

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

(From Tuesday's Daily)

Talent Miner a Visitor— E. E. Jennison, of Talent, was a pleasant visitor at the Tidings office today.

Hotel Ashland Guests— The following persons are recent arrivals at the Hotel Ashland: E. Sanders, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Frankel, W. H. Atwater, San Francisco; Paul Spitzer, Spokane, Wash.; C. Stevens, Roseburg, Or.; Elbert W. Allen, Salem, Or.; Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Bell, Medford; George Farris, Redwood Falls, Minn.; and Mrs. J. A. McPhail, A. W.

Summons— In the State of Oregon, in and for Jackson County, H. H. Adams and Grace C. Holmes, his wife, plaintiffs, vs. Edgar I. Gillette and Cora Gillette, his wife, Caroline M. McConnell and George F. McConnell, her husband, Effie M. Merrick and Lester L. Merrick, her husband, George V. Gillette and Dora Gillette, his wife, Hugh H. Gillette and Belle Gillette, his wife, Charles H. Gillette and Elizabeth Gillette, his wife, Della W. Fiske, Earl Gillette, William Edgar Gillette, Della T. Shaw and Roy L. Shaw, her husband, Alpha Gillette, and also the unknown heirs of Almond V. Gillette, Martha L. Gillette and Almond C. Gillette, deceased, and also all other persons or parties unknown claiming any right, title, estate, lien or interest in the real estate described in the complaint herein, defendants.

Edgar I. Gillette and Cora Gillette, his wife, Effie M. Merrick and Lester L. Merrick, her husband, Alpha Gillette, also known as Alpha Gibson, and also the unknown heirs of Almond V. Gillette, Martha L. Gillette and Almond C. Gillette, deceased, and also all other persons or parties unknown claiming any right, title, estate, lien or interest in the real estate described in the complaint herein, the above named defendants.

To Improve Property— Mr. Ambrose, father of Mrs. C. W. Chattin, is tearing down his house on Fairview street, and intends to build a new, modern bungalow as soon as the old house is out of the way.

Purchases House— Miss Roberta Ward has purchased the house and three lots formerly owned by Anna Elvins Rouse at 266 Fifth street. The transaction was closed through the Ashland Realty company.

Recovering from Severe Attack— Mrs. Trill Taylor is recovering from a severe attack of laryngitis.

Have Moved Here— Mr. and Mrs. Noel Taylor have moved from Hill, Calif., to a place in the Bellevue district.

Take Honey Moon Trip— Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Moore left this morning for Portland on their honeymoon trip. The length of their trip could not be ascertained.

Wednesday Afternoon Club— The Wednesday Afternoon club of the Presbyterian church will meet Wednesday in the church parlors. All women of the congregation are invited to attend. There will be a program and a social time. The hostesses are Mrs. L. C. Dunn, Mrs. John Fuller and Mrs. H. B. Plummer.

D. A. R. Meeting— The February meeting of the D. A. R. will be held tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the home of Mrs. E. V. Carter.

Has Severe Cold— W. C. Polk is ill with a severe cold at his home at 48 Gresham street.

Returns from California— Mr. and Mrs. James Hersey of 451 North Main street, who have been visiting in southern California for some time, returned to Ashland last evening. Mr. Hersey states that the weather has been very disagreeable there this winter, and does not believe it was any better than he would have enjoyed had he stayed at home.

Returns from Hospital— Miss Winifred Watson, daughter of F. E. Watson, of Strawberry Lane, was brought home from the hospital at Medford yesterday.

A Correction— The name of Barrett was used in yesterday's paper when it should have been Bryant, the person referred to being Lloyd Bryant who was out in the Dead Indian country in search of cattle. Mr. Bryant and another man with two good horses started out in search of the cattle, but were unable to look very widely on account of the depth of the snow. On the trip from Johnson's Prairie to Dead Indian, a distance of about eight miles, they encountered snow to the depth of five or six feet practically all the way, and it took eight hours to make the eight miles. Mr. Bryant states that scarcely any snow fell in that section of the country until after the first of the year, and that the first snowfall was about four feet in one and a night.

Among Those Ill— Dr. W. E. Blake is among those ill with influenza, but is recovering and will be back at work within a few days.

S. P. Officer Visits— I. T. Sparks, district freight and passenger agent of the Southern Pacific company, was an Ashland visitor today.

Moved to Dunsuir— The Hartley family, who have lived on the Boulevard for some time moved to Dunsuir the latter part of the week.

Medically Ill— Levi L. Angle, who makes his home with his son, Orva Angle, at 215 South Pioneer avenue, is critically ill, and it is feared that he will not survive the day.

Recovering from "Flu"— Mrs. Rose Harding is recovering from an attack of the influenza.

Visiting at Provolt— Adam Beigle is visiting relatives at Provolt, Or.

At Work Again— Her friends are glad to note that Miss Agnes Hedburg is able to resume her work at the State Bank of Ashland.

Suffering from Influenza— Mrs. Mary Hale of Beach street is suffering an attack of influenza.

Will Observe Anniversary— All the banks and the post office will be closed tomorrow in observance of Washington's birthday.

Visiting in Ashland— Mrs. Walter Newcomb of Grants Pass was an Ashland visitor today.

Returns Home— Mrs. M. K. Landrum and two children, who have been visiting with Mrs. Landrum's parents for the past two months, returned to their home in Berkeley, Calif., a few days ago.

Here from Portland— Jack Stadler, of the Goodyear Rubber company, was in town yesterday, selling Revere tires.

(From Saturday's Daily) State Delegate— Miss Mary Spencer has been sent as a delegate to the Christian Endeavor state convention at Salem. Miss Spencer is president of the southern Oregon district of the Christian Endeavor.

DOING Well— Word has been received from Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Dickerson, who are sojourning in California, to the effect that Mr. Dickerson's health is gradually on the mend. They also state that they are having delightful weather now after the storm has subsided.

Former Resident Visits— Mrs. C. A. Barr, of Dunsuir, but who formerly lived here, is visiting with her mother, Mrs. F. R. Merrill on the Boulevard.

Former Resident in Colorado— Bert Munday, a former Ashland resident, has been heard from at Fleming, Colo. He had the misfortune to have his Willard battery stolen from his car there a short time ago.

Back at Post— Miss Dortha Jones was able to be at work Friday at the McGee store, after two days of illness.

Mr. Homes Recovering— Frank Homes, who was operated on at a local hospital some time ago, has recovered sufficiently to be removed to his home. Mr. Homes' sister, who is a trained nurse, came here from San Francisco and has been in attendance at his bed side during his illness. She will continue here for a few days visiting.

Spring Decorating— The McGee store has redecorated its windows and now looks real spring-like with its new curtains and floor.

Monthly Meeting Monday— The regular monthly meeting of the Southern Oregon electrical men will be held Monday evening at Medford.

Entertains for Visitor— Mrs. S. M. Rhodes entertained a number of ladies yesterday afternoon in honor of Mrs. Ida Labish of San Francisco, who has been her guest for a few days. Mrs. Labish left on train 53 last evening for her home.

Hotel Ashland Guests— The following parties are registered at the Hotel Ashland: R. W. Weston, Mrs. H. E. Stumer, Mildred I. Stumer, Union City, Wash.; H. G. Bolton, St. Louis, Mo.; Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Hogsett, Louis B. Hogsett, E. McNamom, E. B. Porter, Charles E. Schmundt, San Francisco; H. S. White, Chicago, Ill.; V. M. Powley, Seattle; B. P. Bert, W. W. Woodruff, F. B. Emmons, J. L. Gray, E. E. Edmunds, C. G. Bunnell, Frank C. Vanderhoof, George M. Robinson, Robert McKee, Portland; G. H. Campbell, Eugene, Or.; Mrs. C. A. Pauley, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Crawford, Klamath Falls; Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Carson, Grants Pass; T. A. Sullivan, Everett, Wash.; Mrs. J. M. Dodge, Mrs. G. E. Schurman, Roseburg, Or.; Mr. and Mrs. K. O. Nilsen, Medford; Gilbert Wallen, Salem, Or.; Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Bathurst and family, J. G. Vandenberg, Los Angeles; Mr. Hull, William Heath, Aberdeen, Wash.; Mr. and Mrs. Ed Hadley, Tillamook, Or., and H. A. Harris, Oakland, Calif.

"Valentine Party"— The B. Y. P. U. valentine party held at the church Wednesday evening was well attended and every one enjoyed the games and refreshments to the greatest extent.

In Medford— Louis Dodge was a business visitor in Medford Friday afternoon.

Called to Medford— Thad Coleman was called to Medford yesterday afternoon on account of the illness of his mother there.

Good Time at Card Party— The Trinity Guild card party Thursday evening was thoroughly enjoyed by a crowded house. A number of vocal solos were rendered and appreciatively received. Delicious refreshments were served and every one enjoyed the evening to the fullest.

Presbyterian Sunday School to Celebrate— The Presbyterian Sunday school will have a special program at 9 o'clock opening hour of Sunday school tomorrow. The orchestra will play a number of southern melodies, and a few short talks on the life of Washington will be given by interested Sunday school people, the day to be especially a memorial to the "Father of Our Country."

Carbonic Gas Loaded— A car of carbonic gas was loaded one day this week. The plant at Pompadour mineral springs will start at full capacity in a few days.

Gets Decorations— Gerald Gunter went up Neil creek Friday for green decorations for the Epworth League meeting. Tonight at the Methodist church. The Leaguers have been asked to come dressed in hiking costume and may visit such places as the Josephine caves, etc., during the evening.

(From Wednesday's Daily) Ill with Influenza— Miss Nellie Beaver, one of the teachers at the Junior high school, has been confined to her home this week with an attack of influenza and her place at the school is being filled by Miss Hoag.

Tonsils Removed— Miss Dortha Frulan had her tonsils removed Tuesday morning at a local hospital.

After Effect of Influenza— The doctors report quite a few cases of abscesses of the middle ear, being the after effects of influenza.

Cashier Working Again— V. O. N. Smith, cashier of the Citizens Bank, was able to be at work again Tuesday, after several days spent at home as the result of the influenza.

Moved Tuesday— Mr. Bloomfield, who recently rented the Gunter place on Grant street, moved to that place Tuesday from his former residence on Oak street.

Plumbing Contract Let— Provost Brothers have been awarded the contract for furnishing the plumbing in the Carl Loveland and Steve Erickson houses which are being erected by A. L. Lamb.

On Duty Again— Mrs. Minnie Lane, circulation manager of the Tidings, who had been confined to her home by illness for the past several days, is again on duty to see that every one receives their paper on time.

Annual Ball— The Brotherhood of Railway Carmen will hold their fourth annual ball at the Armory in Ashland Saturday evening, February 18. This affair will be of equal splendor to any of the like affairs held in the past, and it is expected to be a great success. The evening will be spent with music and dancing and all are invited who enjoy either dancing or good music.

Visiting Parents— Mrs. W. R. Parshall, of Montague, Calif., is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Smith, 166 East Main street. She will remain for about a week.

Automotive Dealers Meet— The Automotive Dealers association of southern Oregon met at the Legion hall in Medford Monday evening, and were shown a two reel film, furnished by the national association in regard to ideas for selling goods. Mr. Fink, sales manager of Blue & Wright, and Mr. McCallan, of Wiggins & Company, Incorporated, both of Portland, were the speakers of the evening and gave some interesting and instructive talks.

Leaves for California— Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Millner, who reside on the Boulevard near the normal building, expect to leave for Los Angeles and other southern points tomorrow morning.

Leaves After Visit— Frank B. Walker, who has been visiting relatives here for several days, left Tuesday morning for Red Bluff, Calif., where he will make his future home with his sister at that place.

Makes Business Trip— Edward W. Jones left Tuesday morning for Brownsville, Or., where he expects to look at some property with the intention of an exchange for property that he now owns in Idaho.

Returned from Portland— Robert Warner has returned from Portland where he has been on business for several days.

Visiting Parents— Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Littlechild, of Casper, Wyo., is visiting with Dr. and Mrs. A. E. Littlechild, at their home on Union street. Mr. Littlechild is looking for another location and if the proper opportunity presents itself here, he will make Ashland his future home.

Home from San Francisco— J. J. Fay, of 399 Mountain avenue, is home from San Francisco and his health permitting, he will stay in Ashland for some time.

Good Basketball Game— The First company national guard team defeated the Medford national guard team last night at the Armory by the score of 25 to 16. The game was well played considering the small amount of practice the players have had.

Returned from Frisco— Miss Anna Hargrove returned from San Francisco Monday evening. She has been in the city several days buying her spring stock of millinery. She states that the shades this season are very beautiful, and show a wide variance of color.

Class Party Given— The Young Women's Bible class of the Presbyterian church were the guests of Mesdames Ira Leslie and George Icenhower a few evenings ago, at the home of the latter on Allison street, and such a round of gaiety has been seldom enjoyed by this class as the series of games planned by the hostesses. Miss Emery captained the winning side, which was entertained by a graceful stunt enacted by the losers. A spring millinery sale was a huge success.

Entertain at Dinner— Mr. and Mrs. Nate Bates entertained at dinner Monday evening at their home, 101 Scenic Drive. Mr. and Mrs. Louis Dodge, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Wilson and Mr. and Mrs. Hal McNeil were present. After the dinner hour the evening was spent at cards.

Embroidery Club to Meet— The Friday Afternoon Embroidery club will meet Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Bert Trotter at 167 Harrison street.

Will Deliver Address— Rev. W. Judson Oldfield, pastor of the local Congregational church, will go to Grants Pass Friday evening of this week where he will deliver an address at the Scottish Rite club of Southern Oregon. Incidentally, Rev. Oldfield is a K. C. C. H., the only one south of Eugene in the state.

Hotel Ashland Guests— The Hotel Ashland has the following guests registered: Ruth Montgomery Eugene, J. C. Myers, E. L. Gordon, A. R. Frazier, Edwin G. Curtis, John W. Cunningham, Portland; Jonas Brolin, C. Atkin, Paul T. Kinney, Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Reed, Seattle; Henry Cheery, E. L. Cassan, Lonnie Kernes, John Rothoff, W. H. Colby, Chicago; Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Rainey, Black River Falls, Wis.; J. W. Sowards, Salem, Ore.; F. G. Ostland, Minneapolis, Minn.; Nathan R. Gale, Grants Pass; R. E. Ham, Bremerton, Wash.; Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Hamburg, Oakland, Calif.; Mr. and Mrs. N. E. Wenten and Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Daniels, San Francisco.

Returns from Idaho— Mrs. E. W. Erickson, who was called to her home in Caldwell, Idaho, two weeks ago by the death of her sister, Blanch Vail, returned today on train 53. Mrs. Erickson reports conditions in Idaho as being discouraging. "Many men are out of employment and farmers are still holding their last summer's hay and grain," she said. Both Mr. and Mrs. Erickson are members of the Tidings force.

Medical Association Meets— The regular monthly meeting of the Jackson County Medical association will be held Wednesday evening at the home of Dr. Thayer in Medford. Dr. Gordon MacCracken will read the paper of the evening, his Funeral Held Today— The funeral of the late Mrs. W. J. Taylor, who died Monday morning at her home on Lincoln street, was held this afternoon at 2 o'clock from the J. P. Dodge and Sons funeral parlors. Interment was made in Mountain View cemetery.

Medford Visitors— Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Coffman of North Pioneer avenue, were Medford visitors Tuesday.

Still Breaking Records— The public library is gaining in circulation week by week, having had a circulation of 1367 for the week ending February 4.

Another Employee— Theodore Russell has been employed by N. Dix and Sons to take care of their business of washing machines and changing tires, and began work there this morning.

Three and a Half Feet Snow— Ernest Cooper, from about 20 miles out in the Dead Indian country, was in town yesterday and reports three and a half feet of snow in his locality.

Medical Association Meets— The regular monthly meeting of the Jackson County Medical association will be held Wednesday evening at the home of Dr. Thayer in Medford. Dr. Gordon MacCracken will read the paper of the evening, his Funeral Held Today— The funeral of the late Mrs. W. J. Taylor, who died Monday morning at her home on Lincoln street, was held this afternoon at 2 o'clock from the J. P. Dodge and Sons funeral parlors. Interment was made in Mountain View cemetery.

Medford Visitors— Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Coffman of North Pioneer avenue, were Medford visitors Tuesday.

Still Breaking Records— The public library is gaining in circulation week by week, having had a circulation of 1367 for the week ending February 4.

Another Employee— Theodore Russell has been employed by N. Dix and Sons to take care of their business of washing machines and changing tires, and began work there this morning.

Three and a Half Feet Snow— Ernest Cooper, from about 20 miles out in the Dead Indian country, was in town yesterday and reports three and a half feet of snow in his locality.

Medical Association Meets— The regular monthly meeting of the Jackson County Medical association will be held Wednesday evening at the home of Dr. Thayer in Medford. Dr. Gordon MacCracken will read the paper of the evening, his Funeral Held Today— The funeral of the late Mrs. W. J. Taylor, who died Monday morning at her home on Lincoln street, was held this afternoon at 2 o'clock from the J. P. Dodge and Sons funeral parlors. Interment was made in Mountain View cemetery.

Medford Visitors— Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Coffman of North Pioneer avenue, were Medford visitors Tuesday.

Still Breaking Records— The public library is gaining in circulation week by week, having had a circulation of 1367 for the week ending February 4.

Another Employee— Theodore Russell has been employed by N. Dix and Sons to take care of their business of washing machines and changing tires, and began work there this morning.

Three and a Half Feet Snow— Ernest Cooper, from about 20 miles out in the Dead Indian country, was in town yesterday and reports three and a half feet of snow in his locality.

Medical Association Meets— The regular monthly meeting of the Jackson County Medical association will be held Wednesday evening at the home of Dr. Thayer in Medford. Dr. Gordon MacCracken will read the paper of the evening, his Funeral Held Today— The funeral of the late Mrs. W. J. Taylor, who died Monday morning at her home on Lincoln street, was held this afternoon at 2 o'clock from the J. P. Dodge and Sons funeral parlors. Interment was made in Mountain View cemetery.

Medford Visitors— Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Coffman of North Pioneer avenue, were Medford visitors Tuesday.

Still Breaking Records— The public library is gaining in circulation week by week, having had a circulation of 1367 for the week ending February 4.

Another Employee— Theodore Russell has been employed by N. Dix and Sons to take care of their business of washing machines and changing tires, and began work there this morning.

Three and a Half Feet Snow— Ernest Cooper, from about 20 miles out in the Dead Indian country, was in town yesterday and reports three and a half feet of snow in his locality.

Medical Association Meets— The regular monthly meeting of the Jackson County Medical association will be held Wednesday evening at the home of Dr. Thayer in Medford. Dr. Gordon MacCracken will read the paper of the evening, his Funeral Held Today— The funeral of the late Mrs. W. J. Taylor, who died Monday morning at her home on Lincoln street, was held this afternoon at 2 o'clock from the J. P. Dodge and Sons funeral parlors. Interment was made in Mountain View cemetery.

Medford Visitors— Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Coffman of North Pioneer avenue, were Medford visitors Tuesday.

Still Breaking Records— The public library is gaining in circulation week by week, having had a circulation of 1367 for the week ending February 4.

Another Employee— Theodore Russell has been employed by N. Dix and Sons to take care of their business of washing machines and changing tires, and began work there this morning.

ALBERS DAIRY FEEDS To feed for profitable milk production means that Good cows must have Good feed Many men starve good cows and Many men allow a bunch of poor cows to starve them but the men who make a business of dairying and keep good cows invariably buy feeds that will keep the cow in good flesh maintain the maximum milk flow return a profit for the time and money expended Albers Dairy Feeds will co-operate with good cows and good dairymen Sold by Ashland Fruit and Produce Association

All Flour and Cereals have advanced, but we are selling what we have on hand at the old prices Flour from . . . $1.50 to $2.25 We now have a line of Chick Feed, Scratch and Shell See us for quality and prices on Groceries and Meats You will save money PLAZA MARKET H. A. STEARNS 61 NORTH MAIN STREET

Washington and Lincoln On Thrift Washington called thrift "the foundation of happy homes and sound nations." Lincoln considered it "one of the first and highest virtues." Thrift is best exemplified in savings accounts. This institution will welcome yours. The Citizens Bank Ashland, Oregon