EXTERMINATION OF GROUND SQUIRRELS

EXPERIMENTS BY AGRICULTURAL DEPARTMENT—POISONED
GREEN BARLEY BEST.

Washington, Aug. 18.—Interesting results have just been announced by the Agricultural Department as a result of the campaign conducted in Southern California by Stanley E. Piper, Experiment Station, to exterminate ground squirrels and gophers.

Extensive experiments were tried to determine the best means of killing off these destructive little animals and it was found that most effective results were obtained by using poisoned green or ripening barley heads. The squirrels are exceedingly fond of this green herbage, and eagerly ate the poisoned food placed along their runways. Tests were also made with oats, wheat, barley, raisins, prunes, dried apples and cracked corn, but these did not prove so successful.

While green barley proved most successful for poisoning ground squirrels, yet the difficulty of procuring a sufficient supply in all localities led to dried barley grain being tried. The grain was treated with strychnine sulphate, saccharine and eggs, and although this combination proved very destructive to the squirrels, it had practically no effect upon doves and quail. In fact, a deliberate attempt was made to poison these birds at their watering places, but no bad effect resulted. The poisoned grain was also used in fields grazed over by sheep and produced no ill effects whatever.

The experiments also proved that gophers were partial to raisins and dried apples, and these were successfully used in the poison experiment. It was found that by sprinkling the raisins or apples with the strychnine solution, as effective results were produced as could be obtained by inserting the poison into the fruit.

The experiments for extermination of squirrels also resulted in the death of a considerable number of rabbits, and in other experiments it was found that poisoned oats proved very effective ive in killing both jacks and cotton-tails. Green alfalfa was used with good results for the same purpose.

HOOK & LADDER TRUCK.

The hook and ladder truck ordered a few weeks ago by the council from an Elmira, N. Y., factory, arrived last week and is temporarily housed in Shackelford's livery barn. It is a neat appearing, light running truck and is equipped with the latest trussed ladders. The cost was $675 for Enterprise.

The council ordered at the same time 300 feet of hose at a cost of 90 cents a foot.

Farnsworth Farm Sold To Varner

Fine Alder Slope Place of 320 Acres
Bought by Lostine
Dairyman.

The Joseph Farnsworth farm of 320 acres, 4 1/2 miles south of Enterprise on Alder Slope, has been sold by the O. R. & L. company to N. D. Varner of Lostine for $14,400.

The land is practically all farming and fruit land and every acre is under water. There are two dwellings and two barns on the place, and it is conceded to be a bargain at the price.

Mr. Varner is an experienced dairy man and will see the place to clover and alfalfa, turning the farm into a dairy ranch. He expects to move onto it about October 1.

The same firm has sold the S. F. Face pasture ranch of 600 acres on Whiskey creek to L. W. Minor for $4500.

Washington's Plague Spots

lie in the low, marshy bottoms of the Potomac, the breeding ground of malaria germs. These germs cause chills, fever and ague, biliousness, jaundice, lassitude, weakness and general debility and bring suffering or death to thousands yearly. But Electric Bitters never fail to destroy them and cure malaria troubles. "They are the best all-round tonic and cure for malaria I ever used," writes R. M. James, of Louellen, S. C. They cure Stomach, Liver, Kidney and Blood Troubles and will prevent Typhoid. Try them, 50c. Guaranteed by Burnaugh & Mayfield.

LITCH TO BUILD MODERN OFFICES

WILL ADD SECOND STORY OVER
NEW BUILDING AND FUNK CORNER.

Sam Litch has decided to build a second story over both his new building and the building now occupied by W. J. Funk & Co. at the southwest corner of Main and River streets. When completed the entire building will present a very handsome appearance and will be the largest and finest business block in the city.

The second story will be fitted up with eleven modern office suites of two rooms each, seven on the Main street front and four facing on River street. There will be large, well lighted halls, every room opening onto a hall. The southwest quarter will be divided into sleeping apartments. The stairway will go up from River street, where the office of W. J. Funk & Co. is now.

The offices will be modern in every respect, with all conveniences of water, closets, toilets, etc., and there is already a big demand for them. Among the tenants will be Doctors Hockett and Anderson, Dr. Ketcham's dental parlors, The Wallowa L. L. & A. Co., Attorneys J. A. Burleigh and T. M. Dill.

The west store room on the first floor has been rented by the drug firm of Jackson & Weaver.

If you are all run down Foley's Kidney Remedy will help you. It strengthens the kidneys so they will eliminate the impurities from the blood that depress the nerves, and cause exhaustion, backache, rheumatism, and urinary irregularities, which sap the vitality. Do not delay. Take Foley's Kidney Remedy at once. Burnaugh & Mayfield.

Spaniards' Taste in Reading.

The librarian selected a book entitled "Farming in the Old Valley." "Will you give this to that young man waiting at the desk?" she said to an assistant. "He is a Spanish student learning to read English, and I think this will suit him."

"That sounds like a very unpromising subject for a student in English to tackle," a friend remarked.

"It would be uninteresting to anybody but a Spanish student," said the librarian, "but the Spaniards run to farming literature. When training beginners in English of any other nationality something sprightly in the way of fiction or travel usually is recommended. But not to the Spaniard. Nine times out of ten it is a work on agriculture that he will make the best progress in."—New York Press.

Had to Bow to Sweden.

The late King Oscar of Sweden was the least conventional of monarchs, but he had to courtesy to custom nevertheless. The king and M. Bonnier, the botanist, met as strangers while out in search of flowers near Stockholm. They were soon the best of friends, and Bonnier suggested lunch at his inn.

"Come home with me instead," said the other.

When the way led to the palace gates Bonnier hesitated. "I'm sorry," said his companion, "but I happen to be the king of this country, and this is the only place where I can entertain my friends."

TWO MORE STARS FOR OLD GLORY.

Marcus A. Smith served Arizona as delegate to Congress for eighteen years, so that the territory was long regarded as hopelessly Democratic. Last November, to the surprise of everybody, Smith's normal plurality of about 1500 was wiped out, and the Republican candidate, Ralph H. Cameron, was elected, with a plurality of 700—simply because the people believed that the Republican party had put the statehood plank in its platform in good faith. New Mexico had been counted safely Republican for years, but last fall W. H. Andrews had the light of his life to secure reelection as territorial delegate. Since then, Colonel Max Frost, known variously as the "Matt Quay of the Southwest," the "Blind Boss of New Mexico," and the "Blind Editor

M. E. CONFERENCE AT JOSEPH IN 1910

HONOR SECURED OVER THREE OTHER TOWNS—ASSIGNMENT OF PASTORS.

The Idaho district conference of the M. E. church for 1910 will be held at Joseph. Three other towns, including La Grande, were active candidates at the conference held at Blackfoot, Ida., last week, for the honor of being the meeting place next year, but Joseph won out principally through the energetic work of Rev. A. L. Howarth, and in recognition of his work in starting the fine new $10,000 church building in the lake town.

There were two changes made in pastors in this county, Thomas Johns from Mackay, Ida., coming to Wallowa in place of Rev. Bird, and L. H. Knox from Huntington succeeding Rev. Martin at Flora. Other appointments of interest locally are as follows:

Enterprise — C. E. Trueblood, Joseph — A. L. Howarth, Baker City — C. E. Deal from La Grande, Cove — J. L. Baker, Elgin — C. D. Fawcett from North Powder, La Grande — H. E. McCleod from Meridian, Ida., Promise — F. G. Potter, Summerville — Henry Martin, Union — D. C. McCole, R. D. Osterhout is reappointed Sunday school missionary.

Joseph Firm Change.

The F. C. & C. company at Joseph has moved into the former Conley & McCully store. Frank Stevenson has sold his interest in the company, and Forstrom and Miller are now sole owners.

GIVE AWAY VALUABLE WATER FOR A SONG

A special meeting of council was held Thursday to authorize the payment of the freight on the hook and ladder truck, amounting to $142. The price of the truck was $675 for Enterprise, the freight to be deducted from the cash payment.

The council also authorized the Mayor and Recorder to enter into a contract with Akina and Craig relative to the disposal of the surplus water at the reservoir.

WALLOWA LOOKS BEST.

John Harris of Coffeyburg, Mo., was visiting his cousins, M. L. and W. W. Harris, last week. Mr. Harris has been making a tour of the Northwest, having been through the reservation country, at the Seattle fair and at Portland, and he says that although you can't always judge by appearance this valley looks better to him than anything he has seen on his trip. M. L. Harris and son Joe visited their relatives in Missouri two years ago and this is the first one of them to return the visit.
