Wm. Campbell, the well known mining man of Snake river, was in Enterprise Saturday and Sunday on business for the Electrolytic company, of which he is superintendent.
Every incoming stage is loaded with sheep shearers and their outfits. Extras were run Monday and Tuesday to accommodate the heavy travel. A number of Mexicans arrived the latter part of last week.
Leonard A. Bolding, who has made his home in the upper valley for the last nine months, left Tuesday morning for Troy to visit his parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Bolding, who have a fine fruit and vegetable ranch on the banks of the Wenaha river.
Stanley Brothers Wild West Show will give an exhibition of trained saddle horses, bucking bronchos, Mexican rope-spinning and all kinds of cow boy sports and pastimes at the ball grounds Saturday afternoon at 2:30. All bad horses will be ridden free of charge.
Wm. Bookout has bought the east eighty of the Alder Slope farm near the Reavis school house, of J. S. Wagner for $50 an acre. Mr. Wagner bought it of H. C. Laird a few weeks ago, and later Bookout bought the west eighty of Laird. Mr. Bookout now has as fine 160 acres as any man could wish.
Rev. Seldon C. Adams of Kalida, Ohio, the newly elected pastor of the Enterprise and Joseph Presbyterian churches, is expected to arrive here about June 10, and will preach his first sermon in Enterprise June 14. Mr. Seldon is a young man, married and has two children. The parsonage is being put in order in anticipation of their coming.
Picture framing a speciality at Ashley's.
N. H. Marks, the stone mason, returned from Baker City to vote. He was the Socialist candidate for assessor. Mr. Marks is foreman for the contractor of the Baker County court house. They were just about ready to begin work over there but he told them something important was doing over in Wallowa and came in to help in the good work of settling the county seat question.
Joe Martin is back from Turlock, Calif., for a two weeks stay. He says the season is very backward down there, but the reports that several of the Wallowa county people had lost all their farms through being blown away by high winds, is false. The wind blows fiercely but in streaks. The soil being only sand is of course blown away in these wind streaks, which fortunately are narrow.
Cut out the W. J. Funk & Co. ad. for some boy or girl who is working for the splendid prizes offered by that firm.
One of the pleasant events of the past week was the gathering of the Union Missionary society at the home of Mrs. F. A. DePue to spend a social hour and bid good bye to Mrs. J. S. Cook, who for the past two years has been the president. With vocal and instrumental music, and the serving of dainty refreshments, Mrs. DePue, assisted by Mesdames G. S. Reavis, C. Amey and Daniel Boyd, entertained the guests. As an expression of the kindly feeling and appreciation of Mrs. Cook and her faithful services, Mrs. Dill in a graceful manner presented her with a solid gold engraved brooch. As an officer of the society Mrs. Cook has been an energetic worker. As a friend and neighbor she has endeared herself with the community, and proven a true missionary. The guests parted with her standing on the porch of her friend's home, with her children among the flowers and on the lawn, making a scene long to be remembered.

Broncho riding at ball park at 2:30 Saturday.
Albert Ager and son were out from Waverly on a business trip this week.
Screen doors made to your order at Ashley's.
The fence around the public square was repaired last week by Marshal Cramer and Sol Pace.
Strychnine and poisoned wheat at Burnaugh & Mayfield's. Does the trick for squirrels.
The band is now using the skating rink for its practice, having been granted the free use of the rink through the courtesy of Messrs. Calvin and Zuercher.
An Experienced Nurse offers her services to the people of Enterprise and vicinity. Address Mrs. Emily Spicer, Enterprise, Ore., or leave word at News Record office. 6tf
W. W. White left Wednesday for Portland where he will join Mrs. White and they will enjoy fiesta week in the Rose City. Mrs. White has been visiting in Portland and near Salem for several weeks, with friends and relatives.
M. F. Wheeler, who returned last week from a two months sheep shearing trip in Central Oregon, says there was fine spring weather in April at Arlington, but in May at Shaniko came heavy frosts and freezes that killed all the fruit.
Sam Dorrance is on crutches as the result of a scaffold falling just as he climbed up on it in Joseph one day last week. His right ankle is badly sprained. Mr. Dorrance was doing some masonry work on the rear of the First Bank of Joseph building.
At a meeting of council this, Thursday, night the newly elected mayor, Bryan Mayfield, councilmen, J. W. Bickford and W. H. Graves, recorder, W. E. Taggart, treasurer, C. M. Lockwood, and attorney, T. M. Dill, will be sworn in. It will also be regular monthly meeting of council.
C. H. Allen of Flora came out with Mr. Richman, who brought the Grouse ballot boxes. Mr. Allen was the Republican candidate for assessor and while of course is disappointed at his own defeat he is proud of the support given him in his home districts and feels grateful to his friends over the county who stood faithful to him.
Rev. W. S. Crockett, late of the Christian church at Olympia, Wash., will arrive in Enterprise, Saturday, to assume his duties as pastor of the local Christian church, and will preach his first sermon here the following day. Mr. Crockett is spoken of very highly both as a minister and a man, and he is assured of a cordial welcome to this valley.
The Woman's Home and Foreign Missionary society was invited to meet at the home of Mrs. W. R. Holmes Tuesday, May 26th. They had the regular literary program as usual with the addition of an instrumental solo by Mrs. Wheat and a vocal solo by Miss Jennie Berland. The remainder of the afternoon was passed socially and the ostess served dainty refreshments.
Mr. and Mrs. Shepherd Morgan of the Innaba and her mother, Mrs. Bullock, and the latter's daughter, Mrs. Blackinton, and son, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Morgan of Prairie Creek Tuesday and Wednesday. Mrs. Bullock, hers on, and her daughter, Mrs. Blackinton, have been visiting on the Innaba this winter. They left Thursday morning for their home at Prosser, Wash.
O. J. Stanley of the Stanley Bros. Wild West show, was in town over Monday night making arrangements for his company to give an exhibition in this city Saturday. Mr. Stanley returned to Flora Tuesday to bring the outfit out. He rode the horse that fell with his brother at Flora last Saturday. The accident was seen by many Enterprise people, and all say the boy had a very narrow escape from death.
The ladies of the Presbyterian church were invited to spend the day Friday with Miss Basim at her home on Alder Slope. Despite the cold stormy weather a number drove out and all enjoyed a very happy time. At noon an elaborate dinner was served by Miss Basim and her sister, Mrs. Whitmore, and in the afternoon the hours soon passed with music and songs and the sewing of carpet rags. Those present were Mrs. Elmer Kooch of Alder Slope, Mesdames Forsythe, Ault, Phipps, Maxwell, Ferguson, Knodell, Hyatt and Boyd and Miss Esther Maxwell of Enterprise.
C. W. Stevens, the well known sheepman from the Cottonwood country, came to Enterprise, Monday night, on a business trip. He voted in Paradise precinct before leaving Monday morning. Mr. Stevens reports summer weather on the Cottonwood, and says he would have brought out lettuce, radishes and other garden delicacies but was afraid we would have told about it in the paper. This notice is what he gets for his modesty. Mr. Stevens had good success with his bands and will start shearing soon at Red Fir.
