"A certain writer has said that no newspaper which took truth for its standard would make a pecuniary success. The press might return the compliment by remarking that no minister who told the truth about his congregation, alive or dead, would occupy the pulpit much longer than on Sunday afterward. The press and clergy go hand in hand with the whitewash brush, rosy spectacles magnifying little virtues and kindly throwing little deformities into oblivion. The pulpit, the pen and the gravestone are partners in saint-making."

Mr. and Mrs. L. T. Kenison returned Tuesday morning from a two week's visit at Forest Grove.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Riseling, and Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Reeves returned Monday from a trip to the mountains. Although it was a little late they got a nice lot of berries and have a few fish stories to tell.

James E. Faucett can now fill your grocery orders at Stanfield.

"Partitionize home institutions," cries the county editor from week to week. "That is right," says the merchant, "give it to those who go to some other town to buy goods." Then with his heart filled with kindness to the loyal editor, he sends his job work to Kalamazoo, or utilizes a piece of wrapping paper to write an order on for goods or send a statement to a customer. Funny, isn't it?

In a letter from W. W. Pankey, he states that he and his wife will move from Cedar City, Utah, to Encampment, Carbon County, Wyoming, where he has a good job. Mr. Pankey made Echo his home for a couple of years and while here made many friends who hated to see him leave and all are glad to hear that he has secured a good position. We wish Mr. and Mrs. Pankey the best of success in their new home.
