DR. CRIPPEN AND COMPANION IN TOILS

Arrested as Steamer Lands for Alleged Murder of His Wife. No Confession Obtained.

FATHER POINT, Quebec.—Doctor Hawley Harvey Crippen and Ethel Claire Leneve, his stenographer, who fled from London after the disappearance of Belle Elmore, the doctor's wife, were arrested here Sunday aboard the Canadian Pacific liner Montrose, at the command of Inspector Dew, of Scotland Yard.

The identification of the long-sought fugitives by the detectives on the English steamer which had raced across the Atlantic ahead of the Montrose, marked the culmination of one of the most sensational flights in recent criminal annals.

Girl Sobs Hysterically.

Accompanied by Canadian officers, Dew boarded the vessel, and 15 minutes later both man and girl were locked in their staterooms, Crippen, broken in spirit but mentally relieved by the relaxed tension; the girl, garbed in boy's clothes, sobbing hysterically. They were no longer "Rev. John Robinson and son," as booked from Antwerp on July 20. After brief delay, the Montrose continued her 160-mile journey up the river towards Quebec, where the jail awaited the pair. Crippen is charged with the murder of an unknown woman, believed to have been his actress wife, Belle Elmore. The girl is held as an accessory. In charge of Inspector Dew they will be taken back to England for trial, on the Royal line steamship Royal George, leaving Quebec on Thursday.

MUCH VALUABLE LAND WITHDRAWN IN WEST

WASHINGTON, D. C.—Nearly 300,000,000 acres of public land, the cream of the West, is now withdrawn from entry. Some of it is permanently withdrawn, as, for instance, the forest reserves, National parks, etc., and other portions may in time be again placed within the reach of the people of the West.

There remains of the public domain only about 700,000,000 acres that is unappropriated and unreserved, and a very small percentage of this residue is attractive or will ever be attractive to settlers. Included in this acreage are the bad lands of the West, the irreclaimable deserts, barren mountain summits and worthless mountain country. Only a small portion is arable, and very little is of a character that will permit of agricultural development. The best lands have not passed to private ownership are now held up by the government.

Wending Captured After Long Chase

SAN FRANCISCO.—Joseph Wending, former janitor of St. John's church of Louisville, Ky., and the man who is charged with the murder of little 8-year-old Alma Kellner, niece of one of the richest men of Louisville, is under arrest here. Wending admitted his identity but protests his innocence of the crime.

OTTAWA, Ont.—Balked of his lifelong ambition to make a voyage to the North Pole, Captain Bernier, who sailed for the Polar regions from Quebec recently, on the government steamer Arctic, under sealed orders, has evidently been placated by a commission from the Canadian government to essay the Northwest Passage. Whether or not, however, Captain Bernier succeeds in forcing the Northwest Passage, his instructions are to plant the British flag and assert Canadian sovereignty over Arctic lands that he may visit in the course of his expedition.

Many Negroes Killed.

PALASTINE, Texas.—Twenty-three negroes and four white men were killed in a race riot between Elkhart and Slocum, 15 miles south of here, according to advices received from the scene of the battle.

CHARLTON MAY NOT BE TAKEN TO ITALY

WASHINGTON.—Porter Charlton, confessed murderer of his wife, whose body was taken from Lake Como, Italy, may go forth, a free man, from Jersey City jail. The Italian government has made no formal demand for the extradition of Charlton, and in the opinion of authorities on international law, unless such a demand is made by the authorities, the Federal officers must order Charlton's release. It has been generally concluded that Italy hesitates to demand Charlton's extradition, owing to her policy of refusing to extradite criminals to the United States, when they have taken refuge in Italy.

ALFONSO OF SPAIN FACES REVOLUTION

Conflicting Forces May Cause Boy Monarch to Lose His Throne.

MADRID.—Alfonso of Spain is caught between conflicting forces, each of which seems bent on removing him from his throne. Between the three, it is evident to students of Spanish affairs that the boy monarch will probably have to fight his way out through the most critical strife of his eventful career.

The diplomatic battle with the Vatican has assumed the greatest importance, but the threats of the Carlists, headed by Don Jaime, the pretender, and the armed uprising of the thousands of Spanish exiles along the French border, aided by the general strike being preached all over Spain, have won thousands of adherents who today join forces in a contest with Alfonso, with the throne of Spain as the stake.

Excitement in the capital and throughout Spain is intense over the conflict with the Vatican, which came to a climax when the decision of Premier Canalejas to recall the Spanish ambassador to the Vatican was announced.

The clerical element, which has often before won similar battles in Spain, shows no hesitation in entering upon the conflict and seems to have set its aim, not upon minor concessions and a compromise acceptable to the Holy See, but upon the downfall of Canalejas and his cabinet and the cancellation of the entire programme of reform. The withdrawal of the imperial decree permitting non-Catholic organizations to display the insignia of house worship, which furnishes the ostensible cause of diplomatic relations, assumes secondary importance.

CORNER IN WHEAT ESCAPES A SQUEEZE

CHICAGO.—The great wheat battle of July, 1910, closed with Thomas H. Waterman, the new king of the pit, in the saddle. The "corner" closed without any squeezing of the shorts, which is a most unprecedented way for a well-regulated corner to act, especially when a new monarch is assuming control.

The main reason for the falling of the corner and the escape of many shorts from the promised squeezing is that the Chicago board of trade permitted Waterman and his associates to learn that no squeezing of the shorts would be tolerated and that the creation of an artificially high price on the closing day of the option would result in some one being suspended from membership.

The closing prices of the July option were $1.05 and $1.05 1/2. September wheat closed at $1.93 1/2 and $1.93 1/2.

Strike May Tie Up Road.

CHICO, Cal.—The entire system of the Northern Electric Railway will be tied up by a strike, if efforts now on foot succeed. This prevents the completion of the double-track work under way in Sacramento.

There are to be some unique features in a monster suffrage parade which is to take place in New York City in October as the opening gun of the suffragists fall campaign. ### Assessment Matter of Law.

SALEM.—In defense of the request made by the tax commission for a closer assessment by county assessors of mortgage notes, Commissioner Charles Galloway dictated a long interview for the newspapers, in which he reaffirms the former request and makes it clear that the commission expects assessors to use their utmost efforts to reach debts on account, note, contract or mortgage. The interview is given with the object of correcting some misunderstandings that he fears may have arisen as result of the recent discussion of the feasibility of taxing mortgage notes in the public press.

REALTY FRAUDS ALLEGED

Realty Frauds Alleged.

SALEM.—Attorney-General A. M. Crawford has directed a letter to District Attorney Cameron, of Multnomah county, calling his attention to the townsite of Hillman in Crook county and suggesting that the subject might be worthy an official investigation.

He said that the town is platted on a rockpile in a desert near where one of the proposed lines of railroad is surveyed. He says there are no houses there, or any other buildings, although the advertising matter shows banks, hotels and buildings on the town plat. For a while, he says, there was one tent on the land.

He was requested by the county officials to call Cameron's attention to the conditions and if possible bring the parties causing the alleged fraud into the courts. The land is practically valueless, he asserts, for any purpose whatever and is so situated that no one will ever become an inhabitant there. He incloses a photograph of the place showing the solitary tent and also some advertising matter.

Sampson, who is employed in classifying lands in the national forests for the government, with a view of determining the acidity of the soil and the proper grasses to sow for producing the best crop of forage, has returned from Washington. Extensive experiments were made last year with bluegrass, timothy and redtop. The timothy and bluegrass did well for a few weeks, when the roots struck a stratum of acid soil about two inches in depth. The roots curled up in a mass and the growth was retarded greatly until the latter part of August, when this stratum was penetrated and the roots shot rapidly downward, producing a fine growth in such plants as had survived the season.
