THERE IS PROFIT IN RIGHT KIND OF COWS

Sam Wade's four Jersey cows brought him at the Enterprise Creamery for butter during the month of March, $34.29, and he says they kept two gallons of milk each day that they did not separate, which would be 62 gallons or 496 pounds of milk at 5 per cent makes 24.80 pounds butter fat. O-I DEVELOPMENT CONGRESS DATES

WILL MEET AT LA GRANDE APRIL 26-27—NOTABLES TO ATTEND.

April 26 and 27 have been selected for the La Grande meeting of the Oregon-Idaho Development Congress, and a committee consisting of William Miller, Mac Wood and Tod Binehart are making preparations to surpass all other meetings of this body of public spirited and enterprising citizens of these two states, says the La Grande Observer. The general purpose of the congress is to arouse a sentiment among the people that will secure the building of railroad, highway, etc., and in particular to so organize that if railroads refuse to provide adequate transportation facilities for any section the people of that section shall be enabled to do something for themselves. Meetings are held once a month during the winter. The meeting scheduled for La Grande will probably be the last one held until fall. Last month the congress met at Ontario, and the month before at Boise. Invitations will be sent to towns as far east as Boise and west to Pendleton and Walla Walla. Wallowa county will be well represented. Judge Lowell, who is president, will be present, and a prominent Portland member, the gifted C. S. E. Wood, is expected. An invitation will be sent to Editor Hofer, of the Salem Capital-Journal. Colonel Hofer is vice-president of the organization. In all about 150 delegates are expected to be present.

President A. C. Miller of the Enterprise Commercial club says a number of citizens here have already signified their intention of attending the congress. The subjects discussed at the meetings are of vital interest to this county, and some of the brainiest men of the state will be there.

Joe Allen Bound To Circuit Court

Charge of Assault With Dangerous Weapon—Fighters Fined $5 and Costs.

Joe Allen, a well known hill rancher, was bound over to the circuit court in $200 bonds by Justice A. C. Smith, Monday, on a charge of assault with a dangerous weapon. At the same time the prosecuting witness, W. H. Gibson, was placed under $100 appearance bond.

The alleged assault is said to have taken place at Allen's ranch, Sunday, March 28. Gibson, who came from Pendleton, was working for Allen and it claimed the row started over the quality of grub he was served. He claimed Allen followed him to the yard and pointed a revolver at him. Allen says he had no gun and there was no gun about the place as far as he knew.

At the preliminary hearing before Justice Smith, Burligh & Boyd appeared for Allen, and Deputy District Attorney Eberhard for the state. Gibson has also started a replevin suit to get his outfit that he says is at Allen's, and has also sued him for wages.

City Recorder Taggart fined Arthur Dashazer $5 and costs Tuesday for fighting in the city limits. W. assaulted him, was let off without a fine. Another fight occurred on Main street opposite the hotel, Sunday, Oscar Davis pummeling Ed Boswell to get satisfaction for a debt that Davis said Boswell owed him. Davis has sent in word from where he is working that he will pay his fine, while Boswell has skipped.

CITY NOMINATING MEETING, APRIL 14

MASS CONVENTION CALLED BY COUNCIL—LOG DRAG FOR STREETS.

The annual city election will be held Tuesday, May 4, and at the regular meeting of the council Monday night, City Recorder Taggart was instructed to call a mass meeting to nominate candidates, at the court house the night of Wednesday, April 14. Officers to be elected are mayor, recorder, attorney, treasurer and three councilmen to succeed L. Berland, B. B. Boyd and S. E. Combes.

Council appointed the following judges of election: T. R. Akins, James Rodgers and Charles Thomas. Better streets came up for discussion, especially the streets leading to the depot. The matter of a log drag will be investigated. The cheap log drag back in the East is relegating the costly road machinery, like graders and steam rollers, to the scrap heap.

Object to Strong Medicines.

Many people object to taking the strong medicines usually prescribed by physicians for rheumatism. There is no need of internal treatment in any case of muscular or chronic rheumatism, and more than nine out of ten cases of the disease are of one or the other of these varieties. When there is no fever and little (if any) swelling, you may know that it is only necessary to apply Chamberlain's Liniment freely to get quick relief. Try it. For sale by Burroughs & Mayfield.
