

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

(From Friday's Daily)

Return from Visit—

Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Watkins have returned home after a few days' visit at their son, Byron's, in Medford.

Visiting at Nell Creek Home—

Miss Mildred Gyger has returned to her home on Nell creek, after a several days' visit with Miss Jante Walker, who accompanied her home for a few days stay.

Arrives from Springfield—

Rev. Miller, who accepted the call of the Baptist church of this city, arrived here this morning from Springfield. He will appear in the local pulpit Sunday.

Home from California—

Mr. and Mrs. Sylvester Patterson arrived home Tuesday from a trip in California to visit with their daughter, Mrs. Fanteel and husband. Mrs. Potter, another daughter, was also visiting with Mrs. Fanteel and both daughters accompanied the parents home, and will visit in Ashland for some time.

Sale of Property—

Mrs. Myrtle Boslough has sold her property on Hillcrest place to A. B. Mackenzie. The deal was made by the E. T. Staples realty agency.

Service Station Progressing—

The Standard Oil service station on North Main street is progressing nicely, the steel work being all in place, and the electrical and cement work will likely be completed today. The building is being painted, as is the fence which is being built in the rear of the station. Granite will be hauled to fill in the drives beginning tomorrow.

Leaves for Visit—

Mrs. J. R. Wick left for Portland Thursday evening to visit with her son, Ernest, for a few weeks.

Entertains Past Matrons Club—

The Past Matrons club of the Order of Eastern Star was delightfully entertained Wednesday evening at the home of Mrs. E. D. Briggs, on Almond street. The hostess was assisted in serving the delicious refreshments by Mrs. C. S. Butler.

Makes Trip to Hornbrook—

Ed High drove to Hornbrook yesterday on a business trip, returning in the evening.

Moves to Ashland—

P. F. Johanson, who has been a resident of Jacksonville for some time, is moving to Ashland.

Clerking at Roses—

Miss Kathleen Silver has taken the place of Louise Harrell at Rose Brothers. Miss Harrell was married a few days ago.

Visiting in Ashland—

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Dean, of Portland, are in the city visiting with relatives and friends for a few days. Mr. and Mrs. Dean are both well known in Ashland, having lived here previous to their marriage for a number of years.

Change of Messenger Boy—

Earl Utter, who has been delivering telegrams for the Western Union for several months past, resigned his position Wednesday morning. His place was taken by Roy McCoy.

Visit Relatives—

Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Roberts motored up from the ranch near Medford and spent Sunday with their sisters, Mesdames E. E. Gail and Lulu Van Wegen. On their return home in the evening they were accompanied by their sisters and Mr. and Mrs. Merritt Randles and baby Robert, who went with them to the cemetery at Central Point, where they decorated the graves of relatives, and then went on to the ranch where they made a short visit before returning home.

In 'Frisco on Business—

E. T. Staples, who has been in California on business for several days, has written friends that he is now in San Francisco.

Surprises Family—

Mrs. Norman Mack, nee Helen Walker, surprised her family by arriving in Ashland Wednesday morning on train 1 from Astoria, where she has been for several weeks, and where her husband is employed at present. He will probably visit Ashland in the near future.

(From Saturday's Daily)

Doing Jury Duty—

Mrs. Emil Peil is taking an enforced vacation from the duties of the various clubs of the city. She is serving on the jury in the circuit court at Jacksonville.

Will Meet This Evening—

The Past Masters' association of southern Oregon, including Masonic lodges in Jackson and Josephine counties, will meet at Masonic hall this evening. Important business matters will come up for consideration.

Leave for Ranch—

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hooper and daughter Virginia left today for the Hooper ranch on the Dead Indian road.

Entertains at Dinner—

Mrs. George Robison entertained at 12 o'clock dinner Friday. Mrs. Mary Wood and daughter, Mrs. Harold Reed, of Portland.

Leave on Trip to the East—

Mrs. W. H. Hodgkinson and daughter Pearl, left yesterday for an extended trip east. They will make the eastward trip through Canada, where they will stop and visit with relatives for a few weeks.

Prompt Service—

Brown and Brown, at Medford, called the Whittle Transfer by telephone a few days ago and ordered two cylinders of carbonic gas sent to their place of business. Just 30 minutes after the order was given, the gas cylinders were delivered in the soft drink parlor in Medford.

Leave for Portland—

The Misses Alice Craig and Lola Coney, who have been employed at the local telephone exchange for several months past, left for Portland Sunday. Miss Pearl Craig, who has been visiting with her sister Alice, accompanied them on the trip.

New Telephone Operator—

Mrs. Emma Murphy has taken a position as operator at the local telephone exchange, having begun work there Sunday morning.

Plan for Picnic—

A committee composed of employees of the local telephone exchange, attended a meeting at Medford Saturday evening and with committees from Medford and Grants Pass, made plans for the annual picnic of the employes in the valley.

Leaves for California—

Mr. and Mrs. Otto Winters and Mrs. Winters' mother, Mrs. Ann Russell, left a few days ago for California. Mrs. Winters and Mrs. Russell will visit relatives in the vicinity of San Francisco, while Mr. Winters will drive on south to Los Angeles.

Cutting Alfalfa—

The first cutting of alfalfa is being offered for sale by farmers in this vicinity. Owing to the late rains, the crop is exceptionally good and has escaped the usual spring rain that comes about the time the hay is being cut.

Leaves for Home—

Mrs. H. H. Reed, who has been visiting with her mother, Mrs. Mary Woods, at her home on Laurel street, left today for her home in Portland.

Takes Position at Hill—

Leslie Heer left this week for Hill, Calif., where he has taken a position for the summer.

Leaves for Vancouver—

A. L. Lamb left Friday evening on train 54 to accompany the body of his sister, the late Mrs. Pales, to Vancouver, Wash., where she will be laid to rest.

Goes to Oakland—

Mrs. R. S. Hubbard left a few days ago for Oakland, where she will enter a dental parlor that her brother, Lester High, is conducting.

Return to Eugene—

The Wilnot family, of Mechanic street, returned to their former residence at Eugene the first of the week.

To Tour Canada—

Miss Clara Moore, who has been visiting at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Parsons, left Thursday morning for her home in Toledo, Ohio, via the Canadian Pacific. Miss Moore will visit in Seattle, Vancouver, B. C., and other Canadian towns.

Leaves for Myrtle Point—

Mrs. W. M. Decker has gone to Myrtle Point for a visit.

Missionary Society Elects Officers—

The Missionary society of the Christian church elected the following officers at their last session: President, Mrs. W. L. Headley; vice-president, Mrs. Grace Putnam; secretary, Mrs. Laura Rowley; treasurer, Mrs. Ruby Harvey.

Will Leave for Applegate—

Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Peachy go to Applegate next week, near where Mr. Peachy will attend to his fire warden duties for the summer.

Visited with Relatives—

Mrs. Aubrey Redifer was visiting relatives in Myrtle Creek last week.

Leaves for Minnesota—

Mrs. James Rudd of Liberty street left Thursday for Minnesota, where she will visit with relatives and old friends for the next six weeks. Mrs. Rudd was formerly a resident of the "Gopher" state, and has quite a few relatives and friends still residing there.

Here Visiting Mother—

Mrs. Harry Ackley, of Klamath Falls is in the city visiting with her mother, Mrs. J. F. Wells, of Sixth street. Mrs. Ackley formerly lived here and has a wide circle of friends and acquaintances in the city.

Here from Canada—

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Sair have arrived from Battleford, Sask., to visit Mrs. Sair's mother, Mrs. Patterson, on Fourth street. They spent three weeks on their way here, stopping at Vancouver, B. C., Seattle and Portland to visit for a short time. They are very much delighted with our city and expect to remain indefinitely, Mr. Sair having taken a position in the Fourth Street barber shop for the present.

Goes to Visit Mother—

Mrs. F. H. Crowson and daughter Ima went to Salem Saturday to visit Mrs. Crowson's mother for a short time.

Will Go to Susanville—

Dale Deen, Lester Weisenburger, William Dean, Clyde Gunter and Albert Guthrie expect to leave by auto Sunday for Susanville, Calif., where they will work in a mill at that place.

Meetings to be Held—

A series of meetings will be held at the Pentecostal mission in the stone church at the corner of Fifth and Main streets, beginning Saturday evening, June 3. It will be conducted by J. M. Shelton, of Grants Pass. The public is cordially invited to attend. S. F. Starr, committee chairman.

On Inspection Trip—

Bishop Shepherd, of Portland, and District Superintendent Danford, both of whom are connected with Methodist Episcopal church work, were in the city the first part of the week, on a tour of inspection and called on quite a few of the members of the local church.

Leaves for Corvallis—

Miss Bertha Whillock left today for Corvallis to attend the commencement exercises at Oregon Agricultural college. Miss Whillock is an instructor at the college, but is away on leave of absence until September, and has been assisting with the work at the Golden Rule store in this city in order to get a change of environment.

Leave for Portland—

Mr. and Mrs. L. F. Ferguson left this evening for Portland on a business trip that will extend over about three weeks of time. They will visit various places in Washington before they return to Ashland.

Here Visiting—

Mr. Hunt, of Klamath Falls, is in the city visiting and looking over the city in general.

Former Residents in City—

Mr. and Mrs. Kincaid, who formerly lived on Laurel street in our city, but who have been living in California for the last few years, are parked in the camp ground. They expect to remain here for about two weeks, after which they will drive on north.

Given Surprise Shower—

The friends and neighbors of Mr. and Mrs. M. F. Taylor, who were married Thursday, gave them a surprise shower last evening at their home on Lincoln street. The newlyweds received a number of ornamental and substantial gifts which were much appreciated.

Returns from California—

Mrs. C. L. Loomis returned a few days ago from several weeks' visit in San Francisco with friends. She stopped on her return trip to visit for a short time with friends at Red Bluff, Calif.

Embroidery Club Meets—

The Friday Afternoon Embroidery club met this week with Mrs. M. Dyrd, on Fourth street. The afternoon was spent in the usual manner with small talk and all kinds of needlework, after which dainty refreshments were served, consisting of sandwiches, ice cream bricks and cake. Those present were Mesdames O. W. Long, H. C. Emery, J. C. Poor, C. A. Cotter, Frank Nelson and M. Dyrd.

Medford Man Visits—

Rev. Morenz Oser, of Medford, was in the city yesterday afternoon visiting his son at the new service station on East Main street.

That Delightful Pastime—

H. C. Stock and Reinhart Krugel spent Friday afternoon along the banks of Rogue river fighting the salmon in an effort to prevent them from all getting out of the river at the same time.

On Way to Ashland—

Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Whitted and daughter left Visalia, Calif., today for Ashland. They will come by the way of San Francisco and pick up another daughter, who will accompany them here. They will visit with friends in Ashland for a week or two before returning home.

Will Initiate Class—

The Modern Woodmen of America have another class of candidates ready for initiation and expect to hold the initiatory ceremony in the Moose hall Monday night. A good time is assured for all who attend.

Here to Visit Parents—

Mrs. Robert Newman and daughter will arrive this evening from Portland for a few weeks visit with Mrs. Newman's mother, Mrs. Leah Caldwell, and other relatives and friends in the city.

(From Monday's Daily)

Visiting in Ashland—

Mrs. Inez Ferguson and mother, Mrs. A. R. Bradney, of Central Point, arrived in Ashland Sunday and are visiting for a few days with Mrs. George Robison.

Leave for Indiana—

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Dickey will leave this evening for Indiana, where they will spend the next two months visiting with Mrs. Dickey's parents at Plymouth, Indiana.

Paints House—

W. A. Shell has improved the appearance of his property at 171 Granite street by giving it a new coat of paint.

Returns from Salem—

Miss Gladys Derrick, stenographer for the secretary of the Chamber of Commerce, who has been visiting with friends in Salem for the past week or two, is on duty again.

Visiting Parents—

Miss Louise Gillette is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Gillette, on Gresham street. Miss Gillette is employed in San Francisco.

Will Return to Klamath Falls—

Mrs. Alice Baldwin, who has been spending the winter with her sister, Mrs. Kantnor, at 188 Factory street, will leave for her home in Klamath Falls tomorrow morning on the auto stage.

New Sign Being Painted—

The Sperry Cereal company is having a large sign painted for Sperry's Drifted Snow Flour on the north side of the Oregon hotel building today. The flour sign is toward the rear of the building and in exchange for the use of the space, the sign "Oregon Hotel" with particulars about the same is being placed on the wall toward the street.

(From Tuesday's Daily)

Visits With Friends—

D. N. Davis and family, from the Green Springs Mountain country, was in town Sunday interviewing old friends and attending church.

Will Make Trip East—

Mrs. Ed Reames of Fifth street, expects to go east soon to visit her mother in Ohio, who is suffering from ill health.

Arrives Home—

Miss Leona Lennox, who has been attending Linfield college at McMinnville, Oregon, arrived home Monday night to spend the vacation period.

Visitors from Hill—

W. J. Wright and Mr. and Mrs. Ray Burns of Hill, Calif., were visitors at the J. V. Wright home on Mountain avenue Sunday, and later drove to Medford, where they visited with relatives.

Here from Gazelle—

William Stone of Gazelle, Calif., was in the city for a short time Monday, having stopped to say hello to friends.

Baby Girl Born—

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Hendrick are the parents of a fine baby girl which arrived Saturday. Mrs. Hendrick is a sister of Mrs. Leslie Price, of Granite street, and came to Ashland from Bend, Oregon, several weeks ago to visit her relatives here.

With the Autoists Sunday—

Jack Peobler and family motored out on the Dead Indian road Sunday and report the roads as being in very good condition. J. H. McGee and family and Mrs. Torb Sanford were also motoring on the Dead Indian road Sunday.

Painting House—

Fred Engle is painting his home on the Boulevard.

Will Return Home—

Mrs. Christine Harr, who has been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Beaver, of this city, expects to return soon to her home on the Applegate.

Visits Parents—

Mrs. C. L. Kelton, of Oakland, Calif., is visiting for a few weeks with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Sales, of Gresham street.

Returns from California—

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Hicks and Mrs. M. Brannan returned yesterday from a three weeks' visit at Los Angeles and Oxnard, Calif.

In City Yesterday—

Mr. Sloat of Portland was in the city yesterday and spent a part of the day demonstrating the Maytag electric washing machine at the Jordan electric shop.

Stopping at Colo. Springs—

Jesse Winburn and Bert Moses, of Ashland, are at the Broadmoor hotel at Colorado Springs for a week's stay.

Move Reported—

Mr. Wolf has moved from the Putnam apartment on Vista street, to 128 Factory street.

Here for Week—

Mrs. A. B. Ryerson, subscription agent for the Designer magazine, is spending the week in Ashland, and has her headquarters at the Golden Rule store.

Teachers Arrive Home—

Miss Nellie Hake, who taught in Jacksonville the past year, is at home in Ashland for the summer. Miss Gertrude Miksch, who taught at Rogue River is also at her home on the Boulevard.

Move Reported—

Mrs. A. M. Walker has moved from 765 East Main street to the Butler property at the corner of East Main and Morton streets.

Recovering from Illness—

George Kilburn is again at home convalescing rapidly from his recent severe illness. He was in a San Francisco hospital while sick.

Visiting Relatives—

Mrs. Du Bose and children are visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. Kilburn, on Beach street, while Mr. Du Bose, who is a Southern Pacific engineer, is ill at the Granite City hospital.

Makes Trip to Grants Pass—

Mrs. J. H. Suggs and daughter Betty Jane made a trip to Grants Pass Saturday and visited the mine which Mr. Suggs is working. Sunbills in the country, and returned hills in the country, and returned home Monday morning.

Census Survey—

Harold Fender, of Stanford university, will be in Ashland during the next few days to interview the business and professional men here in regard to the new census survey.

Takes on Help—

William Hunt has been added to the force at the Eastern Supply company, having taken the place of Mr. Pankey, who resigned a short time ago to go to Central Point.

Kong, Hill, Calif.; Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Shadbolt, Yakima, Wash.; Mr. and Mrs. N. P. Schuler, and Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Doll, Alaska.

Vacation Bible School—

The daily vacation Bible school started off this morning with a rush and much interest and enthusiasm is being shown by both the instructors and the students.

Week-End Guests—

Mrs. Ricard and daughter Josephine, of Dunsmuir, Calif., were week-end guests at the home of Mrs. Ricard's daughter, Mrs. James McDonough at 171 Morton street, and left last night on train 15 for their home.

Will Leave for Prineville—

Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Prohs, of 314 Garfield street, will leave in the morning for Prineville, Or., their former home, on a short business trip. They report their loss in the recent fire at Prineville was but a slight one.

Remodeling Garage—

J. N. Dennis is remodeling his garage at his home on the Boulevard.

Leaves for Klamath Hot Springs—

C. O. Van Natta left today for Klamath Hot Springs where he will spend several days for the benefit of his health.

It pays to read the classified page.

TWO BRIDES PLEDGE TROTH ON HYMEN ALTAR

MACKENZIE-BLUME

A. B. MacKenzie and Miss Elizabeth Blume were married yesterday in Portland, according to information that has reached this city.

Mr. MacKenzie has been in Ashland for the past few years and has been in the garage business in the Hotel Ashland building at the corner of Pioneer and East Main street for several months. He is one of Ashland most congenial young men and has a large circle of friends.

Mrs. MacKenzie is also quite favorably known particularly among the educators of the city, having been a teacher in the departmental work at the Junior High school during the past two years.

Mr. MacKenzie drove to Portland a few days ago in a Palce roadster and he and his bride will return in a few days in the same machine.

They will make their home in Ashland, having purchased the Boslough bungalow on Hillcrest place, before they left for the northern city.

PIERCE-HARRELL

Andrew Lee Pierce and Louise Harrell were quietly married Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock at the home of the bride's parents at 1177 Iowa street.

The date of the marriage had been set for June 10, but desiring to spring a surprise on their friends, they decided to advance the wedding dates several days.

Mr. Pierce is a native of Iowa and came here several months ago with the Harkins family. He is an industrious young man with a host of friends throughout the city.

Mrs. Pierce is a popular young lady and has lived here with her parents for a number of years. She has been employed at Rose Brothers confectionery for the last few months and is one of Ashland's most pleasing personalities.

The young couple are spending a few days at Medford visiting, and on their return here, will proceed to Buck Lake, where Mr. Pierce will be in the employ of the forestry department during the summer.

HIKE TO LAMB'S MINE DECORATION DAY

A party of sixteen young people hiked up the canyon Tuesday afternoon as far as Lamb's mine, where they enjoyed a fine picnic dinner and whiled away the time until the cool of the evening.

Those in the party were Misses Catherine and Frances Pratt, Ethel Reid, Kennedy, Jessie Thatcher, Jean Anderson, the Messrs. John Rigg, L. C. Wilson, Fred and Reinhart Krugel, Glenn Hake, Alta Powell, Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Gunter and Dr. and Mrs. W. J. Crandall.

FOR SALE

FOR SALE—Ford sedan in good condition. Shock absorbers, demountable rims, speedometer, spotlight and extra tire. Price, $455. Dr. George J. Kinz, Office phone 103, residence phone 401. 220-6

Notice of Appointment of Executor and to Present Claims

In the County Court of the County of Jackson in and for the State of Oregon.

In the Matter of the Estate of Virginia Pales, deceased.

Notice is hereby given, that I, Abraham Lincoln Lamb, have been appointed by the said court as the executor of the estate of Virginia Pales, deceased. All persons having claims against the said estate are hereby required to present the same, duly verified, to the undersigned, or his attorneys, Briggs & Briggs, in the Pioneer block, in Ashland, Oregon, within six months from the date of the first publication of this notice.

Date of first publication, June 7, 1922. ABRAHAM LINCOLN LAMB, 41-4wed

Provost Bros.

Headquarters for GARDEN TOOLS SPRAY PUMPS PRUNING SHEARS HOSE—and LAWN SUPPLIES

WHAT REDUCES MILK AND FLESH MORE THAN FLIES?