

Local and Personal

(From Wednesday's Daily)

Rebuilding House—

C. M. Hamilton, whose house on Liberty street was almost completely destroyed by fire a few months ago, has started to rebuild the place.

Building Storage Addition—

The Bagley Canning company is building a new addition to their plant at Talent. It is understood that the new building will be used for storage purposes.

Visiting Parents—

Mrs. Hortense Borne arrived last evening on train 54 to visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Otto Winter, at their home on the Boulevard, for a few weeks.

House Nears Completion—

The H. S. Mellor house on the west end of Ashland street, which has been under construction for the last few months, will be completed in the very near future.

Writes from Seattle—

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Rose, who left several days ago for a motor trip to the north, have written from Seattle, saying that they are having a very enjoyable trip.

House Being Completed—

The Charles Robertson house at the corner of the Boulevard and Alida street, is being given the finishing touches, and will soon be ready for occupancy.

Returns from California—

Dr. Bertha E. Sawyer returned last evening from California, where she has been spending the past few months. She reports having had a very delightful time in the various sections of the neighboring state.

Returns to La Grande—

Miss Kame, who has been visiting with her sister, Mrs. Nate Bates for the past few weeks, returned to her home at La Grande, Or., the first of the week. She is a teacher in the schools at that place.

Returns from Vacation—

Mrs. Dora Hubbard is again on duty at the telephone exchange, after having enjoyed a two weeks' vacation.

Returns Home—

Mrs. Lares, who has been visiting with her mother, Mrs. James Boyd, for several weeks, left for her home on train 54 last evening.

Leaves for Marshfield—

Miss Ruth Altin left yesterday for an extended visit with her uncle, Dr. E. Mings, at Marshfield.

Visiting with Relatives—

Mrs. Elizabeth Schree, of Tacoma, Wash., arrived on train 53 last evening to visit with the C. R. D. Jones family for a short time.

Return from Outing—

Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Atkins have returned from a several days' outing near Grants Pass and Roseburg.

Visit in Medford—

The Misses Agnes Hedburg and Marguerite Hammond spent yesterday in Medford as the guests of Miss Alice Poor.

Move to Almond Street—

The Leslie Price family moved yesterday from Granite street to 399 Almond street in the property of Mrs. Miriam Way.

Rents House Here—

Mrs. David Bennett, who arrived in Ashland a short time ago from California, has rented the Phoebe Wright home on Liberty street.

Return from California—

Mrs. R. P. Neil and Miss Anna Hargrove have returned from a several week's visit in southern California.

Return from Frisco—

Mrs. Bertha Herr and Mrs. J. H. Suggs, who have been spending a short time in San Francisco and Oakland, have returned home. Mrs. George Robison, who accompanied them to the bay cities, expects to stay there for a few weeks visit with friends.

Visit with Relatives—

Mr. and Mrs. Clell H. McCredie, of San Francisco, arrived in the city the first of the week to spend a few days as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Evans of the Golden Rule store. Mrs. McCredie is a sister of Mr. Evans, and Mr. McCredie is a brother of Miss Vetric McCredie, one of the teachers at the Junior high school.

Looking for Deer—

William Swink, genial clerk at the Stearns grocery, is spending the week in the vicinity of Butte Falls, with his eyes open for deer.

Still Seriously Ill—

Mrs. Phoebe Wright remains very ill at the home of her daughter, Mrs. H. L. Moore.

At Buckhorn Lodge—

Miss Roberta Ward is spending a week's vacation at Buckhorn lodge.

Will Hike to Dana Ranch—

The Campfire Girls expect to hike to the Dana ranch northwest of the city this evening, where they will hold a council fire.

To Round Up Cattle—

Fred Homes and his crew of vaqueros left today for the country in the vicinity of the Hyatt dam on their annual roundup of cattle. The party expect to be in the hills about two weeks.

(From Tuesday's Daily)

Leaves for California—

Mrs. Lelah Dennis left yesterday evening on train 53 for a visit with relatives and friends in southern California.

Returns from Portland—

Mrs. Elsie Churchman returned from Portland Sunday, where she had been spending several days visiting. Her mother, Mrs. William Patterson, of Portland, returned home with her to spend a few weeks as her guest.

Visiting in Ashland—

Mrs. Clifford Jenkins and children of Roseburg are in the city visiting with relatives and friends for a few days.

New Telephone Operator—

Anna Lumen is a new employee of the local telephone exchange, having taken a position as operator the first of the week.

Looking After Ranch—

Levi Stevens, who has been working during the summer at the Klamath Falls ice plant, has returned to his home here, and is now busily engaged with his ranch work on Evans creek.

Leaves for Home—

L. B. Martin left Wednesday evening for his home in Ottumwa, Iowa, after a two months' visit with his sister, Mrs. Emma Coffee.

Having Eyes Treated—

Mr. and Mrs. Crain, of Weed, Calif., were in the city yesterday and both had their eyes tested for glasses while here.

Leaves for Butte Falls—

Dr. Buchanan left this morning for a few days' trip to Butte Falls.

Return to Portland—

Mrs. Taw and little daughter, who have been the guests of the Dr. Gregg family for the past few weeks, left for their home in Portland yesterday.

Visits with Relatives—

Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Taylor, of Berkeley, Calif., are visiting with Dr. and Mrs. F. H. Johnson, of Manzanita street. Mr. Taylor is a brother of Mrs. Johnson, and only recently moved to Berkeley, having previously been located at Vancouver, B. C., where he was one of the leading attorneys.

To Meet Singers Sunday—

Mr. Andrews, of San Jose, Calif., who will lead the singing at the evangelistic meetings here, will be in the city Sunday and desires to meet all of the singers of the city Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the Methodist church and endeavor to get a large choir organized for the meetings.

Visiting in Ashland—

Mrs. Alice Thompson and Miss Lena Belle Tartar, of Salem, Or., are the guests of Mrs. Frank Dickey for a few days. The visitors are both teachers in the Salem high school.

Columbia Hotel Guests—

The following parties are late arrivals at the Columbia hotel: L. L. Lewis, Medford; Mrs. Howard L. Wood, H. Oakley, Roseburg; Mr. and Mrs. Davis, New York City; H. F. Chrisman, Portland; J. A. Ghent and family, Seattle; George W. Wood and family, Anna Solomson, Santa Cruz, Calif.; Mrs. W. Levi, San Jose, Calif.; James H. Hattian, Dunsmuir, Calif.; and Mr. and Mrs. L. Rainey, Spokane, Wash.

Has Tonsils Removed—

Mrs. Winter, of Fourth street, had her tonsils removed the first part of the week by a local physician.

Will Talk Sunday Night—

Miss Hancock, who is visiting her sister, Mrs. W. M. Barber, will be in the city Sunday night and has consented to deliver an address at the Nazarene church on the missionary work in China, where she spent a number of years in the mission field. Everyone interested in missionary endeavors are invited to come out and hear this interesting talk.

On Trip to Coast—

Jesse Winburn left the first of the week for a trip to Crescent City and other coast points, where he will spend several days looking over the Pacific from new points of vantage.

Returns from Outing—

Dr. Buchanan and son Edgar have returned from a ten days outing trip in the vicinity of the headwaters of the Deschutes river. Dr. Buchanan has a mining claim in that section and spends his vacation each year doing the assessment work on it. Mr. Swingle, of this city, and several other men were also in camp at the same place, and the doctor reports that two deer and a bear were brought in by members of the party during his stay in camp.

Having Eyes Treated—

Mr. Hart, a barber of Glendale, was in the city yesterday having his eyes treated and meeting old friends.

Arrange for Meetings—

A large number of people turned out last evening to attend the union prayer meeting at the Congregational church. At the close of the meeting, a business session was held and committees were appointed to look after the various details of the evangelistic meetings which will begin Sunday, September 3, in the Chautauqua building. It was also agreed that the finishing touches should be given the Chautauqua building next Monday at 9:30 a. m.

Will Leave for California—

The E. H. Rees family, who have been residing at 614 Boulevard for some time past, will leave tomorrow morning for Burlingame, Calif.

Remarkable Time to Lake—

Dr. Woods reports making the trip to Lake of the Woods Sunday in two hours and 30 minutes. The run to the top of the mountain, a distance of 17 miles, was made in 45 minutes. This is remarkable time, as the majority of the cars making the run average between three hours and a half and four hours.

Buys Shale Oil Stock—

Mrs. R. Kissling, proprietress of the Carolina Invalid Home on Sellwood boulevard, Portland, was the guest of Mrs. W. M. Barber at the Convalescent Home yesterday. Mrs. Kissling spent the previous week at her ranch near Eagle Point, and while there learned of the shale oil developments near Ashland. Knowing there was oil shale on her ranch which is located in the Antelope valley, she came here to see a demonstration of the oil-extracting process, and was so impressed with it she bought stock in the company that is being formed here.

Here for Health—

J. N. Hoffman, of Forest Grove, with his wife, her sister and a nurse, are in Ashland for a few weeks, occupying a cottage on Granite street. Mrs. Hoffman is in poor health, and it is hoped climatic conditions here will prove beneficial.

Stops in Ashland—

L. L. Mulit, who is connected with the Bank of Italy at San Francisco, stopped for a short time in Ashland this morning on his way home from Grants Pass, where he has been visiting with his sister.

Returns from Portland—

Miss Ila M. Myers, principal of the Junior high school, has returned from Portland, where she has been spending a three weeks' vacation.

Here on Vacation—

Vincent Ward Hammond, who is a student at the Oregon Institute of Technology, is spending a few weeks vacation with his parents, Rev. and Mrs. P. K. Hammond.

Visiting Relatives—

Mrs. J. A. Meek, of Palo Alto, Calif., is visiting her sister, Mrs. J. J. Myers, on the Boulevard, and her niece, Mrs. Fred C. Homes Jr.

Working on Ranch—

T. W. Acklin, who only recently came out of a hospital after a few weeks illness at Klamath Falls, is in the city now and is looking after his ranch north of the city.

Leaves for Seattle—

Mr. and Mrs. Sylvester Patterson left this morning by auto for Seattle, to visit with their daughter, Mrs. Rose Patterson Potter, for a few weeks.

Visits with Father—

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Sayles, of Portland, are in the city visiting with Mr. Sayles' father, J. P. Sayles, on Gresham street.

Leave for Roseburg—

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Kelly Paris, who recently bought a new Ford truck, left this afternoon for Roseburg, where Mr. Paris will engage in the hauling of fruit in that section of the country.

Returns from Lake—

Rev. C. F. Koehler came in from Lake of the Woods yesterday evening, having turned the Boy Scouts over to the care of Scoutmaster John Rigg. The Koehler boys and Frederick Johnson came in with him, but intended to drive back to the lake this morning.

Catch Some Big Ones—

Jesse Dougherty and Mr. Evans, who left Tuesday for a short fishing trip, returned home yesterday evening, after having caught almost the limit. They made camp near Savage Rapids dam, and caught the fish close at hand. Mr. Dougherty says that, despite the fact that he has done lots of fishing in Oregon, this is the first time that he really had any luck fishing.

Off on Vacation—

G. P. McConnell, clerk at the Ideal grocery, is off for a short vacation. Disregarding the fact that this is the open season for deer, Mr. McConnell says that he expects to spend his vacation about home, as he gets plenty of chasing around when on duty at the store.

(From Friday's Daily)

Drives from Oakland—

J. Floyd Place, who has been enjoying his vacation amid the beauties of California, arrived home last evening. He left Oakland yesterday morning at 6:30 o'clock and arrived in Ashland at 9 in the evening.

Returns from Lake—

J. H. McGee returned from Lake of the Woods this morning with part of his family, leaving Raymond behind to hunt for a few days before the school days begin.

Gives Dinner Party—

Miss Rowena Roberts gave a delightful four course dinner Wednesday evening, at her home on Nutley street, in honor of Mrs. Mina Hobbs, of Washington, D. C., and Mrs. Azelah Askren, of Needles, Calif., who are visiting in Ashland.

Visit in Ashland—

Mrs. S. L. Roberts and two daughters, of Spokane, Wash., took dinner last evening with Mr. and Mrs. A. Butler. The visitors have just returned from a trip to Los Angeles and other southern California points.

Stopping in Ashland—

C. H. Willison, of Portland, a former Ashland resident, was in the city today calling on some of his old friends. Mr. Willison was formerly with a wholesale grocery firm of Portland, and is well known throughout the southern part of the state. Mr. Willison states that Mrs. Willison is enjoying the best of health and sends greetings to her friends here.

Putting in New Front—

Thad P. Coleman, who recently purchased the building at 89 North Main street, is having the front of the building completely remodeled. Large plate glass will be placed on either side of the door, with panel glass above. The wood work will all be given a coat of paint, which will add much to the appearance of the building.

Race Horses for the Fair—

A string of ten race horses passed through Ashland last evening on the way to the county fair ground where they will be entered in the races during fair week. The horses belonged to Mr. Holbrook of Klamath Falls.

Leaves for Lake of Woods—

Dr. F. H. Johnson left this afternoon for Lake of the Woods, where he will spend the night, returning tomorrow. He expects to bring his children home with him, as they have already spent some little time at the favorite camping spot.

Appointed Director—

George Alfred has been appointed as one of the directors of the Talent irrigation district to take the place of O. A. Manning, who resigned.

Enjoying Annual Vacation—

S. F. Kelly, of the local telephone exchange, is on his annual vacation. He and his family left the first of the week for a trip to the coast, where they will engage in fishing, and probably some deer hunting.

Leaves for Eugene—

Mrs. Clell H. McCredie left yesterday morning for Eugene, where she will visit with her mother, Mrs. Evans, for the next two weeks. Mr. McCredie left during the day for Jacksonville, where he will visit relatives for several days. The McCredies have been the guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Evans for a few days.

On the Sick List—

Francis Winters is in the sick list and his place at the Union service station is being filled temporarily by Henry B. Carter.

HIGH SCHOOL BAND WANTS TRIP TO CRATER LAKE

Director Carl Loveland, of the high school band has been endeavoring to arrange a trip to Crater Lake for the boys during the vacation period, and next week will be the only date possible before school duties commence again.

Two small cars have already been promised to make the trip, and two or three more cars are needed to take the 17 boys on this outing.

If cars are obtained, the trip will be started Tuesday morning, and the return made Thursday. The trip to the lake will be by way of Medford and Prospect, with the return trip either the same way, or by the way of Klamath Falls.

Anyone having a car that they would like to make the trip with, gas and oil being provided, will be doing the boys a favor by seeing Mr. Loveland or calling him by phone, Sunday.

NEW PRINCIPAL CHOSEN FOR WEED HIGH SCHOOL

WEED, Calif., Aug. 26.—J. O. Gossett will be principal of the Weed high school this coming school year. He is a Stanford graduate and last year was a member of the high school faculty at Stockton. He will be athletic coach and teach mathematics. Other teachers will be Maxine Veslatos, Mary O. Thomas and Eliza K. Van Etten.

MEDFORD MAN NAMED ON STATE FAIR BOARD

H. L. Walther, of Medford, manager of the Rogue River division of the California-Oregon Power company, has been named by Governor Olcott to succeed "Pop" Gates as a member of the state fair board, and has accepted the appointment.

Mr. Walther is well known in Ashland, having lived here for some years while he was an engineer on the Southern Pacific railroad, and has a wide circle of friends, who will be glad to hear of his appointment.

MRS. J. M. CLYDE PASSES AWAY AT HER HOME HERE

Mrs. Jimmie M. Clyde died at her home on Manzanita street early today, following a lingering illness of several weeks. She was 89 years old and has lived in Ashland the greater part of the time for the past 40 years. A wide circle of acquaintances here will mourn her death.

As far as is known she had no living blood relations, and her only living kin is a distant relative of her dead husband, who has always been very close to her—Albert Liggett, who is connected with a bond firm in Portland.

Mrs. Clyde was a member of the Phoenix Presbyterian church, of which her husband was pastor for a number of years and was in regular attendance there as long as her health would permit of her going that distance.

Funeral arrangements will not be completed until the arrival of Mr. Leggett from Portland tomorrow.

Camping on Applegate—

The H. R. Morris family and H. C. Emery and family left yesterday for a few days' camping trip in the Applegate country.

Fishing in the Pacific—

Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Jordan left the first of the week on an indefinite fishing and hunting trip. Their destination for the present is Crescent City and other coast points where the casting is good. He left word at the shop not to look for him back until he drove in, which might be in ten days or it might be a month.

A. E. Jordan is looking after the office while J. S. is away.

Purchases New Car—

Manager Hurst, of the Vining theatre, has purchased a fine new sport model Buick six car through the Wilhite Buick agency here.

Putting in Equipment—

M. A. Morud, equipment foreman for the telephone company in the state of Oregon, and James Fowler, an employee in the equipment department, both of Portland, are in the city installing some new equipment at the local telephone office. They will be in Ashland for about two weeks.

In Justice Court—

A local man appeared in justice court yesterday and pleaded guilty to the charge of failing to hold out his hand before turning a corner, as the law provides for. The court fined him $15, which was paid. District Deputy Traffic Officer McMahon made the arrest at the corner of Grant and North Main streets.

Makes Move—

Ella M. Dissette, of Monrovia, Calif., who has been stopping at the Oregon hotel, has moved into the Mitchell property at 75 Bush street.

HIKERS FROM NEW YORK VISIT RELATIVES HERE

Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Haynes, of New York City, arrived in the city yesterday, en route to San Francisco but contrary to the usual laws of the highway, they came on foot.

The Haynes have hiked all the way from New York City on a wager and will receive $10,000 if they are successful in reaching the bay city by September 6, and they now feel confident that they have practically won their bet.

Mrs. Haynes was formerly Miss Cora Divet, and lived in Ashland a few years ago. She is a granddaughter of Captain Thomas, of the Boulevard, and they made a short stop to visit with him while here.

LIST OF BOOKS TO BE USED IN LOCAL SCHOOLS

Many inquiries are being made in regard to what books will be used in the local schools this year, and Superintendent Briscoe has issued the following list, which pupils may follow without fear of getting the wrong books:

Grade 1B, beginners—Take no books to school. Get tablet and drawing material as directed by the teacher.

Grade 1A—Natural Method primer, tablet and drawing material as directed by the teacher.

Grade 2B—Natural Method first reader; second reader when directed by the teacher. Tablet and drawing material as directed by the teacher.

Grade 2A—Natural Method second reader; tablet, pencil, drawing material as directed by the teacher.

Grade 3B—Natural Method reader, third; Hamilton's Essentials of Arithmetic, Book I; New World Speller, Book I; pencil, tablet, drawing material as directed by the teacher.

Grade 3A—Natural Method third reader; Hamilton's Essentials of Arithmetic, Book I; New World Speller, Book I; pencil, tablet, drawing material as directed by the teacher.

Grade 4B—Natural Method fourth reader; New World Speller, Book II; Tarr & McMurray geography, Book I; Hamilton's Essentials of Arithmetic, Book I; Oral and Written English, Book I; pencil, tablet, and drawing material as directed by the teacher.

Grade 4A—Natural Method fourth reader; Tarr & McMurray geography, Book I; Oral and Written English, Book I; New World Speller, Book II; Hamilton's Essentials of Arithmetic, Book I; pencil, tablet, drawing material as directed by the teacher.

Grade 5B—Natural Method fifth reader; Hamilton's Essentials of Arithmetic, Book I; Tarr & McMurray geography, Book II; Healthy Living, Book I; Oral and Written English, Book I; New World Speller, Book II; Stories of American History; pencil, penholder, tablet, drawing material as directed by the teacher.

Grade 5A—Natural Method fifth reader; Tarr & McMurray geography, Book II; Hamilton's Essentials of Arithmetic, Book I; Healthy Living, Book II; Oral and Written English, Book I; New World Speller, Book I; New World Speller, Book II; Stories of American History; pencil, penholder, tablet, drawing material as directed by the teacher.

Grade 6B—Everyday Classics, sixth reader; Healthy Living, Book II; Oral and Written English, Book II; Hamilton's Essentials of Arithmetic, Book II; Tarr & McMurray geography, Book II; New World Speller, Book II; penholder, pencil, tablet, drawing material as directed by the teacher.

Grade 6A—Everyday Classics, sixth reader; Oral and Written English, Book II; Essentials of Arithmetic, Book II; Tarr & McMurray, Book II; Mace's United States history, New World Speller, Book II; penholder, pencils, tablet, drawing material as directed by the teacher.

Grade 7B—Oral and Written English, Book II; Essentials of Arithmetic, Hamilton, Book II; Tarr

& McMurray, Book II; Mace's United States history; New World Speller, Book III; pencil, penholder, tablet, drawing material as directed by the teacher.

Grade 7A—Oral and Written English, Book II; Hamilton's Essentials of Arithmetic, Book II; Mace's United States history; New World Speller, Book III; pencil, penholder, tablet, drawing materials as directed by teacher.

Note—7B and 7A grades will not buy, at present, the Everyday Classics, for their grades.

Grade 8B—Everyday Classics, eighth reader; Oral and Written English, Book II; Essentials of Arithmetic, Book II; Mace's United States history; Textbook of Cooking, Greer, revised edition (girls only); Productive Farming, Davis (boys only); New World Speller, Book III; pencil, penholder, tablet, drawing material as directed by teacher.

Grade 8A—Everyday Classics, eighth reader; Oral and Written English, Book II; Essentials of Arithmetic, Book II; Hughes' Community Civics; Text in Cooking, Greer, revised edition (girls only); Productive Farming, Davis (boys only); New World Speller, Book III; penholder, pencil, tablet, drawing material as directed by teacher.

Real Estate

Homes and acreage. Farms and Stock Ranches.

All Kinds of Good Insurance

Ashland Agents of Abstract Co

Billings