MARRIAGE OF FORMER YOUNG PEOPLE HERE.

Word has reached Enterprise of the marriage of John M. Wortman jr. and Miss Kathryn Lois Dufur at Kalama, Wash., June 30. Mr. Wortman was formerly a resident here being employed at one time by the E. M. & M. company of this city. Miss Dufur was a teacher in the high school here last year and is well and most favorably known. The happy young people will make their future home at Kelso, Wash. The many friends of the young people wish them all the happiness and prosperity possible, and a long life of mutual helpfulness.

County Superintendent of Schools J. C. Conley returned Tuesday evening from a trip to Pennsylvania where he accompanied his family. Mrs. Conley and the children will remain for one or two months visiting relatives and friends.

SOME OF THE SPECIAL PRIZES

FAIR COMMITTEE "ON THE JOB" WITH A VIM AND MANY RESPOND.

That the fair committee is strictly "on the job," and that practically the whole county is responding to the hard work and excellent soliciting that is being done, is patent to any one who will call at A. C. Miller's office and hear the people talk fair. The special cash premiums that are being offered by many will open the eyes of the contestants wide. Just to mention one or two at this time, the following will be of interest:

Jay Dobbin and neighbors will give a cash prize of $35.00 to the contestant who harnesses and hitches to a wagon a four-horse team the quickest and with the nearest dispatch. Everything by way of neatness will enter into the winning of the premium. That is, the buckles must be all properly buckled, the lines and various straps untwisted, and everything about the act complete and neat.

W. C. Dorrance will offer a cash prize of $25.00 to the girl under 18 years who will bake the best pan of biscuits, and do it the quickest. The mixing of the dough and putting the biscuits in the pan and the baking of them, must be done on the ground, in full view of the spectators. This is an excellent prize and the fact that it will be competed for on the fairgrounds before all who care to see it, adds to the general interest. Moreover it gives the girls of Wallowa county under 18 years an opportunity to win $25.00 cash.

Our up-to-date creamery man, J. W. Bickford, will give a cash prize of $25.00 for the best milk cow on the ground. The cow is to be milked on the fair grounds and the milk tested there, and the percentage of butter fat there obtained. This will interest every dairyman in the county.

Scores of other special prizes will be given for scores of other attractions. These special prizes will be given to the readers of this paper from time to time. Watch for them. Every one will be an opportunity for some one in the county to win a big handful of money.

TROY.
Troy, July 2—Seven loads of bridge material have been hauled to Troy and three more are expected today.

R. M. Martin with his crew have finished the work on the Troy hill. They did good work and the road is in better condition than it has been for a long time.

L. S. Kelly of Eden made a trip to Flora last Saturday.

A band of 3200 sheep, on their way to summer range, crossed the ferry at Troy last week. Another containing 4400 crossed last Tuesday.

The Eden wagon road is completed to Troy. It is a vast improvement over the old way of packing everything on horses. The Eden people deserve credit for their perseverance in accomplishing such a task with so little outside help.

Frank Peterson took a load of fat hogs to Elgin this week.

Stockbuyer Graham was buying cattle in this vicinity a few days ago.

George Courtney went to Elgin last week for finishing material for his new house which he is building in Eden.

Tommy Wright is visiting at the home of his sister Mrs. Edward Renfrow on Lower Lost Prairie.

Mrs. George Lightie visited the fore part of the week with her daughter Mrs. John Holloway near Flora.

New Town Plat Is Now Accepted

The struggle over the new town-site at Lostine has resulted in the platting of a new town, to be known as Evans, near the O. R. & N. station there. The plat was presented to the county court, and accepted. The county clerk was ordered to record the plat.

Considerable effort has been expended, pro and con, over the matter by Lostine residents. Just what effect, if any, the new town of Evans will have upon the city of Lostine, remains to be seen, although to the casual observer the most logical outcome will be the growing together of the two places. Anything that aids in the settlement of the one will aid in the settlement of the other.

ROAD MATTERS ARE HEARD

JOHN ANTHONY ROAD STILL HEDGED BY CONTENDING INTERESTS.

The most important matters up before the county court this week, at least so far as many of the ranchers are concerned, were those pertaining to the several new roadways that have been projected. Among these the O. F. Mays road at Lostine was ordered opened. The E. H. Tukey road near Wallowa was ordered opened. The G. F. Lindley road at Flora was ordered opened.

John Anthony Road.
The John Anthony road is still in the shoes of its struggle. The gist of the matter is that the ranchers wish the road opened while the Palmer Lumber company make the claim that opening the road will injure their lumber property to the extent of some $6,000. Up for hearing before the county court, the lumber company's interests were represented by Attorney Jno. S. Hodgins of La Grande and the ranchers' interests were maintained by Attorney D. W. Sheahan of this city. The viewers' report was accepted and the final order relating to the road was continued.

The John McDonald road near Wallowa was also heard. The viewers' report was accepted and the final order continued.

RANCHERS TAP SILVER CREEK FOR WATER.

W. C. Murray has just returned from a trip over the mountains where he and some of his neighboring ranchers on the Slope have surveyed a water way from Silver Creek, through a canyon to this side of the range. The object will be to tap Silver Creek and put the water on this side for irrigating purposes. Mr. Murray found that the matter could readily be effected, and work was begun, as stated, the survey having been made.

WHAT SOCIALISMS IS.

Socialism is misrepresented, just as every new idea is misrepresented. Things that are false are told about it, sometimes with the knowledge that they are false, sometimes in the belief that they are true. A brief statement of what Socialism is may be in order.

Socialism is a plan to set aside the robbery of the worker through profit, interest and rent, and to insure him employment at all times and the full social product of his toil. It is proposed to accomplish this by placing the highly developed tools of production and distribution—too large and expensive to be longer owned and operated as individuals—under collective ownership and democratic control. This would at once place the whole people, who would own these things, in possession of what they produced, without the intervention of an owner or boss, and enable them to retain all they might produce. This is all there is to Socialism. It has no secrets. It is not a system of laws which it wishes to impose on others, but a plan, a method, through which it would give the working people control of their own lives. It is nothing more than the extension of the American principle of democracy, a further socializing of things, begun when roads, schools, postoffices and like things were socialized. It is socialization of industry, and no more to be feared, no more difficult of understanding, than are the socialized or common schools.

Socialism is not opposed to private property. Indeed, its whole aim is to make it so that all people may have private property, rather than only a few millionaires as at present.

Socialism is not un-American. It is merely an extension of the principles set forth by the revolutionary forefathers. The American movement is, as has been found by careful census, composed of more than 60 per cent native Americans. Socialism is not a scheme depending entirely on agitation for success. It is the growth of an idea. As proof of that fact, it is world wide. Socialism, on essential points, is the same all over the world. Socialism is not narrow. The fact that it includes all races and all beliefs proves this. It expects to win the world, and it could not do this and would not deserve to do it, if it had designs on censoring the beliefs, or peculiar mannerisms, or ways of thought, of anyone. It wishes only to end exploitation and secure a higher and juster civilization.

Socialism is opposed to dividing Socialism is not opposed to the American flag. American Socialists use the flag. They use the red flag also as an international symbol. The stars and stripes would not do in England or Germany, but the red flag, representative of universal brotherhood, can be used anywhere. The red flag is not the symbol of anarchy. Anarchists use the black flag.

Socialism is not anarchy. It is the opposite of it. Anarchy believes in no government. Socialists believe in further organization, a perfected up. The workers now divide up with the owners of the machine, and Socialism would stop this outrage. Socialism is the friend of the home. Under capitalism twofifths of the people are renters, and another fifth own homes under incumbrance. Socialism will make it possible for all to own good comfortable homes, free of debt.

Socialism is a friend to religion. At present so-called "Christendom" is an armed camp, where poverty and crime are visible everywhere. Socialism will end war and poverty and establish full religious tolerance. Under these conditions religion could thrive as it can not now.

Socialism is a friend to marriage. Under the present conditions thousands of girls are betrayed into white slavery for the profit of it, and other thousands forced to prostitution by economic necessity. Many men and women are unable to marry, and many who do marry are unable to raise their children as they should be raised. When Socialism insures to each worker employment at all times and the full product of his toil, there will be no more forcing of women to prostitution, no more slum life, no more fear of getting married because of poverty. Then marriage can occur and every family will be safe.

Mrs. G. W. Franklin of this city has been selected by the public school board to teach one of the new rooms that is to be added to the public school this fall. Mrs. Franklin's many friends wish her every degree of success in her work, a work that she is well fitted to do both by her education and experience.

NOTICE.
To the party who borrowed the five tooth cultivator from Will Zurcher's barn in Enterprise. Please return the same at once.
20b1 H. Best, Owner.

Dr. Hockett reports a girl baby at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Oral Beecher, Saturday.

J. C. Carter, the rancher who slew the bear last Monday, kindly remembered this office with a generous portion of "bar meat" Friday morning. Having eaten "bar meat" we can pronounce it good and at the same time express a deep desire that Mr. Carter gets another one.

E. A. Thatcher and wife are visiting with the families of County Treasurer Bell and County Clerk Boatman. Mr. Thatcher is a brother of Mrs. Bell, and has for twenty five years been head of the commissary department at the state hospital for the insane at Salem. Mr. and Mrs. Thatcher will remain here a fortnight.

W. H. Durham recently arrived from Washington, has purchased the jewelry stock of Martin Larsen and Co., as will be seen by his announcement elsewhere. Mr. Durham will add to the stock and introduce guaranteed gold and silver plating besides general jewelry repair work. The people of Enterprise, while desiring to see Mr. Larsen withdraw from the business, will welcome Mr. Durham warmly and make him feel at home from the start.
