Bauer Recovers His Team.
The bay team of workhorses owned by Jacob Bauer of the Enterprise Hotel, which have been missing for over a month, were brought to town Monday night and turned over to the owner by James Moxley who found them between Big and Little Sheep creeks. The horses got out of Bauer's barn lot here October 6 and it was first believed they were stolen. A filly disappeared at the same time but she was found a few days later in a pasture field near town. The team was found near the head of Sheep creek a few weeks ago but broke away when being brought in and have roamed the range until rounded up by Moxley. Mr. Bauer offered a reward of $25 for the horses and $100 for the arrest and conviction of the thief at the time when it was thought the animals had been stolen.

Admires The Scenery.
Hon. Joseph G. Camp, the lecturer, is enthusiastic about Wallowa valley and its surrounding mountains. "The most beautiful country I have ever seen," said Mr. Camp. He took out with him a large number of views of the valleys, mountains and lake, mainly from F. A. Reavis' splendid collection.

PRATT SCHOOL.

The illustrated lecture-sermon given at the school house here Saturday by Rev. M. J. Thompson was a decided success. The pictures were plain and conveyed a graphic description of home life in India, their customs and modes of worship. Appropriate songs were sung with good effect and the entire program was listened to by an attentive audience. This is the second of a series of six lectures. The next will be given about Nov. 20 or 23, and will be on "Life in Darkest Africa."

Boom On at Minam.

Joe Harvey of Minam was at Elgin last week, and told the Recorder man there was a boom on at Minam. There will be quite a town at the bridge some day and no mistake.
