

HIGHEST BID ON WOOL LAST WEEK 17 CENTS

L. J. Jordan Offered
That Sum by Frankenstein.

446,555 POUNDS OF COUNTY CLIP SOLD

Bringing a Total Aggregate in Money to Growers of $72,140.95.

The preliminary skirmish in the wool sales has been made and the advance guard of the buyers Saturday pulled stakes and departed. Altogether there were nine sales made, aggregating 446,555 pounds of wool which changed hands. This amount of wool brought a total of $72,140.95 1-8. A number of bids were rejected.

Highest Bid Here.

The highest bid made thus far in the county was made for the clip of L. J. Jordan, the bid being 17 cents flat. The highest bid made at Joseph was 16 1/4 cents. There were twelve buyers on the floor of the warehouse, and for an hour or two the business activity of both buyers and sellers resembled a hint of the "margin" market transferred from Wall street to the heart of the Blue Mountains.

Sales Made.

The following sales were made:
John Johnson 49,000 pounds @ 15 1/4 to Angell of Hallowell, Jones & Donald. All ewes except 40 bucks.
L. C. Johnson 38,277 pounds @ 15 7-8, to Angell as above. 2900 ewes, 1400 yearlings, 40 bucks.
Longfellow & Arnold 70,175 pounds @ 15 1/4, to Frankenstein of Hecht, Libman & Co. 4675 ewes, 3325 yearlings, 60 bucks.

Graves & Dobbins 52,710 pounds @ 16 to Angell as above. 6450 yearlings.
C. C. Boxwell, 5900 pounds @ 16 1-8 to Angell as above.

Bids Rejected.

Bowly & Hansen, 26,000 pounds.

W. H. Stickney, 15 flat, bid by Smith as above.
George Houser, 15 1/2 bid by Frankenstein of Hecht, Libman & Co.
Ira Hoskins, 16 1/4 bid by Frankenstein as above.

T. Blanc, 14 1/4 bid by Jonas of H. Hartley & Co.
P. Baudon, 14 1/2 bid by Dufour of Wattine & Co.

A number of the growers hope to receive higher bids at the sale of July 12, though this will be governed by the market conditions at that time. It was thought by some of the growers that the market of last Friday warranted higher bids than were made. Three small clips were sold at Wallowa last week.

QUIET WEDDING SUNDAY MORNING AT HOTEL.

Sunday morning a quiet wedding ceremony was performed by Rev. C. E. Trueblood of the Methodist church here, when C. R. Eddieleman and Miss Martha M. Casteel, both of Flora, were united in marriage. The young people took the morning train after the ceremony for La Grande where they will attend the Chautauqua for a few days, returning subsequently to Flora where they will move upon a ranch. Both youngpersons are widely and most favorably known here and throughout the county. Both have been teachers in the north part of the county, and come of excellent families. Their many friends wish them a long life of happiness and prosperity.

J. R. Carter Kills a Bear

Bruin Sauntered Forth Evidently Making For the Mountains.
Weighed 200 Pounds.

J. R. Carter celebrated the Fourth, Monday by shooting and killing a two hundred pound black bear at his ranch home about four miles east of Enterprise. Bruin was promptly skinned and dressed for the table, and a portion of the meat taken to the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Reavis, near the Carter ranch.

Mr. Carter's folks were all away in the Fourth, and he was getting ready to do some plowing when he saw what he supposed to be an enormous dog ambling down a hill toward his house. Looking again he discovered that if it were a dog it was a most peculiar one, and he instantly went into the house and secured a rifle. Coming out with the gun, Mr. Carter then saw it was a black bear, and that the animal was watching his sheep. He shot the marauder twice, killing it.

STORK AT IMNAHA.

Imnaha, July 5—Born, to the wife of J. A. Denny, June 27, a son, weight 10 1/2 pounds. Dr. Thompson was called from Joseph and although it was night made the trip in his auto in 3 1/2 hours. Mother and child doing nicely though owing to some accident (to the stork?) the babe had a broken arm. As the children of the family comprised two little girls, the parents are naturally much pleased with their baby boy.

COMBINED THRESHER AND HARVESTER HERE

Thursday evening a brand new combined harvester-thresher arrived here for the wheat growers in and around Promiss. The combine was received by Albert Wilson for the company of ranchers purchasing it. H. A. Caldwell of Walla Walla, representing the firm selling the machine, arrived to set up the mechanism, and left for Promiss last week.

This is the first harvester of the kind ever shipped into Wallowa county, so far as we know, and represents but the very beginning of a new phase of Wallowa county production. In a few years the combines will be seen all over the county.

CARLOAD OF PEOPLE EN ROUTE TO JOSEPH

Practically a carload of "celebration" passed through here Friday afternoon en route to Joseph and the lake to spend the Fourth. An extra coach was carried on the train to accommodate the increased travel.

BIG CANDY SHIPMENT.

J. T. Harvey, the local candy manufacturer, shipped about 200 pounds of candy to Joseph for the Fourth of July trade. This, we venture, is the biggest candy shipment ever made out of the county.

FAIR PROMISES A BIG EVENT

WHOLE COUNTY IS INTERESTED
IN MAKING THE MATTER
A BIG SUCCESS.

The fair management is arranging some of the best prizes of any fair association that has yet been compared to the local one. The cash prizes as now being compiled by the Wallowa county association are very high when brought into comparison with several older associations that have been long established and have been paying dividends to their stockholders.

To give some idea of what is being done, the local association will spend on the fair a sum probably of $4,000. There will be given in cash prizes alone about $1,500. Added to this the business men will offer special cash prizes amounting in the neighborhood of several hundred dollars. The amusement feature of the fair will not at all be forgotten nor neglected, and on this feature alone $1,000 will be expended.

The county has been divided into districts for competition for many of the cash prizes, giving all an opportunity to win, then sweep stakes follow among the striving winners. The management is thus arranging the cash prizes so that the widest interest will be manifest in winning them, and so that everyone in the county will have an opportunity to win something.

The executive board met Tuesday night in the office of A. C. Miller, transacting details of business and perfecting the organization in various details.

MRS. M. L. MINER LAID TO REST IN WALLOWA.

Mrs. M. L. Miner, long an invalid, and one of the earliest settlers of Cove, was laid to rest in the Wallowa cemetery Sunday of last week. She had been in poor health for years, and succumbed finally to the encroaching invalidism. She leaves three of seven children to mourn her, William R. Miner of near Wallowa being the only family relative residing in Oregon. Mr. Miner died some two years ago.

Three thousand head of sheep belonging to J. H. Dobbin were trailed out to the mountain range Friday.
