P. C. HUNTER, Agt.

Echo is going some. Irrigation enterprises all around and in between, east, west, north and south.

Land wanting homes by the thousands of acres. Home builders by the thousands in the east wanting land. Let us get together.

If the mere proposal to build railroads by public authority as other roads, irrigation and drainage canals are built, causes two celebrated railroad manipulators to struggle for the right of way to Central Oregon, what would the real thing start them to doing?

We would arise to remark, Mr. Chairman, that there are seven thousand six hundred forty one men in Oregon suffering for a public office, many of whom have no more hope for the future than a cat would have if precipitated into Sheol bereft of claws, unless through the Assembly, or some other means, the machine is again hitched onto the Oregon voter.

See here, Mr. Man, you have come out to Oregon looking for a place to build a home. Stop off at Echo. The great advantages of this section are climate, soil, water and markets. None better, few so good. It is an old section started anew with the infusion of water, which in this Western country is the life. As the girl said to the fellow who jilted her because she had cross eyes, "you may go further and fare worse."

A farmer wandered into the hardware store of _____ in Echo the other day, and enquired for the alarm clock department. The well known merchant stepped forward and enquired what kind of an alarm clock he wanted. "Well," said the horticulturist, "I want that kind of an alarm clock that will wake up the hired man of a Sunday morning without disturbing the rest of the family." "We haven't that kind in stock, but as soon as we can get them we will advertise it in the Register. But we have the kind that will wake the rest of the family without disturbing the hired man. If such a clock as you ask for was on the market, said Mr. _____, we would have it."

Portland papers, and some others, are throwing all kinds of fits over some tentative questions sent out about some proposed constitutional changes by the "lawgiver of Oregon City." Nothing worth being scared about. If you don't ask how are you going to find out what public sentiment is? The circular letters sent out with the amendments suggested call for criticism and correction. If you don't like some of the high jinks proposed just sit down and write it out. If you do like them, or any of them, say so likewise. Like a large litter of kittens some of them might be saved, while others could very well be returned to oblivion.

PUBLIC SALE.

There will be a public sale of livestock at the C. P. Bowman ranch on Butter creek, on Tuesday, August 31, at 10 o'clock a. m. Blooded Jersey and Holstein cows and calves, and also some good horses will be offered for sale, on 8 months time at 8 per cent interest with approved security. C. P. BOWMAN.

Mr. Eiler has been happily successful in selecting vaudeville acts that are clean, pleasing and of high artistic excellence in the (between acts) in his splendid presentation of the drama, King of the Cattle Ring.—Echo, Monday, August 30th.

James E. Faucett can now fill your grocery orders at Stanfield.
