Woman's Home Companion at a New Price.

The increase in the price of paper has been a factor in forcing another one of our magazines to increase in price. The Woman's Home Companion, preparing to give its readers a bigger and better magazine, will raise its price from 10 cents to 15 cents a copy, and from $1.00 to $1.25 a year in a few weeks.

This advance is in part due to the increased size and value of the magazine, and partly to the increased price of paper, which is affecting every publisher in the United States.

Walter T. Bunnell Killed By Train

Former Wallowa Supposed To Have Deliberately Lain Down On Track.

Walter T. Bunnell, aged 35 years, a former resident of this county committed suicide Sunday afternoon near Spofford warehouse between Walla Walla and Milton, by lying down in front of a train. The cause of his act is unknown, but is supposed to have been despondency.

The deceased was a son of Thomas Bunnell of Wallowa, and besides his father leaves one sister, Mrs. H. D. Akins, and a brother, Jerry, of Joseph, and two little girls who reside with a family at Elgin.

The remains were brought to Enterprise Wednesday and funeral services held in the Methodist church at 3 p. m.; interment was in Aider cemetery beside his wife who died four years ago.

Mrs. Snyder died at her home in Joseph Tuesday and was buried Wednesday. The deceased was a sister of C. N. Clay of Joseph.

MILLER ATTACKED BY VICIOUS BULL

J. G. Rennie, the miller, was badly injured by William Makin's Jersey bull, Sunday forenoon. The bull knocked him down repeatedly, tossed him over his head three times and rolled him over and over on the ground. Mr. Rennie finally escaped by stabbing the vicious animal in the neck with his pocket knife. The bull was hornless or Mr. Rennie would have been killed. As it is his right shoulder cap is broken, three ribs partly torn from the breast bone, and he is badly bruised.

Mr. Rennie attempted to drive the bull from Ott's pasture into Makin's field when the animal turned on him and knocked him down. Every time he attempted to get up or even made a move, the bull would attack him savagely. This was kept up for a long time until Mr. Rennie thought of his pocket knife and by using it freely managed to keep the bull off until he got out of the field. He walked to town with help, but is now confined to his bed. His injuries are not serious but are severe enough to cause much pain and will keep him from work for a number of days.

Later in the day the bull attacked its owner, Wm. Makin, who however, had a shot gun along and he filled its hide with small shot.

GETTING INFORMATION.
My pa, he didn't go to town
Last evening after tea,
But got a book and settled down
As comfy as could be.
I tell you, I was off glad
To have my pa about
To answer all the things I had
Been tryin' to find out.

And so I asked him why the world
Is round, instead of square,
And why the piggies' tails are curled,
And why don't fish breathe air?
And why the moon don't hit a star,
And why the dark is black,
And just how many birds there are
And will the wind come back?

And why does water stay in wells,
And why do June bugs hum,
And what's the roar I hear in shells,
And when will Christmas come?
And why the grass is always green
Instead of sometimes blue,
And why a bean will grow a bean,
And not an apple, too?

And why a horse can't learn to moo,
And why a cow can't neigh?
And do the fairies live on dew,
And what makes hair grow gray—
And then my pa got up and gee!
The offul words he said,
I hadn't done a thing, but he
Jest sent me off to bed.
