The Electric theatre has a treat for its patrons this week in the fine new film, "Rerieved." It shows Abraham Lincoln and the sympathetic appeal to him by a condemned soldier's wife. While all the subjects this week are good, "Rerieved" is by far the best ever shown and if you are not careful a few tears will seal down your cheeks while watching it.
Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Worstell of La Grande are visiting in the valley with their daughters, Mrs. W. E. Lewis of Enterprise and Mrs. Al Graham of Lostine. While Mr. Worstell has resided in the Grande Ronde for the last 30 years, this is the first time he has been in here for 10 years, and he notes so many changes, especially in Enterprise, that it does not seem the same place.
Mr. and Mrs. W. W. White reached the bedside of his brother, J. C. White, at 4:30 p. m. Monday of last week, and he died at 6:30 the same evening. Funeral was at 11 o'clock Wednesday afternoon, interment being in the family burying ground at Zeena, Polk county, about nine miles from where deceased resided. J. C. White was known to many here in Enterprise as he visited his brother here two years ago. He was 69 years of age and leaves a widow, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. White returned home Tuesday.
The news that Ira Pratt will open a studio in Enterprise will be welcomed by many who will wish to avail themselves of his talent as a teacher. Mr. Pratt has won a big place in this neck of the woods as a musician, but he held a large place in the musical world before he ever heard of Wallowa county. He studied under the best teachers in the great musical centers of the East and had gained enviable fame as a concert vocalist when his health compelled him to give up music for railroad work. After an operation he completely regained his voice and is now resuming his interrupted life-work. His standing in the musical world is shown by such notices as these: Denver News—"Big Denver church in improving song service secures golden-voiced chorister. It is remarkable how the first Baptist church has forged to the front in the quality of its music. Ira Pratt, the director, has gathered one of the finest choruses in Denver. Mr. Pratt sings the bass solos himself." Danville (Ill.) Commercial News: "Those who failed to attend the third sacred concert given by the Ben Hur band of forty musicians, Sunday afternoon, missed one of the greatest treats of the season. The special features on the program all went splendidly. Mr. Ira Pratt of Chicago has a baritone voice that is simply magnificent in every quality, full and round tone and every note and word so distinct that great credit can well be given this young man on a very fine voice."

CALL FOR PROPOSALS FOR CONSTRUCTION OF COURTHOUSE

Sealed proposals will be received by the County Court of Wallowa County, Oregon, until the 12th day of October, 1908, at 10 o'clock, a. m., at which time the same will be publicly opened and considered, for the furnishing of all labor and material, except the plumbing and heating, for the construction of a two-story and basement stone court house building in Enterprise, in said county, according to the plans and specifications furnished by S. R. Haworth and which may be seen on and after September 19, 1908, at the office of the county clerk of said county at Enterprise, Or., and at the office of C. R. Thornton at La Grande, Oregon. All proposals must be addressed to the County Clerk of Wallowa County, and indorsed "Bid for Construction of Court House", and must be accompanied by a certified check in favor of Wallowa county for $500.00, as a guarantee of good faith. The successful bidder will be required to enter into a written contract for the construction of said building, and to give an approved bond in the sum of $10,000 for the faithful performance of his contract and conditioned as provided by law. The County Court reserves the right to accept any one, or to reject all of said bids or proposals. Forms for bidders may be secured by addressing the county clerk.
Dated at Enterprise, Oregon, this 8th day of September, 1908.
By order of the County Court.
