

City and County Brief News Items

50,000 22-cartridges just in at W. J. Funk & Co's.

Deputy Sheriff Crow made an official business trip to Big Sheep Tuesday of this week.

Good seed potatoes at the R. S. & Z., 50 cts. per cwt. 100b2

Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Wagner and children left Monday morning for a week's visit in Portland.

Don't fail to see our $10.00, $15.00 and $20.00 men's suits, W. J. Funk & Co.

Miss Maymie Johnston, editor of the Lostine Reporter, visited her sister, Mrs. G. I. Ratcliff, Saturday and attended the horse show.

Doors and windows and all kinds of builders hardware at Keltner's.

Mr. C. W. Brown of Rondowa returned home from Enterprise Tuesday morning, after a business trip to this city.

Ladies, have you seen our line of blue and white enamel ware? W. J. Funk & Co.

Misses Lida Flowers and Edith Fay went to Joseph Saturday to visit friends. Miss Fay returned Monday, but Miss Flowers remained until Tuesday.

Car load of field fencing and barb wire just in at Keltner's.

The B. A. Club of the Methodist church will give a basket social at the church Friday evening, April 22. Everybody invited.

Carload of Shingles received last week at S. D. Keltner's hardware store.

Mrs. H. Mench, who has been taking osteopathic treatment the past month in this city, returned to her home in Flora Tuesday, much improved in health.

Complete line of Sherwin-Williams paints and oils at Keltner's.

Miss Laura Berland left for Spokane, Wash., Tuesday morning. Miss Berland has relatives in the Washington city with whom she will visit for some time.

If you want good feed for your team and good treatment come to White Front Barn, 97b2f

Earl Corkins, traveling salesman for the Corkins Chemical company of Cincinnati, Ohio, was a guest for a few days at the home of his uncle, O. M. Corkins. He left Tuesday morning.

Silks, Silks, Mira, Tussah, Pongee and Shaantung, etc. All kinds and colors at Funk & Co's.

F. H. Pierce was called to Hainville by the illness of his wife, Tuesday. Mr. Pierce expects to return to Enterprise within the course of a month.

The field and poultry fencing at Keltner's in the Pittsburgh Electric Weld—the weld that held.

Eluding the Officers.

Here is an amusing description of one of Balzac's periods of impecuniosity. Mery, the poet, a great friend of Balzac, was an inveterate gambler and rarely left the card table before daybreak. His way lay past the Cafe de Paris, and for four consecutive mornings he had met Balzac strolling leisurely up and down dressed in a pantalon a pieds (trousers not terminating below the ankle, but with feet in them like stockings) and frock coat with velvet facings. The second morning Mery felt surprised at the coincidence; the third he was puzzled; the fourth he could hold out no longer and asked Balzac the reason of these nocturnal perambulations roundabout the same spot.

Balzac put his hand in his pocket and produced an almanac showing that the sun did not rise before 3:50. "I am being tracked by the officers of the Ladies and men's riding and driving auto gloves at Funk & V's.

Mrs. Annie Abercrombie of Baker City, district deputy of the Royal Neighbors, came in from Elgin Monday to be present at the meeting of Aneroid camp, Tuesday afternoon. She was a guest of Mrs. J. A. Durleigh while in the city.

Just received a shipment of marble and am prepared to furnish monuments on short notice. Prices and work right. Also agent for the celebrated Stewart's Iron Fence. Charles Willgerodt, Enterprise, 100bm

Mr. and Mrs. H. Best, parents of Mrs. C. H. Zur-har, have purchased of Frank Meiotte the pretty cottage known as the Wheeler property, and have moved here from Mouthmouth, taking possession of their new home last week.

Watch for Special Sales at W. J. Funk & Co's.

Colon R. Eberhard, receiver of the United States Land Office at La Grande, was in the city Saturday viewing the fine horses and shaking hands with his many friends. Mr. and Mrs. Eberhard and baby are visiting relatives in Joseph.

Tom Wade of Island City visited his brother, Aaron Wade, and family here last week, going to Lostine Monday to visit his brother Sam, before returning home.

Varnish your furniture and wood work with Che-Namel. Guaranteed not to mar or scratch. For sale by W. J. Funk & Co.

Judge D. B. Reavis, one of the patriarchs of Eastern Oregon, arrived last night from a winter's stay with members of his family in Seattle, Hood River and at Walla Walla. He is on his return to Wallowa county where he will remain for the summer.—La Grande Star.

Complete line of men's women's, and children's Oxfords at Funk's.

O. H. Brady arrived home Saturday from Marquette, Kan., whither he accompanied his cousin, Wallie Taylor. He left Mr. Taylor with home folks, completely recovered from the mental derangement which attacked him at Crystal Springs, Wyoming.

Japalac, varnish stains, linseed oil at Burnaugh & Mayfield's

Miss Venus Thomas who has long been the obliging and efficient chief operator at the Home Independent central station, was called to her home in Paradise Monday by phone message stating that her father was worse. Mr. Thomas has been ill for a long time. Miss Thomas had resigned her position at the exchange, the resignation to take effect May 1. Miss Mabel Wilson succeeds Miss Thomas as chief operator, with Miss Alta Davis as assistant.

FACTS IN FEW LINES

The Russian sugar crop exceeds a million tons.

Experiments in raising vanilla are to be made in Brazil.

A direct cable is to be constructed between Argentina and the continent of Europe.

Cotton growing is being resumed in Palestine. An extensive suitable area is available.

There are in Constantinople some 400 pharmacies to an estimated population of 1,125,000.

In England in 1534 a penalty was imposed on flockmasters who kept above 2,000 sheep.

Ice breakers are of importance in Russian ports. Riga is to have a new one costing nearly $200,000.

Canada's first great electric smelting plant for the treatment of ores is to be erected at Sault Ste. Marie, Ont.

It is estimated that 75 per cent of the products advertised in the street cars of Canada are of American manufacture.

An average of thirteen persons a day who use the railroads of the country for footpaths pay for the practice with their lives.

Operators on the sewing machine in south China are paid $5 a month for working nine hours a day seven days in the week.

David Lloyd-George. The champion of the British budget, which has made history for English politics, is not a man to lose his head or his heart in fortune or misfortune. He came originally from an obscure Welsh village and should his projects receive a damaging black eye would be ready, like Henry Ward Beecher when warned that a certain course would ruin his prospects, to "go back to the woods." Aside from his feverish Celtic temper, the principal asset of Lloyd-George in his present warfare for the people is a silvery tongue. He has no personal presence, but his audience forgets that the moment he opens his mouth.

Already David Lloyd-George at the age of forty-seven has been thought of as a coming Gladstone. His convictions and the principles through which he hopes to work them out are much the same as those of the "great commoner" at the height of his career. Like Gladstone, he is solemnly as well as fearlessly in earnest, and being right has done more for his advancement than being brilliant.

NEW SHORT STORIES

Curing a Skeptic.

A story is told of Rabbi Widrewitz, who is well known on the east side. A recently arrived skeptic and cynic came to see him once with a "case" intended to put the reverend gentleman "up a tree." He called on the rabbi at his residence in Henry street and begged to be healed and consoled. "I suffer," said the skeptic, "from two maladies. I have a great weakness—I cannot tell the truth, and that hurts my soul terribly. And I have lost the sense of taste in my mouth. Something is wrong with my tongue." Mr. Widrewitz studied the man a moment, seemed to be perplexed and said: "Come again tomorrow. It is a difficult case. I shall have to reflect upon it. If God wills I shall be able to help you."

THE PILL WAS OF CONSIDERABLE SIZE.

When the patient returned next day the rabbi brought forth a pill he had prepared, told the doubly afflicted man to open his mouth and shoved it in. The pill was of considerable size. Scarcely had the patient allowed it to dissolve somewhat in his mouth than he began to spit, with an expression of the greatest disgust, and exclaimed: "What do you mean? That's tar and sulphur and kerosene you gave me. Do you want to poison me? Phui!"

"Well, what are you making so much noise about?" laughed the rabbi, with great heartiness. "Hasn't God performed a miracle? You have told the truth. It is really tar and sulphur and kerosene. And you have actually recovered the sense of taste in your mouth."—New York Press.

Sherman's Speech Bottled Up.

Vice President James S. Sherman, who swings the gavel which keeps order in the senate, is likely to make a speech at almost any moment. If there is a hall with an unfilled lecture date or a guaranteed audience of 2,000 people or more anywhere within 500 miles of Washington it can obtain the services of the vice president of the United States and a rattling good speech without serious difficulty.

Mr. Sherman went to Akron, O., to speak at the annual Garfield dinner. When he arrived he was informed that three other speakers would precede him, talking about ten minutes each.

"You will be given an hour," said Senator Dick, who was in charge of the affair.

At about 11:40 o'clock Senator Dick, who was preceding, arose to introduce the vice president, the additional speaker having been slipped in meanwhile.

"We have arranged to close the banquet at 12 o'clock," announced Senator Dick, and then he presented Mr. Sherman. This is the reason that there is a good speech bottled up in the senate end of the capitol.—New York Herald.

Weatherby's Ride.

Swift as a shot in his automobile Weatherby sped, with fate at the wheel. Swift as a rocket the first mile was run. Fifty-three seconds the race was done. Lo, but the third was even faster than that! How the wind whistled through Weatherby's hat! Then on the fourth they literally flew. Sudden a roadhouse dove into view. There they slowed down and went in for a "wink."

Thus was Weatherby driven to drink.—Buffalo News.

A Perfect Disguise.

"Was Jimmie Ruffhouse at the masquerade?" asked Willoughby. "Yes," replied Addleton. "He had the most perfect disguise I ever saw. Nobody recognized him."

"What did he go as?" asked Willoughby. "A gentleman," said Addleton.—Judge.

When Money Came.

When money came a-tinglin' I said, "Here is my chance!" It sounded like a fiddle. And I took my place to dance.

All night they heard me shuffle—Until the break of day. But the tune was changed completely When the fiddler was to pay! —Atlanta Constitution.

Precaution.

He—If you love me, why did you at first refuse me? She—I wanted to see what you would do. He—But I might have rushed off without waiting for an explanation. She—I had the door locked.—Spokane

Great Events For Enterprise "Fans"

La Grande H. S. and W. C. H. S. Friday and Saturday—Big Game Sunday.

There are great events in store for the Enterprise fans, Friday and Saturday of this week the La Grande High School team will meet the Wallowa County High School team, at Enterprise in a series of two games, and the public is promised a good entertainment for the two days. The Wallowa County High School team is the aggregation that defeated the Lostine team here last Saturday by a good margin, and the local boys are confident over the outcome of the future games.

Perhaps the big game of the week will be that of the Joseph team and the Enterprise city team, Sunday. The Enterprise boys have just received the new suits, and the Sunday game will be the introduction of the team decked out in the new "trimmings."

Last Saturday's Game.

The game on Saturday between Wallowa County High school and Lostine High school was an extremely creditable exhibition of the national game. It was won by the County High, but their defeat brought no discredit to the Lostine boys, who, considering their lack of training, put up a strong game.

While the local boys played well and deserved their victory, the principal part of the credit belongs to Cramer, who pitched in big league style. Cramer promises to be the find of the season. He had everything a pitcher needs, including almost perfect control. In the first inning he retired the side with seven pitched balls. In the second inning he struck out Fleener with four pitched balls and immediately followed it up by striking out Leonard with the same number. In the ninth inning he retired the side with four pitched balls. In the nine innings neither a wild pitch nor a base on balls was charged to him. Wilson caught a good game, although the steadiness of Cramer made his work easy. Of the other players, Ault at second and Vest in left, starred. Of the Lostine boys, Cook caught a very creditable game, considering the extreme wildness of Haun, and Sumpter, at first, was a star.

The runs came this way: In the second inning, after Jackson had struck out, Wilson singled to right, went to third on a wild pitch and scored while Bauer was being thrown out from Read to Sumpter. In the third, Craig singled to left reaching second when Hammack let the ball go through his legs to the fence, and directly afterwards went to third on a passed ball. Haun at this juncture very accommodatingly passed both Casey and Vest and interspersed his work with a couple of wild pitches, on which both Craig and French scored. That was all until the fifth inning, when two bases on balls and three wild pitches scored Craig, French and Vest, which ended the scoring for the game.

Lostine got its run in the third. After two were out, Cook singled to right and kept on to third when Bauer let the ball get away from him. Haun followed with another into the same territory, on which Cook scored, Haun being thrown out at second, being relayed there by Wilson after it had reached home too late to catch Cook at the plate. The score follows:

W. C. H. S.		ABBH PO A E
Wagner, 1b	3 0 11 0 2
Riley, 1b	1 0 3 0 0
Craig, cf	2 1 0 0 0
French, ss	2 0 1 2 1
Vest, lf	2 0 3 0 0
Ault, 2b	3 0 2 6 0
Jackson, 3b	2 0 0 1 0
Emmons, 3b	2 0 0 1 1
Wilson, c	4 1 5 3 0
Bauer, rf	3 0 2 2 1
Cramer, p	3 0 0 2 0
	27 2 27 17 5

LOSTINE H. S.

LOSTINE H. S.		ABBH PO A E
Cook, c	4 1 2 1 0
Haun, p	4 1 3 2 1
Sumpter, 1b	4 0 12 0 0
Read, 2b	4 0 2 4 0
Evans, 3b	3 1 1 2 0
Fleener, ss	3 0 0 0 1
Leonard, rf	3 0 1 0 0
Weir, cf	3 0 0 0 0
Hammack, lf	3 0 2 0 1
	31 3 24 9 3

Hit by pitcher, by Haun 2; bases on balls, by Haun 5; wild pitches, by Haun 3; passed balls, Cook 2, stolen bases, Craig 2, French 2, Vest 2; struck out by Haun 2, by Cramer 6; double plays, Haun to Evans to Read; Bauer to Wagner; time of game, 1 hour, 10 minutes; umpire, Hug.

Lostine H. S.

Runs	0 0 1 0 0 0 0 0 0 1
Hits	0 0 2 0 0 0 1 0 0 3

Speculate In This

710 acres land, 3 miles from the county seat of Wallowa county, Oregon. Mostly grass land, but over 200 acres of choice farming land. Plenty of running water. It is a good stock or dairy ranch. This place is sure to greatly increase in value. Price only $12.50 per acre, $2,000 down; balance 3 years, 8 per cent.

Exclusive Agents
Enterprise Real Estate Company
OVER HARNESS SHOP
ENTERPRISE OREGON

Abstracts Loans Insurance

Reliable Abstracts of title furnished on short notice.
All kinds of money to loan on farm property, from one to five years; large or small amounts
Fire Insurance written in companies that pay all losses in full.
WALLOWA LAW, LAND & ABSTRACT CO.
ENTERPRISE, OREGON
C. H. LOCKWOOD, United States Commissioner
Lockwood & Bilyen, Managers

W. C. H. S.
Runs 0 1 2 0 3 0 0 0 0 1
Hits 0 1 1 0 0 0 0 0 0 2

Polar Reflections.
How awful 'twould be to live at the pole.
With no back yard but an icy shoal
And no front lawn but a big, deep hole—
At the pole!

Nowhere to get your breakfast roll,
Nowhere to buy a load of coal,
Nowhere to go for a pleasant stroll—
At the pole!

Nowhere to sit on a grassy knoll
Or the mossy side of a fallen bole
And idly loaf and invite your soul—
At the pole!

Doesn't it seem a little droll?
There's nothing to do but to enroll
Your name upon fame's glittering scroll—
At the pole!
—Carolyn Wells in New York Tribune.

Professional Advice.
Father Dooley had just tied the knot. He looked expectant, the bride looked sheepish, and Pat, shifting from one foot to another, looked guilty. At last he began, "I—don't like to be mane, father, but I changed me clothes in a hurry and left me wages in me other pants." Then he added in a whisper: "Take me down in the cellar. I'm a plumber, and I'll show ye how to fix the gas meter so 't won't register more than 40 per cent." —Success Magazine.

Fate's Jolt.
If fate hands out a bump to you,
Don't quit the game.
There is no soft, upholstered road
To wealth or fame.
Keep plugging right along and say
When you fall flat,
"Another jolt from fate, but I Expected that."
A grin is better than a groan.
Life's road is tough,
But jolts won't stop you if you're made
Of proper stuff.
—Detroit Free Press.

Word From Br'er Williams.
Ef de ferryman ain't dar wen you gits ter de river an' de steamboat's done blowed up think o' yo' swimmin' lessons an' jump in, but fer de Lawd's sake don't holler fer rope wen you git halfway 'cross or de world 'll laugh at you an' make you mad enough ter wish you wuz lost in de wilderness.—Atlanta Constitution.

To Get the Fourth Dimension of Space.
[As understood after reading article headed "Boy of Ten Addresses Harvard Teachers."]

Take a hecatonlocohedrion and multiply by four.
A sexicochedrion plus half as many more,
Put in some polyhedrigons where gaps suggest a minus
And you'll have a polyhedral-perpendicohedrion.
—New York Times.

Fixed Ratio.
Actor (on the road)—I suppose you have no idea what the size of our house will be tonight. It varies, doesn't it?
Native—Well, you kin generally tell purty accurately by dividing the number of people in the company by two.—Puck.

Cheerful Events.
Molly for a husband sighed—
She pouted, so 'twas prated—
And Anna pinned to be a bride
Till she was sigh prostrated.
But Cupid came to join their sides—
To mate they both were fated,
And thus was Molly mollified
And also Anna-mated.
—Kansas City Times.

Appearances.
"Bliggins seems very busy."
"Yes," answered the jealous professional acquaintance "He has an arrangement with the operator by which his telephone is rung up every three minutes when he has callers."—Washington Star.

Read This

Have you examined our line of Ladies' and Children's Wash Suits, Ladies' Fancy Shirts, Waists, Undershirts, Muslin Underwear, Hosiery, Gloves, Etc.

Also a complete line of Men's Furnishings, including the McKibbin and Stetson Hats.

We have just now the most complete line that we have ever carried.

We buy our Dry Goods from one of the largest houses in Chicago and have a large assortment from which to make our selections.

We discount our bills, which gives us the goods laid down in our store at the lowest cash prices.

We give our customers the benefit of our cash buy. We also give a discount on all cash purchases.

If you are going to build call and let us figure with you on Doors and Windows. We have just received a large stock of same and we are going to sell them at bed rock prices.

R. S. & Z. Company

UNCLAIMED LETTERS.
The following is a list of letters remaining unclaimed for at the post office at Enterprise, Oregon, for the week ending April 9, 1910:
George M. Kinney, Mrs. Eva Lovell (2), Frank Leel (2), Ella J. Morse, Mrs. Maurie Morgan, Pruda Miller, Vernon O'Brien (2), Mrs. Letha O'Brien, Mr. Dick Pullen, Mrs. Pearl Pullen, Miss Edith Survite, Mr. June Scott, A. H. Stone, Miss Veva Sumpter, O. C. Turner (2), Mr. Dave Umberg (2).
The above will be sent to the Dead Letter Office April 23, 1910.
BEN WEATHERS, Postmaster.

NORTH POWDER Patent Flour Best of Best Same Price as Home Flour

GOOD EATING APPLES $1.25 PER BOX

Plenty of COAL on Hand

All Hats, Shoes and Gloves at Cost.

Morse's California Garden Seed guaranteed to Grow

Riley & Riley's