The Little Things That Tell.

A south side mother was dressing for a tea the other afternoon when the front door bell rang.

The maid, seeing a woman dressed as if for calling, obeyed instructions.

"She is not at home," the maid said. "Why, she is, too, Minnie," came a sharp interruption from the child on the lawn.

"Perhaps she just came in," the maid responded weakly. "I'll see."

Shepherd is Guilty.

VALE—The jury in the case of Charles Wear returned a verdict of guilty of murder in the second degree, as charged by the indictment.

Siberian Camels.

The native camels of Siberia are a source of constant wonder to travelers. On the Mongolian plateaus, for instance, the thermometer often registers a temperature of 40 degrees below zero.

An Afterthought.

Nervous and inexperienced Host rising hurriedly at the conclusion of a song—Ladies and gentlemen, before he started to sing Mr. How-

What Kept Her From It.

"Have you ever thought of going on the stage?" "Yes, frequently."

Date for Revolution Set.

CHANGSHA, China, May 16.—The general uneasiness has been greatly increased here by the appearance of a large number of posters unsigned, demanding the destruction of foreigners and of native Christians, and setting May 27 as the date for a general anti-Manchu uprising.

Cornered.

Wife—Did you post that letter I gave you? Hubby—Yes, dear; I carried it in my hand so I couldn't forget it, and I dropped it in the first box I remember, because— Wife—There, dear, don't say any more. I didn't give you any letter to post.

Ze Game of Golf.

He had come over from France and had just been asked to give his views on the ancient game of golf.

"Ah," he said, "your game of golf; Fess, I know him. You put on ze tonic so red as ze ingreesh rosbif underneath dese. You strip your sack of sticks on ze back of a boy twice so small as ze boy."

"He wrote a mad pudding to make balance a little white ball. He make three bad tries to balance him, then very angry you call aloud, 'Feur! Then you what you call address ze ball and, ma foi, your address is sometimes of language to make afraid."

"You strike, and ze ball find himself in ze long grass. 'You call aloud, for ze nib longer stick and beat ze ground till your partner say, 'Ho, check it! You say— But, my friend, I excuse myself to repeat what you say. 'Ah, my friend, you are a great nation, but your golf game gives me what you call ze pip!'"—Pearson's Weekly.

Willing to Chance It.

Here the lecturer threw upon the screen the portrait of a man well known in the financial world, says the Chicago Tribune.

"This," he said, "is one of the great captains of finance. I do not need to mention his name. His face is familiar to all of you. Look at his corrugated brow, the furrows in his cheeks, the patches under his eyes, the deep lines about his mouth. That face, my friends, bears the unmistakable and ineffaceable stamp of care. Anxiety has marred it indelibly. It shows the traces of sleepless nights, weary days and bitterly fought campaigns, with millions of dollars at stake. Success brings such a man no happiness. Look at him! How many of you, my friends, would change places with him? How many of you would be willing to take his wealth if compelled to assume the terrible burden of responsibility that goes with it?"

His bearers rose en masse.

"I would!" they shouted in unison.

His Unfortunate Investment.

"It's astonishing," the old settler in the little town was saying, "how real estate has advanced in this town since I came here. The corner lot this building is on, for instance, sold once for $150."

"What is it worth now?" asked the stranger.

"Five thousand."

"Well, you had a chance to get rich by investing in land yourself. I suppose you bought some real estate?" "Yes, I bought one lot—just one."

"That has increased in value, hasn't it?"

"Yes, over 600 per cent."

"That was a good investment."

"Not so awfully good, mister," said the old settler gloomily. "I paid $10 for it, and it's worth $5 now, but it's in the cemetery. The way I figure it I've lost a bean of money by not dying forty years ago."

Punishment in Persia.

Among the Persians the usual mode of punishment is the bastinado, from which men of the highest rank are not exempt. It is inflicted with very great severity, frequently so as to render the sufferer almost a cripple for life.
