490 Palm avenue, went to Central Point last evening to spend the week-end with Miss McCredie. Both are teachers in the Ashland schools.

Has New Chevrolet

F. C. Stevens, owner of the Ashland Realty company, is seen on the streets driving a new Chevrolet car, which he purchased yesterday.

Called to Dallas

J. C. Kaegi, proprietor of the White House Groceries, received word last night of the dangerous illness of his brother, David Kaegi, at Dallas, Or., and left on train 12 this morning.

From Dunsmuir

T. C. Holmes, traveling auditor for the Southern Pacific, with offices in Dunsmuir, is in town today checking up the local offices.

Klamath Falls Visitor

E. E. Cook, of Klamath Falls, who was a former resident of Ashland, has been spending several days renewing old acquaintances in town.

Small Fire in Roundhouse

A small blaze was discovered in the roof of the roundhouse yesterday. The company fire department succeeded in extinguishing it before any great damage had been done.

Rogue River Visitor

Milton Reynolds of Rogue River stopped over night Wednesday with George F. Jones of 147 Factory street, and left Thursday for home.

I. C. C. Inspector in Ashland

Robert E. Higgins, interstate commerce inspector of engines, with offices in San Francisco, arrived last night and is busy today inspecting Southern Pacific engines.

From Drain

John Kent of Drain, Or., was visiting his sister-in-law, Mrs. Anna Kent, manager of the Columbia hotel, this week, and other former Douglas county friends in this vicinity. Mr. Kent visited his sister, Mrs. Ella Ishum at Grants Pass en route to Ashland.

Climax Visitor

Mrs. Holeman, who resides at Climax, was a business visitor in Ashland yesterday.

Elected Secretary

Mrs. Lulu Howard was elected local secretary of the W. C. T. U. at their last meeting to fill the vacancy made by the death of Mrs. White, former secretary of the society.

Breaks Arm While Skating

Bobbie Herndon, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Herndon, 155 Eighth street, fell on the pavement yesterday, while roller skating on B street, and broke his arm at the elbow, severely tearing the ligaments. The little patient was rushed to the hospital and treated by Drs. MacCracken and Swendenburg, who state the break is a very serious one.

Visits Here

Dudley Estes of Talent was visiting at the J. V. Wright home on Mountain avenue Tuesday.

At Bellevue

The Christian Workers Band will hold a service at Bellevue schoolhouse next Sunday, January 15, at 3 o'clock in the afternoon. Everyone is invited. The members of the band will meet at the public library at 2:30 o'clock.

Donald Williams Dead

Donald P. Williams, son of Mr. and Mrs. Warren Williams, residing at the corner of Harrison and Iowa street, died this morning at the home of his parents. He was 15 years, 11 months and 13 days old, and had been ill for about ten days. The funeral will be held Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Congregational church, Rev. Oldfield officiating. Interment will be in the Mountain View cemetery. The body is in charge of J. P. Dodge and Sons undertaking parlors.

Brotherhood Official Returns

P. R. Buyers, employed in the Southern Pacific car shops here, returned from Dunsmuir yesterday. Mr. Buyers is the local chairman of the carmen's union.

Espee Cuts Off Men

The Southern Pacific company, on account of the falling off of business, has made a reduction in its working forces, ten engineers and 16 firemen being laid off December 11 on the Shasta division. At Ashland the roundhouse force was reduced by two men—A. Kalsbury, a boilermaker, and S. W. Moss, a boilermaker. In the car shops one man—O. N. B. Walstein—was laid off. These reductions are effective next Tuesday, January 17.

Hiker to Long's Cabin

Mrs. Fred Deardoff and Miss Ernestine Hicks, both living on North Main street, hiked to Long's Cabin Thursday. They stated the snow was seven or eight inches deep and that no trail had been broken over the last three miles of the trip.

(From Thursday's Daily)

A New Arrival

Mrs. C. O. Barney, whose residence is on North Main street, gave birth to an eight pound baby girl at 1 o'clock this afternoon. Both baby and mother are doing nicely.

At Portland

T. J. Coffman left for Portland on business. He will be gone about ten days.

Injures Eye

While chopping wood this morning, Dr. MacCracken was unfortunately enough to have a chip fly in his eye. Dr. Woods treated him and thinks it not serious.

Siskiyon Visitor

Jake Shower, of Siskiyon, is a business visitor in town today.

Visited Jacksonville Yesterday

Mrs. Mary Freeman, of 261 Oberlin street, was a visitor at Jacksonville yesterday.

Berkley Visitor Returns

E. P. Moore, of the H. L. Moore Land company, returned yesterday from Berkley, where he has been visiting with his family.

Leaves for San Francisco

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. King, of Portland, arrived yesterday in their private car, leaving last evening for San Francisco. While here they visited with old friends, Mr. and Mrs. B. B. Bates and family.

Birthday Party

One of the most delightful occasions of the week, occurred yesterday afternoon when Mrs. Edward O. Smith, 298 Hargadine street, gave a birthday party in honor of her two year old son, Mark Quenton, at the home of his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Smith, 280 Hargadine street. The young guests were entertained with contests, games and music. A daintily decorated table was laid for ten. Place cards attached to pink and blue ribbons running to the center of the table, were each attached to a souvenir concealed under the two candied birthday cake, proving to be a kewpie doll for each girl and a horn for each boy. A light luncheon was served after the happy little guests were quiet. Those present were: Misses Jean Fridergar, Margaret Norton, Geraldine Wilmer, Millicent Peters, Alice Cary, and Masters Billie Fray, Johnnie McNair, Bobbie Kluth, Bobbie Burdick, and the mother of each guest as chaperon. Master Jack Stevens and Miss Dunn sent regrets. Master Mark Quenton received numerous birthday remembrances. Photographer Darling made two flash light pictures of the little guests.

New Sample Rooms

Mine Host Leach, of the Hotel Ashland, is contemplating the erection of three or four sample rooms facing Oak street in the near future. The fact that traveling men have been obliged to display their goods in both the ladies' parlor and in the dining room, surely calls for an increase in sample room capacity.

Celebrate Silver Wedding

Mr. and Mrs. O. A. Stears of 112 Pine street, celebrated their Silver Wedding anniversary last Tuesday with a dinner. The following guests were invited: Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Edwards, Mrs. McVicar, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Arant, Mrs. Sherman and Mrs. H. H. Goddard. Mr. and Mrs. Stearns were married in Klamath county and took their first dinner with the Arants.

From Los Angeles

G. R. Bennett, of the Pacific Coast Sales Book company, Los Angeles, is in town on business.

Reports Business Good

J. W. Kislir, of the Bon Ton bakery, states business is picking up so fast he is thinking of installing a new bread molding machine and all other modern conveniences.

S. P. Man Visits Ashland

A. S. Raud, chief clerk of the Southern Pacific railway service, is in Ashland on business.

Albany Woman Returns Home

Mrs. M. Brandon, who has been visiting at the Ernest Hicks home for the past month, is returning today to her home in Albany.

Here from Eugene

Dr. S. A. Danford, of Eugene, is here on business.

Enroute to California

Mrs. Frank M. Bounds and son, of Eugene, are registered at Hotel Ashland. They are planning on touring southern California.

Made Good Time from Portland

Art MacKenzie, of the Class A garage, left Portland yesterday at 12 o'clock, driving a Stutz roadster, and arrived here at 1 o'clock this morning. MacKenzie says the roads are in very fine condition. Ed High will deliver the car to Mr. Calhoun, proprietor of the Savoy hotel at Weed, Calif., today.

Returns from Bay Cities

Victor Mills returned this morning from San Francisco and other bay cities, where he and Mrs. Mills have been visiting friends and relatives for the past three weeks. Mrs. Mills expects to return home about February 1.

Salem Visitor

W. H. McNair is transacting business this week in Salem.

Mrs. Carson Improving

Friends of Mrs. O. F. Carson, 872 Iowa street, will be pleased to know that she is very much improved this morning.

Basketball Game

Next Saturday night the Junior high school basketball team of Ashland will play the second team of the Talent high school at Talent.

Teacher Returns to Eagle Point

Miss Hazel Green, a graduate of Ashland high school last year, and who was very ill during November, is again able to resume her work as teacher at Eagle Point.

Bible Study Examinations

The Bible study examination for the state high school course, will be given Friday, January 20. Several Christian Endeavorers are preparing to take it as part of their courtier degree work.

Old Resident Dies

Mrs. Cornelia L. Kingsbury, who resided at 159 Laurel street, died at a local hospital this morning at 3:30 o'clock. The body is at the H. C. Stock undertaking parlors awaiting the arrival of Bently Kingsbury. Funeral arrangements have not been made.

Monday Afternoon Study Club

The first regular meeting of the Monday Afternoon Study club was held at the library. China was the subject under discussion, and four excellent and comprehensive papers were read which treated the subject under discussion in a general way. The club anticipates the special discussion of subjects from a modern point of view. All members, and those anticipating joining, are urged to be present at the library at the next meeting, Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

Entertained with Cards

Mr. and Mrs. Charles L. Hanson, 63 Pine street, entertained a few friends with cards last night, light refreshments being served. The guests were, Mr. and Mrs. P. K. Hammond and nephew, Billie Hammond, and Mrs. Elvin Daugherty.

Left for U. of O.

Miss Bernice Myer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Myer, of 259 High street, left Monday to resume her study in the University of Oregon. Miss Bernice is majoring in the study of music for the public schools.

(From Friday's Daily)

Portland Visitors

Mrs. J. D. Taylor and her two daughters, Gertrude and Laura, of Portland, arrived last night on train 15, to visit Rev. C. A. Edwards and family. Mr. Taylor and son are expected to arrive tomorrow morning. The Taylors are on their way to Los Angeles where they expect to make their future home.

Moved to Elizabeth Street

Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Southard, former proprietors of the Cozy Lunch, have moved to 131 Elizabeth street.

College Club Meets

The College club of the Rogue River valley will meet at the home of Mrs. Myron Root, 304 South King street, Medford, on next Saturday afternoon, at 2:30 o'clock. All who have had two years of college work are eligible to membership. Miss Jessie Wilson is chairman of the social committee.

Called to Weed

Miss M. Rulledge, a nurse making her home with Mr. and Mrs. O. Winter, of 430 Boulevard, goes to Weed, Calif., today to take charge of a case.

Start on Extended Trip

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Vaupel, 422 Boulevard, and Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Shepherd, 658 Boulevard, left Weed today for an extended pleasure trip. The schedule as outlined included Portland, Seattle and a trip to the south by water.

Returns to Palo Alto

Raymond Long, who has been at home the past six weeks nursing a broken leg, has returned to Palo Alto, to continue his work at the University of California. Mr. Long met with the accident while working for the California-Oregon Power company at Copeco.

Moves to Sacramento

Charles R. Day, Southern Pacific passenger brakeman, has moved to Sacramento. He will take a run out of that city.

Returns to Sacramento

J. P. McGregor and granddaughter Mrs. Violet Wilson have returned to Sacramento after an extended visit with Mrs. O. W. Long of this city. Mrs. Long is a daughter of Mr. McGregor.

Will Visit in Rogue River

Mrs. A. S. Clawson and children will leave tomorrow for a few days visit with Mrs. Clawson's father, Mr. Brittan at Rogue River.

Road Contractor in Town

Chris Natwick, of Eagle Point, contractor on the Green Springs Mountain road, was a business visitor in town yesterday. He says that there is two feet of snow on the mountain now, but that is a light fall for this time of year. With present indications, he is of the opinion that he can complete his contract by the first of July, about one-third of the work being completed now.

Medford Visitors in Ashland

Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Weaver and Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Reynolds of Medford, were business visitors in Ashland yesterday.

Fruit and Produce Directors Meet

At the annual meeting of the board of directors of the Ashland Fruit and Produce association held last Tuesday, the following officers were elected for the ensuing year: S. A. Peters Sr., president; T. S. Wiley, vice president; V. O. N. Smith, treasurer; F. L. Nutter, secretary, and A. C. Briggs, manager. The reading and passing on the reports which were read at the stockholders meeting concluded the business of the session.

Will Visit Ashland Friends

Harold Hull of San Francisco, is expected here today to visit friends.

Visiting in Ashland

John Parker, who recently returned from South America, visited with Art Trautfother on Wednesday.

Letter from Honolulu

Mrs. L. H. Klum, 773 Boulevard, has just received a letter from her son, Otto Klum, a former Ashland boy now employed as coach in the University of Hawaii, in which he states that it is just as hot as ever there, with the thermometer registering 74 which seems much hotter on account of the moisture. He said the English walnuts which Mrs. Klum sent him from Ashland are being exhibited to the natives.

Departed for Honolulu

Mrs. Katherine M. Pettit, mother of Leonard C. Pettit, the violinist, who has been visiting her son for the past month, left Ashland on last Tuesday for San Francisco, and sailed for Honolulu Wednesday afternoon on the Matson Navigation company liner Maui. Mrs. Pettit was accompanied by her Japanese maid.

Finger Prints Identify

On May 3, 1921, a man giving his name as L. J. Pierce was arrested in Ashland, charged with trespassing on Southern Pacific property, and his finger prints taken by Chief Hatcher at that time. The same individual was arrested in Sacramento, Calif., December