

Local and Personal

(From Monday's Daily)

Former Resident Dies—

Word was received Sunday morning by Mrs. E. F. Gattis, of Gresham street, of the death of her daughter, Mrs. Ethel Shirley, who passed away at St. Louis, Mo., Sunday morning at 6 o'clock. Death was due to valvular trouble of the heart. Mrs. Shirley lived for a short time in Ashland and made many warm friends, who will always remember her for her gentleness and kindness. Besides her mother, Mrs. Shirley is survived by her husband, George L. Shirley of St. Louis, two brothers, James and Herbert Horan, and a sister, Mrs. Louise Peterson, all of Sabula, Iowa. The body will be placed temporarily in a vault in St. Louis.

Visiting at Drain—

Andrew Redifer, of Eighth street, is visiting relatives in Drain, Or., this week, and will visit at Myrtle Creek en route home.

Recovering from Illness—

Rufus Trusty, of Fifth street, who has been suffering from an attack of gall stones for some days past is able to be up again.

Junior Basketball—

The first games of the Y. M. C. A. Junior basketball league was played Saturday afternoon at the high school gymnasium. The first game was taken by the Presbyterians from the Baptists, 18 to 8, while the Methodists just got one the better of the Christians, and quit with a score of 17 to 16. The first half of the second game, however, was decidedly in favor of the Christians, but the Methodists seemed to get the "go" on the game in the second half after they had a chance to breathe a bit.

Social Evening—

The Odd Fellows and Rebekahs will spend a social evening at the lodge rooms on North Main street tomorrow night. A program will be given, followed by refreshments and dancing.

Will Install Delivery—

The Square Deal grocery will install its own delivery system beginning March 1, to take the place of the united system of which they are patrons.

State Deputy to Visit—

State Deputy F. B. Currey, of Portland, will visit the local Modern Woodmen camp Wednesday evening, February 3. Mr. Currey and an assistant will start a drive in this territory for new members.

Appendicitis Operation—

Miss Evelyn Padlock was operated on Friday at a local hospital for appendicitis. Latest reports are to the effect that she is doing nicely.

Go To Klamath Falls—

Mrs. Clara G. Esson and Miss Parker of Portland, and other Sunday school workers, who have been assisting in the institute work in Ashland, Medford, Central Point and Phoenix the past week, left for Klamath Falls Saturday to remain over Sunday in the institute work in our sister city.

Call Meeting of W. C. T. U.—

A called meeting of the W. C. T. U. has been issued for Tuesday afternoon, January 31, at 2:30 o'clock, at the city library. A good attendance is desired.

Signs of Spring—

Pussy willows are coming out all ready this year, regardless of the snow, and is a good indication that spring will soon be here once again.

Dinner Guests—

Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Prose and son Harold, and Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Prose were dinner guests at the J. V. Wright home on Mountain avenue Friday. Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Prose started for their former home in Eastern Oregon on Saturday, after having lived in Ashland for some time.

Visits Relatives—

Mr. and Mrs. O. N. Wilson, of Medford, visited Mr. Wilson's sister, Mrs. C. W. Fraley, of Mountain avenue, on Thursday. The Wilsons also visited other relatives while in the city.

Bible Lectures Popular—

Sunday morning and again Sunday evening, Rev. Josephine Champlin spoke at the Christian church to a capacity house, delivering her third and fourth Bible lectures of a series of 12 that she has outlined. The intent of this series, according to Mrs. Champlin, is a study of the unity and continuity of the writings of the sacred word, and judging by the interest manifest it is a worthwhile study. This evening, the subject is, "Jesus, the Promised Redeemer, the expected Messiah?" "If there are moments when you are inclined to feel that perhaps, after all, these things are a mistake," says Mrs. Champlin. "This is exactly the sermon you need to hear. It will give you something substantial to tie to."

Embroidery Club Meets—

The Friday Afternoon Embroidery club met last week with Mrs. J. C. Poor on Sherman street. The afternoon was spent with needle work as usual, after which dainty refreshments were served.

Those present beside the hostess were Mesdames H. C. Emery, Roy Hale, Frank Foltz, Mark Smith, J. R. Lilly, O. W. Long, M. D. Love, Earl Hosler and C. A. Cotter. The next to entertain the club will be Mrs. M. Smith, who resides on B street.

Returns to Ranch Home—

Mrs. S. F. Lyman has returned to her ranch home near Grants Pass, after a visit of a couple of weeks with her son, C. W. Lyman, on Second street.

Will Return to Oregon—

Oscar Cooper, who is preaching at the Christian church at Grangeville, Ida., writes to Ashland friends that he and his wife expect to return to Oregon in June to take up some special studies in the line of his work. Mr. Cooper is a former Ashland boy and the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Cooper, who reside east of town.

Business Trip to Eugene—

C. A. Shutt is combining business with pleasure on a trip to Eugene. While in that city he is the guest of the George Anderson family.

Return from Grants Pass—

Mrs. H. G. Enders and Mrs. I. F. Edgar have returned from Grants Pass, where they accompanied Mr. Enders that far on his way to Portland. While in the Grants Pass they were the guests of Mrs. C. E. Roy. Mr. Enders expects to be in Portland a week longer.

Medford Man Passes Away—

Word was received this morning by Mrs. C. W. Fraley, of Mountain avenue, of the death of her brother James L. Wilson, in Medford. Mr. Wilson has not been in the best of health for some time. He is survived by his wife and one daughter.

Grand Opera in Portland—

Ashland music lovers may be interested to note the appearance in Portland at the Auditorium, March 22 to 25, of the Chicago Grand Opera company. Mail orders for tickets to the number of $90 had been received up to Friday of last week.

Visiting Friends—

Attorney and Mrs. George Winslow, of Tillamook, former college friends of Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Goodman and Mr. and Mrs. C. V. Crowson, have been visiting here for a few days. The Winslows have been in Los Angeles and Arizona and are returning to their home in Tillamook.

Change of Time—

The Southern Pacific will have a slight change of time, effective February 12. The Shasta trains, both north and south, will leave the terminals at the same time, but will clip one hour off of the running time. Train 13 will be some 45 minutes later than at present, and 14 will be some 30 minutes earlier. The exact time at Ashland has not yet been announced.

New Offices for Tourist Bureau—

It is noted in a Portland paper that five branch offices of the Oregon State Tourist bureau will be established in cities of the state through which there is heavy tourist travel. Ashland seems to enjoy a good deal of tourist travel, and it would make a fine place for one of these offices. Why not ask for one?

Called to Medford—

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Fraley of Mountain avenue were called to Medford Saturday evening on account of the illness of Mrs. Fraley's brother, Mr. James L. Wilson of that city.

Will Work in Medford—

Edwin L. Daley who has been employed at the Eagle Meat Market on North Main street has resigned his position there and has taken charge of a market in Medford for Stanley Brothers.

Sells Property—

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Hendricks have sold their property at 438 A street to Mr. and Mrs. Roberts, recent arrivals from Dunsmuir.

Entertains Dean Rolfe—

Mr. and Mrs. Homer Elhart delightfully entertained at dinner Sunday in honor of Miss Mary A. Rolfe, dean of women at Oregon Agricultural college. Those present were, the Misses Mary A. Rolfe, Dortha Abrahams, Geraldine Ruch, Marie Ridings, Loeta Rogers, Mrs. Louise Hammond and daughter Edith.

Visits Husband—

Mrs. Henry Provost has gone to Weed, Calif., to visit her husband, who is working for the Weed Lumber company.

Reports Some Snow—

Mr. Vernon Hooper came in from his ranch on Dead Indian Saturday and reported considerable snow on the mountains, it being from one to two feet deep according to location.

Visiting Relatives—

Mr. Virgil Hawley is again in town after several months absence visiting his father V. V. Hawley, east of town and his brother Delbert Hawley and family of this city.

Attends Institute—

Miss May Hedrick was among the teachers that attended the teachers' institute at Talent Saturday.

Visitor from Salem—

Mrs. Frank Crowson of 8th street is enjoying a visit from her mother who arrived in Ashland from Salem on Sunday morning.

Applegate Visitor—

Mrs. Christine Harr of the Applegate country, accompanied by her small son, John, arrived in town a few days ago and is visiting at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Beaver on Henry street. Mrs. Harr is a former Ashland girl and is gladly welcomed by her friends who will be glad to know that she intends to remain in our city until spring.

Quite Ill—

Mr. David L. Minkler who resides at 240 C street and who has been in poor health for some time is reported improving.

Aged Resident Seriously Ill—

Mr. L. L. Angle who makes his home with his son, Ora Angle on south Pioneer street and who has been bed fast for some seven weeks, was taken worse Sunday night.

Visiting Sister—

Redecorating Building—The interior of the Ames building at Talent is being redecorated with paint furnished by a local merchant.

Meeting Well Attended—

The meetings conducted by Mrs. Josephine Champlin at the Christian church are quite well attended and music of a good quality is being furnished.

Hotel Ashland Guests—

Among the Hotel Ashland guests are the following: Mrs. J. C. Wick, Miss Coza Huddleston, Colfax Wash; Robert McKee, Jack Howard, Hank Pace, E. V. Vaelon, R. B. Duran, H. Hirschberger, Mr. and Mrs. John Wall B. D. Westfall, H. P. McGuire, I. Levy, C. W. Fullerton, S. J. Grimes, Portland; S. A. Danford, C. H. Hoeg, Eugene; H. Stamper, Allan H. Banks, San Francisco; A. C. Clagren, Lethbridge, Alta.; Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Wilson, Sacramento, Calif.; F. A. Jones, R. S. Kimball and J. N. Bard, American Lake, Wash.

Tourist is From North and South—

Mr. B. B. Durant came over the mountains Monday afternoon on his way from Sacramento to Portland and reports the roads in very good shape. Three machines left the Hotel Ashland Monday morning south bound and report the roads to the north in fair condition with very little snow at any place.

Birthday Party—

Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Peters Jr. entertained Saturday at dinner in honor of the second birthday of their little daughter Melicent at the home of Mrs. Peters' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Dunn and little daughter Helen, Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Peters, Sr. Incidentally Mrs. Peters, Sr. also celebrated another birthday, thereby making a double celebration.

Masquerade and Surprise Party—

What provide to be a very delightful surprise party on Jessica Porter at her home on Palm avenue Saturday evening took place when twenty ladies in masquerade costumes put in their appearance. The party was held to celebrate the birthdays of Jessica Porter, Nedie Peters and Anna Robison whose birthdays come on the 27, 28 and 29 of January, respectively. A handkerchief show was given each of the ladies in whose honor the party was given, each receiving quite a number of the dainty kerchiefs. The following are the ladies that were present and the costumes they wore: Ruth Gussinger, egypt queen; Mary Johnson, Turkish lady; Ida Jernigan, Foxxy grandeur; Nellie Peters, a gentleman of leisure; Alice Tamm, a school girl; Dor-sie Smith, little Lord Fauntleroy; Florence Brookmiller, the vamp; Bonni Moss, Hop-Along-Boop; Abbie Hood, Sammy boy; Jennie Clapp, Lizzie Jane; M. E. Mead, the critic; M. N. Wood, a school girl; Mary Erickson, one of the bunch; H. A. Brush, chaperone; Anna Robison, Sis Hopkins; Emma Prose, military lady; Anna Moss, Colonial lady; Mildred Moss, Colonial maiden; Alda Moss, Chop Suey; Jessica Porter, the whole cheese and Viola Wood, a basket ball girl. The party was properly ended by refreshments being served.

(From Saturday's Daily)

Here from Grants Pass—

Ed L. Schmidt of Grants Pass was in town Friday.

Business Visitor—

E. Summers of Medford was a business visitor in Ashland Friday.

On Our Streets—

Gene Watkins of Medford and E. P. Hughes of Talents were in Ashland Friday.

Snow Ball Fight—

The employees of the telephone company engaged in a snow ball fight Friday, but no casualties are reported.

Business Visitor—

M. Garret of Medford was a business visitor here yesterday.

New Stock of Paper—

Swenson and McKee received two large truck loads of new wall paper today and are busy placing it on their shelves.

Bakery Business Grows—

John W. Kistler, proprietor of the Bon Ton bakery, states he disposed of the Bon Ton cafe because the bakery business demanded all his attention. Mr. Kistler is shipping considerable bread out of town, 100 loaves going to Klamath Falls each day.

Express Officials Pass—

Several officials of the American Express company passed through Ashland in a private car attached to train 13 yesterday.

Returned Home—

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Clarke have returned to their home in Dallas, Or., after visiting Mrs. S. R. Jeters and other friends here for several days.

Dunsmuir Visitor—

A. A. Conger of Dunsmuir is visiting friends in Ashland for a few days.

Columbia Hotel Guests—

The following guests have registered at the Hotel Columbia: C. C. Dole, Portland; O. F. Riebel, Roseburg; Mr. and Mrs. S. A. McHugh and son, Oakland, Calif.; C. W. Abraham, W. F. Parry, Portland.

Makes Business Visit—

A. Hill and C. M. Kidd of Medford were business visitors in our city Friday.

Here from Portland—

Rev. L. C. Poor, who was pastor of the Ashland Methodist Episcopal church some eight years ago, is in our city this week, and will deliver a talk at the Methodist church Sunday. Rev. Poor is now a resident of Portland.

Home from Portland—

Rev. P. K. Hammond returned home this morning from Portland, where he has been attending a convention.

Old Friends Visit—

Walter Jones is here visiting his old friend and school mate, T. N. Fleener. It was a pathetic scene when the two met after 48 years.

Able to Leave Hospital—

O. E. Rohrke, 263 Seventh street, who has been in a local hospital the past week, returned to his home last evening much improved in health.

Visits from Rogue River—

Mrs. Priest, of the Allen apartments, returned home from Rogue River yesterday, accompanied by Mrs. J. H. Priest of that place. Mrs. J. H. Priest returned home in the evening.

Ashland Hotel Guests—

The following parties are late arrivals at the Hotel Ashland: K. A. Mather, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Atchison, Seattle; Mr. and Mrs. M. A. M. Ashley, H. E. Hardy, W. W. Woodruff, P. B. Emmons, J. L. Gray, Mr. and Mrs. P. H. Sylvia, and Mike Majors, Portland.

Our Show—

Reports from Medford show that only a very light fall of snow was experienced there Thursday night, and that is entirely gone now. Reports from Slakiyou are to the effect that they have only about six inches of snow at that place, and that machines are wending their way over the top of the Slakiyou daily.

Taken to Hospital—

L. Scott of Salem came to Ashland and returned on train 16 Friday. He was accompanied on the return trip by Frank Penniston, who is going to a hospital at Salem for treatment.

Make Moves—

J. F. Butler, who recently sold his property at 886 A street, has moved to 368 Otis street. T. H. Elliott has moved to 468 Helman street. W. L. Hart, the Fourth street restaurant man, has moved his family to 299 Seenie drive.

Prominent Banker Stops Over—

Mr. and Mrs. M. A. M. Ashley, of Portland, stopped over night here last night. Mr. Ashley is a prominent banker of the Rose City. They will be gone several months, visiting various points in southern California.

Brother Dies—

Mrs. J. M. Morgan, of Mountain avenue, received word yesterday that her brother, who resides near Sheridan, was dead. Mr. and Mrs. Morgan left for there on train 16 last evening.

Fine Enlargement—

Bert H. Hinthorne took a number of photographs of the ice in Litchia park a few days ago, and now has one of them enlarged and colored and on display in his window. It is certainly a typical winter scene.

Business Meeting—

The Christian Workers Band held a business meeting last evening at the Methodist church. A report of the calendar sales was given and some new lines of service outlined. The next meeting will be February 5 at the Congregational church at 2:30 for drill on Bible and personal work.

Christian Endeavor Program—

Christian Endeavor week will be observed by the Presbyterian society as follows: Sunday evening, Junior demonstration at Phoenix; Tuesday evening, attend the revival meeting at the Christian church and assist in the music; Wednesday evening at 6 o'clock, annual birthday banquet at the church, followed by a business meeting; Sunday evening, rally program and conducting of evening service at the church.

Drove from Redding—

It is interesting to note that the highway over the Slakiyou mountains is open, and machines are going over both ways. Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Sylvia of the northern part of the state, drove from Redding, Calif. yesterday and would have arrived in very good time, but machine trouble delayed them, and they arrived shortly after midnight.

Bridge Club Meets—

The Wednesday evening bridge club met at the home of Mrs. O. W. Long on East Main street Wednesday evening. A delightful time was had at bridge and light refreshments were served. Mrs. Elsie Churchman ran up the highest score, and Mrs. Roy Hale won the booby prize. Those present were the Mesdames J. C. Poor, J. R. Lily, J. D. McRea, Roy Hale, Buy Jacobs, Walter Frulan, Elsie Churchman, Shotts, Bevington, Dryad, McVicar, O. W. Long, and Miss Elsie Alexander.

Leaves for Klamath—

Rev. W. L. Van Nys, of Portland, who has been assisting in the series of Sunday school institutes in Jackson county, left for Klamath Falls this morning for a similar service there.

Visiting Friends—

Ardath Losher, of Portland, arrived this morning and will visit with the Emery family for a few days.

(From Friday's Daily)

Drive to Portland—

Mr. and Mrs. M. Clark left for Portland Wednesday, driving their car. After a short time there, they will journey on to Boise, Ida.

Alumni Banquet—

The Oregon alumni of the University of Minnesota will banquet at the Hotel Benson in Portland Saturday evening.

Slightly Indisposed—

Mrs. W. S. Depeau has been slightly indisposed for the past three or four days and is confined to her home.

Chivari Newly Weds—

A number of young people who are neighbors of Mr. John Kellner, got together Tuesday night and chivariated him and made a general noise on Avery street until John bought them off by giving each of them the price of a show.

Aged Man Dies—

Edward A. Hildreth, who was a resident of Ashland a few years ago but of late has lived at Medford, died at Cottage Grove Monday of this week.

Light Failure Stops Game—

The Eugene high school basketball team were in Talent last night to play the high school at that place. The game started but owing to trouble with the lights they were unable to play a full game, the lights going out when about half of the second half was over. The score at that time was 22 to 15 in favor of Eugene with the Talent boys going good.

Will Occupy New Home—

Mrs. Agnes Herndon is hoping to get located in her new bungalow on Beech street in the very near future. Her daughter Josephine, of Klamath Falls, is expecting to come and stay with her here for some time.

Working in Medford—

A. L. Englewood, who recently came here from Colorado is working with the Four Sites Sales agency in Medford for a few days.

Seriously Ill—

Margaret, nine year old daughter of G. S. Vestal, is seriously ill with spinal meningitis.

Tourists Spend Night Here—

Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Ballath and daughter, and Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Hubert, of Albany, Or., stopped over night in our city last night en route to Los Angeles.

Library's Largest Circulation—

The city library reached the high water mark in the way of books taken out last week, when 1190 books went over the desk, Saturday being the largest single day, when 352 books were handed out.

Presbytery to Meet—

The Southern Oregon Presbytery will meet in called session next Monday afternoon at Jacksonville to transact certain business for the church.

Weather Report—

Louis Dodge, local weather observer, reports that four or a half inches of snow fell during the night. The thermometer also made a rapid drop and reached the point of 20 degrees above zero.

Hotel Ashland Guests—

Among the recent arrivals at the Hotel Ashland are Mr. and Mrs. DeWille Semeran, Miss LaNaomi Coffin, Los Angeles; Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Hurlburt, Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Ballath and daughter Maurine, Albany, Or.; G. P. Brown, W. H. Hosher, San Francisco; J. Jordahl, Mr. and Mrs. O. L. Markham, W. L. Frazier, E. L. Gislav, A. R. Frazier, Edwin Curtis, Portland; E. C. Crystal, Vacaville, Calif., and B. H. Schuman of New York City.

Ministerial Association to Meet—

The Rogue River Ministerial association will meet Monday, January 30, at the local Presbyterian church.

Entertains Embroidery Club—

Mrs.