FLORA SIFTINGS

Flora, Jan. 26—The literary is growing better as it grows older. A fine program Friday night. The M. W. A. entertainment was a grand hit. About 500 people were present to hear the following program:

Musical address by C. H. Allen, music recitation by Gale Johnson, address by Ike Austin, music recitation by Miss Ethel Dale, banjo music by Etlic Meyers, recitation by E. K. Allen, music, comic recitation by O. C. Moore, recitation by Miss Lelah Cole, music, drill by the M. W. team commanded by T. M. Gilmore, this was very fine; a play of six scenes representing the principles of the M. W. A. was grand. It was written by C. H. Allen and played by the members of the lodge. Of course this was strictly home talent. I wish every woodman could have seen this play. It surely would have made them stronger in the faith. After the play, a very enjoyable treat of candies, nuts and apples were served by the M. W. team, plenty for every one.

O. P. Miller's have visitors from Portland and northern Idaho. The league supper was a success. A good crowd and plenty of well filled boxes.

Mrs. Elmer Moore has the measles. The Christian order is completing their church which will add to church facilities in Flora.

Alfred Holmes, teacher of Arko, after hearing the high school debate at Enterprise, had Arko literary society challenge the Flora school on this question: "Resolved That the Indian has a Greater Right to Complain of Mistreatment by the Government than the Negro has to Complain." Arko has the affirmative and proposed to furnish conveyance for the Flora pupils to Arko, the place of lutechery. This debate will take place on Saturday evening, February 7. The people of the North country are looking forward to a good time that night and they will have it.

ARKO.

Arko, Jan. 35—We never like to make a noise until we have a good reason but now think we have one. So don't be surprised when you hear

GROUSE.

Grouse, Jan. 19—Changeable weather, rain, snow, ice and mud; disagreeable for outdoor work. It is reported that Fridles Bros. have sold their saw mill and everything belonging to it to John M. Silver. Hope all parties may be benefited by the transaction. Have not learned the consideration.

Gus Smith has moved to the Frank Patterson farm near Bartlett and six others of our citizens will move in the near future; as they have received notices from the U. S. department of agriculture forest reserve; that the inspector reported their claims more profitable for the timber than for agricultural purposes. That seems unfair as some of the parties have been living on their claims three or four years and Gus Smith's place was on surveyed land and filed on two years ago; and his place is surrounded by deeded lands; he and two others were allowed to hold 40 each, and one ten acres, leaving three without any. They will all abandon their claims and embark for other parts unknown at this time.

We don't object to a forest reserve if it would not infringe on the rights of poor men who have no homes and are desirous of locating themselves so as to feel as if they were free and independent. Several of them have families to support and they are turned off with dependent families without any means of support.

It is true the land which they located on is in the timber. Yet the soil is fine and would produce the finest of crops as soon as the timber is removed. The reserve has greatly crippled the progress and development of this part of Wallowa county, driving a number of good citizens from our midst by crippling our schools, churches, etc.

The school at Fairview is progressing nicely with Mrs. Minnie Macaulay as teacher.

Eli Smith and wife have dissolved partnership, divided property and each is backing on his or her own premises perfectly satisfied.

Roy Smith is shaving shingles to cover his new house. Look out, girls, you may miss an excellent opportunity for a wise man and a good home.

The News Record is the paper in which to announce your candidacy for office. It reaches a greater number of voters than any other paper in the county, and being independent in politics it is taken by Republicans and Democrats alike. Prices the same to every citizen and a square deal to all.

from Arko. Mrs. O. A. Shuman has been on the sick list this week but is now improving.

Everybody was agreeably surprised at the outcome of the high school debate. When they heard there was one or two who went from the north end, they said if they had known it they would have gone too.

There were several from Arko who attended the leap year basket social of the Epworth League at Flora, Wednesday night. Some of the boys took baskets. It was real fun to watch the ladies buy the baskets. The proceeds were something over $10.

The pupils of Arko are talking of giving a play in the near future. They have gone so far as to order a few samples. I hope it will be a success.

I am pleased to announce that the Oliver children are improving and hope they will be able to return to school in a few days.

Arko school was favored with a visitor Wednesday—Miss Florence Yager, who contemplates entering the eighth grade class.

What is the matter with our division manager. We have not heard the least thing about his arrangements for the declamatory contest.

Morning News, Paris, Texas.—"At one o'clock Mr. Zwickley delivered his lecture, 'The Philosophy of the Beautiful.' The artist is a most brilliant talker as well as being clever with the crayon, and his entertainment last night will be remembered as one of the best on the entire Chautauqua program. He will lecture again this afternoon, and if you want to see a single attraction that is worth the trip to Warlick Park and the price of admission to the Chautauqua by itself, go out and see him."—At Enterprise opera house Thursday night, February 6.
