DEATH RECORD.

Mrs. Henry O. Zumwalt died Sunday at the home of Dr. C. T. Hockett in this city after an illness lasting several weeks of stomach and kidney trouble. Funeral was held from the Hockett home Monday afternoon at 3 o'clock, services being conducted by Rev. Samuel Harris; interment in Enterprise cemetery. The funeral was very largely attended showing the high esteem in which the deceased was held and the deep sympathy for the bereaved husband and children.

Mary Angeline Updegraff was born Nov. 25, 1852, in Shelby county, Ind., and came to Western Oregon in 1880. On August 11, 1881 she was married to Henry O. Zumwalt. About eight years ago they came to this county on account of her health, which was greatly benefited by the change. They settled in the eastern part of the county where a post-office was established with the name Zumwalt.

Mrs. Zumwalt was a kind, devoted wife and mother and a christian woman, having joined the M. E. church of Ferrydale, Polk county, many years ago. She leaves to mourn her death, an aged mother, three brothers and two sisters, the husband and four children, daughters Josie and Zora, and sons Fred and Len.

A large number of Civil War veterans in this county are attending the national encampment of the G. A. R. at Salt Lake this week. Among those who left on Saturday's train were C. R. Pratt, Jas. Hayes, John Boner, M. B. Knight, John Martin, H. W. Beecher, L. L. Hamblen, J. A. Rumble and W. C. Endicott. The "boys" are expecting the time of their lives.

NOTED NEWSPAPER

MAN IN VALLEY

W. E. CURTIS GREATEST OF TRAVEL WRITERS VISITS WALLOWA LAKE.

W. E. Curtis, the premier newspaper correspondent of the world, was in Wallowa Valley Tuesday afternoon and night. He came in General Passenger Agent McMurray's private car attached to the regular train, visited Wallowa Lake, and went out Wednesday morning. He was accompanied by Mrs. Curtis and their daughter.

Mr. Curtis is the greatest traveler and writer of travels in the world today. For over a score of years his daily letters on the first page of the Chicago Record, and since the consolidation of the Chicago Record-Herald, has been eagerly watched for by hundreds of thousands of people. He speaks daily in a personal sense to the largest and most intelligent audience of any writer in the world. His letters are the "making" of any scene of natural beauty that he chooses to describe. His description of Crater Lake made that greatest of natural wonders known to the world. As a word painter he has no equal, yet his letters are remarkable as Stevenson's work, for their clear, limpid, elegant style.

So it can be understood that the visit of Mr. Curtis is one of the greatest pieces of good luck that has happened to this beautiful valley, whose treasures have so long been hidden by its cloak of isolation. In one day it will become famous.

Mr. Curtis is famous in other ways besides as a newspaper man. He was James G. Blaine's main dependence in the attempt of that great statesman to draw closer together the republics of North, South and Central America, and was secretary of the Bureau of American Republics. He has written many books of big circulation and is the intimate and doubtless the confident of more of the great and powerful of earth than any other one man. He enjoys a princely salary and is a free lance to go wherever his inclination may lead, his sole duty being, and that a voluntary one, to write a letter a day for Victor F. Lawson, which is published in Lawson's Chicago Record-Herald, in many respects the best of newspapers.

Thompson—Miller.

At the home of the Rev. Ford Ellis, 1701 Washington avenue, Professor Robert L. Thompson of Promise, and Miss Nona B. Miller of Enterprise were united in holy bonds of wedlock Monday afternoon at 5 o'clock. Mrs. O. C. Pleshman acted as bridesmaid and Mr. O. C. Pleshman as best man. The bride was beautiful in a gown of soft cream tulle and a veil. She carried a bouquet of orange blossoms. Mr. and Mrs. Thompson are well known in Wallowa county, both having taught there. Immediately after the wedding they started by vehicle for Promise, where they will make their future home, and where Mr. Thompson is to be principal of the school.—La Grande Star.

Cattlemen Paid Top Of Market

Shipment of Snake River Steers And Cows Bring Good Prices.

Eight cars of Snake river cattle were shipped out Sunday by Chandler of Elgin. The cattle were bought for him by M. E. Hotchkiss from Ben Johnson, F. P. Somers, C. J. Wilson, E. A. Mace, Mike Thomason and J. M. Wisearer.

The cattle were in prime market condition and brought the owners the fine price of $29 each for cows and $43 for steers.

The cattle market is still improving and the chances are Wallowa county stockmen will clear up a big sum after the beef round-up next month.

Sunday's shipment was loaded at Joseph as the scales are not put in at the yards here yet.

Changed Fair's Name.

The La Grande people have changed the name of their fair from Eastern Oregon Exposition to Union County Exposition Association. The Observer says the plan to combine the Union and Wallowa fairs at La Grande is still up in the air and several men will come to Joseph Wednesday to find out definitely what is going to be done about it.

Warren Forsythe of Ann Arbor, Mich., arrived Monday for a visit with his parents.

RATE REDUCTION NOW IN EFFECT

RAILROAD COMPANY ACCEPTS COMMISSION'S DECREE IN GOOD GRACE.

The new freight rates, ordered by the state commission because of the complaint by the Enterprise Commercial club, were put into effect last Thursday, August 5, and mean a reduction on all incoming freight from Portland or elsewhere in Oregon of from 10 to 18 per cent, according to classes and towns. The reduction to Joseph and Enterprise is much larger than to Wallowa, because more of local rails was knocked off, but there is a substantial reduction to Wallowa.

Formerly the first class rate Portland to Wallowa was $1.69, now it is $1.53 per cwt. To Enterprise it was formerly $1.78, now it is $1.57 or but 4 cents more than to Wallowa. Following are the rates to the four towns from Portland:

Classes	Wallowa	Enterprise	Joseph	Sepp
First	$1.53	$1.55	$1.57	$1.58
Second	1.30	1.32	1.33	1.34
Third	1.07	1.09	1.10	1.11
Fourth	.92	.93	.94	.95
Fifth	.76	.77	.78	.79
A	.76	.77	.78	.79
B	.61	.62	.63	.63
C	.46	.47	.47	.47
D	.38	.39	.39	.40
E	.31	.31	.31	.32

The saving at Enterprise over former rates is 22 cents a hundred on first class freight, 23 cents on second class, 16 cents on third and 12 cents on fourth.

From La Grande the rate was formerly 69 cents on first class to Enterprise; it is now 52 cents.

Along with this splendid reduction, for which credit must be given the O. R. & N. for not seeking to delay the putting it into effect, the railroad company is giving a big reduction on shipments from the East. First class from Chicago to Enterprise is reduced from $4.04 a cwt. to $2.45, second class from $3.17 to $3.17, third from $2.65 to $2.51, fourth from $2.29 to $2.16.

ENTERPRISE WINS FROM WALLOWA

TAKE SUNDAY'S GAME BY SCORE OF 8 TO 3—PACE'S FINE PLAYING.

To steal a phrase, and change it a little, of a celebrated baseball writer not a thousand miles from Wallowa, "But wouldn't a score of 8 to 3 make anybody happy?" Sure it does when it comes our way, as it did last Sunday at Wallowa when by splendid all-around playing the Enterprise team won by the aforementioned score.

The Enterprise club was minus the services of its crack pitcher, Billyeu, who is at the Coast, but Bruce Hartman, who recently arrived here from Stuart, Ia., proved a most worthy substitute. He was wild the first two innings, passing four or five men, and enabling Wallowa to score once in the first and twice in the second, but after that his drop ball worked to perfection and nary a Wallowan thereafter saw the home plate except when he pounded his bat on it just before dying on first or thereabouts.

Billy Bauer caught Hartman in splendid style and threw a half dozen ambitious but rash runners out at first, Pidgecock at second and Hug at short being the same old reliables. "Casey" French, his bum ankle partly well-dug 'em out of the dust at third, while Savage, Pace and Marvin cavorted in left, center and right respectively.

And maybe Pace didn't cavort some. Nothing too far out or close in for him to get and that wing of his nailed three baserunners, one trying to score from third after Pace had caught a long fly, another man doubled at first who ran a few feet off the base to watch Arther scoop up a Texas leaguer, while the third man perished miserably attempting to score from second just because a long slight went to the far boundary of Pace's pasture. Oh! what an arm!

Hayes' support was poor but at that the Enterprise boys batted him hard enough to win two games, Hug and Pace leading in the slaughter.

The Wallowa team is invited here for next Sunday but has given no answer yet.

GROSSMAN.

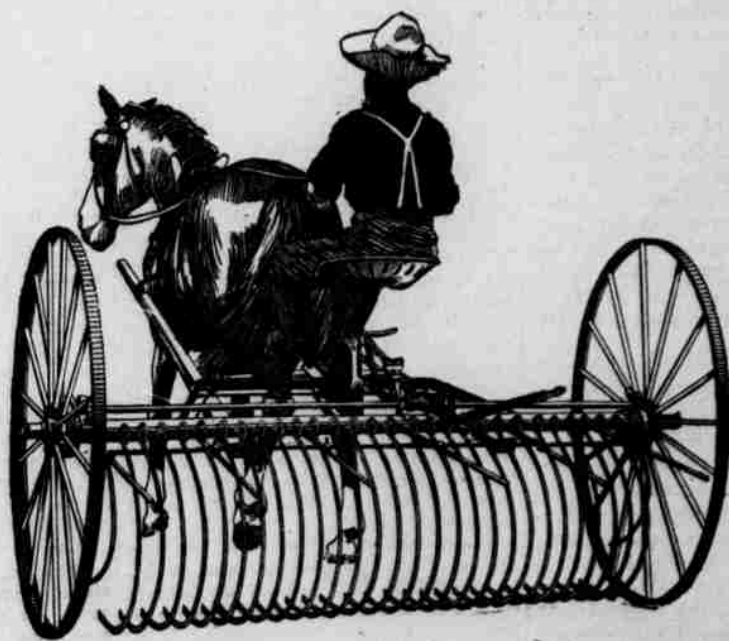

Preaching by Rev. F. G. Potter next Sunday at East Grossman. All are invited.
