FORMER RESIDENTS HERE
LOSE LITTLE GIRL

The following communication from Rev. W. H. Gibson, who stopped in La Grande on his way to Baker City will be read with sorrow by the friends of Mr. and Mrs. T. O. Barnwell, former residents of Enterprise:

"Lois Barnwell, the little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. O. Barnwell who once resided in Enterprise, died at the parent's home in La Grande, May 31, at 6:30 a. m., and was buried June 1 from the family home on W avenue. The little one was three years, six months and seven days old. Mrs. McKinney of Alder, the grandmother of the little girl, arrived at the Barnwell home on the 30th, not knowing of Lois's illness, and thus was in the house to share the sorrow of the family."

COMMERCIAL CLUB
HOLDS MEETING

VARIOUS MATTERS LOOKING TO LOCAL WELFARE ARE CONSIDERED.

The Commercial club met Thursday night with a good attendance, and talked over matters of great importance to Enterprise and Wallowa county in general. The matter of advertising this section of Oregon, that is Wallowa county and Enterprise, was taken up and discussed at length.

A committee was appointed to confer with the Commercial clubs of Wallowa, Lostine and Joseph, and these clubs with the Enterprise club to arrange with the county court of Wallowa county for proper advertising of the county's resources and opportunities.

The matter is a most important one to every city and every resident in the county. It is a general measure, having nothing to do with one locality than another in the county. It promises results to every township and not to a few. And it is hoped that it may be entered into by every city and resident for the common good and the common development. The committee appointed was as follows: B. B. Boyd to confer with Wallowa, Bickford and Payne to confer with Joseph and the conferees with Lostine to be filled by Charles Crow. This committee will report at the next meeting.

The matter of the Fourth of July celebration was taken up, and it was considered that it were more practical to let the celebration go by and devote all the energy toward the fair in the fall. A committee composed of A. C. Miller, Geo. W. Hyatt, B. B. Boyd, C. S. Bradley, C. H. Zurcher, W. R. Holmes and J. C. Shackelford, was appointed to take the matter in charge. This committee will have the power to appoint subcommittees and take entire charge of the preparations for the fair. It will report at the next meeting of the club.

Two other committees were appointed, one to look into the matter of rural delivery routes out of Enterprise, and the other to confer with the business men of Enterprise relative to the advertising fund proposed some weeks ago, and put all subscribed to. The former committee is composed of Postmaster Ben Weathers, L. E. Jordan and Geo. W. Hyatt; the latter committee is composed of L. B. Payne, W. R. Holmes and Geo. W. Hyatt.

Other matters were discussed, mention of which is made in another column.

All kinds of natural fruit flavors and syrups with ice cream sodas and sundaes at the Jackson & Weaver pharmacy.

Dr. Anderson Thursday ordered one of his patients, Mrs. Gordon Martin of this city, to the hospital in La Grande, placing her under the immediate care of Dr. Molter of that city. Mrs. Martin is suffering from an attack of incipient appendicitis, and may be compelled to undergo an operation.

On a hot day, just smile happily when you think of the ice cream sodas and sundaes at the Jackson & Weaver pharmacy.

Wedding of Well Known Persons

Forsythe-Ellsworth Nuptials Celebrated in La Grande June 1.

A beautiful home wedding took place Wednesday evening, June 1, at 8 o'clock at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Ellsworth, 2502 Ash street, La Grande, when Miss Bernyce A. Ellsworth was united in marriage to Mr. Robert Leo Forsythe, of Enterprise, Rev. W. H. Gibson officiating. The young people are justly popular. Miss Bernyce is one of La Grande's charming young ladies who is honored, loved and appreciated for genuine worth. Mr. Forsythe is the son of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Forsythe and is one of the most respected young business men of Enterprise.

Miss Maggie Coleman acted as the bride's attendant, and Mr. Walter R. Parker as the groom's best man. The Ellsworth home was tastefully decorated in pink and white. Cupid's figure with drawn bow and arrow-pierced heart was everywhere in evidence, and thus was told the story of love's triumph. A three-course wedding supper of dainty and rare abundance was tastefully served. The guests were a few select friends of La Grande, and Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Forsythe and daughter, Miss Eula, of Enterprise.

ADMINISTRATOR'S NOTICE.

Notice is hereby given, that the undersigned has been duly appointed by the County Court of Wallowa County, Oregon, administrator of the Estate of Emeline Akin, deceased, and has qualified as such administrator. All parties having claims against said estate are hereby notified to present them duly verified to the undersigned, at the office of Burleigh & Boyd, Enterprise, Oregon, within six months from the date of the first publication of this notice, May 26th, 1910.

RESTORATION TO ENTRY OF RESERVE LANDS SPEAKS RAPID GROWTH.

Twenty-three thousand, three hundred and sixty-five acres of good, rich, virgin Wallowa county land has been released from the forest reserve and placed for entry by the recent order of Secretary Ballinger. Other lands in Idaho, near Potomato, involving a similar acreage, were also restored to entry.

This will be received with delight by every resident of Wallowa county, the lands restored lying north, northwest and east of Enterprise, and will mean a more rapid development of the county agriculturally because of a more rapid settlement than otherwise. It will be received with gratitude also by the prospective eastern settler who was literally turned back to his eastern home by running against a reserve that simply held new districts from progress.

Because of stress of other business matters Principal Hari H. Bronson of Wallowa has given up the work in the summer Normal for this year. Superintendent Conkey has secured the services of Principal Aubrey G. Smith of the Lostine schools as assistant instructor.

Doors and windows and all kinds of builders hardware at Keltner's.

A bargain sale of furniture and house furnishings will be held for the next two weeks by G. I. Ratcliff to make room for his large stock of new goods which will arrive in about fifteen days. Bring in your cash and get the bargains of your life. 115b1

Now at this time John Anthony and others petition the court, praying for the location of a county road, came regularly on to be heard, and it appearing to the court that said proposed road is in Wallowa county, Oregon, and that said petition is signed by twelve or more freeholders of said county and state residing in the road district of said proposed road, and that the petition correctly describes the beginning, intermediate and terminus thereof and it further appearing to the court by affidavit filed therein that due and legal notice of presentation of said petition to this court, notifying all persons that application would be made by advertisement posted in the place of hold-

FRANK RUSSEL'S
BODY IS FOUND

LODGED AGAINST OBSTRUCTION
OVER 20 MILES FROM POINT OF DROWNING.

Troy, June 2.—The body of Frank Russell was found late Sunday evening, one mile below the ranch of Charles Shoemaker, in the Grande Ronde river. It was brought to this city the first of the week for burial.

Frank Russell drowned in the Little Salmon river, about four miles above the river's mouth, April 24. He was attempting to cross the stream at the time. Searching parties were sent out immediately, and a close watch has been kept for the body ever since, though no trace of it before Sunday was found.

The body had been drifted down by the current four miles in the Little Salmon river and down below the Shoemaker ranch on the Grande Ronde, a total distance of over 25 miles. It is stated that though the remains had been in the water for so long a period, yet the cold temperature of the rivers had preserved it well. His remaining relatives and friends both at the time of his death and in the recovery and burial of the body have the sympathy of the whole county.

ing this court, and three other public places in the vicinity of said proposed road and it further appearing that a bond conditioned according to law has been filed herein, which bond is hereby approved.

It is hereby considered and ordered that the prayers of said petitioners be granted. The road viewers are hereby ordered to view and lay out said road according to law on the 7th day of June, 1910, and of their proceedings to make due and legal return to this court at their next regular meeting.

In the matter of the proposed road petitioned for by E. H. Tulley and others:

Now at this time E. H. Tulley and others petition the court praying for the location of a county road came regularly on to be heard and it appearing to the court that said proposed road is in Wallowa county, Oregon, and that said petition is signed by twelve or more freeholders of said county and state residing in the road district of said proposed road, and that the petition correctly describes the beginning, intermediate and terminus thereof and it further appearing to the court by affidavit filed therein that due and legal notice of presentation of said petition to this court, notifying all persons that application would be made by advertisement posted at the place of holdin this court and three other public places in the vicinity of said proposed road and it further appearing that a bond conditioned according to law has been filed herein, which bond is hereby approved.

It is hereby considered and ordered that the prayers of said petitioners be granted. The road viewers are hereby ordered to view and lay out said road according to law on the 11th day of June, 1910, and of their proceedings to make due and legal return to this court at their next regular meeting.
