How to Make Cold Meat Loaf.

"Avoid warm hashes in summer and have in their place a meat loaf that can be served cold," writes Christine Terhune Herrick in Woman's Home Companion for August. "Chop your remnants of steak or roast fine, mix with them one-third as much cold boiled ham or tongue, season well, and add a couple of raw eggs beaten light. If rather dry moisten with gravy or stock, turn in to a greased mold with plain sides cover, set in a baking pan with hot water about it, and bake for an hour. This loaf may also be made with raw beef, but then it must cook for two hours. Let it get very cold before turning out, and slice. Veal loaf may be prepared by this recipe, and even cold roast lamb may be treated in the same manner. The main point to be borne in mind is the seasoning. Be careful that this is well done and you will have a popular dish."

BIG CROWD GOES ON SEASHORE EXCURSION

Over 350 passengers were on the North Beach excursion train when it pulled out of La Grande, Friday night. The number exceeded the expectations of the railroad officials and there was a scurrying to get coaches to accommodate the throng even one of the little coaches used on the Elgin branch being requisitioned. The Observer says:

The O. R. & N. depot last evening was the meeting place for a goodly portion of the city's inhabitants the occasion being the departure of 114 residents of this city and immediate vicinity on the seashore excursion. The train, made up at Bake City, contained 175 people when I arrived here, 10 of them boarding the train at Union. Elgin sent a delegation of 50 and Imbler 10. These joined the excursion here with La Grande's 114. Of the total number going from La Grande 65 were for tumate enough to procure berths.

It is more than likely that the excursion train encountered the landslide which held No. 6 today for several hours. In that event, the excursionists will not reach the coast until a late hour tonight. The schedule provides for reaching the coast at 7:30 tonight.

The return limit is September 5 and of the large number to go, some will remain the full limit before returning while others will return within a few days.

Will Ship 600 Carloads of Fruit.

The Freewater-Milton section will ship out 600 carloads of fruit this season, or 100 more than last year. Heavy fruit shipments began with the strawberries last spring, and a present apples, plums and peaches are being shipped. Most of the fruit goes to Montana, the Dakotas and other non-fruiting sections of the west.

P. L. Campbell Marries.

Grand Lake, Colo., Aug. 21.—Professor P. L. Campbell, president of the University of Oregon, was married here tonight to Mrs. Susan Campbell Church, of San Francisco. The couple will enjoy their honeymoon at Sulphur Springs, near here and when the fall term opens at the university, will go to Oregon.

To Fight Wool Combine.

Salt Lake City, Aug. 24.—Plans for fighting the wool combine by establishing a national wool storage system will be considered at a meeting here tomorrow of the executive committee of the National Woolgrowers association.

Champion Broncho Buster.

Dick Stanley, who was one of a troupe that gave exhibitions in Wallowa county a few months ago, recently won the broncho riding championship at the Frontier fair at Cheyenne, Wyo.

MISSOURI FRUIT MEN SHOWN OREGON ORCHARDS

Portland, August 21.—Fifty thousand and souvenir postal cards showing the magnificent Oregon state building at the Alaska-Yukon-Pacific exposition have already been circulated and one hundred thousand more have been ordered. This building is considered by many as the most artistic state building ever erected at an exposition. The Portland Commercial club will send one of these cards for the asking.

A. Decker, one of the best known of American magazine writers, is making a tour of Oregon in behalf of the "World Today."

The committee on ways and means appointed by the Oregon Good Roads conference have arranged for a Good Roads convention at Tillamook September 4, and another at Roseburg September 22. Other meetings are under consideration and definite dates will be decided within a few days. There is universal determination to make this campaign the most effective the state has ever experienced.

"Albany Day" at the Portland Commercial club August 19 was one of the most pleasing incidents that has occurred in Portland for a long time. A delegation of representative members of the Albany Commercial club were guests at a special luncheon. Beautiful Albany booklets were distributed throughout the various dining rooms, and Albany and Linn county were given prominence in every possible way. Bury I. Dasant, manager of the Albany Commercial club, extended an invitation to the business men of Portland to visit Albany on November 3 to celebrate the completion of the new depot and attend the Linn county fruit show. The invitation was accepted.

Owners of famous horses, as well as breeders of fancy stock, are coming to Portland daily from all parts of the country to see the marvelous grounds and track of the Portland Country Club and Live stock association. The show will open September 21 and continue a week—track and barns will be entirely completed by the opening day. No matter how much visitors may expect they will not be disappointed, for the whole situation is ideal.

President William P. Stark and three members of the Missouri State Board of Agriculture will spend two entire weeks in Oregon before they complete their tour of the state. The name of Stark is well known to every fruit grower in America, and the good opinion of these gentlemen is worth much to the state. The great irrigation districts of Malheur and Klamath counties were represented in Portland this week by W. H. Doolittle, secretary of the Ontario Commercial club, and R. H. Dunbar, secretary of the Klamath Falls chamber of commerce.

An Eye On the Future.

Tommy's maiden aunt had called attention to some of that young man's misdemeanors, thereby causing him to be punished. Tommy pondered a while, then asked, "Pa, will my little sister Gladys be an aunt to my children when I am a man?" "Yes, Tommy," answered his father, very much interested. "Why do you ask?" "Cause she might as well get married and have a home of her own for I don't intend to 'low any aunts around my house, making trouble for my children."—Woman's Home Companion for August.

PARADISE.

C. A. Ralls and family and Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Ralls will move to Bellevue, Ida.

Harvest is in full blast. Fall wheat is a fair crop.

The appraisers of the estate of R. James Beard, deceased, made the appraisalment last week. It amounted to $1,828.47.
