WILL START COURT HOUSE THIS FALL

FOUNDATION TO BE PUT IN THIS SEASON—MONEY ON HAND.

The foundation for the new court house will be put in this fall, so it can settle during the winter and everything be in readiness for work on the superstructure next spring. This is the sentiment of the court as expressed in discussion of the subject Wednesday afternoon.

The preliminary details will be started at once. Architects will be consulted and plans and specifications drawn conforming to the ideas of arrangement and cost that the court has clearly settled in their minds. After the plans are adopted bids will be advertised for without delay.

Further consideration of the question will probably be given at today's session.

The court considers the late election a mandate to build a suitable court house, and as there is plenty of money in the treasury to start no time will be lost.

The new court, J. B. Olimsted and Sam Litch and W. G. Locke commissioners, took up the work Monday morning just where the old court left off Friday. Most of Monday was spent in examining the bonds of the new officers and other routine work. Consideration of road petitions, the acceptance of the plat of Zurecher's Homestead addition to Enterprise, and other miscellaneous business has since occupied the time.

The court has under consideration the checking of all county books, and expert accountants may be hired to do the work.

Telegraph Wires Follow Railroad

Crew Stringing W. U. and O. R. & N. Lines From Elgin into Wallowa County.

A crew of telegraph ground and wire men is engaged in extending the W. U. and O. R. & N. wires from Elgin into this county, following the line of the railroad. The O. R. & N. is doing the construction work which will take about 90 days. Three linemen and 15 ground men are employed.

The O. R. & N. will have a series of wires with which to run trains on the branch when the service is put on. In addition to the O. R. & N. wires there will be a Western Union wire in connection and thereby telegraphic communication with the outside world is established. It is planned to establish relay offices at Enterprise and at Joseph for the Western Union. This will be a great boon for the residents of this county, as heretofore we have had to depend on telephone relays.

REFUSES BELL THE MONEY AND BOOKS

REAVIS HOLDS ON TO COUNTY TREASURY—LEGAL BATTLE IN PROSPECT.

County Treasurer F. A. Reavis refused to turn over the books and money to Treasurer-elect W. T. Bell Monday, for the stated reason that Mr. Bell could not properly qualify for the office, according to the state constitution, and he (Reavis) must hold until his successor is duly qualified.

Section 10 of article 2 of the constitution forbids any citizen from holding two lucrative public offices at the same time, and it has been held that the office of postmaster when it pays to exceed $100 a year, is a lucrative office within the meaning of the section. Mr. Reavis states he is acting under legal advice.

Mr. Bell is postmaster at Enterprise, but on June 6 sent a conditional resignation to the department, the condition being that he did not resign if the rules of the postoffice would permit him to act as county treasurer and still hold the postoffice job. Under date of June 22, the department replied that it was against the rules and that steps would be taken immediately for the appointment of his successor as postmaster.

Mr. Bell, through his attorneys, Burleigh & Boyd, will begin mandamus proceedings at once to compel Mr. Reavis to turn over the books and money. The bond of Mr. Bell has been approved by the county court and he has qualified before a proper officer.

It will be remembered that Mr. Bell was elected treasurer on June 1 by one plurality over Mr. Reavis.

There is a total of $27,159 county money on hand, divided among the several funds as follows:

County High School	$ 4241 11
General fund	13521 88
Contingent fund	1695 93
County school	2 60 24
Road	5295 43
And the remainder, $584.87, in eight minor funds such as Indian soldier, county library, etc.

K. S. Pace work on ditch and sidewalks	16 27
H. C. Cramer, June pay 20 days	50 00
T. M. Dill, June pay city atty	5 00
C. M. Lockwood, June pay, city treasurer	5 00
W. E. Taggart, June pay, city recorder and rent	6 00
Enterprise Planing Mill, lumber	56 00
L. F. McNulty, setting up with Mrs. Johnson	4 00
Clark Akins, driving cattle	1 50
Floyd Fletcher, driving cattle	1 50
J. C. Reavis, hauling gravel	2 50
Hoswell & Son, hire of team	3 00

BIG BONDS FILED BY NEW OFFICERS

NAMES OF SURETIES OFFERED APPROVED BY NEW COUNTY COURT.

All the new officers must give a bond. Everybody from treasurer to constable must get a number of his more or less distinguished but wealthy friends to stand security that he will not eat, lose or hide any county moneys or postage stamps while he is drawing the salary. That is, everybody but the county court. All the court has to do is to approve the other fellows' bonds. Isn't it nice to be the county court?

All the new officers took the oath of office Monday and filed their bonds, which one and all met the approval of the county court. That is all who were elected June 1 except B. F. Miller, who will not succeed Assessor Pace until next January. J. C. Conley will not succeed Superintendent Kerns until August 1 but he filed his bond Monday. Following are the new officers, the amount of their bonds and the bondsmen:

W. T. Bell, county treasurer, bond $25,000, signed by F. D. McCully, C. L. Hartshorn, E. T. Roup, Peter Fardan, Polk Mays, Hector McDonald, T. T. Shell, E. A. Holmes, C. T. McDaniel, C. A. Hunter.

Edgar Marvin, sheriff, $10,000, B. M. Rounsavell, Edwin Marvin, C. A. Hunter, E. A. Holmes, G. W. Gregg.

W. C. Boatman, clerk, $10,000, M. K. Boatman, E. O. Allen, J. A. French, J. M. Blakely.

R. I. Long, surveyor, $5,000, A. Wade, G. S. Reavis.

W. C. Ketchum, coroner, $300, S. D. Keltner, S. L. Burnaugh, T. R. Akins.

A. C. Smith, justice of the peace, $1,000, F. A. Reavis, L. Barland.

A. B. Dunbar, constable, $1,000, W. R. Holmes, S. L. Burnaugh.

All justices and constables file a bond of $1,000 with the court, the above two being given as examples of those offices.

Summer Normal Open.

The summer normal conducted by Prof. W. M. Sutton and Supt. J. W. Kerns opened in the public school building Monday morning. The attendance is not as large as hoped for but good interest is manifested in the work. Following is the enrollment: Mabel Wilson, Mrs. Henderson, Lenna Mallory, Matilda Hagan, Mrs. Fletcher, Marian Casteel, Lulu Ownbey, Inez Makin, John Weaver, Laura Weaver.

Doings in Probate.

W. B. Applegate appointed administrator with will annexed of R. James Beard.

Fred Harsin appointed administrator of Elizabeth M. Harsin.

Council Appoints Election Officers

Councilman J. C. Reavis Resigns and His Successor Will Be Named July 20.

The appointment of the judges and clerks for the special city election on August 15, the receipt of "Uncle Joe" Reavis' resignation, allowing of bills and discussion of sidewalks and cows formed the budget of business at the regular meeting of council Monday night.

President of council W. H. Grave presided over the deliberations in the absence of Mayor Byram Mayfield and all five councilmen were present. No action was taken on Mr. Reavis' resignation, it going over until the next regular meeting, July 20.

B. B. Boyd, Daniel Boyd and T. R. Akins were on motion appointed officers of the special election to amend the city charter on August 15. One of the three will act as judge and the other two as clerks.

Geo. S. Craig appeared before the council and asked that action be taken to have the sidewalks on East First street N., be completed. The recorder was directed to notify Mrs. Wortman to have the walk along her property put in by July 21.

There was considerable discussion about the enforcement of the cow ordinance but no action was taken. The main source of the trouble is the range cattle and it was concluded the only relief would be to herd them away to distant water points. As there is some doubt of the city's right to do that, no action was taken.

The council allowed the following bills and claims and ordered warrants drawn for the several amounts: News Record, printing $ 7 00 T. B. Zurecher, hauling 2 Ross Falconer, work on ditch 6 50 H. G. Bauer, hauling 5 50 D. F. Steele, work on ditch 5 00 R. S. & Z., cement for walk 15 00 E. J. Forsythe, lights 46 40 Lawrence Cramer, hauling, driving, etc. 19 00

THREE CELEBRATIONS OF GLORIOUS FOURTH

The celebration at the head of the lake attracted a crowd estimated at 1500 to 2000 people, Saturday. The address by Judge Lowell is highly spoken of. Wallowa and Joseph played three games of baseball, Wallowa winning Friday 26 to 6, and Sunday 16 to 3. Joseph won Saturday 8 to 3.

There was a fair sized crowd at Lostine and the program was entertaining. Daniel Boyd delivered a splendid address. The play by the Lostine Dramatic club is very highly praised.

Contrary to expectations few went from here to Flora, but reports say it was one of the best celebrations ever held in the county. Col. F. S. Ivanhoe was the orator.
