CHURCH CROWDED; MANY STANDING

LARGE CONGREGATIONS AT REVIVAL CONDUCTED BY REV. AND MRS. JACKSON.

The Christian church was again crowded to the doors Sunday night, every seat in auditorium and lecture room being filled, many stood along the wall and others could not even find standing room. Rev. Jackson preached a powerful sermon on "The Question of the Ages." Quite a number went forward and confessed Christ. Mrs. Jackson sang the old but ever beautiful song, "Where is My Wandering Boy Tonight," the audience joining in the chorus, and stereopticon pictures illustrating the song being thrown on the screen. Mrs. O. M. Corkins and Miss Edna Weaver sang a beautiful duet.

The revival is increasing in interest with every meeting. Rev. Jackson's topics Monday and Tuesday night were, "An Official Brought to Justice," and "How a Party Got Over the Sea." Topics for the remainder of this week are as follows:

Wednesday—"Mrs. Lot, Her Husband and Two Daughters."
Thursday—"Is 13 An Unlucky Number?"
Friday—"Oneness in Christ."
Saturday—"Killing Lions on a Snowy Day."
Sunday, 11 a. m.—"Lovest Thou Me?"
Sunday, 7:30 p. m.—"Major General Naaman."
A feature of last Friday night's service was the Sunbeam choir of nearly 100 voices. The young folks sang finely and gave evidence of splendid training by Mrs. Jackson. The Sunbeams will sing again next Friday night.

The Men's Meeting.
Nearly every seat in the church was filled at the men's meeting Sunday afternoon. The service was interesting, familiar hymns being sung and Rev. Jackson delivering a fine address on "What Is Man?" He treated of man more especially in his social relations—as a brother to all men, as a husband and as a father.

Bishop Paddock's Sermon.
Bishop Robert L. Paddock, of the Episcopal diocese of Eastern Oregon, preached in the Methodist church Sunday morning. A large congregation listened attentively to a splendid sermon on a reasonable religion for men. The bishop is a direct, forcible speaker of pleasing personality. He calls a spade a spade, but is in nowise sensational, preaching pure gospel sermons. A large choir led the congregation in a number of familiar hymns, and Mrs. A. F. Shillock and Miss Edna Browning sang beautiful solos.

WAR IS STARTED ON OPIUM

Conference on Traffic in Drug Opens in Shanghai.

Shanghai, Feb. 1.—War on the opium traffic of the world is the purpose of the international opium conference which began its sessions in this city today. The United States, Great Britain, France, Germany, China, Japan, Holland, Siam, Persia, Russia, Italy and Canada have sent delegates to the conference, which was called by President Roosevelt at the suggestion of the Right Rev. Charles H. Brent, Protestant Episcopal bishop of the Philippine Islands.

The Chinese government has declared its intention of co-operating heartily in the work of the conference. Several expert foreigners have been detached from the government service to furnish to the conference statistics of the use of opium by the natives. It is proposed to prohibit the growing of poppies, save to the extent needed to supply the medicinal demand for the drug, and steps to that end have already been taken. Riots in some poppy growing districts have resulted.

GOMPERS TO KEEP TALKING

Says That No Court Injunction Can Stop Him.
New York, Feb. 1.—Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, said tonight that no court injunction would check his speech. He made this statement in an address before the Central Federated Union. The labor leaders who gathered around him said that, if necessary, they would all go to jail with him.

Mr. Gompers said he had great faith that the higher court would set aside the judgment of Judge Wright in the case against Messrs. Mitchell, Morrison and himself.

BROTHER OF CHICAGO'S MAYOR KILLS WOMAN

Chicago, Feb. 1.—Mrs. Lucius C. Tuckerman, aged 32 years, wife of a fruitdealer at Milton New York, was shot and instantly killed at 7 o'clock Sunday evening in a most peculiar manner. George Busse, brother of the mayor of Chicago, was handling a revolver when it was discharged. The bullet crashed through two windows, crossed an areaway and pierced the heart of Mrs. Tuckerman.

Mr. Busse was planning to leave the city on a business trip and was explaining to a maid how to use the revolver. His brother, the mayor, was present at the time.

GOLD FOUND IN LOS ANGELES

Workman Makes Rich Find While Excavating.
Los Angeles, Feb. —This city was thrown into a state of excitement such as it had not experienced since the first discovery of gold on the San Gabriel by a rich find of the precious metal in the heart of the business section.

While workmen were excavating for foundations, one of them thrust his pick into a large lump of what

A word about "Natural Shape" lasts —
You don't relish the idea of crowding your foot into a shoe. It isn't necessary.

"Natural Shape" shoes—the FLORSHEIM SHOE—are made over lasts designed to fit (not pinch or crowd) your foot—And style—FLORSHEIM style is added without the sacrifice of a single point of comfort.

appeared to be hard clay, but the mass was so heavy he washed it. It turned out to be a lump of "float" larger than a man's head, studded with large particles of gold.

Other diggers made similar discoveries and mining men who saw the deposit expressed the opinion that it is one of the greatest placer "pockets" ever uncovered in the West. The police are guarding the property.

Populace to Be Excluded.
Louisville, Ky., Feb. 1.—Only the number of people who can be crowded into a great tent, 4000 in all, will be permitted to witness, near Hodgenville, Ky., February 12, the exercises in commemoration of the centenary of Abraham Lincoln's birthday. President Roosevelt, Cardinal Gibbons, Bishop Galloway, Ambassadors Jusserand and Bryce, Senator Dolliver and ex-Governor Folk will make addresses. The cornerstone of the memorial hall is to be laid by the President.

Editor Seriously Injured.
Yonkers, N. Y., Jan. 31.—W. L. Woodson, editor of the American Press of New York, was seriously injured here while trying to board a train. He was caught under the wheels of the moving train and his right leg so badly mangled that amputation below the knee was found necessary. Physicians say that Mr. Woodson will very likely recover.

State Messenger Arrives Late.
Portland—Oregon's electoral messenger, R. R. Butler, who was given the state vote on Presidential elections, failed to arrive in Washington Monday and was Tuesday subject to $1000 fine for his failure.

Oregon's electoral vote was counted, for a copy was forwarded by mail and has been in the hands of the Vice-President for more than a week. But this fact does not release Butler from the penalty which the law imposes for failure to deliver the vote by the third Monday in January. If this penalty is invoked it will consume his entire mileage and compel him to go into his pocket for about $250 extra.

Railroads Sued for Land Sold.
Portland—Another step in the fight of the federal government to recover possession of the land included in the immense grant to the Oregon & California Railroad Company was taken Saturday when B. D. Townsend, special assistant to the attorney-general, filed in the Federal court in Portland 35 suits in equity against the Oregon & California and Southern Pacific Companies and over 100 other defendants.

These suits are supplementary to those previously filed against the Harriman companies and are for the purpose of recovering land included in the grant and already sold by the railroads, or, where title to the land cannot be regained, of securing for the government all monies paid for the land in excess of $2.50 an acre, the price at which it was stipulated in the original grant the land would be sold. Besides the railroads, the defendants in the suits are those who have purchased land from these companies. The suits involve more than $15,000,000 and also more than 353,288 acres of land. All of the land is located in Oregon.

Will Celebrate Admission of State.
Eugene—On Friday, February 12 the University of Oregon will hold an Oregon or Commonwealth day which will hereafter be an annual affair, the same as a number of other special university days. The day is to commemorate the day that Oregon was admitted to the Union as a state and will be held hereafter on February 14, which is the date on which Oregon was admitted; but as the date comes on Sunday this year the date of the commemoration has been changed to February 12.

The object of Commonwealth day is to bring the people of the state in closer touch with the State University, and to give the citizens of Oregon a chance to see the university in actual working order.

Man Dies of Nightmare.
Eugene—Marion Nice, a farmer living near Thurston, died early Saturday morning while under the spell of nightmare.

Mr. Nice was in usual health the day before, but has been subject to nightmare for a number of years. When his wife was aroused early in the morning by the groaning of her husband, she paid no particular attention, such spells being not unusual with Nice. When he failed to rise at the usual hour his wife found him dead.

Distinctions in Being Kicked.
The Arabs, clever horsemen as they are, are quite as liable to accident as English grooms. But the Arab likes to be kicked by a thoroughbred horse and cannot endure to be put to any pain by an animal whose pedigree is at all defective. An English surgeon has been setting the broken leg of an Arab who complained more of the accident that had befallen him than was thought becoming in one of his tribe. This the surgeon remarked to him, and his answer was truly characteristic. "Do you think, doctor, I should have uttered a word of complaint if my own high bred colt in a playful kick had broken both my legs? But to have a bone broken by a brute of a jackass is too bad, and I will complain!"

The Comic Side of Crime.
It is a generally accepted fact that one can see humor in most things if one looks deep enough. The following is perhaps rather a queer story, but it is worth quoting if only to emphasize the futility of choosing juries in the haphazard way still followed in England:

A man was tried on evidence irresistible "to anybody but a jury" for a most terrible murder. He had slain his father and mother on testimony so clear that there could be no shadow of doubt as to his guilt.

The jury brought in a verdict of not guilty.

It was an example of the comic jury—yes, screamingly funny comedians—a troupe of twelve led by a comic foreman.

The judge was furious and asked the comedians what they meant by such an outrageous verdict, "when they knew the culprit was guilty and ought to be hanged."

"That's just it, my lord," said the foreman of this distinguished body. "I assure you we had no doubt about the prisoner's guilt, but we thought there had been deaths enough in the family lately!"—Strand Magazine.
