

Women's Secrets

There is one man in the United States who has perhaps heard more women's secrets than any other man or woman in the country. These secrets are not secrets of guilt or shame, but the secrets of suffering, and they have been confided to Dr. R. V. Pierce in the hope and expectation of advice and help. That few of these women have been disappointed in their expectations is proved by the fact that ninety-eight per cent. of all women treated by Dr. Pierce have been absolutely and altogether cured. Such a record would be remarkable if the cases treated were numbered by hundreds only. Put when that record applies to the treatment of more than half-a-million women, in a practice of over 40 years, it is phenomenal, and entitles Dr. Pierce to the gratitude accorded him by women, as the first of specialists in the treatment of women's diseases.

Every sick woman may consult Dr. Pierce by letter, absolutely without charge. All replies are mailed, sealed in perfectly plain envelopes, without any printing or advertising whatever, upon them. Write without fear as without fee, to World's Dispensary Medical Association, Dr. R. V. Pierce, Pres., Buffalo, N. Y.

The Jerusalem Artichoke.

The Jerusalem artichoke has no connection whatever with the holy city of Palestine. It is a species of sunflower and gets its name from girasole, one of the scientific names of that genus of plants.

Swiss Military Training.

Of sovereign states Switzerland gives the best military training to its boys. Although the maintenance of a standing army is not sanctioned by the constitution, every able-bodied male citizen from twenty to fifty is liable for military service, and boys at school begin at the age of eight to be trained as soldiers.

Pompey's Pillar.

Pompey's pillar, at Alexandria, was neither erected by Pompey nor to his memory.

Russian Golden Weddings.

The Russian government gives a golden medal to every couple that celebrate their golden or diamond wedding. As many as 614 couples have received medals thus in one year in the czar's realm.

West Indian Cyclones.

About 88 per cent of the West Indian cyclones occur in August, September and October.

Ebony.

Ebony was esteemed as an article of luxury by the ancients. In India it was employed by kings for scepters and images and, as it was supposed to annul the power of poisons, was often made into drinking cups.

The Rose.

The rose was an emblem of immortality among the Syrians, and the Chinese planted it over graves.

Robert Burns on Good Wifeship.

Robert Burns, the poet, divided the scale of good wifeship into ten parts—good nature, 4; good sense, 2; wit, 1; personal charms, 1. The remaining two degrees covered fortune, education, family, blood.

Panama's Rainy Season.

You can expect a shower at Panama about 3 o'clock every afternoon during the rainy season.

The Monkey's Memory.

During a performance in a variety theater at Copenhagen a monkey named Morits suddenly sprang off the stage and threw himself into the arms of a man in the audience. It was discovered that the man had been Morits' master four years before.

Cleopatra's Needles.

Cleopatra's Needles were not erected by that queen; neither do they commemorate any event in her history. They were set up by Rameses the Great.

Oxford Bibles.

The Bible press of Oxford produces on an average 3,000 copies of the Bible, not to mention prayer books, every day. The skins of 100,000 animals are used every year for the covers of Oxford Bibles.

Moscow's Newsdealers.

Newspaper vendors in Moscow are obliged to wear a certain uniform, and the police can prevent them from pursuing their vocation if they do not appear clean and tidy.

Spinsters.

Unmarried women are called spinsters, or spinning women, because it was a maxim among our forefathers that a young woman should not marry until she had spun enough linen to furnish her house. All unmarried, old or young, were then called spinsters, a name still retained in all legal documents.

By Hook or by Crook.

"By hook or by crook" is an allusion to an ancient manorial custom which permitted the neighboring poor to take all the wood that they could reach and pull down from the forest trees, using only their shepherd's crooks.

Nosebleed.

To stop bleeding at the nose cut some blotting paper about an inch square, roll it about the size of a lead pencil and put it up the nostril that is bleeding. The hollow in it will allow the sufferer to breathe. The blood will fill the space between the tube and the nose and will very soon coagulate and cease to flow.

His Mark.

The cross mark, still used occasionally instead of a signature, did not originate in ignorance. It was always appended to signatures in mediaeval times as an attestation of good faith.

The Irish Hare.

The Irish hare found both in Ireland and Scotland has two coats a year of different colors. In the summer it is brown with black tipped ears, while its winter coat is white with the exception of the ear tips, which do not change color.

Manicuring.

The art of manicure is many centuries old, having had its birth in the dim old convents of France, where the patient nuns practiced it on the hands of the noble ladies brought up within their walls.

The Dignified Frogs of Korea.

Frogs in Korea do not hop or jump. They walk like well ordered animals, quietly placing one foot after another until they arrive at the end of their journey. It is an amusing sight to one who has always seen the frog of America jump.
