More Cold Says
 Weather Man

Portland, Jan. 30.—The Pacific northwest is in the grip of another spell of real winter. The minimum here was only 32 this morning but a heavy east wind made it seem much colder. The weather bureau predicts cold weather for the entire week, rain and snow in Washington and Oregon, rain in California, and zero weather through the Rocky mountain and plateau regions.

Los Angeles, Jan. 30.—Lashed by snow and rain, southern California experience one of the most violent storms in years, last night and today.

The snowfall is general throughout California according to reports.
 San Francisco reported the heaviest snowfall in recent years last night.

WINTER LYCEUM COURSE IS OVER
 (From Friday's Daily)

The last number of the lyceum course under the auspices of the American Legion was given last evening at the Presbyterian church.
 The attendance was good, considering the storm, and those present were delighted with the concert and were almost unanimous in the opinion that it was the best number of the course. The leader was a genius built to his own specifications and one of great beauty and tone. His imitations ranged from pipe organ to the far, faint echo of a bugle call, and was equally good in accompanying voice, violin or in concert. The violinist charmed her hearers with her selections, as did the soprano and pianist.

The Legion ought to have the hearty support of citizens in their effort to give the town wholesome, constructive entertainment, such as the lyceum course affords. Three short years ago we could not do enough for our soldiers, and it would rather seem that the least we can do "in remembrance" is to stand by when the organization tries to do something uplifting for the town. If they repeat the course next winter, they should have better support than this year, as they have a deficit to pay them for their pains.

Rub The Chest
 For Deep, Heavy Colds

When a cold gets deep—threatens to become bronchitis or pneumonia—rub Vicks VapoRub in, cover with a hot flannel cloth, and fix the breathing loosely about the neck so that the medicated vapors will be inhaled all night. You should be better in the morning.

American Legion

By DONALD M. SPENCER

The winter lyceum course presented by Ashland post, American Legion, has given its last number. The DeWillo Concert company have more than kept up the very high standard set by our earlier numbers. Their entertainment last night at the Presbyterian church, was distinctly out of the ordinary, and will not be soon forgotten by those who had the privilege of hearing them. Yes, we lost money on our course, but who doesn't lose money on a lyceum course in Ashland. However, we do not feel at all discouraged, because we kept our agreement with the people by giving them more for the money invested than they have ever been able to get in Ashland.

Now, then, we have agreed to do it again, next winter, and we have signed up what we believe to be better material than that which was presented this year. Our price was the same, but, believe us, we won't lose out this time.

We appreciate the co-operation given us by the public in general, and we intend to show you all that we are backing only the very best obtainable entertainment for you.
 We have set our standard, now we'll keep it up there.

Dr. W. J. Crandall, who was in the aviation service during the world war, but has now taken up the practice of making sick folks well and happy, has a most kindly feeling toward his old comrades who are temporarily out of luck and out of jobs. He says that he will give free medical service to any ex-service man who is in need of such, and who is out of work and cannot pay for it.

We appreciate the doctor's kind offer, but hope none of us will ever have to take advantage of it.

The Legion team of basketball shooters, are a bunch of winners.
 Not all WENNERS, although Gerald Wenner is a dandy runner up. They have played several games this season and don't seem to be inclined to lose any of them. The team is under the management of Vice Commander Lynn Slack and Hank Pace. The

Apple Stocks
 Cleaning Up

Portland, Jan. 30.—Very few apples remain to be shipped in Oregon and Washington, while stocks held in storage have been greatly reduced with many districts absolutely bare.
 Less than 5000 cars remained in storage in Washington at the first of the month, according to the federal report of the bureau of markets. The bulk of the 1921 crop in Oregon and Washington has been cleaned up, with some fruit in storage in the east.

During the month of December 992 carloads of apples were shipped out of the state, 2956 from Washington and 287 from Idaho.

Apples remaining in storage in Washington are held at Yakima and Wenatchee. Growers in the Spokane valley, the Walla Walla district and the Hood River valley have shipped practically all of their fruit.

Locally there is a very liberal improvement in the apple demand and prices here range fractionally higher. Eastern markets are firm.

MRS. ANNA McNEIL IS DEAD
 Death Came This Morning Following Appendicitis Operation
 (From Friday's Daily)

Mrs. Anna McNeil, who underwent an operation at a local hospital the first of the week, died this morning. Mrs. McNeil has not been in the best of health for some time and has been staying with her sister, Mrs. Frank L. Nelson, for the past two months. She was operated for appendicitis and gall stones.

Mrs. McNeil was 48 years old and was born in Benton county, Or. She has spent her entire life in this state. She is survived by her husband, Edward McNeil, and two sons.
 Burial will be in Mountain View cemetery, in charge of J. P. Dodge and Sons. The date of the funeral will be announced later.

ELKS CLUB ROOM WAS BURGLARIZED
 SATURDAY NIGHT

The Elks club room was entered some time Saturday night between the hours of 1 and 9 a. m., and the cash register and safe in the office rifled of their cash contents.
 The cash register contained between fifty-five and sixty dollars when Mr.
 Cornelius, the night clerk locked up about 1:15 a. m., besides a few Elks emblems. All the cash was taken from the register except the pennies and all of the emblems. A number of checks that were in the cash register were left untouched.

The burglar was compelled to break the cash register open and did so with the aid of tools belonging to the office which he found near at hand. All the tools and two butcher knives from the kitchen were found lying on the show case beside the register.

The safe was also opened but nothing of value was taken from it.
 It is not known positively that the safe's combination was on when the room was locked up but it is thought that it was as appearances indicate that the party had spent some time before solving the combination.

How entrance was gained is yet to be learned as all doors and windows were locked when the room was unlocked Sunday morning. All doors in the building are equipped with spring locks so that one may leave without the aid of a key and it is presumed that an exit was gained by way of the basement door into the alley at the rear of the building.

No clew as to the guilty party has been found as yet.

Ashland Colony
 Holds Reunion

There was a reunion of the Ashland colony in the Bay City and its suburbs recently, in this particular instance Berkeley having been selected for the gathering in which a score of teachers and others engaged in various pursuits joined in singing the praises of the old Southern Oregon surroundings. The chaplain of this social esquad was none other than our friend, Rev. H. A. Carnehan, former pastor of the Ashland Presbyterian church, now engaged in "Y" activities among soldiers and sailors with headquarters at the Embarcadero San Francisco, a work which is conducted semi-officially under the auspices of both government and Y. M. C. A.

FARMERS SAY PUREBREDS BEAT ORDINARY STOCK

It is the consensus of opinion of 500 growers of purebred and grade live stock who were questioned by the United States department of agriculture that the purebred sire is from 10 to 400 per cent better than the ordinary sire. This applies to all classes of live stock. Many of the men who replied to the department's questionnaire, gave figures and specific instances to back up what they had to say regarding the remarkable improvement effected in a relatively short time.

In reply to the question as to the value of their example in inducing others in the community to take up improved live stock, most of these farmers and breeders said that they had been the means of starting at least two or three, and one man who had been raising purebreds for 40 years, said he had influenced every man in the neighborhood.

HITSON MOTORS
 AND SERVICE SHOP
 CHANGES HANDS

The J-P-R Automobile Service company has taken over the service department and repair shop at the Hitson Motors, 36-40 Fir street, Medford.

The aim of the new management will be to do contract work on all repair jobs. In other words, they will tell the car owners the exact cost of labor on any job that comes to their shop. They will guarantee all complete rebuilt jobs for 90 days, the same as the factory.

R. T. Johnson, general superintendent of the shop, comes from the Cook and Gill company of Portland,

HELPFUL SUGGESTIONS ON MAKING BREAD

The baker's product has so improved in the last few years that home-made bread is fast becoming a lost art. There was a time when every housewife either made good bread or aspired to do so. Is there anyone who does not enjoy and appreciate a slice of good home-made bread? So, why not once in a while treat the family to the home-made loaf? And surely we will never outgrow a taste for home-made Parker House rolls.

In all my teaching experience no woman was so proud of her ability to cook as the housewife who could make good rolls. Then perhaps there are members of the family who prefer coarse breads. These are not always supplied at the baker's. Regardless of the very wonderful, modern, sanitary baking plants, every housekeeper should know how to make bread. That was clearly demonstrated during the war.

It seems strange that comparatively so few housekeepers know how to make bread when it is the most used of any one type of food.
 It appears on the table three times a day every day in the year and certainly was truly named "the staff of life." If you know how to judge from the baker's product.

The longer the batter is beaten the less kneading the dough will require. When dough can be lifted in a mass on a spoon, it is ready to knead.

Dough is kneaded to mix the ingredients thoroughly, to make the gluten elastic, and to work in the air. It is sufficiently kneaded when it can be left on the board for a minute or more without sticking.

In cool weather, the bowl containing the dough may be set in a pan

SOUTHERN OREGON
 NOT REPRESENTED
 EXPOSITION BOARD

PORTLAND, Or., Jan. 26.—Direction of the campaign for the proposed 1925 exposition was today in the hands of a committee of nine, following announcement by Julius E.
 Meier, chairman of the state wide exposition board, of the names of the members he was authorized Tuesday by the board to appoint.

This committee will have charge of exposition affairs during the absence of Mr. Meier, who will make a world tour in the interests of the exposition, starting from San Francisco, February 21. Seven of the members are Portland men, one W.
 W. Harrah, is from Pendleton and one, Frank H. Deckenbach, from Salem.

Launching of a new financial plan will be deferred until after the May primaries in order to keep it from becoming a political issue, it was announced.

The new committee will meet in a few days and is expected to appoint H. D. Lea, state fair secretary, as vice chairman to take active charge, according to committee members.

MARY A. ROLFE, OF O. A. C., LECTURES TO H. S. GIRLS

Mary A. Rolfe, dean of the girls at the Oregon Agricultural college, arrived in Ashland Friday morning from Corvallis for a three day stay.
 Yesterday afternoon she delivered an address to the high school students, emphasizing in particular the duties and responsibilities that they, as men and women of the world, would soon have to assume and endeavored to make these students of today realize that they must get ready to handle the problems of tomorrow. Dean Rolfe spoke along the line of encouraging attending college and gave the proportion of successful men and women as one who completed common school, 80 who have a high school education, and 800 who complete a college course.

Dean Rolfe served overseas as a Red Cross nurse, and as there is no dean of men at O. A. C., quite frequently comes in contact with men of the college who have seen overseas service.

All social affairs of the students must be arranged for through the dean's office, which assures the parents of students that only parties with her approval are allowed. She further stated that she believed the O. A. C. is a type of school unsurpassed by any school in the United States in that it has all of the refinements of the exclusive women's schools of the east, and all of the advantages of the schools of the middle west. Dean Rolfe is now serving her first year at Corvallis and is delighted with the work there.
