and careful attention that he does to his private business. So it is plain he still has enough to keep an ordinary worker pretty busy, but to his energetic nature it will seem like "being out of a job."
The business career of Mr. Litch has been creditable to him and illustrative of the great resources and opportunities in Wallowa county. With no start a few years ago but brains, hustle and muscle he has built up a big business, added thousands to the wealth of the county, until last year, when as commissioner he voted a tax large enough to pay the county debt, he as a private citizen paid a larger part of that tax than anybody else in the county except two.
Prairie Creek Ranch Sold.
Attorney D. W. Sheahan sold his 160 acre Prairie creek ranch, Saturday, to A. H. Myers for $5000. Mr. Myers resides on an adjoining farm. During the hard times 10 or 11 years ago this ranch was sold for taxes, and like the rest of the rich Prairie creek bottom before the water was brought in was not considered worth much, but is now considered cheap at from $30 to $40 an acre.
State Dairy Association.
The Oregon State Dairy Association will meet in Portland December 12 and 13. The Portland Commercial club offers two gold medals, one for butter and one for cheese. The Portland Flouring Mills offers $100 cash for the best general display. F. L. Kent, Corvallis, is secretary.
