

Local and Personal

(From Wednesday's Daily)

Will Spend Winter Here—

Mrs. J. A. McMillan, of Edmonton, Alta., writes that she is leaving that place today, and will be here to spend New Year's with her sister, Mrs. Susie Allen. She expects to stop over Christmas with her sister, Mrs. Payne, at Hillsboro, Or. Mrs. McMillan will probably spend the balance of the winter in Ashland visiting with her many friends here.

Here from Medford—

E. E. Kelly, of Medford, was a visitor in Ashland today.

Visiting in City—

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Brown and son of near the Rogue River hatcheries, were visitors in the city Monday.

Visit in Medford—

Mrs. George Robinson and Mrs. Jennie Schwan were visitors in Medford Tuesday.

Spend Evening in Medford—

Louis Dodge and Harry Hosler spent last evening in Medford at a meeting of the Fish and Game Protective association.

Lady Elks to Meet—

The Lady Elks will meet in their club room tomorrow afternoon, at 2:30 o'clock, with Mrs. George Hill and Mrs. W. H. Bartsch as hostesses. There was an unusually large crowd at their last meeting. Mrs. Judd Miller made high score at "500" and Mrs. A. E. Kinney carried off the honors at bridge.

Mrs. Wright Entertains—

A class party was given at the J. V. Wright home on Mountain avenue Friday evening, by Mrs. Wright, the teacher of the young people's class. Refreshments were served, and the evening was spent in playing games and the youngsters seemed to enjoy themselves very much. Those present were: Marcus Kelto, Greeley Crosslin, Alta Yokum, Vernon Carey, Elsie Crowson, Marie Seymour, Marie Gorman, Frank Bloomfield, Wayne Bloomfield, James Newton, John Henry, Aldo and Roy Parr, Rachel Hurst, Geneva Crosslin, Fred Penniston and Hazel Howard, also several visitors were present for the evening.

Visits in City—

Charles L. Norton, of Portland, road man for the Ford company for the state of Oregon, was a visitor in the city today.

Baby Boy Arrives—

Word has been received in this city of the arrival of a baby boy at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Spencer in Honolulu, Hawaii, on November 25. The youngster has been named Alvin Brady Spencer.

In from Lake of Woods—

Mr. Peck, who has been acting as watchman at Lake of the Woods since the summer population left there several weeks ago, arrived in the city Tuesday. He was met well out on the Dead Indian road by his brother who brought him to the city.

Electric Dealers Meet—

The electrical dealers' association of southern Oregon met Monday evening at the Hotel Oxford at Grants Pass for their monthly meeting. J. S. Jordan and wife and Frank Murphy made up the members of the party from Ashland. There were an even dozen of the dealers present for the meeting. The January meeting will be held in Medford.

Social Circle Meets—

The social circle of the Christian church met this afternoon at 2:30 at the J. V. Wright home at 2.63 Mountain avenue. Mrs. Arthur Webber assisted Mrs. Wright in entertaining.

Visited in Medford—

Mrs. John Hessler, of Mountain avenue, were Medford visitors recently, visiting at the Andrews home as well as seeing the sights around town.

G. A. B. Elects Officers—

Burnside post No. 23, G. A. B., elected officers Saturday. Those chosen for office were: Post commander, E. K. Hall; senior vice-commander, A. C. Spencer; junior vice-commander, V. C. Van Natta; Chaplain, Captain Thomas. The other officers will be appointed by the post commander.

White Christmas Planned—

The Christian Bible school is planning to have a white Christmas this year and are preparing a good program.

Medford Residents Visit—

Mrs. William Carlton and granddaughters, Freda Carlton and Mrs. Morris, from near Talent, were interviewing old friends in Ashland recently. The Carltons are expecting Mrs. Etta McCollum, of Medford, as a Christmas guest at their home. Mrs. McCollum was a former neighbor of the Carltons at their home in Douglas county.

Sells Out—Goes South—

Frank Guisinger has sold his place on the Boulevard and has gone to Los Angeles to reside. Mrs. Guisinger and children expect to go soon to Los Angeles.

Prose's Leave for Winter—

F. A. Prose and wife have left Ashland, expecting to spend the winter in Petaluma, Calif.

Medford Elks Have Tree—

Medford Elks will have their annual Christmas tree in the temple tomorrow evening, and it is expected every Elk in the county will be present and do his bit for the worthy poor and needy. The Christmas tree affair will begin early Thursday evening and last until past midnight, giving every member of the organization an opportunity to be present, regardless of any other engagement.

Vacation Almost Here—

Students from the Oregon Agricultural college at Corvallis will be on the homeward trek for the annual Christmas vacation this week, the college closing its doors the last of this week. Students from the University of Oregon and other institutions in the Willamette valley will follow suit next week.

Here from Summit—

Hugh McKinzie, garage proprietor near Summit, at the top of the Siskiyou, was a business visitor in the city yesterday. He reports many calls for chains by tourists coming down over the hill. There is nearly two feet of snow now, he stated.

Picture Is Picturesque—

"The Old Homestead," now playing at the Vining theatre, is a work of art and is wholesome throughout, with humor and pathos interspersed during the entire picture. Theodore Roberts, the grand old man of the screen, is the center of the players, while the direction of James Cruze is nothing short of masterful. The settings are perfect. The picture will be shown tonight and for the last time Thursday.

Arto Swingle Ill—

Arto Swingle, son of F. D. Swingle, of Bush street, was on the sick list the first of the week.

O. A. C. Debaters Win—

By a decision of two to one, debaters from O. A. C., won the contest at Eugene Monday night.

Will Drill Thursday—

In order to maintain the regular drill schedule demanded by law, the members of the 484th company will drill again Thursday evening, the second time this week.

Local Man Gets Contract—

Howard Howard, of this city, has been given the contract of felling timber for the Moon Lumber company's new mill on the Green Springs road and will start with the work in a short time.

Moves Reported—

J. W. Whipple has moved from an apartment in Mrs. Anna Gregory's house on Pioneer street, to an apartment in the Bergner building on the Plaza.

Lining Irrigation Ditch—

R. I. Stuart and son, of Medford, who have the contract for lining a portion of the Talent Irrigation district's ditch east of the city, are carrying on their work as rapidly as possible.

Will Leave for Arizona—

Everett S. Lewman expects to leave in the near future for Arizona, where he will be employed by the Southern Pacific company.

Elks Hold Novelty Dance—

Members of Ashland Elks Lodge No. 544, entertained at a novelty dance in the local lodge rooms last night. The feature of the evening was the distribution of sticks of candy to guests by a Santa Claus. The rooms were decorated appropriately to the occasion. The committee in charge consisted of Clarence Lane, John Pinneran, Ed Thornton, Boughman and Ray Brown.

On the Sick List—

Gene Detrick, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Detrick, who has been quite ill for several days, is reported to be improving.

(From Thursday's Daily)

Jailer is Overpowered—

The favorite indoor sport of prisoners confined in the Josephine county castle has been revived. Tuesday night, Oregon Jones and Ellsworth Kelly, two of the inmates, overpowered Bill Schroeder, jailer, and made their escape. Several other prisoners refused to leave. A reward of $500 has been offered for their apprehension. This is about the fourth time a jail break has been made at Grants Pass in the last year.

Votes to Call Bonds—

At the meeting of the school board Tuesday evening, it was voted to call $2900 of the high school bonds at once. This makes a total of $7000 of the school bonds that have been called by the board during the present year.

Another Move Reported—

The Edmund Dew's family moved this week from the Hargrove apartments on Pioneer avenue to the Bergner residence on Allison street, recently vacated by Mr. and Mrs. O. T. Bergner, who have gone to California to spend the winter.

On the Sick List—

James Bowers is reported to be confined to his home suffering with a bad cold and the pink eye.

Helps Win Loving Cup—

Edwin Frazer, Ashland boy now attending the University of Oregon, was a member of the basketball team which won the inter-fraternity series. The Kappa Sigma team defeated the Phi Gamma Delta quintet 16-8. This is the third time in succession this fraternity has won the cup which it now retains permanently.

Construction Crew Here—

A telephone construction crew consisting of Messrs. Rinearson, Berry, Moss and Chamberlain, arrived in the city a few days ago and have started work on the toll line that passes through the city. The crew have headquarters in Portland, and left there with the understanding that their boss would follow shortly. After arriving here and waiting more than a day for him, they were informed that he was quite ill and were given orders to proceed with their work without him.

Engineers' Fees Due—

The renewal fee of $3 to practice professional engineering in the state of Oregon for the calendar year 1923, is due and payable at the office of the secretary, 519 Corbett building, Portland, Oregon, on or before December 31, 1922. All registered engineers should make this payment this month, as the lay imposes a penalty of 10 per cent a month after the 31st of December.

Operetta Is Postponed—

The operetta to be given by members of Ashland high school has been postponed. The date set for the production has been changed from December 21 until January 26.

Called Here by Illness—

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Smith, of Dunsmuir, Calif., and Miss Thelma Heer, who has been taking a course of nursing in Portland, are in the city called here by the illness of Leslie Heer.

Entertain at Phoenix—

The second "Dad and Boy's" night to be given by Phoenix men, will be staged Friday evening at Clyde hall, beginning promptly at 7:30 o'clock. Songs, music and some stunts, together with a copious supply of eats will be on the program.

Here for Operation—

Mr. McDole, of Bray, Calif., was in the city the first of the week and underwent his second nasal operation within the past few weeks.

Returns to Ashland—

L. Hilly, conductor for the Southern Pacific company, who has had a run on the Klamath Falls branch for some time past, has been transferred back to the main line and will be seen on the streets of Ashland again between runs.

Leaves for North—

Mrs. Joseph Poor left for the north on train 54 last evening.

Leaves for Frisco—

B. M. Potter, one of the "58" taxi drivers, left Wednesday with a passenger for San Francisco. He expects to arrive in the bay city by Saturday and will return to Ashland at once.

Moves to Klamath—

William Ameler, who has been employed for some time past in the Nininger & Warner billiard hall, left Tuesday with his wife for Klamath Falls, where he has secured a position with the Waldorf pool room.

Dies in Spokane—

Word has been received in this city of the death of Mrs. B. C. Tabor at her home in Spokane a few days ago. Mrs. Tabor's death was caused by heart failure and was unexpected as she had been in her usual health for some time. The Tabor's own property at 459 Morton street in this city.

Cattle Going to Pasture—

The Whittle Transfer company unloaded and loaded nine carloads of cattle Tuesday night, which were en route south, where they will be put on grass until spring. A great many cattle are being shipped south at the present time, hardly a day going by but what from one to ten cars are handled in the local yards.

Klamath Has Better Protection—

Since the installation of new water mains and the fire alarm system, Klamath Falls has been declared 100 per cent more protected from fires than before the improvements. A material reduction from the present insurance rate is expected. A total of 18,600 feet of new mains were laid and 37 fire hydrants installed.

Returns to Grants Pass—

Dr. Flanagan, Grants Pass physician, who was confined to the Community hospital for some time, has returned to his home in Grants Pass. For a while it was believed he would not recover from his injury, received while driving an automobile.

Leave for Home—

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Dunlap and baby were taken to Eagle Point, Wednesday evening by L. G. Fitzwater. The Dunlaps live at Trail and expected to make the rest of their trip home today.

Dickey's Building Garage—

Frank Dickey is building a garage at his home in Allison street, to house the new Ford sedan recently purchased by Mrs. Dickey.

Million Returns to Ashland—

A. E. Million returned this morning from Sacramento, Calif., where he has been for the past two weeks. He reports the condition of Mrs. Millions to be very much improved.

Hampshire Breeders Organize—

Organization of the Southern Oregon Hampshire Swine Breeders association with a membership of 35 has been completed at Grants Pass, breeders of this variety of swine in Jackson and Josephine counties being present. It was the opinion of C. C. Cate, Jackson county agent, that 2000 more hogs could profitably be raised in the two counties. Officers elected were W. B. Lindsey, Merlin president; H. M. Harter, Murphy, secretary-treasurer; and the following directors: C. C. Hunt, Josephine County; J. E. McDonald, Bruce Fleming and J. J. Gulliger, all of Jackson county.

Wednesday Club Meets—

The Wednesday club had a very pleasant gathering yesterday at the Presbyterian church. As a variation in entertainment, some made stocking dolls, some prepared post cards for mission fields, and some wrote letters to absent members. Mrs. Wilson, Mrs. Lyman and Mrs. Koehler had prepared Christmas packages for a mock auction. Bidding was high and lively and the packages when opened revealed some strange articles. Mesdames Atkinson, Fuller and Johnson served the guests with cocoa and tasty cookies before adjournment.

Ashland Offers to Assist—

G. A. Briscoe, superintendent of schools, has notified Medford that Ashland is backing that school for the coming New Year's football game between Medford and Scott high, of Toledo, Ohio. An offer was made to lend Walter Hughes, coach, if the need arises. "Shy" Huntington, University of Oregon football mentor, accompanied by his wife, have arrived in Medford.

Riley Pleases Medford—

Frank Branch Riley, who delivered his famous lecture on the great northwest here during the Winter Fair, was a special guest at a meeting of the Medford forum and the Craters Wednesday. He was made an honorary member of the latter organization. A large crowd heard him last night when he talked in the Presbyterian church.

W. C. T. U. Meeting—

Mrs. Riley and her mother, Mrs. Norman entertained the W. C. T. U. at their home, 147 High street, Tuesday. It was a good meeting with deep spirit and earnestness. Three pioneers of temperance work were present: Mrs. Russell, Ashland's first president; Mrs. Hatch and Mrs. Norman. Mrs. Leavitt showed the picture of the W. C. T. U. booth at the midwinter fair. Several were purchased. The hostesses served dainty refreshments at the close of the program.

"Nick" Carter Returns—

"Nick" Carter, one of the best known pianists in the state, has returned to Medford from Eugene. Nick is a former University of Oregon student, and a member of Sigma Chi fraternity, and is well-known throughout southern Oregon. He has a special engagement to play with the Oriental ballroom orchestra at the Medford Natatorium for the dances given by the American Legion.

Drive Here in Fine Car—

W. H. Goodwin, branch manager of the Ford Motor Car company at Portland; J. D. Jordan, assistant manager at Portland; C. A. Lockwood, manager of the Ford company at Roseburg, and C. A. Weinroth, manager of the Grants Pass branch, were in the city today in one of the new Lincoln touring cars. This car is one of the best looking cars on the market and is being taken over the state to the various Ford agencies.

Bond Interest to Cease—

In view of the fact that interest ceases on December 15, 1922, on the 4 1/2 per cent Victory Liberty Loan notes (bearing the distinguishing letters A, B, C, D, E, or F, prefixed to their serial number) called by the treasury department for redemption on that date, the public is asked to aid in these redemptions, according to information furnished by the Federal Reserve bank of San Francisco. After this date, no more interest will accrue on these called notes and owners should therefore lose no time in presenting their notes for redemption. Owners can also exchange these Victory notes for the new issue of 4 1/2 per cent treasury notes, series C-1925, dated December 15, 1922, and maturing June 15, 1925; or they can convert the redemption proceeds of their Victory notes into the 1923 series of five-year treasury savings certificates, issued in denominations of $25, $100 and $1000.

Endeavorers Plan Social—

The Christian Endeavor society will hold a musical social at the Presbyterian church Friday evening, at 7:30 o'clock. There will be a musical program followed by musical games. Everyone has been requested to dress to represent some popular song. The public is invited to attend the affair.

(From Friday's Daily)

Price Meetings Start—

Services of Rev. Charles Price, who is called by some a "Divine Healer," started this afternoon at the Methodist church. He talks every afternoon and evening this week, concluding Sunday night. There was a huge crowd in the church this afternoon. His first "healing" session is Friday.—Eugene Guard.

Will Come for Funeral—

Carl Smith, of Dunsmuir, and Claude L. Anderson, of Portland, are expected to arrive in Ashland this evening, called here by the death of their father-in-law, L. James Heer.

At Medford Today—

Miss Claudine Cox spent the day in Medford, where she is having some dental work done by Dr. Johnson.

On Trip to Steinman—

Arthur Wicks and W. M. Denton made the trip to Steinman this morning on the train, where Mr. Wicks had some business to transact after which the two gentlemen expected to hike back to Ashland.

Killings on Committee—

Through an inadvertent error the name of G. H. Billings was omitted as being on the advisory committee to act with the Chautauqua association relative to the sale of the site of the Chautauqua building to the Community Hotel corporation, with E. D. Briggs and C. B. Lamkin. Mr. Billings was appointed at the time the other two men were named.

Here from Grants Pass—

Wendell Colby and F. E. French, Grants Pass business men, were in the city today on business. They were glad to see the sunshine, as they had encountered heavy fog between Rogue River and Medford. Mr. French is a former Ashland man and is now associated with O. A. Colby and Wendell Colby in business in Grants Pass.

Now on Freight Run—

E. R. Williams, late of Portland, is a new man on the local freight between Ashland and Grants Pass.

Health Is Improving—

The many friends of Mrs. M. S. Hamaker will be glad to know that she is well on the road to recovery from her recent illness.

In City on Business—

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Robbins, who live on a ranch down the valley, were in the city on business Thursday. Mr. Robbins is to be the manager of the fruit association after the first of the year.

Here from Hill—

Ida L. Crandall, of Hill, is a business visitor in the city Thursday.

Goes to Hill—

Mrs. H. M. Chappell left Thursday for Hill, where she will be engaged for the next few weeks.

Improved in Health—

Mrs. Roby, who has been quite ill at her home in the east part of the city, is reported to be improving slowly.

Interest Guarantee Extended—

The state irrigation securities commission has agreed to extend the state's guarantee of interest payments on approximately $1,390,000 of bonds issued by the Grants Pass Irrigation district, over a period ranging from one and a half to five years, according to information from the capital city.

Seniors Have "Goof" Party—

With a variety of bizarre costumes, members of the senior class of Ashland high school held a party in Memorial hall Thursday evening. The affair was styled a "Goofy" party, and everyone came dressed in odd attire, first prize was taken by Olin Caldwell, who was dressed as a girl, and the second award went to Margaret Campbell, dressed as a boy. Chaperons for the evening were Alice Heys, Zilpora Blumentfeld and Coach Walter Hughes.

On Road to Recovery—

Mrs. Henry Bostwick, of Seventh street, who has been suffering from an attack of influenza for the past several days, is reported to be considerably improved.

Leaves for California—

Dexter Patterson left Thursday afternoon for California for a six weeks' business trip.

E. V. Carter Returns—

E. V. Carter, who has been in Portland for several days, has returned to Ashland, bringing with him a new model Buick sedan.

Here on Business—

George McIntyre, representing the Western Bond & Mortgage firm of Portland, was in the city today calling on the local banking institutions.

Lady Elks Meet—

A large number of Lady Elks spent a pleasant afternoon in their club room yesterday. Mrs. Ira Shouby having the high score in bridge and Mrs. C. R. Minkler the high score in "500." The hostesses, Mesdames Hill and Bartsch, served Now Convelescing—

Mrs. Marl Hale, of Morton street, is convalescing from an attack of the "flu."

To Winter in South—

Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Prose, of 314 Garfield street, are among the Ashland people who have left for the south to spend the winter. They expect to remain at Petaluma, Calif.

Mrs. Updegrat Improving—

Mrs. Sarah Updegrat, of Liberty street, who has been quite ill with "flu," is improving slowly.

Spend Week-End Here—

George Bronckmiller spent the last week-end with his family in Ashland.

Moves Blacksmith Shop—

Nate High, who has been operating a blacksmith shop for the past few years at the corner of First and C streets, has moved to a location on the lower side of B street between Fourth and Fifth. The shop where he was formerly located is on the lot belonging to the city and will probably be torn down in the near future.

Entertain at Dinner—

Mr. and Mrs. Fay Potter, who are visiting at the W. Everton home on Allison street, were dinner guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Norman Mack, on Liberty street, recently.

Visited Mack Family—

Mr. and Mrs. Darrell Cummins, Mr. and Mrs. John Christofferson and Messrs. Charles Dale and Charles Christofferson were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Norman Mack.

Visited at Bellevue—

Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Gall, of Bellevue, visited relations in Ashland this week.

(From Saturday's Daily)

Spends Vacation in Fresno—

Al Beck, an employe of the city light department, expects to leave this evening for Fresno, Calif., where he will spend the holiday season visiting with a sister. Beck is driving down in his machine, and will return to Ashland before the first of the year.

On Business from Hill—

A. W. Moon, of Hill, Calif., came over the Siskiyou yesterday, and was in the city on business today.

Condition Remains Serious—

Mrs. Emily Bingham, of Laurel street suffered a stroke of paralysis at her home Thursday night, and her condition is such that her friendly fear she will not recover.

Discharged from Hospital—

Roy Coffmann, of Phoenix, who was injured during the county fair auto races, and who has been in the community hospital at Medford for the past three months, has been permitted to leave the institution and to return to his home. He is now able to get about a little with the aid of crutches, but may have to have another operation upon his broken leg before it is healed entirely.

De Molay Elects Officers—

Grant Selby and Stan Sherwood, of Ashland, were elected junior councilor and treasurer respectively at a recent meeting of the Order of De Molay. A dance for members of the organization and their friends is planned for December 28, at which time the new officers will be installed.

Tree Brings Elks $1700—

The Elks' Christmas tree at Medford netted the organization $1700 in cash to add to the fund which the lodge will use to dispense Christmas cheer among the needy poor. Members from all over the county were present at the affair.

Teachers Enjoy Institute—

The first of a series of three local teachers' institutes was held this morning, and was greatly enjoyed by the local public school faculty. Teachers are required to attend these local institutes as well as the county affairs.