

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

(From Wednesday's Daily)

Leaves for Missouri—

J. L. Harner left the first of the week for Missouri, where he will visit for the next few weeks.

Notice to Car Owners—

We have a full line of aluminum mats and license frames on sale at Jordan Electric Co., also at Eagle Brass Foundry. Installed free. 21-6*

Takes Position as Barber—

W. J. Hastings, who recently returned to Ashland after a few months absence, has taken a position at the N. G. Bates barber shop.

In California—

A letter received by relatives the first of the week announced the serious illness of Roy Long at his home in Los Angeles, but a telegram yesterday stated that he was considerably improved.

Leave for the Coast—

Lee and Ralph Mow, of the Dead Indian country, expect to leave in a few days for Crescent City or Eureka, Calif., where they expect to find work in a lumber camp.

Will Attend U. of O.—

Frank Walker left last week for Eugene, where he will attend the University of Oregon this coming year.

Tourist Is Arrested—

Charles Hall, of Nevada, who was driving the machine that turned over on the highway near here Monday night, was fined $50 when he appeared in Glenn O. Taylor's justice court at Medford yesterday. He pleaded guilty of having liquor in his possession, which, he said, he had purchased at Klamath Falls. Authorities who investigated the wreck found a gallon of moonshine whisky.

Coddling Has Withdrawn—

Word has been received in the city that George A. Coddling has officially withdrawn his candidacy for mayor of Medford. He, with P. B. Harrison, candidate for treasurer, filed their candidacies a few hours too late, and at first decided to go to court to demand that their names be included upon the ballot.

Serving on Jury—

George Dunn is in Medford attending the United States court as a juror.

Shopping in City—

Mrs. Hughes and Mrs. Barker, of Hornbrook, Calif., were in the city shopping yesterday.

Visitors from Hornbrook—

Mrs. J. Beers and Mr. and Mrs. George Beers, of Hornbrook, were business visitors in the city yesterday.

To Speak at Nazarene Church—

Dr. J. B. Chapman, of Kansas City, Mo., will speak at the Nazarene church this evening at 7:30 o'clock. Mr. Chapman is editor of the Herald of Holiness, and one of the leading evangelists of the denomination.

Medford Legion Gives Dance—

The American Legion of Medford will give a harvest ball at the fairgrounds pavilion this evening. A committee has been at work for several days in decorating the dance hall, and a varied program of entertainment features is provided.

Thursday Legal Holiday—

Four hundred and thirty years ago tomorrow, Christopher Columbus discovered America while seeking a westward passage to the Indies. In commemoration of this event all banks will draw their shades and lock the doors. The post office force, according to word today, will not observe the holiday, and deliveries will be made as usual.

Harvest Ball Informal—

In response to numerous inquiries from Ashland people, the committee in charge of the American Legion Harvest Ball has stated that the affair will not be a fancy-dress ball, but will be very informal. The large fairgrounds pavilion has been transformed by a novel scheme of decoration, typical of the harvest, and all is in readiness for the big crowds which will attend. In addition to the splendid dance music by Launspach's pavilion orchestra, there will be several attractive specialty acts between dances. The admission price will cover all charges tonight, including check room and refreshments.

Visits with Parents—

Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Lynch motored over from their ranch near Klamath Falls Sunday, and will visit for a few days with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Greenwood, of Liberty street.

Guests of Mrs. Van Wegen—

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Fluckus and little daughter Elaine were guests at the home of Mrs. Lulu Van Wegen, of Liberty street, Sunday afternoon.

Return from Newport—

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Randles, who recently came back from Newport, have rented one of the C. E. Lane houses, overlooking the park.

Recovering from Severe Cold—

Rev. Oldfield, pastor of the Congregational church, who has been suffering with a severe cold and tonsillitis, is convalescing, and was able to conduct services on Sunday.

Entertains at Dinner—

Mrs. A. G. McCarthy entertained the following guests at dinner today: Mrs. Robert Quinn, of Healdsburg, Calif.; Miss Catherine Pennington, of Alameda, Calif.; Mrs. S. J. Evans, Miss Ella Evans, Mrs. J. H. Foster and Mrs. Herbert McCarthy.

Will Attend Presbytery—

Rev. C. F. Koehler and Elder A. H. Hays, of the local Presbyterian church, left yesterday for Klamath Falls to attend the fall session of the Presbytery of southern Oregon. Rev. and Mrs. Joseph Angell, of Phoenix, also made the trip over yesterday. Mrs. Angell going for the purpose of giving some special talks on missionary work at both Klamath Falls and Merrill.

Visiting with Daughter—

Mrs. J. H. Foster, of Klamath Falls, is visiting with her daughter, Mrs. Herbert McCarthy, of North Main street, for a few days.

Visits at Talent—

Mrs. J. R. Greenwood was the guest of her niece, Mrs. Archie Waterman, of Talent, for a couple of days last week.

Visiting with Mother—

Mrs. Dan Kay and little daughter Barbara, are guests of her mother, Mrs. E. Morrison, of Ashland street, during the absence of Mr. Kay, who was called to Chicago by the serious illness of his mother.

Injured at Hyatt Prairie—

Joe Donovan, an employee at the Hyatt Prairie dam, was injured yesterday while cracking rocks with a sledge hammer, when a piece of the rock flew up and cut his left eye ball. He was taken to a physician, where he was given treatment. It is thought the sight of the eye will not be impaired.

Leaves for Chicago—

Miss Clara Kofran left for her home in Chicago today, after a visit of three months with relatives in the city. Miss Kofran is making the trip by way of Portland, and will make several stops en route home.

Rogue River Pioneer Dies—

Wesley Ingram died at his home in Rogue River early Monday morning, at the age of 85 years. He had been a resident of the Rogue River valley for the past 40 years, coming to Oregon from California in 1872, after having crossed the plains. The funeral services were held at 2 o'clock this afternoon at the Presbyterian church in Rogue River.

To Make Home Here—

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Hiner, who arrived in Ashland a few weeks ago, have rented the property at 606 Iowa street, and will reside there.

Working in Dental Parlor—

Mrs. Audrie Hubbard, daughter of Nate High, is working in the dental parlors of her brother, Lester High, in Oakland, Calif., and is doing nicely.

Visitors in Medford—

Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Jackson were visitors in Medford Tuesday.

(From Thursday's Daily)

Visiting from Astoria—

Al. Cronin, of Astoria, Or., is a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. D. Yarbrough, 532 Seaside Drive.

Granddaughter Is Guest—

J. L. Greenwood is enjoying a visit from his granddaughter and her husband, from Klamath county.

Leaves for Portland—

Frank Murphy left for Portland Tuesday evening on train 16, to look after business matters.

Leaves for Frisco—

Mrs. C. A. Cotter is spending a few weeks in San Francisco and the other bay cities.

Visits in Rogue River—

Mrs. M. E. Frazier, of 225 B street, and her granddaughter, Miss Adeline Racine, spent the past week-end visiting in the town of Rogue River, in the northern part of the county.

Will Visit Local Chapter—

Miss Anne Lang, state regent of the D. A. R., will arrive in Ashland today and will be present at the meeting of the local D. A. R. chapter on Friday afternoon, at 2:30 at the home of Mrs. J. P. Dodge, at 590 Boulevard.

Visiting with Sister—

Mrs. J. D. Reagh, of Seattle, is spending a few weeks here visiting with her sister, Mrs. Agnes Herndon.

Here from Portland—

A. B. Mackenzie, who left here a few months ago at the call of the government for aerial service, has been released from the army, and is working for the Braly Apco company, of Portland. Mr. Mackenzie drove to Ashland yesterday from the state metropolis in a new Essex coach, which was purchased by H. G. Enders Jr. On his return trip, he took the Franklin car of Dr. Swedenburg back to Portland and expects to bring a new Franklin back to Ashland for the doctor in the near future.

Returns from Hospital—

Floyd Dickey returned from the Southern Pacific hospital at San Francisco yesterday. He is getting along very nicely.

Indian Youths Released—

The two Indian brothers, Charles and Fred Hood, who appeared before the federal court to answer to charges of stealing a steer and two cows before Thanksgiving, 1920, were acquitted by a jury. The trial lasted for two days. The jury at a previous trial disagreed. The last case on the docket, finishing the work of the court, was that of C. A. Lynch, Grants Pass, who was charged with concealing assets in a bankruptcy proceedings.

Many Attend Institute—

More than 200 teachers of Jackson county are in attendance at the annual teachers' institute in Medford this week. Today is the second day of the session. The teachers will be guests at a dinner given in their honor at Phoenix Friday evening, following the closing of institute. The domestic science class of Medford high school served lunch to the teachers at the high school building this noon.

Speak at Institute—

George A. Briscoe, city superintendent of schools, presided at the afternoon meeting of the Jackson county teachers' institute in Medford. During the reading circles, B. C. Forsythe, of the local high school, led one of the main discussions.

College Club to Meet—

Members of the College club will meet Saturday afternoon, October 14, at the home of Mrs. F. T. Wilson, 110 North Main street. An attractive program has been arranged, and a large delegation is expected to be present from Medford.

Pledged to Fraternity—

Floyd Ruch, who recently entered the University of Oregon, has been pledged to Phi Sigma Pi fraternity, according to word received here. George Ross Jr. was pledged to the same organization, making seven Ashland boys in the same living organization on the campus.

Medford to Play Football—

Medford high school will open its interscholastic football season this Saturday, when they clash with the Grants Pass eleven at Medford. This game will be the last on the home gridiron until the Roseburg contest on November 4. Other games to be played by M. H. S. are: October 21, Klamath Falls at Klamath Falls; October 28, Albany at Albany; November 4, Roseburg at Medford; November 11, Ashland at Medford; November 17, Grants Pass at Grants Pass, and November 30, the annual Thanksgiving game, Ashland here.

Return from Motor Trip—

Mr. and Mrs. George Robison and Mrs. Jennie Schwan motored to Rogue Elk Sunday, where they camped over night, returning Monday evening.

Move Reported—

Abe McCoy has moved from 835 B street to the house Mr. Enders recently moved from Oak street to A street.

Listed on Stock Exchange—

Preferred capital stock of the California Oregon Power company has been listed on the San Francisco stock and bond exchange, and accordingly, the stock appears in the San Francisco daily papers under the heading of "Listed Stocks" on the financial page. The stock is quoted at "93 1/2 bid."

Medford Business Visitors—

Mesdames Fraley and Barber were business visitors in Medford Wednesday afternoon.

Visits from Klamath—

Fred Payne, of Klamath Falls, spent Wednesday visiting with friends about Ashland.

Make Some Kill—

F. L. Fry and Cal and Fred Gilson, not being satisfied with their hunt of last week, which resulted in a water haul, left the first of the week for a few more days in the vicinity of Wagner Gap and on their return to the city Tuesday evening, brought two fine bucks and reported the killing of a big black bear.

Visit in Sams Valley—

Hattie Hodges and Mrs. Wm. Myers, of Ashland, came down last Sunday with Mrs. Albert Gall, of Medford, and joined a party consisting of the Lloyd Miller family, L. O. Walker and family, who assembled at the Gall ranch in Sams Valley for a reunion, says the Gold Hill News.

Meeting Postponed—

The official board meeting, which was to have been held at the Methodist church this evening, has been postponed on account of the meeting at the Methodist church in Medford, where Bishop Stuntz is to speak.

Bond Issue Is Voted—

A bond issue of $75,000 was authorized by the land owners of the Grants Pass irrigation district at the election Tuesday for the completion of the project, of the 104 votes cast, 91 being in favor of the bonds, while 13 registered their opposition, states the Grants Pass Courier. One hundred and one of the voters supported the proposition for contract with the state of Oregon for the state payment of interest upon the bond issue for the first five years, only one voter expressing a wish to refuse acceptance of state assistance.

At Bedside of Father—

Mrs. Kate Nell arrived a few days ago from Pendleton, Or., to be at the bedside of her father, Jacob Connely, who has been making his home with his daughter, Mrs. Boyd Tucker who resides east of the city.

Returns from Oakland, Or.—

Charles Rugs has moved back to Ashland from Oakland, Or., where he has been living for some time past. He has moved to the Brown ranch in the Siskiyou.

Visits with Parents—

Mr. and Mrs. George Noble and family, of Bonanza, Or., are here visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Noble's parents, the Noble and Casey families.

Bishop Speaks at Medford—

Bishop Homer C. Stuntz, of the Methodist Episcopal church, has been prevailed upon to speak in Medford this evening. He will speak at the Methodist church there at 8 o'clock. This will be an opportunity for Ashland people to hear this world citizen. He has been in every land, speaks four languages, and has, through interpreters, delivered his message in 88 different languages and dialects.

Wednesday Club Meets—

The hostesses, Mesdames Brown, Poley, Andrews and Adams, were very happy in their entertainment yesterday of the Wednesday club. There was a goodly number in attendance, and a delightful spirit of fellowship. Dr. Shaw's reading of "The Echo," was beautiful, as was Mrs. Wing's whistling solo. Refreshments of cakes and coffee were enjoyed. The fourth Wednesday will be calling day, when members will call on new people and extend Ashland welcome to strangers.

Property Changes Hands—

E. F. Herbst has sold his property at 139 Wimer street to Dr. Phettplace, who recently bought out the practice of Dr. Buchanan. The deal was made through the Staples Realty company.

To Take Vacation—

E. F. Herbst and family expect to leave in a few days for California, where they will spend the winter. They expect to take a year's vacation and spend the time in sight-seeing.

Carkin a Candidate—

John H. Carkin, candidate for state representative, engaged in the practice of law in Medford for the past 14 years, and who served in the legislative body as a representative from Jackson county during the 1913 session, is the author of several important bills. He still believes that the tax burden can be greatly lessened by the further introduction of business methods into the state government by the elimination of useless offices, boards and commissions. Carkin is a native of Maine and a graduate of the University of North Dakota.

(From Thursday's Daily)

Returns from Berkeley—

Mrs. J. R. Lilly, who has been confined to a hospital in Berkeley, Calif., for the past month, returned to her home here Wednesday evening.

Will Meet Friday Evening—

The American Legion Auxiliary of both Ashland and Medford will meet in Ashland at the Parish house on Second street, Friday evening at 7:30 o'clock.

Reception for New Pastor—

A reception for Rev. S. J. Cheney, the new pastor of the Methodist church, and his family, and the deaconess, Miss Kuter, will be given in the church parlors Friday evening, October 13, at 8 o'clock. All members and friends of the church and ministers of the city and their families, are cordially invited.

Visits with Friends—

Richard Ware arrived in Ashland a few days ago from Grand Rapids, Mich., and is visiting with friends for a few days before leaving for California, where he has accepted a position.

Leaves for Trail—

Miss Ruth Meacham, who has been in Ashland for a few weeks for medical attention, left for her home at Trail yesterday. She was accompanied by her father, who came up from that place for the day.

Makes Trip to Klamath—

Everett Acklin returned from Klamath Falls Wednesday evening, having taken a party over to that place Tuesday. He reports that the Green Spring road is getting in a very bad condition.

Bureau Opposes Single Tax—

The executive committee of the Jackson county farm bureau, at the last regular meeting, went on record as being opposed to the measure on the ballot to be voted upon November 7, known as the "Single Tax Bill." It is the belief of the bureau that the measure will work a hardship and an injustice upon the farmers of Oregon, and would be a serious mistake, as it would further retard the agricultural progress of the state by greatly increasing the burdens of the now overtaxed farmers, and many other industries.

Fine Program Broadcasted—

A fine program was broadcasted from station KFAV at the fairgrounds last night by Launspach's orchestra, playing for the Legion harvest ball. Sam Jordan reports excellent results received here, it being possible to hear people talking in addition to the music. Hereafter a regular program will be sent out on Mondays, from 9 to 10 p. m., and Wednesday, 9 to 12 p. m., and Friday, 9 to 10 p. m. Next Monday evening Ashland musicians will furnish the program.

Leaves City—

Mr. Wilson, who has been residing at the Vista apartments for some time, left for the south today.

Leave to Attend Wedding—

The Misses Dorothy and Virginia Jones left yesterday for Sacramento, to attend the wedding of a cousin, which will take place there in a few days. Mrs. Chattin is filling Miss Dorothy's place at the McGee store while the latter is away.

(From Friday's Daily)

Gas Company Official Here—

C. D. Simonds, of Portland, one of the officials of the Ashland Natural Carbonic Gas company, was in the city yesterday, looking over the plant of his company east of Ashland and getting things lined up for the winter.

Excellent Talent Obtained—

Fifty Medford business men have entered into a co-operative agreement to guarantee sufficient money to obtain three talented artists to appear in the city at various times during the winter. Major Powell, nationally noted lecturer, will be the first attraction, on October 27. Others who will appear later are the Laurence Concert company, November 14, and Arthur Middleton, of the Metropolitan Opera company, bartone, January 8. Season tickets have been placed at a very low figure, $3 covering the three numbers. All of the performances will be given at the Page theatre.

Old Resident Finds Changes—

James Conrad, of Santa Cruz, Calif., has been a visitor in Ashland this week. He says Ashland has changed mightily since he lived here in 1874.

Baby Clinic Tomorrow—

Miss Faldine, Jackson county health nurse, will be in the city Saturday afternoon, at the Methodist church, from 2 o'clock until 5. She is anxious to meet mothers and consult with them about their children.

On Business in Medford—

Bert Smith made a trip to Medford yesterday, transacting business at the office of the California Oregon Power company's office.

Visits in Grants Pass—

Mrs. C. D. Morgan was a visitor in the "It's the climate" city yesterday.

Bears at Crater Lake—

Prevented by law to kill his molesters, Alex Sparrow, superintendent at Crater Lake national park, is becoming greatly incensed over bears that continue to pillage his camp. They recently broke into the kitchen storehouse and made away with 10 pounds of fresh meat and some other supplies that appealed to their appetites. Sparrow has phoned out for a shotgun and shells for, though the law says he must not kill a wild animal in a national reserve, there is no mention made against him filling their hides with small buckshot in an attempt to educate the animals.

Attending Convention—

W. W. Robison is attending the State Sunday school convention in Portland this week. Mr. Robison is doing a very thorough work in the Sunday schools of Jackson county, as county secretary.

Presbyterian Notice—

All who want the mission study books on India, either for the Presbyterian Christian Endeavor, Guild, or women's society, please telephone Mrs. C. W. Nims.

Selected as Delegate—

Elder Hays and Rev. Koehler, returned yesterday from the presbytery meeting, reporting a very good meeting and royal hospitality at Klamath Falls. Mr. Koehler was selected as commissioner to the general assembly of the Presbyterian church, at Indianapolis, next spring, with Rev. Mr. Veigh, of Glendale, as alternate.

Nightriding Demurrers Filed—

Briefs in the applications for a demurrer against the indictments in the recent nightriding cases at Medford have been filed by both the state and the defense. The state is anxious to present the issue to a jury. If the demurrers are sustained in the action now pending, the indictments are automatically quashed. If they are overruled, the next step is the receiving of the pleas of the six defendants, and then the right to request a change of venue is open.

Visiting in Roseburg—

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Nims, who have been visiting for a few days in Roseburg as the guests of Miss Ruth Swinney and Mrs. C. E. Roberts, are expected home today or tomorrow.

Attending K. P. Meeting—

D. M. Lowe, whose place is between Ashland and Medford, is attending the Knights of Pythias meeting. Mr. Lowe was the recall candidate for sheriff in the recent bitter contest in Jackson county. He was defeated.—Portland Oregonian.

Will Visit in California—

Mrs. Jack Callahan, 582 C street, left yesterday afternoon for California, where she will spend a few weeks visiting.

Home from Montague—

Mr. and Mrs. George Loosley have returned to their home here from a few weeks' visit spent in the vicinity of Montague.

Someone Likes Pens—

Some time last night or yesterday, someone entered the Harry Couch pharmacy on Sixth street and removed a case of fountain pens, says the Grants Pass Courier. There were 24 fountain pens in the case. This robbery was almost identical to the one here last Saturday, when three dozen pens were taken from the Nimsinger & Warner store. In neither robbery were other articles in stock touched.

On Duck and Deer Hunt—

A party composed of Guy Lewis, Ed Kilgore, Alex Smith and David Peterson left this morning for Langell's valley, in Klamath county, where they expect to spend a week hunting deer, ducks and geese.

Will Visit Gold Hill—

It is announced that the county Sunday school association, and the Christian Workers' band, of Ashland, will hold a good live program at the M. E. church at Gold Hill on Sunday, October 15. Everybody invited to come out and help in this great Sunday school work. These people will come in a body and take part with the regular lesson at Sunday school, and their program will follow, beginning at 11 o'clock, the regular morning pastoral service. These people are visiting every Sunday school in the county.—Gold Hill News.

Missionary Will Speak—

Rev. Mr. Birtchet, missionary to Columbia, S. A., who is home on furlough, will speak in the Presbyterian church Sunday evening. Mr. Birtchet is a graduate of Albany college, Albany, Or.

Royal Neighbors to Meet—

The Royal Neighbors of America will re-organize and hold their first meeting at the Moose hall, Saturday, October 14, at 8:30 o'clock. All visiting Neighbors are urgently requested to attend the meeting.

Hunting in Eastern Oregon—

Ray Dix, Ernest Carlon and L. A. Moss left the first of the week for a ten days' hunting trip into eastern Oregon. They expect to hunt both deer and birds.

S. P. Officials Here—

Stanley Pope, official bureau of railway time service of the Southern Pacific, and H. T. Harger, Southern Pacific inspector from Sacramento, were in the city on an official business trip Thursday. They were accompanied to Medford by W. H. Hodgkinson, who later took the visitors around the country and through Lithia park on a short sight-seeing tour. The railroad men were very much impressed with the possibilities of the section of the state, and greatly admired the park in particular.

Uncle's Monster Beet—

W. H. Worthington was digging his beets, raised for home consumption, in his garden on Laurel street, yesterday, when he found a surprise—a beet which weighed nine pounds and 14 ounces. Where is the match for this?

Klamath Falls Man Here—

William Marx, of Klamath Falls, arrived in the city Wednesday night. He will attend to legal affairs here and at Medford before returning home in a few days.

Pledged to Sorority—