The shut-down of railroad construction work is felt by the merchants here in the decreased sale of supplies for the construction camps. The Greeks from the camp on Shear's place spent a good share of their final pay checks in Enterprise, Saturday, for clothing and other win or necessities.

Diamond W Coffee, the finest flavored. Sold at the E. M. & M. Co.

E. B. Wheat, a well known rancher on the Little Salmon, brought a load of vegetables to Enterprise last Thursday, and took back a load of supplies. This was his last trip of the season. Mr. Holding says the people of the Grouse and Eden countries are very much pleased with the action of the court in ordering a bridge built across the Little Salmon, and a big celebration will mark its completion.

The furniture for the lodge rooms in the Fraternal building arrived Sunday. It is of very handsome design and finish and would have cost close to $1250 at retail but of course the building company got it for much less as it was bought through Fred Ashley who furnished it at cost and a small commission for handling. The furniture came from Portland in record time. It was billed out on October 30 and was received in Enterprise on November 3.

Rodgers Bros. have put in a cobbler shop in the rear of their store.

Engineer R. I. Long, who was in charge of railroad construction work in the upper valley, was laid off along with the general discharge of employees last week. Mr. Long left Monday for Spokane on private business, but will return in a few weeks and make Enterprise his home.

Windows, Doors, Roofing and Builders Hardware, complete lines and lowest prices at Hartshorn & Keltner's.

C. P. Bagdale and family of Mora arrived at Enterprise last week as stated in the News Record. With them came Mr. and Mrs. Donnelly who will live on the Caviness ranch purchased by Mr. Bagdale. They brought all their household goods and a large number of live stock, including several thousand head of sheep.

Eddie Austin of Flora was hurt while trying to stop a runaway team at Lincoln Austin's place in the Star district, Thursday of last week. The team started to run while he was closing a gate. He grabbed the bridle of one horse, but was flung violently to the ground. Both bones of one leg below the knee were broken. The team was some injured and the wagon badly broken.

The carpenter and plastering work on the second floor of the Fraternal building is complete and the rooms ready for the painters. J. B. Seibert is painting the room to be occupied by the R. S. & Z. store, and Mr. Allen is making fine progress with the shelving, drawers and other fixtures. The doors and windows are at Elgin and teams have been sent for them.

Several citizens drove out Monday and viewed the proposed change in the Seat flat road through the Bookout place. The improvement on the north end of that road has been completed as far south as W. F. Rankin's place.

Contractor Haworth reports good progress on the high school building. The mason work is practically completed, the flies and stack now being erected. The roof is nearly finished and the interior carpenter work well along. Rooms for the school will be ready by January 1.

No session of the city council was held Monday night owing to the legal holidays declared by Governor Chamberlain. At a meeting called for next Monday night a petition will be presented asking for the closing of Greenwood street from School street east, in order to provide spacious grounds around the new county high school. The Home Independent Telephone company will ask for a new franchise, as the one granted to F. I. Vergere was for 30 years whereas the city charter limits franchises to 10 years.

Busy Day And Night.

The E. M. & M. Co's. mill runs until 12 o'clock every night and still cannot keep up with the orders for flour. Everybody is praising the Enterprise flour and farmers are coming all over the country with their wheat. The entire north country, seemingly, is coming to mill at Enterprise this fall and the big bank house is much appreciated by those from a distance. The machinery and expert miller combine to turn out the highest grade of product.

Market on grain remains unchanged—wheat 90c bu., oats 51 per cwt., rye 90c cwt., barley 85c cwt.

Lostine May Enter County Seat Race

There has been considerable quiet talk lately among the residents of Lostine and vicinity about making a try to have the county seat located at this place in the event of the removal agitators being successful in bringing the matter to a vote at the next June election.

This place is not only near the geographical center of the county, but is also much nearer the center of population than either Enterprise or Wallowa. The roads leading to Lostine from all directions are of the best in the county, and are roads over which heavy loads can be hauled at any season of the year.

Residents of the county and travelers from a distance all agree that we have the most beautiful town site in the county: We are neither built on an alkali bed like Enterprise nor wedged into a crevice in the rocks like Wallowa, but are in the midst of one of the most beautiful and fertile spots in the county, if not in the whole state. The residents of the northern part of the county can reach this town by roads which are shorter and better than those leading to either the present county seat or the would-be county seat down in the corner.

In the event of this town entering the race next June it will get the support of almost every voter in the northern part of the county, which with the voters of the Leap country
