MARRIAGE OF COUPLE IS SURPRISE TO FRIENDS

Herbert Jewett and Mrs. Mary Mead slipped away Thursday to Jacksonville, where they procured the necessary papers, and were married. Orres had one arm badly hurt, perhaps broken. L. N. The men are all residents of Ashland. All the occupants of the car were taken to a Medford hospital for medical attention, but were able to come home about noon, with the exception of Mr. Middleton. He was kept in the hospital, although his injuries are only of a minor nature, according to the attending physician. The accident occurred on a left hand turn. The car was apparently traveling at too great a rate of speed to take the turn and went over a 15 foot bank and into a wire fence. The car was the Oldsmobile belonging to Mr. Orres who was driving at the time. The right front wheel of the machine was completely demolished. The car rolled over completely once and half way again but fortunately stopped in such a position that the men were able to get clear of the wreck. This corner has seen accidents before, it being the same turn where a young man by the name of Tufts took the curve at too high a rate of speed and was killed.

That is the way fortune has smiled upon Gustave Reisig, a sergeant in the quartermaster corps at Camp Dix, as the result of his ownership of some oil producing land in Oklahoma—land that he won when the title to it was put up in lieu of cash after a buddy with whom he was rolling dice, went "broke." HOME CRITICISM

(Medford Mail Tribune) A local dame goes out of town in recommending that Ashland be boycotted for having permitted the Ku Klux to appear in the parade on the Fourth. Without entering into a discussion of the merits of the aims and objects of that order, lots of people unite in saying that it afforded one of the most unique and impressive features of the parade and there was a raft of the Klan who participated on a quiet and peaceful basis. It is doubtful if there was either a bowie knife or sawed-off shotgun concealed by any Klansman in the ranks. On the other hand, just imagine what a hardship the proposed boycott would inflict. Ashland would have to trade at Talent, and Medford go clear to Phoenix to shop.
