ALDER SLOPE.

Rev. Owen returned Friday from Astoria at which place he had been a guest of his son.

Mrs. Jas. Hays, who has been quite ill, is reported some better at this writing.

Protracted meetings are in session at the church this present week. A welcome awaits every one who can attend.

Miss Louie Wade is spending the week with Mrs. J. P. Rusk of Joseph while Mr. Rusk is busily engaged in preserving the peace and dignity of the state elsewhere.

Chas. Crow was a visitor at the Alder Sunday school last Sunday. Whether he was looking for escaped prisoners or merely making a friendly visit is a matter of conjecture.

A large delegation of Alderites took in the entertainment given by the Jubilee singers and were loud in their praise of the event.

Alder church has recently been beautified by the addition of paint. The entire inside of the building has received attention and now presents as attractive an interior as any of our town churches. The ceiling has been painted, walls calsomined and all wood work brightened by the willing and energetic hands of pastor and people.

Jack London Among the Lepers.

On his way around the world for the Woman's Home Companion Jack London visited the lepers of Molokai, on the island of Hawaii.

"Leprosy is not so contagious as is imagined," writes Mr. London in the January Woman's Home Companion. "I went for a week's visit to the Settlement, and I took my wife along—all of which would not have happened had we had any apprehension of contracting the disease. Nor did we wear long, gauntleted gloves and keep apart from the lepers. On the contrary, we mingled freely with them, and before we left knew scores of them by sight and name. The precautions of simple cleanliness seem to be all that is necessary. On returning to their own houses, after having been among and handling lepers, the non-lepers, such as the physicians and the superintendent, merely wash their faces and hands with mildly antiseptic soap and change their coats."
