The Womans' Union Missionary society met at the home of Mrs. F. A.
Clark Tuesday afternoon with a good attendance. The topic for study was Alaska. Leader, Mrs. Daniel Boyd, some very interesting accounts were given of the work of missions among the Alaskan Indians. They responded readily to the Gospel of Christ as to the natives of the more civilize parts of our country. Our former president, Mrs. Cook, remembered the society with some beautiful pink carnations and ferns and requests that each lady at the close of the meeting be given one as a souvenir.

The Clark place with its beautiful trees and streams of water was indeed a lovely spot for a meeting at his time of the year. With the serving of dainty refreshments a very pleasant afternoon was passed.

The Streeter-Bryan company plays a good house Saturday evening while the "Flaming Million" is no so strong a play as the two preceding, the acting of the company was exceptionally good and the production regarded by many as the best yet given here. The singing spectacles by Morrie Streeter and Blanche Bryan were received with applause.
On next Saturday evening the company will give an especially fine vaudeville performance. New and interesting moving pictures, music, vocal and instrumental, new specialties and "The Girl from the West" will be on the program. This promises to be a most entertaining evening and a fitting windup to the glorious Fourth.
