

Not Sisters

Now and again you see two women passing down the street who look like sisters. You are astonished to learn that they are mother and daughter, and you realize that a woman at forty or forty-five ought to be at her finest and fairest. Why isn't it so? The general health of woman is so intimately associated with the local health of the essentially feminine organs that there can be no red cheeks and round forms where there is female weakness.

Women who have suffered from this trouble have found prompt relief and cure in the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It gives vigor and vitality to the organs of womanhood. It clears the complexion, brightens the eyes and reddens the cheeks. No alcohol, or habit-forming drugs is contained in "Favorite Prescription." Any sick woman may consult Dr. Pierce by letter, free. Every letter is held as sacredly confidential, and answered in a plain envelope. Address: World's Dispensary Medical Association, Dr. R.V. Pierce, Pres., Buffalo, N.Y.

STANFIELD ITEMS.

There were quite a number of Echo visitors in Stanfield last Sunday.

County Clerk Frank Saling was looking over his Stanfield ranch Sunday.

Contractor Gates spent Sunday in Echo.

Will Moore, local representative of the Pacific Coast Elevator Company, was a Sunday visitor in Stanfield.

The horse race on the track near Stanfield Sunday attracted a good sized crowd. The contest was for 300 yards and was between Levy Fanning's bay horse and a sorrel owned by William Barker. The race was handicap $100 aside, that the Fanning bay horse would win by three feet of daylight. The horses got a good start, the Fanning bay coming out ahead by daylight and a length.

Frank Sloan has moved his office from Echo to Stanfield.

Visitors to Stanfield express agreeable surprise at the rapid growth of the town and development of the rich adjacent lands.

The postoffice at Stanfield is now receiving and dispatching mail regularly, and Uncle Sam is already handling quite a volume of business at this point.

Frank Sloan, of the Columbia Land Company at Stanfield, made a business trip to Pendleton Monday.

PULL TOGETHER FOR ECHO.

Fair and Warmer.
Now all you ladies,
If you choose,
May wear cloaked hose
And peekaboos,
For summer now is
On the job,
And soon we'll munch
Corn on the cob,
Strawberry shortcake
Follows up
Each meal each time
We bite and sup.
Summer is here,
And, if you dare,
Remove your winter
Underwear.
We don't give this
Advice to girls—
Lord bless their dimples
And their curls—
The peekaboo
Girls anyway,
For as far as we Can see they
Do not, the teasy
Fios and Gerta,
Wear heavy winter
Undershirts. —Houston Post.

Uncle Eben Says.
"Fride," said Uncle Eben, "is sumplin like a flyin' machine. It'll take you way up over de heads of other folks, but it has to be managed wif great care to avoid a bump."—Washington Star.

Practical Poesy.
The rose is well enough to sing,
The daffodil adorns the spring,
But I would laud that helpful thing,
The young radish.

The jonquil quite deserves its bays,
The lily shines in roundays,
But I have something else to praise—
The new onion.

The floral beauties and their kith
Are things of moment and of plith,
But what is there the matter with
The shad shortcake? —Washington Herald.

The French Way.
I popped the question to Marie
Like any other beau.
She blushed and smiled and answered,
"Oui."
For she is French, you know.
"My dear," I asked her, bending low,
(I feared my cake had turned to dough),
"Whom do you mean by we?"
"O, U and I," said she. —Success.

Hard to Tell.
Howell—What have you there?
Powell—I don't know whether it is a Black Hand letter or a case where the writer's fountain pen stopped over.—
Town Topics.

Then later on there comes to him
A very common question—
He wonders how it was that he Contracted indigestion. —Coburn Giant Talks.

Survival of the Unfit.
The things we hate to lose, alas, too
Swiftly speed away,
While somehow life's annoyances get licenses to stay.
When sportsmen have exterminated wild fowl far and near
The grim mosquito's song will still sound confident and clear. —Washington Star.

Sudden Stops.
Sparker—In spite of airships, autos
are still all the go.
Cogwood—That's just the trouble.
Some of them won't go at all.—Smart
Set.

These Auto Proposals.
He proposed to her in an automobile.
Then he let the levers switch.
Cried both, "We are now in ecstasy"—
And next day they were in the ditch. —Detroit Free Press.

True Loyalty.
"The latest imported hosiery has pink toes."
"Home product pink toes are good enough for me."—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

Feminine Nature.
Dame Nature moves with rapid strides.
And pleasing now her springtime talks.
Peach blossoms dot her country sides,
While baskets dot her city walks. —Boston Globe.

Brain Fog.
Chollie—Wait till I think.
Mollie—Oh, I can't wait as long as that; I've got an engagement day after tomorrow!—Yonkers Statesman.

A Better Crop.
The peach crop may a failure be
Down in old Delaware,
But the summer girl won't fail us.
Therefore we don't care. —Chicago News.

Once Enough.
"Muttbed down with brain fog! I didn't know he ever thought."
"He doesn't, but he probably tried it once."—Kansas City Times.

"Similia Similibus."
A cigarette and best seller
Are similar no doubt,
For when they are no longer puffed
They very soon go out. —Judge.

Barber Shop Repartee.
Customer (having face steamed)—
Gee whiz, that towel is hot!
Barber—Yes, I know; but I couldn't hold it any longer.—Puck.

The Finish.
Willie teased the lion
At the circus, don't you know,
He'll ne'er more be interested
In any other show. —Baltimore American.

An Indiscreet Question.
"Is your husband fussy about the temperature?"
"Excuse me, ma'am; I'm a widow."—
Houston Post.

A Puzzler.
Why is it, do you suppose,
Every little kid that grows
Wants to use the garden hose
Only in his best of clothes? —Kansas City Times.

Feminine Approval.
"How did you like the crown?"
"Ray, he was just grand!"—Cleveland
Plain Dealer.

CORRECTING MISTAKES

They will make mistakes sometimes—typewriter operators; but who won't? The important thing is to correct mistakes with the least possible loss of time. With the visible writing makes the error immediately apparent. Then the place for a replacing letter is shown right in line with the "V shaped" notch in the type-bar guide. No calculation is necessary the type cannot go to the wrong point. If saving time and increase in efficiency are worth recurring in your office, then it is worth while to obtain full knowledge of the Underwood Standard Typewriter and the superior features it possesses. If you will come in, no further draft on your time and patience will be made than you choose to permit.

We hereby offer $1000 to anyone proving by chemical analysis or otherwise that CYRUS NOBLE contains anything excepting pure straight aged whiskies.

It is distilled in an old-fashioned still and contains all those secondary products of distillation which the U. S. Agricultural Department and the U. S. Internal Revenue Department rule must be present to entitle the distillation to be called whiskey.

Alcohol does not contain these constituents.

Neither does cheap so called straight whiskey made in a continuous or many chambered still.

Money talks.
