

1909 Spring and Summer Styles 1909

Men's Furnishing Goods

Shirts, soft and golf, in all kinds and sizes, from 50c to $3.00.

Hats, Hats, Hats.
Socks, Socks, Socks.
Ties, Ties, Ties.
Underwear, Etc.
Corduroy Pants &
Khaki Clothing.
Shoes, Shoes, Shoes.

Men's Clothing

We just got in our new clothing racks and now we are going to keep about 100 snappy, nifty suits on them all the time. We want you to see our racks as we think they are just the thing.

We are agents for M. Born & Co. if you want a suit to order.

Ladies Wash

Waists and Skirts

Are you going to need a waist soon? If so let us show you what we have—some beauties from $1.00 to $5.00.

Ladies Shirt

Waist Suits

We have some very nice white shirt waist suits for spring and summer. We can save you some hard work and they will cost no more. Prices from $1.50 to $5.00.

Graduating Dresses

Only one week until school is over—you must look for white dresses and white dress goods, slippers, white hose, etc.

See our beautiful line of wash goods for summer. Send for samples—prices from 6c to 50c a yard.

We are sole agents for Buster Brown School Shoes and the famous Peters and Browne Shoe Co.'s shoes---of St. Louis. Nothing better. Groceries, Groceries, Good things to eat and wear.

Pure White Flour. Alfalfa Seed. Chopped Barley. Fresh Vegetables.

Agents for Delineator and Butterick Patterns

The George & Miller Co.

ECHO, OREGON

Agents for N. Born
& Co. Largest Tailors in the World

Local Happenings

Cigars at Elams.

+ + +
Cigars at Lisle & Co.'s.

+ + +
Fresh Bread at Elams

+ + +
Typewriter ribbons for sale at the Register office.

+ + +

Bert Kauffman had the misfortune of running a 10-penny nail through his foot Monday. The wound was dressed by Dr. Reid and Bert is getting along nicely.

+ + +

Dr. Reid has purchased the lot on the corner of Kennedy and Bonanza streets from E. Whitsey, and will soon erect a neat residence on the same.

* * *

As a token of appreciation to Mrs. J. P. Toft for preventing a freight train going into the ditch, by signaling the engineer and thus stopping the train just in time to avoid a serious wreck, the O. R. & N. Co. last week remembered the lady by presenting her with a handsomely engraved set of solid silver knives, forks and spoons.

+ + +

Claude H. Ketchum, the wool buyer, left Monday for Boston.

+ + +

For Sale—Front lace corsets left by Mrs. Hanselmer. For particulars call on Mrs. M. H. Gillette.

+ + +

Roy Bowman and Raymond Avis have added their names to the Register list.

+ + +

Dr. Reid has a hen setting on 15 China Pheasant eggs. The Dr. intends raising some China pheasants.

+ + +

James P. Rethlefsen left Monday for Portland where he will visit for a short time with his brother, who intends to sail for Europe in about ten days. Mr. Rethlefsen is Mrs. Spinnings father.

+ + +

C. A. Chapman, the real estate man, was in La Grande Saturday and Sunday on land business.

+ + +

Chas. Holman sold his improvements on his homestead to Mrs. Clara Tapish, of Baker City. Mrs. Tapish has filed a desert claim on the land. The deal was made through the Northwest Realty Company of Echo.

For Dairy milk see A. B. Gillette, Echo, Oregon.

+ + +

Lisle & Young will have ice cream Sunday.

+ + +

Lisle & Young fire works.

+ + +

B. F. Smith and family will return to their home in McMinnville soon. Mr. Smith has been in Echo the past year settling up the estate of his father.

+ + +

Born, near Echo, Wednesday, June 2, 1909, to Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Toft a bouncing baby boy. Both mother and child are doing well. Dr. Reid was the attending physician.

+ + +

William Robinson, formerly engaged in the livery business in Echo, is here on a business visit.

+ + +

Charles Snyder and Fred Williams left last week on a pleasure trip through the state of Washington. They are now at Potlatch and expect to take in the A. Y. P. exposition before returning home.

+ + +

Wood For Sale—A lot of green willow wood in length from 8 to 16 feet for sale. Will sell by the load or will sell the pile. For particulars call at this office.

+ + +

Lois Smith house for rent $15 a month. This offer open for two weeks only.

+ + +

F. T. George left for Walla Walla Monday to attend the wedding of Miss Mabel Jones and H. W. King, which will occur at that place Tuesday evening.

+ + +

Raymond Thomas came up from Portland Tuesday to spend a few weeks visiting with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Thomas.

+ + +

To insure publication in the Register correspondents should sign their names to articles, or news items, sent to this paper.

+ + +

For Sale—20 pigs, $2.50 each. One well bred boar, $25.

F. L. BRUNDAGE.

+ + +

The Echo and Umatilla nines will play ball on the Echo grounds next Sunday, June 18. The game will be called immediately after the arrival of the local train in the afternoon.

Portland Morning Oregonian on sale at the racket store Daily.

+ + +

Ice cream and ice cream soda on Sunday at Elam's.

+ + +

Elam has one of the neatest little soda fountains in the city and is prepared at all times to quench your thirst with almost any flavor you desire.

+ + +

Ice cream for parties, socials and weddings at Lisle & Co.'s.

+ + +

Louis School, Jr., writes fires insurance in good reliable companies. Low rates.

+ + +

Mr. and Mrs. William Lloyd, of Milton, came down Sunday to attend the funeral of the late O. F. Thomson, and will remain on a short visit.

+ + +

Jas. F. Percing, of Chicago, was here last week visiting with F. T. George. Mr. Percing has the distinction of being one of the most successful fruit shippers in the United States. Last fall he shipped fifty carloads of apples from Wenatchee, Wash., across the continent by rail, thence by water to Europe and distributing them through France, Germany and Italy.

+ + +

Postmaster Dorn has received a permit from the Postmaster General at Washington, D. C., to move the Echo postoffice building. The work commenced Monday and the building removed to Bonanza street, opposite the Echo Register, so that the concrete building now being erected by Dorn Bros. can be extended to cover the present site occupied by the postoffice.

+ + +

Allan Mathes registered at the Echo hotel from Walla Walla Monday.

+ + +

J. P. Deuer, the Rhode Island wool buyer, has shipped 200,000 pounds of wool from Washington to the Echo mills to be scoured, graded and baled for shipment east.

+ + +

W. H. Pointer, night watchman on the O. R. & N., has gone to Pendleton.

+ + +

Ray Bowman has returned from the Seattle fair. He reports having seen the seven-footed lamb from Echo there.

+ + +

Frank Sloan has had new potatoes big enough to eat for some time past.

+ + +

C. E. McComber was an Echo visitor from Pendleton Sunday.

+ + +

S. M. Davis, of Seattle, registered at the Echo hotel Monday.

Steamed rolled barley, at the Henrietta Mills. Farmers please take notice. This method softens the gluten and retains the same, greatly increasing the food value a barley.

+ + +

It's luck to smoke Puck.

+ + +

The better than 5¢ cigar.

+ + +

The cigar in the green box.

+ + +

Dr. Alexander Reid, physician and surgeon. Office Arlington building.

+ + +

Thos. Leffler, who owns an extensive well drilling plant in Washington, is in Echo interviewing our people in regard to bringing his plant here. He is meeting with some encouragement. This seems to us a good opportunity for our people to secure the services of a competent man and adequate machinery with which to demonstrate the existence of artesian water in this vicinity.

+ + +

When you crave something to quench your thirst remember J. Frank Spinning's double soda fountain. All flavors and fancy delectable mixtures.

+ + +

R. N. Stanfield will ship a trainload of sheep to Chicago today, Friday.

+ + +

Mrs. J. T. Hinkle and daughter Frances returned to Portland Sunday much improved in health.

+ + +

Fireworks and bunting at Elam's.

+ + +

Dr. and Mrs. W. J. Staphis returned to their home in Baker City yesterday. After remaining there a few days they will go east to Michigan.

+ + +

J. Frank Spinning has started his handsome double soda fountain, and is now prepared to please your palate with cool, refreshing drinks.

+ + +

Mrs. S. E. Brumfield and son, of Portland, arrived in Echo Wednesday and will spend the summer at the ranch of Bert Stoffle on Butter creek.

+ + +

E. A. McKenna, of Walla Walla, traveling passenger agent of the N. P., was in town Thursday.

+ + +

W. H. Boyd, one of the prominent merchants of Echo, was in Umatilla Tuesday on business.

+ + +

Mr. Thomas, of the firm of Lindsey & Thomas, is in front of their hay ranch near Heppner purchasing supplies.

+ + +

The Lisle Hardware Company are installing new roller shelf ladders in their hardware store.

J. A. Cooper, of Walla Walla, was in Echo Monday.

+ + +

S. C. Stuart and Thos. Duncan, of Portland, were among those who registered at the Echo hotel Tuesday.

+ + +

W. E. Thresher and Travis Hoskins, of Echo, were transacting business in Pendleton Wednesday.

+ + +

D. N. Powell, of Portland, arrived in Echo yesterday to accept a position as operator for the O. R. & N. Co.

+ + +

Miss Paralee Hailey, of Pendleton, is a guest of Mrs. Ralph Stanfield in Echo for a few days.

+ + +

One of our prominent young men, it is said, has contested a Kansas claim. The Register has not as yet received the notice for publication.

+ + +

WHY
send to Mail order Houses for Watches when you can buy a Genuine 21Jewel Hampden movement in a 20 year Case for $20; or a 23 Jewel movement in 20 year Case at the same price.
W. L. KNIGHT, Echo, Oregon.

NOTICE.

ECHO, ORE., June 1, 1909. Property owners will please take notice they will be compelled to cut all weeds on their property, and to the middle of the street adjoining their property under penalty.

Signed:

WM. HOGGARD,<br