TEACHERS BENEFIT BY HELPFUL TALKS

EXCELLENT INSTRUCTION AT ANNUAL INSTITUTE—FRENCH PRAISES COUNTY.

One of the best institutes in the way of helpful lectures ever held in the county came to a close Saturday noon in the high school. Forty-four teachers gained valuable hints in their work from the talks by Professor Powers and Miss Marvin of Salem, President French of the Weston Normal, J. W. Kerns, A. G. Smith, Supt. J. C. Conley and Dr. E. J. Anderson of this county.

At the Thursday session Professor Fowers gave a talk on Teachers' Responsibility and also on Primary Reading. Miss Marvin presented the topical plan for teaching Geography, and in the afternoon spoke on School Legislation telling particularly of the bill for centralization of schools. A lively debate followed on this subject, the balance seemingly in favor of the bill.

A large audience heard a scholarly lecture by Rev. Selden C. Adams in the M. E. church, Thursday night, on "The Bible as Literature."

Miss Marvin continued the subject of Geography Friday, a talk on school libraries and an address to high school pupils on Debating Clubs. Professor Powers did double duty owing to the absence of State Superintendent Ackerman, who was ill at La Grande. Mr. Powers discussed the teaching of History and Primary Numbers at the forenoon session, and following Dr. Anderson's paper on Healthfulness, with other valuable talks in the afternoon. In the evening he delivered an appreciated lecture in the M. E. church.

A. G. Smith of the Joseph schools talked enthusiastically Saturday morning about "Agriculture in Schools." J. W. Kerns impressed on the teachers the value of the enforcement of the truancy act, and Professor Powers gave a good talk on "The Recitation."

President French of Weston held the breathless attention of the teachers while he told them of "Why no results were gained." "What education includes." "Nature study for the development of the imagination," and closed with a fine eulogy of Wallowa county and the city of Enterprise.

Supt. J. C. Conley, to whose untiring efforts the success of the institute was due, gave a closing talk about reports, etc. Following was the enrollment:

Prudence Eddlemon, Ethel Fleener, Jeanette Clark, Mrs. W. M. Sutton, W. M. Sutton, Ida May Johnston, Maude M. Turner, Victoria Ready, Beulah M. Frost, Lulu Ownbey, Myrta Hayes, Leoti Holmes, Martin Tucker, W. W. Burns, Lelah H. Cole, Martha M. Casteel, Nettie Brock, Lenina Mallory, Fannie Weaver, Inez Makin, Etha Kooch, Stella M. Hooper, Alfred H. Holmes, P. A. Foster, Gene W. Hall, Zelma R. Ogborn, Vahn W. Weaver, Edna Mabel Wilson, Jennie Hayes, Ruth E. Hayes, Bertha Womack, Laura Weaver, B. Southwick, F. M. Roop, J. W. Kerns, N. D. Burgoyne, H. H. Brownson, Dessie Southwick, John R. Stuber, Guslie Hutchinson, Kathryn DuFur, A. G. Smith, Roy Edgemon, Mrs. Stella Hanville.

Business Change And Farms Sold

Tacoma Men Buy Wright's Racket Store.—Falconer Buys Another Ranch.

The business on Main street, first door east of the postoffice, known as the Racket store was sold Monday by T. J. Wright to T. P. and H. P. Coleman, recently of Tacoma, Wash., who will continue the business at the old stand under the firm name of Coleman Brothers.

The new proprietors are young men and have been residents here for several weeks, coming here to make their home. They will continue to carry in the business a line of fine candles, cigars and tobacco, and the usual variety of goods found in a racket store. They will also make a specialty of fine fruits in season.

Two Ranches Sold.
Fred Falconer has bought of J. G. Beggs the latter's 160 acre ranch on Joseph creek.

Dave Tucker has bought W. F. Rankin's 160 acre ranch on Snake river.

RAILROAD OUT OF CANYON.
The railroad lacked a mile of being out of the canyon Tuesday night but is in Lower Valley today if track laying has not again been delayed.

RAILROAD SECURES RESTRAINING ORDER

HECTOR McDONALD ENJOINED FROM INTERFERING WITH O. R. & N. RIGHT OF WAY.

Judge Knowles of the circuit court issued a temporary injunction and restraining order, Saturday at La Grande, enjoining Hector McDonald from interfering with the laying of track on the O. R. & N. right of way across his land. This matter was reported settled last week, but evidently the company is going to take no chances of being delayed.

The papers reached Clerk Boatman's office Tuesday for filing, and the court order was served by Sheriff Marvin the same day. The application filed by the attorneys for the railroad, says the O. R. & N. company, the plaintiff in this suit, did on Sept. 18, 1905, buy from Hector McDonald and Margaret McDonald, his wife, a strip of land 100 feet wide, 50 feet on each side and parallel to the main track of plaintiff's railway, and extending across the ne qr. of sec. 9, of sec. 5 the sw qr. sw qr. and sw qr. sec. 9 of sec. 4, the n half ne qr. of sec. 9 w half nw qr. and se qr. nw qr. sec. 10, all in township 1 north, of range 42 e.

It further cites that plaintiff entered into possession and has continued in possession of said strip of land, that deed was executed by the defendants on Sept. 18, 1905, that "the plaintiff has thrown up and constructed upon said strip of land the grade of its railroad bed, and that the plaintiff is prosecuting the construction of its said enterprise with all possible diligence and is building said railroad in good faith and with all possible speed, and has laid its track on said railroad from Elgin to within about one mile of the property hereinbefore described, and has employed in laying said track and building said railroad and at the present time several hundred men and equipment of the value of many thousands of dollars, including a track laying machine, and is laying from one mile to two miles of track per day.

Would Prevent Completion.

"That defendant, Hector McDonald, has warned and notified plaintiff and its agents and employees that he will not permit it or them to lay or construct its track over or upon said strip of land, and has threatened to and will unless restrained by this court from so doing, enter upon said strip of land and repeatedly trespass upon the same and prevent this plaintiff or its agents or employees from building its said track over or upon the same, and will, unless so restrained, tear down and remove any construction work done by said plaintiff and will prevent plaintiff from completing the construction of the said railroad on through to Joseph.

Would Work Great Damage.

That if the plaintiff's said enterprise is thus blocked and held up by the said defendant, the completion of its said enterprise and the completion of the said railroad will be indefinitely delayed and that the season within which said construction work can be done for the present year will end late in October or early in November of the present year, and if plaintiff is thus annoyed and harassed it will be unable to complete its railroad to Joseph, and it will suffer great and irreparable damage and loss, its employees engaged in said work will disband and its said enterprise in which it has already one million dollars invested will be dormant and useless for an indefinite period of time, and that the citizens and residents of Wallowa county, who need and are awaiting with great anxiety the completion of the construction of said railroad, that they may move their crops the present season, will be denied transportation facilities and great and irreparable damage will be suffered not only by this plaintiff, but by the entire community into which said railroad is being constructed.

The petition asks that pending a hearing, a temporary injunction and restraining order be issued inhibiting and enjoining the defendants or either of them, from interfering with plaintiff's said land and further asks that after the hearing that the injunction be made permanent, and that a decree be entered decreeing that plaintiff is owner in fee simple of the strip of land and quieting the title.

The petition is signed by W. W.

Cotton, Thos. H. Crawford and C. A. Spencer as attorneys for the railroad company.

SUNDAY SERVICES.

Next Sunday morning the sacrament of the Lord's supper will be administered at the Presbyterian church, Dr. H. A. Ketchum of Salem, will preach. The sabbath school will meet as usual at 10 o'clock.

The Union service will be at the Presbyterian church next Sunday evening. It will be in the nature of a graduation for those who have attended the summer school for religious instruction. Addresses will be made by Prof. A. G. Smith of Joseph, Dr. H. A. Ketchum of Salem and others. A children's choir assisted by the adult choir will sing.

Dr. Ketchum and Rev. Selden C. Adams will conduct services at Hurricane Creek next Sunday afternoon.

Rev. W. S. Crockett will preach in the Christian church Thursday evening and on Sunday.

Threshers Busy In North Country

Blacksmiths Too Find More Work at Flora Than One Man Can Do.

Flora, August 31.—G. H. Cross land was up from the river Monday night with a load of fruit for the market. He was going to Enterprise to attend court.

W. G. Locke stayed at the Farmers Hotel Monday night on his way to Enterprise.

Walter Buzzard, of Cove, and Mr. Graham of Weiser, Ida, came in Saturday evening on a short visit.

Guy Skaggs took Thursday morning's stage for Imbler where he will visit a few days with his brother. From there he will go to Weiser, Ida, to attend school this winter.

The Flora Threshing Machine company had the misfortune to break down its horsepower Thursday. G. W. Johnson and Ruskin Eddlemon made a trip to Lewiston after a new shaft and they are now busy threshing again.

Eugene McCall and wife of La Grande are visiting Mr. McCall's relatives here. I understand they will remain here for sometime.

Mr. and Mrs. C. T. McDaniel and small son of Wallowa stayed in town Sunday night.

A. C. Miller of Enterprise was in town a couple of days last week.

D. D. Conley made a flying trip to Lewiston, returning home Thursday.

Charles Pitzer of Paradise is now helping his brother in the blacksmith shop. They found that there was more work here than one man could do.

A. H. Holmes and sister Leoti Misses Prudence Eddlemon, Lelah Cole and Marion Casteel attended the teachers' institute at Enterprise last week, returning home Saturday night.

J. B. Seibert left Monday for Republic, Wash., in response to a letter stating his father, J. B. Seibert Sr., is very ill. On account of his great age, 84 years, it is feared the old gentleman will not recover.

GOOD ROAD ROUTE COSTS TOO MUCH

SURVEYOR FINDS LIGHT GRADE UP COURTNEY AND SHAM- ROCK CANYONS.

Surveyor H. E. Merryman, who, assisted by H. C. Cramer, recently made a survey to determine the best route for a road from Troy, has made the following report:

The conditions in the different canyon routes with respect to the cost of construction are found to be much the same.

The sides are steep and rocky with slide rock and cliffs which toward the upper ends of the canyons dovetail in from opposite sides making many short turns and very circuitous routes.

There are some places where the canyons are so narrow that a roadway would have to be blasted out of solid rock to leave room for the water course.

The bottoms of the canyons are narrow and low and filled with brush, rocks, timber and debris, and could be used but very little, if at all, for the roadway on account of high water, so that it would be necessary to grade the road bed out of the side of the canyons.

There is not dirt enough in the canyons to cover the rocks, so that a rough road full of stones for from 10 to 20 miles would not be found practical.

My average of $500 per mile for the canyon routes would if anything be found too low.
