Different Methods.

By violence and with slaughter;
And some men find an easier way
By wedding a banker's daughter.

His Idea of It.

Here the locomotive fireman spoke up. "It makes me tired," he said, "to hear the bosses talk about killing off the smoke nuisance by 'intelligent firing.' If I was running things I'd do a little intelligent firing myself. You can bet your life on that. I'd fire some of the bosses."

Nathan Straus, an eastern philanthropist, has established in New York City a series of milk booths where pure sterilized milk is sold to the poor for one cent a bottle. Absolute antiseptic cleanliness is required by him in all branches of the enterprise. In cleansing the milk bottles he uses two things—hot water and BORAX. The glistening bottles testify to the effectiveness of this method.

Advice.

"So you are anxious to go into public life," said the influential man. "Yes. How would you advise me to go about it?"

"Well," if you are personally ambitious I should suggest politics. If your wife is socially ambitious I should suggest diplomacy."—Washington Star.

Old Favorites

"Rodney's Ride."

In that soft mid-land where the breezes bear
The North and the South on the genial air,
Through the County of Kent on affairs of State
Rode Caesar Rodney, the Delegate.

Burly and big and bold and bluff,
In his three-cornered hat and his coat of buff,
A foe to King George and the English state
Was Caesar Rodney, the Delegate.

Into Dover Village he rode apace,
And his kinsfolk knew, from his anxious face,
It was matter grave that had brought him there,
To the counties three, upon the Delaware.

"Money and men we must have," he said,
"Or the Congress fails and our cause is dead;
Give us both, and the king shall not work his will—
We are Men since the blood of Bunker Hill!"

Come a rider swift on a panting bay;
"Hollo, Rodney, hol! you must save the day,
For the Congress halts at a deed so great,
And your vote alone may decide its fate!"

Answered Rodney then: "I will ride with speed;
It is Liberty's stress, it is Freedom's need.
When stands it?" "To-night; not a moment spare,
But ride like the wind from the Delaware."

"Ho, saddle the black! I've but half a day,
And the Congress sits eighty miles away,
But I'll be in time, if God grants me grace,
To shake my fist in King George's face."

He is up; he is off! And the black horse flies
On the northward road ere the "God-speed" dies.
It is a gallop and spur, as the leagues they clear,
And the clustering milestones move a-rear.

It is two of the clock; and the fleet hoofs ring
The fields; and the dust with a clang and cling.
It is three; and he gallops with slack rein where
The road winds down to the Delaware.

Four; and he spurs into Newcastle town.
From his panting steed he gets him down—
"A fresh one, quick; not a moment wait!"
And off speeds Rodney, the Delegate.

It is five; and the beams of the western sun
Tinge the spires of Wilmington gold and dun;
Six; and the dust of the Chester street
Flies back in a cloud from his courser's feet.

It is seven; the horseboat, broad of beam,
At the Schuylkill ferry crawls over the stream—
And at seven-fifteen by the Rittenhouse clock
He flings his rein to the tavern Jack.

The Congress is met; the debate's begun,
And Liberty lags for the vote of one—
When into the hall, not a moment late,
Walks Caesar Rodney, the Delegate.

Not a moment late, and that half-day's ride
Forwards the world with a mighty stride;
For the Act was passed ere the midnight stroke
O'er the Quaker City its echoes woke.

At Tyranny's feet was the gauntlet flung;
"We are free!" all the bells through the colonies rung.
And the sons of the free may recall with pride
The day of Delegate Rodney's ride.

Curious Place Names.

Chicago is an Indian word, meaning wild onion or skunk weed. Chesapeake is also Indian and is variously interpreted as highly salted water, great waters or country on a great river. Chautauqua is also an Indian word and has had several interpretations, as a foggy place, a bag tied in the middle (referring to the shape of the lake), a place where a child was washed away, where the fish are taken out, place of easy death or, finally, place where one was lost. Des Moines is usually supposed to refer only to the Trappist monks, and it is also connected with an Indian word meaning the road. Niagara is an Indian word, signifying across the strait or at the neck. Shenandoah is Indian and means the spruce stream or a river flowing alongside of high hills. Massachusetts means near the great hills or the hill shaped like an arrowhead or, again, the blue hills. Mississippi means great water or gathering in of all the waters or an almost endless river spread out.—Leslie's Weekly.

Tiger Cat Fireman's Mascot.

Although firemen's mascots and pets are not uncommon, the men at the central station in Manchester, N. H., have one that is unusual. It is a large tiger cat which has so overcome the usual feline aversions as to ride to the fires on the apparatus with apparent enjoyment.

The greatest pity in the world is when two friends who have been useful and agreeable to each other quarrel.

For the Children

To succeed these days you must have plenty of grit, courage, strength. How is it with the children? Are they thin, pale, delicate? Do not forget Ayer's Sarsaparilla. You know it makes the blood pure and rich, and builds up the general health in every way.

The children cannot possibly have good health unless the bowels are in proper condition. A sluggish liver gives a coated tongue, bad breath, constipated bowels. Correct all these by giving small laxative doses of Ayer's Pills. All vegetable, sugar-coated.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving to a patient strength by building up the constitution and restoring to the system its natural vigor. PHOTO TEA A LONDON FAD.

Guests Asked to Identify Pictures of Friends Taken in Childhood. London society has a new craze, called the "photo tea," which has caught on because it is productive of so much genuine amusement, says the New York American. Each guest who receives an invitation is requested to bring a photograph of himself or herself taken before the age of five. All the photographs are duly numbered, and a list of names is kept by the hostess. After being collected and shuffled they are distributed among the players.

The fun consists in endeavoring to trace the originals of portraits. So many minutes are permitted for observation, and then the number of the photograph and the guess at its identity are written on a sheet of note paper. The pictures are then passed on from one to another, and the same program is gone through with the new observer. The result of the second observation is also recorded.

This goes on until every photograph has passed through the hands of each guest. The lists are then inscribed with the players' names and are collected. The player who is successful in fixing the identity in most cases receives the first prize, and the second and third prizes go to the "nexts" in the number of accurate guesses.

The sight of a perplexed player staring fixedly at each guest until he can make up his mind who was the plump boy in the velvet knickerbockers or the chubby-cheeked girl in pinafores and plaits is funny. One need not be much of a prophet to prognosticate the speedy appearance of the game in the United States.

WIT OF THE YOUNGSTERS.

Teacher—Now, Harold, can you tell me what wisdom is? Small Harold—Yes, ma'am. It's information of the brain.

Mamma—Why did you eat the whole of that pie in the pantry, Willie? Little Willie—Cause you told me once never to do things by halves.

Sunday School Teacher—Freddy, do you remember the precept about sparing the rod? Small Freddy—Yes, ma'am. Spare the rod and lose the fish.

"Willie," said his mother, "I wish you would run across the street and see how old Mrs. Brown is this morning." A few minutes later Willie returned and reported: "Mrs. Brown says it's none of your business how old she is."

Little Margie had been to the dentist's to have a tooth extracted and this is how she explained the proceedings: "The man grabbed hold with a pair of big tongs and pulled his best, and just before it killed me the tooth came out."

Elmer wanted to go in swimming. "But," protested the father, "I'm afraid it will not be good for you, Elmer. Only this morning you complained of a pain in your stomach." "That's all right, papa," the boy replied, "I know how to swim on my back."

"Now, Harry," said a lady to a small guest after dinner, "wouldn't you like to take some of the plum pudding home to your little sister?" "No, thank you," replied Harry, who had improved his opportunity, "I've got about all I can carry now."

"Mamma," said 5-year-old Elmer, who was tired of staying in the house, "come out in the back yard and play a game of football with me." "I can't play, dear," replied the mother. "Huh!" exclaimed the little fellow, scornfully. "That's what comes of having a woman for a mother."

Washington Monument. The towering Washington monument, solid as it is, cannot resist the heat of the sun poured on its southern side on a midsummer's day without a slight bending of the gigantic shaft, which is rendered perceptible by means of a copper wire 174 feet long hanging in the center of the structure and carrying a plummet suspended in a vessel of water.

A Universal Inclination. "I see that they are starting out again to discover the north pole," said Mrs. Cornstossel.

"Yes," answered the farmer. "I wonder how it'll seem when the pole is actually reached."

"Oh, I suppose it'll be the same as it is anywhere else. They'll put in about two-thirds of their time complaining about the climate."—Washington Star.

A Kind Word. "So you don't share the general indignation toward the railways?" "No," answered Farmer Cornstossel; "I have always felt that a locomotive was entitled to a great deal of credit for sticking to the track instead of smothering up and down the country roads like an automobile."—Washington Star.

The Only Hope. "Of course," said Popley, "she's not a pretty baby now. Our only hope is that as she gets older she'll grow handsomer."

"Yes, I guess there's nothing for you to do but believe in 'age before beauty.'"—Philadelphia Press.

RHEUMATISM CAN NOT BE RUBBED AWAY

It is perfectly natural to rub the spot that hurts, and when the muscles, nerves, joints and bones are throbbing and twitching with the pains of Rheumatism the sufferer is apt to turn to the liniment bottle, or some other external application, in an effort to get relief from the disease, by producing counter-irritation on the flesh. Such treatment will quiet the pain temporarily, but can have no direct curative effect on the real disease because it does not reach the blood, where the cause is located. Rheumatism is more than skin deep—it is rooted and grounded in the blood and can only be reached by constitutional treatment—IT CANNOT BE RUBBED AWAY. Rheumatism is due to an excess of uric acid in the blood, brought about by the accumulation in the system of refuse matter which the natural avenues of bodily waste, the Bowels and Kidneys, have failed to carry off. This refuse matter, coming in contact with the different acids of the body, forms uric acid which is absorbed into the blood and distributed to all parts of the body, and Rheumatism gets possession of the system. The aches and pains are only symptoms, and though they may be scattered or relieved for a time by surface treatment, they will reappear at the first exposure to cold or dampness, or after an attack of indigestion or other irregularity. Rheumatism can never be permanently cured while the circulation remains saturated with irritating, pain-producing uric acid poison. The disease will shift from muscle to muscle or joint to joint, settling on the nerves, causing inflammation and swelling and such terrible pains that the nervous system is often shattered, the health undermined, and perhaps the patient becomes deformed and crippled for life. S. S. S. thoroughly cleanses the blood and renovates the circulation by neutralizing the acids and expelling all foreign matter from the system. It warms and invigorates the blood so that instead of a weak, sour stream, constantly depositing acid and corrosive matter in the muscles, nerves, joints and bones, the body is fed and nourished by rich, health-sustaining blood which completely and permanently cures Rheumatism. S. S. S. is composed of both purifying and tonic properties—just what is needed in every case of Rheumatism. It contains no potash, alkali or other mineral ingredient, but is made entirely of purifying, healing extracts and juices of roots, herbs and barks. If you are suffering from Rheumatism do not waste valuable time trying to rub a blood disease away, but begin the use of S. S. S. and write us about your case and our physicians will give you any information or advice desired free of charge and will send our special treatise on Rheumatism.
