DR. MOORE DISCONTINUES HIS TRIPS TO JOSEPH

(From Joseph Herald.)
Today will be the last regular day for Dr. Moore, the osteopath, in his Joseph office. Commencing Monday he will devote the time he has given to Joseph practice to Wallowa. He has been spending three days a week here the past four months and will now go to Wallowa on Monday, Wednesday and Friday, for the next few months. The change will enable him to use the train instead of driving. It has also been encouraged by inquiries from Wallowa people desiring treatment and in view of the fact that patients in the vicinity of Joseph can go to Enterprise for treatment by train or driving which is hardly practical for Wallowa patients, owing to the greater distance. In July Dr. and Mrs. Moore leave for a year of special school work in this country and abroad.

CITY MARSHAL HUG TO COLLECT THE ROAD TAX

The city council met Monday night, the first time since December 20. It was a tame session. There was considerable discussion of divers matters but aside from allowing bills the only business transacted was instructing the city attorney to draw up an ordinance making the city marshal road supervisor and authorizing him to collect the road tax. Following were the ### St. Valentine Masquerade.

The management of the opera house announces a masquerade ball on St. Valentine's night, February 14. Good music and good order are guaranteed, and everything will be done to make this one of the successes of the season in a social way.

OSTEOPATHY IS SENSE.

How often may it not occur that the derangement and atrophy of vital functions which have rendered so many human lives wretched and worthless, are caused by some slight vertical displacement, or almost unnoticeable curvature of the spine. And in such cases the replacement of the spinal column is all the "doctoring" needed for the return of health, courage and joy to individuals racked by needless suffering into despair.—Herald of Osteopathy.
