Brief News Items

The new Methodist parsonage is nearly completed.

George Mitchell is convalescent from an attack of pneumonia.

Regular meals 25 cents at Paddock's restaurant, 2nd door south of R. S. & Z. 64bt

Mrs. E. Donnelly of south of town is reported much improved. She is suffering from appendicitis.

Lee Weaver returned Saturday from Paradise where he had been staying for a few months.

See S. K. Clark, before buying water pipe and fittings and all plumbing material. He will save money on your bills. Phone blue 7. 64bt.

Mrs. A. P. Kirkland of Walla Walla, and daughter, Mrs. Alfred Gardner, and baby, of Kennewick, Wash., are visiting their many friends here.

Preaching services in the Christian church next Sunday morning by the pastor, Rev. W. S. Crockett. The Woman's Missionary society will have charge of the services in the evening.

Bishop R. L. Paddock of the Episcopal diocese of Eastern Oregon, will preach in the Methodist church of this city next Sunday and Monday evenings, December 12 and 13.

Miss Edna Browning is expected home, today, Wednesday, from Spokane, where she has been taking a special course in music. She will be at home until after the holidays.

Ralph Paddock and family have moved to the Kellner building on West First street, and are conducting a restaurant in the room formerly occupied by Wheat's jewelry store and before that by Mitchell's bakery.

H. A. Reynolds, the well known young carpenter, was stricken with paralysis while at work on Dr. Ketchum's house, Monday afternoon. The stroke is very severe, his whole right side being paralyzed. He was removed to his room above Thos. M. Dill's office where he lies in a critical condition.

County Superintendent J. C. Conley left for Powwaka ridge Tuesday on a school visiting trip. Mr. Conley put in nearly a solid month visiting schools during November, being at home only five days. He expects to be gone the greater part of this month on the same business but will be in his office at the court house every Saturday.

Hallie Boswell returned Tuesday from a stay of several weeks in Portland.

Sweet cider made to order. Phone O. J. Roe, Mountain View Fruit Farm. 62bt

G. C. Stewart of Whiskey Creek was in town on business, Monday. He reports a fine grain hay crop on his ranch.

Regular meals 25 cents at Paddock's restaurant, 2nd door south of R. S. & Z. 64bt

A. C. Miller is going right along with his new office building regardless of weather. Two carloads of brick have arrived and been hauled to the site, on River street opposite the front entrance of the court house.

The Christmas edition of the Walla Walla Chieftain is an appropriate Christmas remembrance to mail to your friends "back East," or elsewhere. Papers will be mailed direct from our office if you desire at 5 cents the copy.

There were 17 persons, mostly adults, admitted to membership in the Presbyterian church, Sunday, as one result of the recent revival. A reception will be tendered the new members at the home of E. J. Forsythe, Thursday night.

The steam registers for the heating system of the new Litch building have arrived and the second story is being finished for a large number of fine office suites, with water and steam heat in each suite. The large storeroom is nearly ready for occupancy and W. J. Funk & Co. will move their grocery and hardware department into it in a few days.

The management of the opera house announces another of the popular dances for next Saturday evening under the management of the Vest Brothers' orchestra. At the Thanksgiving dance this orchestra established itself as a prime favorite in Enterprise, the consensus of opinion being that no better dance music was ever heard in the county.

Dr. and Mrs. Moore are enthusiastic over the coming next Sunday of Bishop Paddock, as they always looked forward to his periodical visits to La Grande with pleasant anticipation. They declare one cannot attend Bishop Paddock's service without going away much refreshed and desiring to be more like the characters in the beautiful Bible story he usually relates.

R. L. Day of the Riley & Day livery found the suit case advertised by E. A. Wortman and returned it to its owner. Another proof of the efficacy of our little Want ads was the case of the valuable sheep dog lost by Jess Fareld, who works for J. H. Dobbin. The dog returned to camp, having probably heard of the ad, and Mr. Dobbin came in great haste to order the ad out as his place was being overrun with dogs, fully a score being brought there in hope of the offered reward.

PARADISE GLINTS.
Paradise, Dec. 3.—About three inches of snow here.

James Barnes took three loads of wheat to Wallowa last week.

Oscar Akin and family have returned.

Bud Fisher took three loads of fat hogs to Wallowa, recently.

Henry Sturm has been quite sick but is now better.

Bert Berland has bought the Churchill homestead.

Frank Stubblefield, the Enterprise sheepman, was in Paradise on business yesterday.

I thought this was a republic and a majority ruled, but it was not so in the postoffice fight here. There were two applicants, one had 65 signers on his petition and the other had 20 signers. The minority prevailed. Such appointments smack somewhat of a despotic government.

Horse Sale

At the old Shackelford livery barn in Enterprise, Saturday, December 11, commencing at 1 o'clock sharp, I will offer at public sale, 25 head of horses, all young draft horses of the Wade stock. Terms: Six months time without interest if paid when due; 10 per cent interest will be added if not paid when due.

E. MARTENS, Prop

IN THE COUNTY COURT. of the State of Oregon, for the County of Wallowa

In the matter of the Estate and Guardianship of Linnie Basim.

Now at this time this cause came on for hearing upon the application of Carl Whitmore, the duly appointed, qualified and acting guardian of Linnie Basim, an insane person, for an order directing the next of kin of said insane person and all persons interested in her estate to show cause at the next regular term of this court if any they have, why an order shall not be made for the sale of the following described land belonging to said insane person, to-wit, the Southeast quarter of Southwest quarter of Section Twenty-three in Township Two South of Range Forty-Four East of the Willamette Meridian, for the purpose of paying the debts of said ward and for her maintenance, and it appearing from the verified petition filed that the said Linnie Basim is an insane person residing in Wallowa County, Oregon, but now temporarily an inhabitant of Multnomah county, Oregon, and that she is the owner of the above described lands and that Dora Kooch and Lizzie Whitmore, both residing in Wallowa County, Oregon, John Basim of Phoenix, Oregon, and Judson Basim of Salem, Oregon, are the next of kin of said ward and the only persons interested in her estate, it is therefore ordered that the said Linnie Basim, Dora Kooch, Lizzie Whitmore, John Basim and Judson Basim and all others interested in said estate appear before this Court on the 3rd day of January, A. D. 1910, at Two o'clock P. M., at the County Court House in Enterprise, Wallowa County, Oregon, and show cause if any they have, why an order shall not be made authorizing the said guardian of the said Linnie Basim, to sell the above described lands, and it is further ordered that service of this order be made by publication of a copy thereof for three consecutive weeks in the Wallowa Chieftain, a newspaper published weekly at Enterprise, Oregon.

Witness the Hon. J. B. Olmsted, County Judge of Wallowa County, State of Oregon, with the seal of the County Court of said County hereunto affixed on this 4th day December, A. D. 1909.
(SEAL) W. C. BOATMAN,
County Clerk.
