

Local and Personal

(From Monday's Daily)

To Visit Daughter—

Mrs. L. M. Case, mother of Mrs. Fred Wagner, left Sunday for Los Angeles where she will visit her daughter for a few weeks. She accompanied Mr. and Mrs. J. Howard Leeds, who are called here on account of the death of Mrs. W. H. Leeds, and were returning home.

Returns To Stanford—

Barclay Leeds left Sunday for Stanford University where he is attending school.

To Enter Law Firm—

Albert Leeds who was called here on account of his mother's death will remain here for a few weeks. He will return to San Francisco the first of next month where he will enter a law firm there, having just finished the law course at Stanford when called home.

Ladies' Art Club Meeting—

The Ladies' Art club meets tonight in Pioneer hall at 7:30. The hostesses will be Mesdames F. J. Ahlstrom and C. Bangham.

New Semester—

The new semester of Ashland schools began today without any unusual happenings and every thing is going along in fine shape.

Basket Ball at Central Point—

The basket ball team of Junior high school journey to Central Point Saturday evening and gave the Central Point team a cleaning in the shape of a 36 to 12 score. A good crowd was in attendance.

Visit Yreka—

Mr. and Mrs. D. S. Campbell, of Sixth street, left today for Yreka, Calif., where they will spend a few days with Hill Parker of that city.

Walkers Report on Water—

In another column today in printed the full report of Engineer Walker on the water situation. It will be interesting to citizens to read it carefully. It is the official pronouncement of the council on the matter.

Returns to Central Point—

Miss Marian Hamrick left yesterday for her ranch home, "Oak Rest" at Central Point, after spending ten days with the Morehouse family, and other friends here.

Returns to School—

Jack Brady left yesterday morning for Corvallis, to resume his studies at the O. A. C., after spending the week-end with his parents on Allison street.

Embroidery Club Meets—

The Friday afternoon embroidery club met last week with Mrs. O. W. Long on East Main street. The time was spent in the usual manner with all the various kinds of needle work, after which dainty refreshments were served. Those present beside the hostess were: Mesdames Guy Jacobs, Frank Foltz, J. C. Poor, Mark Smith, Frank Nelson, Earl Hozler, M. D. Love, Roy Hale, Frank Guisner, G. H. Hedberg, H. C. Emery, N. Z. Stewart, C. A. Cotter, and M. Dyrand.

Hard Times Party—

The employees of the Standard Oil company of Ashland and Medford branches held a hard times party Thursday night at the American Legion hall in Medford. About forty couple were present in the raggedest clothes they could find and those attending say it was the best party ever. Mrs. J. W. Judy won first prize as the most disreputable appearing lady while W. R. Speck, the new special agent at Medford was beyond a doubt the raggedest vagabond present. Andy Anderson and Albert Moore prepared a supper which was served at low twelve after the dancing had been discontinued.

Vining to Lecture—

Prof. Irving E. Vining has been engaged by the Presbyterian church of Medford to deliver a lecture in the near future, probably Friday evening, February 3, and has agreed to talk on "Types and tendencies of character." The quartet of the church will give several numbers during the evening.

Return Home—

Mr. and Mrs. L. F. Ferguson, who were called to Klamath Falls a few days ago on account of the death of Mr. Ferguson's brother, Charles J. Ferguson, have returned home.

Produce Prices Up—

We note by the Medford paper that butter and eggs are on the upgrade again, eggs having gained five cents during the last two days of the week. Fresh eggs could still be bought in Ashland Saturday evening at the prices that prevailed during the week.

Moved to Payne Building—

Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Bush and daughter Mildred have moved into the apartment in the Payne building recently occupied by Kenneth Sullivan and mother. Mr. Bush was formerly assistant manager of the Portland branch of the Ford Motor company. Mr. Bush and family are so pleased with Ashland that they will endeavor to make their home here if Mr. Bush can get properly located.

In Medford Saturday—

George Dunn of Granite street spent part of the day in Medford Saturday.

Telephones Out of Commission—

The underground telephone cable at the corner of East Main and First streets was out of commission Saturday, water having got into the cable container and, froze, thereby bursting the container and shorting all the wires. Practically all of the business section between Pioneer and Second street was without telephone service for a time Saturday, but workmen made aerial connection during the day, thereby restoring service. The telephone company has sent to Eugene for a cable splicer, and it is expected that he will arrive here and put the cable in commission again within the next few days. In the meantime the aerial connection will furnish service.

Boys Property—

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Lamb have purchased the tract of ground on the corner of Iowa and Morton streets from Cassius Waite. The deal was closed Saturday. Mr. Lamb has contracted to build a cement bungalow on one of the lots just purchased for Arthur Erickson, who is with the Standard Oil company and is going to take advantage of the state loan to ex-service men.

Young Couple Married—

C. F. Carlson of Salem and Miss Audrie Morris of the Neil Creek vicinity were married at Jacksonville Wednesday afternoon by the county judge. Mrs. Carlson is the daughter of Charles Morris, a prosperous rancher in the Neil Creek neighborhood. Mr. Carlson's home is in Salem and he has been employed by the state in the highway department, being an expert along that line. It is understood that Mr. Carlson will move to Roseburg at once and will be with the Ford Motor company there.

Closing Service—

Rev. W. L. Evans, who resigned the pastorate of the local Baptist church several days ago, delivered his farewell address to a large congregation Sunday evening. Music was furnished by the Dr. Woods family orchestra, and Dr. Mattie B. Shaw delighted the audience by giving the reading, "Absalom." Rev. Evans leaves today for Corpus Christi, Texas.

Pool Hall Burglarized—

The Bond and Atkins pool hall on the Plaza was entered some time last night and the register rifled. Cash to the amount of about $8 was taken, but a few rolls of pennies were left. No cigars or other merchandise was taken. Night Patrolman Wertz discovered the glass broken out of the rear door about 3 o'clock this morning and immediately notified Mr. Bond, who lives in Talent. No trace of the guilty party had been found at time of going to press today.

Taken to Hospital—

Frank Homes, son of Charles Homes, who resides east of town, was taken to a local hospital Friday and operated on for appendicitis. Latest reports from the hospital are to the effect that he is doing nicely.

Makes Trip to Portland—

Dr. G. O. Jarvis made a hurried trip to Portland on business a few days ago. He is in town again today.

Off from Work—

Paul Mars was unable to be at work this morning. Paul is having a hard time getting back to good health since the attack of influenza some months ago.

Visiting Relatives—

Mrs. J. B. Harrell Jr., of Dunsmuir, is visiting with Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Harrell Sr., at their home on Iowa street.

Vacant Again—

The store room at 89 North Main street is again vacant, the Japanese Art store having taken out the last of their goods the latter part of last week.

Birthday Party—

Mr. and Mrs. Milton Fraley entertained at dinner Sunday in honor of Mrs. Fraley's father, W. P. Moore, of Monterey, Calif. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. W. H. McNair and son Jamie; Mr. and Mrs. Sam McNair, W. P. Moore and Mr. and Mrs. Fraley.

(From Thursday's Daily)

Big Feed at Armory—

Do not forget the dinner to be given the American Legion boys and all ex-service men at the Armory, Friday evening at 6:30 o'clock. The invitation includes wives, mothers, sisters and daughters. We expect a good social time as well as lots of good eats.

Renewed Subscription—

C. F. Bates, of Manteca, Calif., has sent in his renewal to the Tidings for the ensuing year. Mr. Bates will be remembered by his many Ashland friends as having operated the transfer business now owned by Mr. Whittle. Mr. Bates writes that he has about 500 hens and is getting from 20 to 25 dozen eggs a day, three fourths of which are going to the hatchery and bring ten cents more on the dozen than market quotation prices. He expects to have 1000 small chickens by the middle of February. He further states that they have a garden nicely started and are using head lettuce, beets and carrots.

Very Ill—

The infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Clary is very ill with pneumonia and is also suffering from the effects of a severe burn on its face and hands.

Motored to Grants Pass—

Mr. and Mrs. C. Roberts motored to Grants Pass Sunday. They were accompanied by E. W. Wakefield and family.

At Doctors' Banquet—

At the physicians' banquet at Medford last night, Dr. Mattie Shaw, after giving Kiplin's "Gunga Din," delivered as an encore an original production by Ashland's talented author, H. G. Gilmore.

Visits Medford—

Mesdames C. Roberts and James McDonough were Medford visitors Monday.

Past Master Visits—

Past Grand Master William Miller of Portland, who is prominently identified with things pertaining to the Masonic home, was in Ashland Tuesday on matters pertaining to the home as locally applied.

Trading in Town—

Mrs. Paul Walther of Steinman and Mrs. U. S. Raglan, of Shiskyou, was in town the early part of the week trading with our merchants.

Goes to Portland—

Rev. P. K. Hammond of the local Episcopal church, goes to Portland next week as a representative to the annual Episcopal diocesan convention in that city.

Foundation Fund—

R. P. Neil, 123 Factory street, has been appointed head of the Woodrow Wilson Foundation fund, for Ashland.

Assessments Levied—

Special benefit assessments have been levied against property owners on Meade street, who will be benefited by the contemplated sewer improvements. Five lots are involved, four being assessed $71.11 and the other one $35.56. One of the lots is owned by a party living in Los Angeles.

Revenue Collector to Come—

George Hewett, federal deputy income tax collector, will be in Ashland in an advisory capacity February 11 to 16 inclusive. Mr. Hewett will be at the city hall and will gladly give any information desired. He states that these taxes must be paid early in March.

Missionary Society—

The Women's Missionary society of the Presbyterian church met at the church yesterday afternoon in regular session. Mrs. Ross gave an interesting review of the social and political needs of China today. Mrs. Van Sant read letters from Mrs. David Taffin, who is stationed at Hunan, China. Mission study classes were planned for and the society adjourned to meet with M. A. Van Sant in February.

Columbia Hotel Guests—

The following are guests at the Columbia hotel: R. W. Quigley, San Francisco; J. H. Garvin, E. S. Kramer, Portland; E. D. Grove, C. Bergstrom, A. M. Helmlinger, Seattle; Irving M. Thoravig, Everett, Wash.; Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Deitz, Hood River, Or.; H. N. Gibb, Spokane, Wash.; P. Palmstrom, Spokane, Wash.; F. Rosebough, Portland; M. D. Bryant, O. F. Riebel, Roseburg, and V. J. Hale, Scappoose, Or.

Lunch Downtown—

The cafeteria at the Junior high school building was closed Wednesday and nine of the teachers from that school took lunch at the Dew Drop Inn.

Visiting Friends—

Mrs. Pansy Williamson, of Kirby, is spending the week in Ashland, visiting friends.

Crater Lake Picture—

The Christian Endeavor World, published in Boston, Mass., had, as a full page cover design in a recent issue, a beautiful picture of Crater Lake.

Funeral Friday—

The funeral of Mrs. Celia V. Libby, who died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. J. W. Millner, Wednesday morning, will be held Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the home of Mrs. A. M. Clark, 428 Palm avenue, opposite the Granite City hospital.

Mayor's Wife Breaks Arm—

Mrs. C. B. Lamkin had the misfortune to break her arm in a fall yesterday afternoon. She has the sympathy of her host of friends.

Congregational Ladies' Aid—

The Ladies' Aid society of the Congregational church met in business and social session at the home of Mrs. J. M. Kirkpatrick Wednesday afternoon. Delicious refreshments were served by the hostess.

Drives to Grants Pass—

Mr. and Mrs. Schmidt of the Overland garage, left this morning for Grants Pass in an Overland car. They were accompanied by Rev. and Mrs. Glazier.

Rents Fine Home—

Mr. Brown, of the East Side Meat Market, has rented the property belonging to Park Commissioner Smith, which consists of a fine house and three acres of land located at 244 Grant street.

Groceryman Returns—

J. C. Kaegi, proprietor of the White House grocery returned home Wednesday on train 13 from Dallas, Or., where he was called on account of the serious condition of his brother, David Kaegi, at that place. Mr. Kaegi is glad to report that his brother is on his way to recovery.

Recovering from Illness—

The many friends of Mrs. Agnes Herndon, who makes her home with her son, Walter Herndon, on Eighth street, will be glad to learn that she is recovering from her recent illness.

Here to Attend Funeral—

W. Nance and Mrs. S. Mitchell, both of Fresno, Calif., were here Wednesday to attend the funeral of Calvin Nance who died at his home on Fifth street Tuesday morning.

Civic Club Meeting—

The Civic Improvement club will hold a business meeting Saturday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the home of Mrs. P. K. Hammond, 42 Second street. All members are requested to be present.

New Officers Installed—

Emily M. Hammond, assisted by Eliza Hicks and Susie Dyrud, installed the following officers of Acorn circle No. 54, Neighbors of Woodcraft, Friday night: Past grand noble, Vella H. Baughman; grand noble, Nellie L. Sherard; clerk, Mabel A. Roberts; banker, Edyth L. Phipps; magician, Laura L. Abbott; attendant, Calile B. L. Shelton; captain of guards, Eliza Hicks; outer sentinel, L. A. Roberts; musician, Susie Dyrud; managers, Josephine D. Clirker, Ida A. Potter, Clara Loomis; correspondent, Mabel A. Roberts.

Sams Valley Visitor—

Jacob Conley and daughter, Mrs. Boyd Tucker of Sams Valley are visiting at the home of J. N. Dennis, on Allison street. Mr. Conley is one of southern Oregon's early pioneers, having crossed the plains with seven yoke of oxen in 1852. He settled on a claim in the Sams valley, and has lived there since that time. Mr. Conley will be 90 years old in April, but has never used glasses, although he is an extensive reader for a man of his age.

(From Saturday's Daily)

B. Y. P. U. Surprise Meeting—

The Baptist Young People's union will hold a surprise meeting Sunday evening. The leader promises a fine meeting with many surprises, and invites the public to join with them.

Weather Report—

Weather Observer Dodge reports that the coldest temperature recorded during the past 24 hours was 14 above zero, with prospects of slightly warmer weather tomorrow.

Surprise Party—

The B. Y. P. U. of the Baptist church held a surprise party Wednesday evening at the home of Mr.

Stennett. The evening was spent in games and light refreshments were served. The chairman of the social committee of this young people's organization is certainly up and coming, according to members. It is the aim of the society to have a social every six weeks, but parties will probably be held about once a month.

Operated on Today—

Mr. Wheeler of Medford had an operation performed on his nose this morning by a local doctor.

Returns to Ashland—

Fred Pinkerton, who formerly resided here, but has recently been living in Spokane, Wash., is visiting at the home of S. A. Parker on Sixth street. Mr. Pinkerton is a timber cruiser and is expecting to make his home in Ashland once again.

Recovering from Illness—

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Barker, of Hornbrook were in town last night. Mr. Barker is recovering from a recent illness.

Inspecting Hospitals—

Word has been received from Dr. Frank M. Moxon, formerly of this city, who left for San Francisco several months ago to enter the government service. Dr. Moxon was included in a party to make a tour of inspection of the government hospitals and left San Francisco shortly after arriving there and since that time has been in San Diego, Calif., various towns in the Panama canal zone and the West Indies, and is now at Norfolk, Va. Mrs. Moxon and son accompanied the doctor on the trip and all expect to visit in Ashland when they return to the Pacific coast next year. Dr. Moxon will be with the bureau of medicine and surgery, navy department, at Washington, D. C., for the ensuing year.

Leaves for Home—

J. E. Coffee, of Knights Landing, Calif., is leaving for home today on train 53 after a month's visit with friends and relatives in Grants Pass, Gold Hill and Ashland.

Letter from Weed—

A letter received from J. Hnery Provost, who is now located with the Weed Lumber company, Weed, Calif., states that he likes his new position very much. Mr. Provost states that it was 4 below zero there Friday morning, but was moderating slowly. He also states that the box factory has closed for a few days.

Dead Indian Weather Cold—

Ernest Cooper, who is working on the H. L. Moore ranch, 18 miles out in the Dead Indian country, telephoned in this morning that the weather there had been extremely cold, the thermometer showing 18 below zero Thursday morning, 10 below Friday, and 6 below today.

Hotel Ashland Guests—

The following guests have registered at the Hotel Ashland during the past few days: S. Bookvist, J. P. Breen, H. Haslam, San Francisco; J. C. Appel, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Quigley, J. C. Myers, J. W. Day, Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Ryerson, L. V. Benson, E. L. Gaden, A. R. Frazier, Edwin J. Curtis, Portland; W. L. Jordan, E. G. Lewis, William Powley, C. L. Clerce and son, P. Langmaid, Seattle; G. C. Ninstor, Yakima, Wash.; H. H. Hart, W. S. Hart, Sacramento, J. D. Duncan, Etna Mills Calif.; W. Smith, Gladstone, Or.; J. S. McKeown, Aloha, Or.; J. S. Rosenzweig, Los Angeles; and G. E. Young, Grants Pass.

Basketball at Talent—

Three games of basketball were played at Talent last night. The Talent town team played a team from Applegate, Talent winning by the score of 30 to 20. The Talent high school girls played the high school girls from Applegate, winning by a score of 17 to 1, and the boys of the high school won from the boys of the Applegate high school by a score of 19 to 15. Quite a large crowd attended.

School Semester Ends—

The first semester of the Ashland schools ended Friday, although the scholars had to return for their grades Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

Eat at Nelda Cafe—

Eleven teachers from the Junior high school took lunch at the Nelda cafe Friday. The teachers generally eat at the cafeteria at the school, but the domestic science class, who prepare the lunch under the direction of Miss Abraham, have been taking examinations this week, and the cafeteria is therefore closed. It will be opened again next Wednesday.

D. A. B. Meets—

Mount Ashland chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution

Good For a Host of Daily Ills

Over 17 million jars used yearly! Nearly every home has its jar of Vicks and uses it constantly for head colds, chest colds, cuts, burns, bruises, bites, catarrh, sprains and skin eruptions. It certainly is a family stand-by.

VICKS VAPORUB
Over 17 Million Jars Used Yearly ladies. However, the ladies came through with $75 for the year.

Lunch at S. S. Conference—

There will be a pot luck lunch at noon next Tuesday at the Sunday School conference in the Presbyterian church. Each one who wants to stay for the lunch will please bring one contribution—a pie, sandwiches, a salad or a cake. The entertaining church will furnish hot coffee. This is the hour for good fellowship, and let's all plan to stay who can.

PROMINENT MEN AT BANQUET

University President to Speak at C. of C. Doing Tuesday

An invitation has been extended to the presidents of the various chambers of commerce of southern Oregon to attend the banquet to be given by the local chamber of commerce Tuesday evening, January 24. It is expected that each town in Jackson county will be represented and that the various county officials will be present. The principal speaker of the evening will be Mr. P. L. Campbell, president of the University of Oregon.

The banquet will be served by the domestic science teacher and students of the high school. It is not limited to members of the Chamber of Commerce, any citizen desiring to do so may attend. There will be a good musical program during the entire evening.

Investigate Our Ideal

Arcola

Hot Water Heating System for Small or Large Houses

Our New Line of Heating Stoves Are Now In Provost Bros.

CARLOAD SHIPMENT OF

Fencing

from Eastern mills just in. Considerable drop in prices on same.

GOOD CEDAR POSTS

New prices on implements and repairs. New and used sewing machines for sale or to rent....

Peil's Corner

True Independence

"I know of no greater independence than this thing of having a little lump sum of money put away, be it ever so small—a sum that is kept in reserve and only in extreme circumstances drawn upon."

An account in our savings department is a first move toward attaining this "greater independence."

The Citizens Bank
Ashland, Oregon