

Local and Personal

(From Wednesday's Daily)

Medford Physician Dies

Dr. Henry Hart, one of the leading physicians and surgeons of Medford, died Monday night following an emergency operation performed last week for appendicitis. He was 59 years of age and was born at West Point, Ill., February 13, 1863. For a great many years he practiced in Quincy, Ill., coming to Medford in 1909. Prior to his death he was vice-president and a member of the board of directors of the First National bank. He was a member of the Medford Elks, Bodley Lodge, A. F. & A. M., of Quincy, Ill., funeral services will be held Thursday afternoon, with interment in the I. O. O. F. cemetery. Rev. William B. Hamilton will officiate.

Here from Copeco

William Harper, of Copeco, has been spending a few days in Ashland.

S. P. Buys Many Cars

The Southern Pacific has authorized construction of freight and passenger train cars representing an investment of $12,000,000, to be delivered in 1923, according to information received today by G. N. Kramer, S. P. agent for Ashland. The new equipment includes 4525 freight cars, 141 passenger cars, in addition to the 5000 refrigerator cars and 300 refrigerators equipped for passenger train service recently ordered by the Pacific Fruit Express company.

Attending Dental Meeting

Dr. P. H. Johnson left for Portland Wednesday evening to attend the annual meeting of the Oregon State Dental society.

Here on Business

Harry D. Arnold, representative of the Mercantile Linotype company, who makes his home in Portland, was a business visitor in the city today.

Portland People Here

Mr. and Mrs. J. Holtman, of Portland, stopped over last night in the city.

Home from Hill

A. F. Abbott, of Alida street, arrived home from Hill, Calif., this week, after spending the past several months working in a sawmill at that place. Mr. Abbott states that the mill expects to close down on account of the storm and may not open again until spring.

Medford Man Sentenced

George Grigsby, of Medford, was sentenced to the county jail for 30 days and fined $25 by Justice Gowdy this morning on a charge of driving an automobile without a chauffeur's license, preferred by J. J. McMahon, deputy state traffic officer for this district. Grigsby endeavored to raise the amount of the fine to $50 and avoid a jail sentence, which, after being taken under advisement by Justice Gowdy, was refused after McMahon had told of Grigsby's past record. J. W. Hatcher, chief of police, took the prisoner to Jacksonville this afternoon.

Spend Week-End Here

Mr. and Mrs. R. K. Stewart, of Davenport, Wash., spent the week-end with their cousin, Mrs. Josephine Crocker. Mr. and Mrs. Stewart are en route to California, where they will spend the winter.

On the Sick List

Mrs. R. W. Conover has been unable to be at the Needlecraft Shop this week, having been confined to her home by a very serious cold. Miss Claudine Cox is taking care of the shop in her place.

Here for Winter

Mr. and Mrs. Schont, of Vancouver, Wash., arrived here a few days ago and have taken an apartment at 147 Granite street with the intention of spending the winter here. Mr. Schont has been in poor health for some time and came here to see if the climate would benefit him.

Pays Fine in Court

William Reinhart, proprietor of Plaza pool hall, was given a $10 fine in Justice Gowdy's court today for allowing a minor in his place of business. The minor son of Rev. and Mrs. Koehler went into the pool hall to talk to Reinhart's son, who was slightly injured in an accident a few days previous and had started to play a game of pool when Mrs. Koehler passed by the place and saw him. She preferred the charge against the proprietor.

Visitors Like Ashland

Mr. and Mrs. Kotel and son, of Portland, have been visiting in Ashland during the past few days. They are quite impressed with the city and think the park and the water they best they ever saw, paying high compliments to both. They will return to their home in a few days, but expect to drive through next summer and stated they expected to make a longer stay at that time.

Will Meet Thursday

The regular meeting of Trinity Guild will be held Thursday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock in the Parish house.

Visits Grandmother

Emery Parshall, of Montague, is in the city visiting with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. William H. Smith, of East Main street, for a few days. Mr. Parshall reports conditions in northern California as being very slow with the exception of the sheep market, which he says, is the best it has been for some time.

All Trains Delayed

Too much "weather" to the north and south of Ashland was responsible for the tardy arrival of Southern Pacific trains today, most of which arrived in the city within an hour or two of the scheduled time.

Will Talk on Dairying

Prof. Jamison, dairy expert from the Oregon Agricultural college, will discuss dairy feeding Friday afternoon during the Winter Fair, and will also speak in Medford Saturday afternoon at the public library, on the same subject.

Here from Portland

J. R. Lee, supervising construction foreman for the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph company for the state of Oregon, was a business visitor in the city Tuesday.

District Attorneys to Meet

For the first time in recent years, the State District Attorneys Association of Oregon will hold its annual meeting outside of Portland, when the members gather at Eugene December 15 and 16 at the invitation of the school of law of the University of Oregon. There are 36 attorneys with membership in the association at present, and an attendance of 30 is expected.

Prohibition Comes High

According to vouchers on file at the county clerk's office, prohibition enforcement during November cost $1068, the highest since August, 1922, when many raids were staged. Of this amount $809 was issued to S. B. Sandifer, for services rendered, gasoline and other expenses. The remaining $199 was issued to J. H. Leggett and Bert Moses.

Southern Oregon Featured

Scenic attractions of southern Oregon are being featured in a booklet entitled "Beauty Spots of Oregon," containing excellent colored photographic plates of scenic spots of the state recently issued by the Multnomah hotel, Portland. Crater and Klamath lakes are featured, a colored plate of Crater lake appearing on the first page. The Oregon Caves also come in for their share of publicity.

Winburn Entertains

Jesse Winburn, of Sap and Salt, entertained a distinguished body of Portland and Corvallis women at the Medford hotel last Saturday night at a banquet in the special dining room following the dedication of the Community club at Ashland, says the Medford Mail Tribune. The women included Mrs. B. F. Irvine, wife of the editor of the Portland Journal; Mrs. Ward Irvine, Miss Helen Dietrick and Miss Hazel Handy, prominent Portland newspaper women; Mrs. Ida B. Callahan, Miss Helen Fulton and Miss Gertrude Strickland of O. A. C., prominent in women's club and extension work. The following local people were also guests: Mr. and Mrs. P. P. Ferrell, of Medford; County Judge and Mrs. George Gardner, Mrs. L. L. Robinson and Mrs. Miriam Shepherd, of Ashland, and Miss Louise Manning, of Medford.

Visited with Peters Jr.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Young, of Portland, spent Thanksgiving week with Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Peters Jr. Mr. Young is connected with the Marshall Fields company, of Chicago, and he and Mrs. Young are on their way to southern California. Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Peters Jr. entertained at Thanksgiving dinner the following guests: Mr. and Mrs. Ray Young, Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Peters Sr., Mr. and Mrs. H. O. Butterfield, Arthur Peters and Clark Butterfield.

(From Thursday's Daily)

Price Going to Eugene

Dr. Charles S. Price will conduct a series of four sermons in Eugene next week. The meetings will be held in the First Methodist church, strictly as a business proposition, this building having been found necessary by his agents, when they found they could not obtain the Armorey, because of previous arrangements.

Seattle Man Visits

A. Hansen, of Seattle, is spending a few days visiting friends in the city.

Car Stripped of Fender

A truck and a Chevrolet touring car came together at the corner of East Main and First streets Wednesday evening about 4 o'clock during the snow storm, when the truck, coming from the east, started to turn around at the intersection of the streets and failed to note an approaching car going east, until it hit the other car. The result of the collision was the stripping of the left hand fender from the touring car and other minor damages to both cars.

Poultry Awards Scattered Over Entire State; Many Ashland Exhibitors Take Awards at Fair

Awards made in the poultry department at the Southern Oregon Poultry Association exhibition, in connection with the Winter Fair, are as follows:

Barred Plymouth Rocks (78 birds)—Dark mating—M. M. Lower, Gaston, Or., first cock, first and second hens, second pullet and first young pen; Mrs. Victor Bursell, Central Point, Or., second cock, third hen; Horace Beardsley, Oakland, Calif., first cockerel, first and third pullets; Mrs. Rosa B. Willett, Medford, Or., second cockerel and third young pen; J. V. Miller, Goshen, Or., third cockerel; E. C. Burt, Ashland, second young pen. Light mating—M. M. Lower, first cock, first and third cockerels, first and third pullets, first young pen; C. Bruce Wheeler, Goshen, Or., first hen, second cockerel, second pullet.

White Plymouth Rocks (22 birds)—Jack Bertram, Lents, Or., first cock, second hen, first cockerel, third pullet; Bert Senter, Hood River, Or., second cock, first hen, second cockerel, first pullet; E. O. Smith, Ashland, third hen; J. Larkin Grubb, Ashland, third cockerel, second pullet, first young pen.

Partridge Plymouth Rocks (6 birds)—All awards to Gus R. Beck, Talent, Or.

Columbian Plymouth Rocks—23 birds)—All awards to H. R. Damon, Portland, Or.

White Wyandottes (15 birds)—D. B. Gold, Ashland, first, second and third hen, first and second young pen; Eugene Senter, Hood River, Or., first cockerel and first pullet.

Partridge Wyandottes—Mrs. W. S. Eastman, Ashland, all awards.

Silver Wyandottes—C. B. Wheeler, Goshen, Or., all awards.

Buff Wyandottes—Ira R. Aldrich, La Grande, Or., all awards.

Rhode Island Reds (38 birds)—Ernest Webb, Central Point, first cock, second hen, third cockerel, third pullet, second young pen; D. B. Gold, Ashland, second cock; Mrs. W. C. Bolio, Medford, first hen, first and second pullets, first young pen.

Black Jersey Giants (11 birds)—All awards to Theo. P. Cramer Jr., Grants Pass.

Blue Jersey Giants—All awards to Dexter P. Upham, Bellmar, N. J.

Light Brahmans (9 birds)—Ard Gear, Ashland, Or., first hen, first cockerel.

A. L. Auxiliary to Meet—Members of the Ladies' Auxiliary of the American Legion will hold an important meeting at the Parish house, Friday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. As there are only two more meetings to be held this year, it is urged that all those affiliated with the organization be present.

Leaves for Los Angeles—Mrs. M. C. Reed left last night on train 15 for Los Angeles, where she will join her husband.

Visits in Ashland—D. M. Lowe, of Medford, was a visitor at the Ashland Winter Fair today.

On Business in Jacksonville—Ralph Billings was a business visitor to the county seat today.

Takes Position at Bakery—Mary Leach has taken a position at the Electric bakery and will serve the public over the counter with the electrically baked pastry.

Kicks on Advertising—H. C. Hamaker came to the Tidings office this morning and registered a kick about the results obtained from an ad placed in the paper a few days ago, stating that he had chickens for sale. Mr. Hamaker said the trouble was people continued to come for a day or two after the chickens had been disposed of. This is generally the only dissatisfaction found with the Tidings want ads.

Xmas Rates Are Offered—Reduced holiday excursion fares will be put into effect by the Southern Pacific for Christmas and New Years, it was announced today by John M. Scott, general passenger agent. The reduced rates which will be in effect between all points on the S. P. lines where the one way fare is $30 or less, will consist of one fare and a half for the round trip, or a 25 per cent reduction from the double one way fare. Tickets will be on sale December 22 to January 1, with final return limit of January 3.

Here on Business—Harold W. Readon, representing the Hicks-Chatten Engraving company of Portland, was in the city today on business, calling at the high school in regard to cuts for the high school annual. Mr. Readon formerly attended the Oregon Agricultural college, where he was prominent in campus activities, particularly in journalism. He left this afternoon for Medford.

S. C. White Leghorns (76 birds)—A. P. Wheeler, Pleasant Hill, Or., first cock, first hen, first cockerel and first pullet; E. O. Smith, second and third cocks, third hen, second and third cockerels, third pullet, second old pen and first young pen; Mrs. W. D. Booth, Ashland, second hen, second young pen; Mrs. W. C. Bolio, second pullet; A. C. Crews, Ashland, third young pen.

Brown Leghorns—Dark—Lawrence Wheeler, Pleasant Hill, Or., first cockerel; Ned S. Mars, Ashland, second cockerel; Theo. P. Cramer, Grants Pass, Or., first, second and third pullets and first young pen.

Buff Leghorns—(35 birds)—Mr. and Mrs. Albert D. Larson, Carlton, Or., first, second and third cocks, second hen, second and third cockerels, second pullet, first old pen and second young pen; E. R. Stromquist, Beaverton, Or., first and third hens, first cockerel, first and third pullets, first young pen.

S. C. Anconas (24 birds)—A. C. McMillan, Ashland, first cock, second hen, first cockerel, first and second pullets, first young pen; J. R. Wheeler, Goshen, Or., first hen; Gus R. Beck, Talent, third hen; James R. Eads, Grants Pass, third pullet, second young pen.

R. C. Anconas—All awards to J. W. Wheeler.

White Faced Black Spanish—All awards to Harry Sliton Jr., Beaverton, Or.

Black Minorcas—John F. Butler, Ashland, first cock, second and third hens, first and second pullets; C. H. Wheeler, Pleasant Hill, Or., first hen and second cockerel; G. W. Speight, Hubbard, Or., first and third cockerels.

White Minorcas—Grover East, Central Point, first and second hens, third pullet; John F. Butler, first and second pullets.

Buff Orpingtons—E. O. Smith, first and second hens, first cockerels, first and second pullets, first young pen.

Ivory Spangled Hamburgs—All awards to C. Bruce Wheeler.

Blue Andalusians—All awards to C. Bruce Wheeler.

Capons—J. Larkin Grubb, on White Plymouth Rock capons, all awards.

Bronze Turkeys (11 birds)—Mrs. J. L. Neil, Ashland, first cock, second hen, second cockerel, third pullet; Miss I. Mabel McFadden, Talent, second cock, first hen, second pullet; Mrs. F. A. Denzer, Medford, third cock; J. L. Freeman, Central Point, first cockerel and first pullet.

Indian Runner Ducks—Henry Van Prooyen, Ashland, all awards.

Wild Mallard Ducks, M. Shaekel-ford, Ashland, all awards.

Toulouse Ducks—Vera Temple, Ashland, all awards.

Gray Call Ducks—Glenn Head, Ashland, all awards.

Special Premiums—Best exhibit in show, one breed—M. M. Lower, Gaston, Or.

Best bird in show—Bert Senter, Hood River, Or.

Best exhibit White Plymouth Rocks—Bert Senter, Hood River, Or.

Best exhibit White Wyandottes—D. B. Gold, Ashland.

Best exhibit Rhode Island Reds—Mrs. W. C. Bolio, Medford.

Best Plymouth Rock cockerel—Horace Beardsley, Oakland, Calif.

Best White Leghorn cockerel—A. P. Wheeler, Pleasant Hill, Or.

Best Brown Leghorn cockerel—Lawrence Wheeler, Pleasant Hill, Or.

Best Black Minorca cockerel—G. W. Speight, Hubbard, Or.

Best laying pen White Leghorns (old)—G. W. Allen, Ashland.

Best laying pen White Leghorns (young)—E. C. Lockwood, Ashland.

Best type laying hen R. I. Red—Ernest Webb, Central Point.

Best display White Leghorns—E. O. Smith, Ashland.

Champion Barred Plymouth Rock hen—Bruce Wheeler, Goshen, Or.

Best turkey in show—Mrs. J. L. Neil, Ashland.

Best Rhode Island Red hen—Mrs. W. C. Bolio, Medford.

Best pen Barren Plymouth Rocks—M. M. Lower, Gaston, Or.

Pen laying most eggs during show—G. W. Allen, Ashland.

Best exhibit Anconas—A. McMillan, Ashland.

Best exhibit Black Minorcas—John F. Butler, Ashland.

Special ribbons given by Rhode Island Red club of America—For best shaped cock, Mrs. W. C. Bolio, Medford; best shaped hen, Ernest Webb, Central Point; best shaped cockerel, Ernest Webb; best shaped pullet, Ernest Webb; best colored cock, Ernest Webb; best colored hen, Mrs. W. C. Bolio; best colored cockerel, Fred Johansen, Rainier, Or.; best colored pullet, Mrs. W. C. Bolio.

Moves Reported—Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Kilgore have moved to the G. S. Butler property at 376 B street.

Mrs. J. W. Wilson moved Wednesday from 199 Emerick street to 109 Granite street.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Wilson have rented the OGG property at 58 Bush street and will move to that location in a few days from the house in the rear of the Ideal grocery.

Mr. and Mrs. I. E. Jones have moved into the Callahan property at 582 C street.

Here on Business—Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Walter, of Medford, were business visitors in the city Wednesday.

New Lumber Concerns Started—A new box factory and planing mill is to be constructed by the Chiloquin Lumber company to be operated in connection with the sawmill. Construction work will begin after the first of the year, and capitalization of the company will be increased from $50,000 to $100,000. The Modco Lumber company, near Chiloquin, is planning on cutting all winter. A new dry kiln is being erected and 40 men are employed at present. This will be finished about Christmas.

Hunters Are Warned—A warning has been sent to all hunters by Pat Dally, deputy state game warden, cautioning any one from hunting after dark contrary to state regulations. Any such person found will be prosecuted, he says. Darkness sets in a little past 4:15 now, according to official information.

Big Case for Thomas—When C. M. Thomas, judge-elect for the circuit court of Josephine county, takes the bench at the January term, he will render decision upon the Oregon and Dewey Jones hold-up case, the most important one on the docket. The Jones' are charged with the Pacific highway robberies north of Grants Pass in September, and are believed to have participated in the Blackwell Hill episode.

(From Friday's Daily)

Mrs. Vance's Brother Dies

Word has been received in the city of the death last week of L. D. ("Buck") King, for many years a resident of Siskiyou county, at Yreka. The funeral was held the first of this week. His only living relative was Mrs. Gertrude Vance, of this city. As Mrs. Vance is a member of the Pythian Sisters, Yreka members of the organization assisted in making arrangements for the funeral. King, who was 44 years of age, was recently removed from a hospital at Klamath Falls. He had been a resident of California for the past 30 years.

Will Have Saxophone Band

A band composed exclusively of saxophones, played by high school students, is the problem being worked out by Carl H. Loveland, director of the high school band. There are at present 12 of the boys playing this instrument, and with the recent purchase of a baritone saxophone by Albert Cotter, a complete instrumentation is possible.

Returns from "Sap and Salt"

Miss Roberta Ward, who has been a guest at Sap and Salt, returned to Ashland Thursday evening. She states those who think the canyon wonderful in the summer time should see it now that a heavy fall of snow has visited the region. Sleigh riding was also enjoyed before returning to the city.

Much Snow Reported

Heavy snow is reported on the Grants Pass-Crescent City highway near Gasquet and Monumental, where it was nearly a foot in depth. It was found necessary to drive a flivver coupe in low all the way down Oregon mountain. From Monumental to the top of the hill, a speed of one mile an hour for three hours was recorded, part of the time one of the passengers having to help push the machine.

Armenian Lace Sale

Mrs. Sam McNair and Mrs. A. Marske will be in charge of the Armenian lace sale Saturday afternoon at Rose Bros. Victoria room.

Nina Mevuns Married

Miss Nina Mevuns, daughter of Mrs. Axel Hall, 247 Laurel street, has been married in Santa Barbara, Calif., to Mr. Gerald Weeding, according to word just received in the city. Miss Mevuns is a graduate of the Ashland high school.

Baby Girl Arrives

Mrs. and Mrs. Edmund Barrett, former Ashland people, now residents of Albany, Or., are the proud parents of a baby girl, which arrived December 3, word of which has just been received. The young daughter has just been named Elizabeth Lois. Both mother and daughter are doing nicely.

Here for Funeral

Mr. and Mrs. George Corey, of Medford, were in the city Thursday to attend the funeral of Mrs. William Hardy, mother of Mrs. James H. Doran and T. F. Doran. The Corey's were old Minnesota friends of the Doran's before coming to the Rogue River valley.

Arrive Here from Kansas

With Ashland as their destination, Mr. and Mrs. Will Mapes and son, Warren Mapes, of Marshalltown, Kansas, arrived in the city last night after being on the road for six weeks. The party made the trip in a Buick '16" and took the southern route. Snow was encountered at Gallup Pass, New Mexico, and a further detour to the south was made. Several California points were visited en route. The Mapes' will spend the winter here with the John Wild family, whom they used to know in the middle west.

Visited in Mayten

Mrs. F. N. Roberts and daughter, Miss Olympia Roberts, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Wanaka and children, Mrs. Walter Eastman, of Ashland, and W. Laughlin, of Sunnyside, Wash., were recent guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Cloyd Laughlin, of Mayten.

Will Attend Hearing

Superintendent of Schools Aubrey Smith, Principal Campbell and Coach Eddie Durno, of the high school, will leave Friday evening for Salem, where they will appear before the state athletic association Saturday, in the eligibility protest filed by Ashland against Baughman and Neff, of the local football team, says the Medford Mail Tribune. A speedy decision is expected in the case.

New Agency Established

With the establishment of the Buescher band instrument line by Carl H. Loveland in the Enders department store, Ashland now has the agency for this line for southern Oregon. There is now a complete stock of this make of band instruments in the city. Several sales have been made in Medford.

Vernon Doran Here

Vernon Doran, of Oakland, Calif., called here by the death of his grandmother, Mrs. William Hardy, will remain in Ashland until after the Christmas holidays. He will visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. James H. Doran.

Here for a Few Days

Delbert King, who was formerly a resident of Ashland, but who has been working for the California Oregon Power company at Cottage Grove for some time past, is visiting for a few days with friends in Ashland. He expects to go to Yreka at the end of his visit here.

Army Opens Offices

Headquarters for the 382d Infantry, U. S. army, organized reserve, have been opened in the federal building, Medford. The purpose of the office is to interest ex-army officers and qualified civilians in the officers' reserve corps, and secure enlisted men for the enlisted reserve corps.

Move Here from Etan Mills

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Martin, of the French Creek section, near Etan Mills, Calif., who are now visiting in Central Point, will return to Ashland in a short time and make their home here. They had been residents of the California community for several years.

Resolutions Are Passed

The Jackson County Medical society, at a special meeting, passed a set of resolutions on the death of Dr. Henry H. Hart, of Medford, stating the deep feeling of regret his death has created among other members of the profession. The committee on resolutions was Robert J. Conroy, F. G. Swendenburg and William W. P. Holt. The association attended Dr. Hart's funeral Thursday afternoon in a body.

Congregations Are Stirred

Following the appearance of Dr. Charles S. Price in Albany, he has become the storm center of a controversy of wide-range. The newspapers of Coquille and Roseburg discuss the matter, in the former town editorially, and cites the Rev. Booser, a former minister of Medford, as being "not in accord with the theology." The issue has stirred pulpit and congregation to their foundations.

Klamath Club Progressive

The Klamath River Highway club, organized less than three months ago, now has a volunteer membership of 120, according to a pamphlet issued from the club's headquarters at Klamath Falls. The inception and growth of the club can be credited to Oregonians, who are ambitious to have an outlet to the coast through Siskiyou county, says the Siskiyou News.

Medford to Audit Books

The city council of Medford has granted a demand for an audit of the city books annually. The citizens' and taxpayers' league will pay for this work, which will be begun in 1923. The books will not be taken from the city hall during the audit.

Rents House Here

C. A. Fisher, a salesman for the Mason-Ehrman Grocery company, of Medford, has rented the M. C. Reed property on Scenic Drive, and has moved into the same.

The Surety of Purity
There are no miracles in cooking. What goes into the food must inevitably come out.
Even the baking perfection that results from the use of Royal Baking Powder is no miracle.
It is simply the result of absolute purity entering the food—and emerging again.
Royal is made from Cream of Tartar derived from grapes.
It Contains No Alum
Leaves No Bitter Taste

CATARRH
of head or throat is usually benefited by the vapors of
VICKS
VAPORUM
Over 17 Million Jars Used Yearly