

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

(From Wednesday's Daily)

Suffering from Influenza—
G. C. Peebler is confined to his home on Liberty street, with the influenza.

Visiting Here—
Mrs. H. P. Kervin is spending a week in town with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. Dickey of Mechanic street. She will go from here to Silver City, Nevada, where her home is.

Improving—
Miss Anna Hargrove, who has been ill with the influenza for a few days, is reported as improving.

Returned from Northern Oregon—
Edward W. Jones has returned from the northern part of the state, where he has been on business.

Taken to Hospital—
C. A. Cotter, of 167 Harrison street was taken to the Southern Pacific hospital at San Francisco today on train 13. He has been ill for the past week and it was deemed best to remove him to the hospital so he could receive the best of treatment.

Public Health Meeting—
The annual meeting of the Jackson County Public Health association will be held Friday, February 24, at 2 o'clock in the afternoon, at the Medford public library, at Medford. All parents are urged to attend.

Recovering from Influenza—
Mrs. Robert Middleton, who has been ailing with influenza for ten days, is improving and is able to receive friends at her home.

Moves to Boulevard—
Lee McMichael has moved from 549 East Main street to the Cole property, 737 Boulevard.

Play Roseburg Friday—
The Ashland high school basketball quintet will again match their skill with the Roseburg high school team, but on an entirely different floor. Friday evening is the time, and the local high school gymnasium the place of the coming contest.

Taking Treatments—
Mrs. Cara Shribler is suffering from rheumatism and is here from Talent taking treatments from a local physician. Mrs. Shribler is the grandmother of Mrs. John Mayfield.

Cable Splicer Here—
Mr. Jjams, cable splicer for the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph company, from Eugene, is here for several days. He will repair the cable at the corner of First and East Main streets, which was put out of order some time ago when water got on the inside of the cable and froze. The mishap placed all the telephones in a certain district out of commission.

Conference at Medford—
A conference of the chief operators of the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph company of this district is being held at Medford all this week. The district takes in all of the state south of Eugene, including Klamath Falls.

Returns from 'Frisco—
Miss Evelyn Danford arrived home last evening from San Francisco and vicinity where she has been since the first part of November, being employed there as a designer of dresses and evening wraps.

Proprietors in Charge—
Mrs. Minard, who took charge of the Plaza confectionery Tuesday, was agreeably surprised to have her partner, Fred A. Taylor, show up ready for business this morning. She had not expected him before Saturday or the first of the week.

Influenza Victim—
Dr. F. H. Johnson is confined to his home by an attack of influenza.

Has Wonderful Trip—
Mrs. Myrtle C. Boslough writes that she is now in Dwight, No. Dak., visiting her sister and expects to be there for several months. She also states that in her trip last summer, she visited nine different countries, and had a wonderful trip from start to finish.

Recovering from Pneumonia—
Mrs. Will Moore, wife of the obliging mail carrier, is recovering from an attack of pneumonia with which she has been suffering for several days.

Catch Big Steelhead—
Robert Middleton and Mr. Costello made a trip to Rogue river Sunday and brought back an eight and a half pound steelhead which measured 32 inches in length. Mr. Middleton reports that there is a big gun of steelheads at present.

Have Monthly Meeting—
The electrical dealers of southern Oregon held their monthly meeting Monday evening at the Hotel Medford in Medford, where a sumptuous dinner was served to fifteen. Three of the California-Oregon Power company men were present, and after the dinner was over, took the party to the building of the company, that has just been completed and showed them some of the wonders of electrically equipped buildings. Messrs. F. J. Murphy and J. S. Jordan were in attendance from Ashland.

Suffering from Influenza—
L. J. Orres is confined to his home, suffering with an attack of influenza.

Takes New Position—
Charles Christian, who has been in charge of the shoe shining parlor on First street, for some time, is now driving one of the yellow wagons for the Square Deal grocery.

Influenza—
Jack Peebler has been confined to his home all of this week with influenza.

Club Meets—
Mrs. Fred Wilson was hostess Monday evening to the Come When You Can club at their home on North Main street.

Ill with Influenza—
Mrs. G. M. Frost is among the sufferers who have influenza at the present time.

Moved to North Main—
A. Street, who is employed by D. H. Jackson on his ranch north of the city, has moved to 722 North Main street.

Reported Doing Fine—
Reports from the bedside of Mrs. Cleo Mast is to the effect that she is doing fine.

Ladies' Elk Club—
Mesdames Hughes and Provost are the hostesses for the Ladies' Elk club which will meet Thursday afternoon.

Leave for Portland—
Mrs. Gordon MacCracken and Mrs. Ernest Hogue will leave this evening for Portland to attend the tenth annual meeting of the D. A. R., which is being held the last three days of the week there. They will be joined in Portland by Mrs. Swigart, who is a member of the local chapter, but is now a resident of Harrisburg, Or.

Held Joint Meeting—
The G. A. R. and W. R. C. held a joint meeting last Saturday afternoon. A fine patriotic program of songs and addresses was followed by a social hour and refreshments. The deathless loyalty and patriotic spirit of these splendid survivors of the war for union and freedom seems only intensified by their fast dwindling ranks.

In Glendale—
Rev. C. F. Koehler is in Glendale this week conducting a special service in the church at that place.

Visiting Mother—
Miss Alice Reed, of Gerber, Calif., is here visiting her mother, Mrs. H. Reid, at her home, 264 Oak street.

Embroidery Club to Meet—
The Friday Afternoon Embroidery club will meet this week with Mrs. Frank Foltz, on B street.

Basketball at Talent—
The basketball quintet of the local high school went to Talent last evening where they engaged in an hour of practice with the Talent high school team. It was really scheduled as a game, but was in fact only good practice for the locals, the final score being 53 to 19 in favor of Ashland. The local girls team also won by a good margin.

Will Inspect Meat Market—
James Barrett, who left a few days ago for Cottage Grove, is expecting to look over a large meat market there with the intention of purchasing it, if suitable.

Visiting Friends—
Mrs. Fred Martz, of Sheridan, Or., is visiting friends in the city for a few days.

Suffering from Rheumatism—
N. Dix, of Dix and Sons, is suffering from an attack of rheumatism and is unable to be at his place of business.

Has Been Quite Ill—
H. H. Palmer has been quite ill at his home on Allison street, but is considerably improved at this time.

Embroidery Club—
The Friday Afternoon Embroidery club will meet at the home of Mrs. F. S. Foltz, at 286 B street.

Have Received Charter—
The Ashland Teachers association have received a charter from the National Educational association, thereby making the local organization an affiliation of the national association.

Visits Schools—
Dr. W. E. Buchanan, and V. O. N. Smith, members of the school board, spent the day yesterday visiting the schools. They report the work being done is very gratifying.

Notice to Masons—
All Masons are requested to meet at the lodge rooms at 1:30 o'clock Friday afternoon to attend and conduct the funeral of Herman Gebauer.

Operated on for Abscess—
The son of R. E. Irwin, living at Talent, was operated on for an abscess over the eye the early part of the week.

Goods Being Placed—
The manager of the new Golden Rule store is placing goods on the shelves in the room which they have rented in the Elks building.

Returns to Grants Pass—
Mrs. R. L. Burdick Sr., who has been visiting with her son, R. L. Burdick Jr., and family for the past three weeks, returned to her home in Grants Pass the first of the week.

Elected President—
A. M. Beaver was elected president of the Buckeye association, which held its regular annual meeting at Medford yesterday. A good time was reported by those who attended.

Here from North Dakota—
J. P. Chisholm, of Bismark, No. Dak., came here yesterday to try the climate for asthma. Mr. Chisholm was assistant state veterinarian in North Dakota and will enter the practice here. He is located at 217 Fourth street, as will be noted from his professional card in the Tidings.

Hotel Ashland Guest List—
The following guests are registered at the Hotel Ashland: D. L. Jjams, J. D. Dick, Eugene, Or.; Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Dooy, Columbus, Ohio; William H. Case, Grants Pass; O. S. Brown, Glendale, Or.; J. D. Banister, H. E. Graham, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Jones, Seattle; Charles R. Welch, F. L. Wisdom, Robert McKee, George M. Robison, J. Brown, A. L. George, Portland; Ed Coney, Klamath Falls; A. B. Smythe, H. B. Helsby, F. Thidyard, C. M. Ragan, San Francisco; J. W. E. Ross, Coquille, Or.; L. J. Merrill, Mosier, Or.; Charles Rayhard, New York City; F. H. Spooner, Chicago; and Ray L. Antrim.

Columbia Hotel Guests—
The following are registered at the Columbia hotel: E. R. Francis, G. F. Bradshaw, C. L. McCaslin, Charles E. Thompson, A. R. Brown, J. H. Garvin, A. L. George, Portland; Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Loughlin, Seattle; O. P. Riebel, M. D. Bryant, R. J. Schrader, Roseburg, Or.; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Ferguson, Missoula, Mont.; E. S. Bryant, Dunsuir, Calif. and V. Q. Hales, Talent.

Caller from Medford—
Mrs. M. S. Bieden, of Medford, was a caller on Mrs. Minard, one of the new proprietors of the Plaza confectionery, Wednesday afternoon.

Left for Oakland—
J. T. Roberts, night patrolman, left for Oakland, Calif., Tuesday night, where he will visit with his sister for some time and see if the change of climate will benefit his health.

Returns from California—
S. Penniston, who has been on a business trip to Grenada and Yreka, Calif., for the past ten days, returned to Ashland Tuesday evening.

Visit Gold Ray—
Wilbert Jordan, Ed Coovling and P. C. Jordan made a trip to Gold Ray yesterday, presumably with the intention of catching a few steelheads.

Celebrates Birthday—
John B. Leach, of 108 Alida street, celebrated a birthday anniversary February 22, and as the post office and banks were all closed that day, it is said by some people that it was in celebration of his birth, but there may be a mistake in that particular. However, Mr. Leach has lived many long years and says that he remembers many things distinctly that happened 70 years ago. His many friends hope that he has many more pleasant birthdays.

At Junior High—
Merl Hess has left school this week and moved with his folks to California.

Visits Medford—
Howard Rose was a business visitor in Medford Wednesday afternoon.

Gas Tank Arrives—
The large gas tank to be used by the new service station on East Main street, near the Overland garage, has arrived on the ground ready for installation.

Talent Visitor—
Mrs. John Barrett of Talent was a business visitor in Ashland Wednesday.

Has Rented Home—
Mrs. Phillip Wolcott Jr. has rented the Mitchell property at 75 Bush.

Takes Furniture to Rogue River—
Ben Howe, meat cutter at the Plaza grocery, left this morning with a load of furniture and other belongings for Rogue River, where he is building a home.

Undergoes Operation—
Mrs. D. M. Gilmore underwent a nasal operation Wednesday morning by a local surgeon.

Business Visitor—
Thomas Fuson, of Medford, was a business visitor in Ashland today.

On Way to Seattle—
Clay Myer, who lives at Seattle, Wash., passed through here on his way home from southern California, and stopped over night in Ashland last night. He states that the orange groves were frozen badly and that practically all the trees were a yellowish green for a foot and half on the top, and that all the small trees were almost entirely destroyed. The weather when he left San Diego was the same as when he arrived at Medford the first of the week.

Tonsils Removed—
The little daughter of Mrs. Jennie Hervey was operated on a few days ago and had her tonsils removed.

Arrived from Dunsuir—
Miss Farlin Been, of Dunsuir, arrived last evening on train 16 for a week's visit as the guest of Mrs. Charles Drue and Odessa Foltz.

Moves of the Day—
Mrs. Gomez has moved from the Virginia apartments to 117 Laurel street.

Jack Madden has moved to the property at 119 Laurel street.
C. V. Wheelock is now located at 195 Skidmore street.

W. H. Casebeer, who operates the fish and poultry market on North Main street, has moved into the property at 63 Pine street.

H. C. Lighty has moved to the I. N. L. Shriner property at 311 Wimer street.

Alden Powell is moving from the McNair property at the corner of Bush street and Scenic Drive.

John Cohagen of the H. C. Enders store is back at work after a week at home suffering with influenza.

William Hedrick, of B street, left for Douglas county today, where he will be employed for several weeks as deputy assessor. Mr. Hedrick will visit his son, Ray Hedrick, of Drain, Or., before beginning his work March 1.

William Tedlock, of Kansas, is enjoying a visit with his nephew, E. W. Redifer, of Myrtle Creek, at present. Mr. Tedlock has never been accustomed to the mountains, and finds some difficulty in getting sufficiently elevated at Myrtle Creek to view the whole of Douglas county at one time.

The Social Circle of the Christian church met at the home of Mrs. Hattie Smith on B street Wednesday afternoon. Some business was transacted, and the following officers elected for the year: President, Mrs. O. W. Long; vice president, Mrs. Mary Hale; secretary, Mrs. Ruth Gulsinger; treasurer, Mrs. J. V. Wright.

Miss Mary Spencer, who was in attendance at the Christian Endeavor convention at Salem, returned to her home this week. Miss Spencer reports considerable sickness down the valley, and said the Christian Endeavor delegates were not allowed to visit the penitentiary on account of the severe influenza epidemic among the prisoners.

The pupils who have been confined to their homes with colds for some time, are gradually returning to school.

The committee of entertainment has plans for a program to be presented in the Armory about April 1.

The county nurse has been at the Junior High and Hawthorne schools this week.

Returned to Weed—
Mrs. Philip Mugler and daughter Lucile, who have been here for some time, returned to their home at Weed, Calif., Thursday.

Recent Real Estate Deal—
One of the recent real estate deals is the sale of the James Tucker property consisting of a house and three lots on Avery street to his brother, M. M. Tucker, who is now in California. Mr. Tucker has retained two lots adjoining this property on which he expects to start the construction of a modern bungalow in the near future.

Visits Home Folks—
C. G. Benedict came over from Klamath Falls last week and after visiting home folks for a few days, went to California, where he expects to secure employment. C. G. Benedict is the only son of C. W. Benedict, living on Mountain avenue.

New Help—
Orpha Oalin began work at the Home bakery on North Main street today.

Goes to Rogue River—
Mrs. Ben Howe expected to leave today for Rogue River to make her future home. Mr. Howe accompanied a load of goods that were taken there Thursday and, while he will spend a great deal of his time there, he will be in Ashland almost every week for some time.

Hiked Up Ashland Canyon—
H. C. Emery and Dr. C. F. Tilton took a hike up Ashland creek canyon Wednesday and reported that it was rather rough going after hitting the snow three miles from town. They went by Grainger's cabin and to Keeney's cabin, the snow being three feet deep at the latter place. On the way they jumped up a herd of deer, and one doe jumped into the path only 30 feet in front of them.

Scraping the Streets—
The city's Fordson and scraper were busy Thursday afternoon on some of our streets, filling up the ruts and taking out the bumps.

On Sick List—
Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Jordan, who live on the Boulevard, are both reported as being on the sick list.

House Needs Completion—
Mrs. Della Acklin, who has been having built a new up-to-date bungalow on her property at the corner of Nursery and Rock streets, reports the house will be completely finished within the next ten days.

Elks Have Big Dance—
The Elks' dance committee gave another of their enjoyable affairs Wednesday evening, which was largely attended and thoroughly enjoyed by all present. A tamales supper was served and all went home in the small hours of the night.

Still on Sick List—
L. J. Orres is still on the sick list and information is to the effect that he will not attempt to be at the store before Saturday.

In Charge of Shoe Shine Stand—
W. V. Ramsey has been employed to take charge of the shoe shining parlors on First street.

Fred Deardorf, an employe of the Southern Pacific in the local yards, is confined to his home on North Main street, with influenza.

Georgianna Clift has returned to her home in Ashland after a week spent with her sister at Talent.

Mrs. J. N. Dennis was able to walk down town Thursday for the first time after several days at home with the influenza.

James Bowers was in town Thursday afternoon after a severe attack of influenza that has kept him at home for the past two weeks.

A machine from Hood River, Or., bearing a California license, which had apparently spent the winter in California, came into town from the south last evening.

Mrs. R. Hargrove, niece of Mrs. E. D. Briggs, who has been visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Briggs at the corner of Rush and Almond streets, for the last month, left this morning for her home in New Orleans, La.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Myer, of Seattle, Wash., who have been in southern California for the past three months, stopped here on their way home for a few days' visit with Mrs. Myer's sister, Mrs. Grainger, and her mother, Mrs. Mary Vining.

Mrs. Mansfield, of Seattle, Wash., is at one of the local stores demonstrating the Parisian embroidery needle. She will be here until Saturday.

H. B. Carter, of Mountain avenue, has been on the sick list for some time, but is able to be about again.

S. A. Peters Jr., of the Citizens bank, has gone to Portland to attend a meeting of the agents of the New York Life Insurance company, which is holding a conference there this week.

Mrs. George McVicar, who resides on the Boulevard is recovering from an attack of the influenza.

District Attorney Rawles Moore will deliver an address before the W. C. T. U. at the Presbyterian church Tuesday afternoon and will be worth hearing.

Ben Howe was in town from Rogue River today and tells of having seen on his last trip to his place near there, two men who had been fishing, and one was carrying a long string of fish and seemed to have about all he could get along with. Quite a few other fishermen were also seen busily engaged.

J. B. Saunders, who has been confined to his home at 570 Boulevard for several days with influenza, is able to be about again.

Mrs. William Holmes, of Skidmore street, who has been suffering with the influenza for the past week, is improving.

Among those who came to the basketball game last evening from Roseburg were Elsie Bergh, Elva Westcott and Phil Bergh. They drove through in a car, leaving this morning for Medford, where they will stay for tonight's game between Medford and Roseburg.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Miller, who have been visiting in southern California for the past two months have been spending the past two days in this city visiting with Mr. Miller's brother and family, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Miller, at their home on Church street. They will leave this evening for their home at Tacoma, Wash.

C. A. Wyman, district traffic manager of the telephone company, who lives at Eugene, spent Friday in Ashland looking over the traffic affairs here.

Dr. W. E. Blake, who has been confined to his home with influenza for several days, is able to be out.

You will like trading at the Economy B. Y. P. U. store, the store that undersells because you do the delivering. Your money back if you are not satisfied. No telephone orders taken. Open from 8:30 to 7:30 o'clock Sunday evening, February 26. Basement, corner First and Margadine streets.

Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Nesler, of Grants Pass, are the parents of a six and a half pound boy which arrived Monday, February 20. Mrs. Fitzwater is in Grants Pass taking care of the mother and baby and both are reported as doing well.

William Day has presented the city library with his annual donation of the World Almanac. He has also given the library a year's subscription to the magazine, "Dumb Animals."

Mr. and Mrs. F. T. Conrad, of Sacramento, are visiting at the home of Mrs. O. W. Long having arrived here Thursday. Mr. Conrad is a brother of Mrs. Long.

Earl Rogers, one of the best known criminal lawyers of the west, died suddenly of heart failure at his home in Los Angeles Wednesday. Mr. Rogers spent his youth in Ashland, being the son of Prof. L. L. Rogers, president of the old Ashland academy, the first school of higher education provided by the pioneers for their first crop of sons and daughters.

Fred Judy, of Dunsuir, who has been visiting with his mother, Mrs. L. Judy, on East Main street, returned home on train 53 Friday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Peter Muffay, of Talent, were shopping in Ashland today.

Mrs. Pearl Dodson was a passenger on train 53 last evening.

Lieutenant Enos Dahuff, of the United States navy, was an Ashland visitor Thursday, stopping here to visit his sister, Mrs. E. O. Smith, and family. From here he went to Grants Pass to spend a few days with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. Dahuff. Lieutenant Dahuff will start soon for Guam, on a transport to be gone from three to five months. His mother, Mrs. Dahuff, will stay in Ashland until he returns.

T. A. Cole is confined to his home by illness for a few days.

Mrs. W. S. Stennett has sold her property on Factory street to R. C. Morris, who will take possession in the near future. The transaction was closed through the realty agency of Mrs. S. L. Allen.

Mr. Rhinehart was a business visitor today in Medford.

There will be a county institute of the W. C. T. U. all day Tuesday at the Presbyterian church in Ashland, beginning at 10 o'clock in the morning. A large delegation is expected from Medford.

Train 15 ran in two sections Thursday night, the second section being the lumbermen's special, en route to San Francisco. I. T. Sparks, district freight and passenger agent, was on board the special.

C. A. Wyman, district traffic superintendent of the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph company, entertained the chief operators at a dinner in Medford Thursday evening. Guests were present from Klamath Falls, Roseburg, Grants Pass, Medford and Ashland.

Master Bill Wilson celebrated his twelfth birthday yesterday evening in various ways. To start the evening off in good shape, a number of boy friends were invited in to have dinner, which was served in the early evening and was rather mixed with various combats among the youngsters. Having had a bountiful meal the boys retired to the park and enjoyed themselves in what way you will have to find out from them direct. When it was time for the first show at the theater, they were all found present and spent an hour of perfect enjoyment.

Those present at the party were: Horace Dunn, Joseph Conley, Jack Nims, Francis Sankey, Barney Miller, Dugal Young, Marion Frost and Billy Young.

CELEBRATES TWELFTH BIRTHDAY WITH PARTY

Master Bill Wilson celebrated his twelfth birthday yesterday evening in various ways. To start the evening off in good shape, a number of boy friends were invited in to have dinner, which was served in the early evening and was rather mixed with various combats among the youngsters. Having had a bountiful meal the boys retired to the park and enjoyed themselves in what way you will have to find out from them direct. When it was time for the first show at the theater, they were all found present and spent an hour of perfect enjoyment.

Those present at the party were: Horace Dunn, Joseph Conley, Jack Nims, Francis Sankey, Barney Miller, Dugal Young, Marion Frost and Billy Young.

Investigate Our Ideal Arcola

Hot Water Heating System for Small or Large Houses

Our New Line of Heating Stoves Are New In Provost Bros.

Children's Colds Better treated without dosing

Apply Vicks to throat and chest. A warm glow follows. Medicated Vapors are inhaled for hours after—Camphor, Menthol, Eucalyptus and Turpentine! It breaks the congestion. This outside treatment is just as good for all the cold troubles of all the family.

VICKS VAPORUB

Over 17 Million Jars Used Yearly

Apply Vicks to throat and chest. A warm glow follows. Medicated Vapors are inhaled for hours after—Camphor, Menthol, Eucalyptus and Turpentine! It breaks the congestion. This outside treatment is just as good for all the cold troubles of all the family.

VICKS VAPORUB

Over 17 Million Jars Used Yearly