WM. M. RAMSEY.

Notes From The Political Field

Lewis J. Davis of Union is a new candidate for the Republican nomination for circuit judge. He is a brother to ex-Register E. W. Davis, who is out for sheriff in Union county.

The petition of A. C. Smith for the Democratic nomination for justice of the peace in Enterprise precinct, is on file in the clerk's office.

Up to Tuesday noon 211 voters had registered in Enterprise precinct and over 1200 in the county. The total registration in Enterprise is expected to reach 725. This is computed on the same basis as Morelock's Wallowa estimate.

F. M. Ghormley of Promise has now come out as an "independent" candidate for school superintendent. He started out first on the Republican pathway, but re-considered the matter after a little heart-to-heart talk with a certain Wallowa wise man, so 'tis said.

port Statement No. 1, and conscientiously believes it to be for the betterment of Oregon politics. Mr. Eberhard should receive the united support of the Republican voters of the two counties at the primary election. Aside from accepting Statement No. 1, he is a young man of excellent reputation and ability and will represent the two counties in an able manner.

Lee Tuttle for Representative.

From La Grande Star.

The friends of Lee B. Tuttle, editor of the Elgin Recorder, are urging him to accept the nomination for the office of representative for Union county. If Mr. Tuttle accepts it may be set down as a clear case of the "office seeking the man," as Mr. Tuttle would not for an instant make a fight for the place, and in fact would not countenance such a thing as an acceptance of the nomination unless urged to do so. From the best information the Star can secure on the subject this demand is likely to be made, as Mr. Tuttle is considered an ideal man for the place, and his stand on Statement No. 1 is open and without equivocation.
