RECEIVER NAMED
FOR JOSEPH STORE

Joseph, Dec. 15.—Edith Jennings, by her attorneys, has filed complaint in the circuit court asking for a receiver for the Joseph Mercantile company, a large store in this city that has enjoyed a big trade. W. F. Eisenbeis has been appointed receiver and has given bond in the sum of $10,000.

The complainant alleges that she gave $6750 on July 19, 1907, for 50 shares in the company, and that the other 200 shares of the capital stock were owned, 50 shares each, by George Houser, Edward Eben, W. E. Lefel and Mary J. Mitchell, and that complainant had received no dividends. Complaints of the management are detailed and representations as to the company's financial status given. She asks that her purchase of stock be set aside and that she be given judgment against the company for $6750 and legal interest since July 19, 1907.

Other members of the company state that the basis of the suit is a disagreement in regard to the management.

Warehouse Company.

Articles of incorporation have been filed in the county clerk's office of the Joseph Warehouse company, capital stock $2500; incorporators, F. F. McCully, Albert Wurtzweiler and F. F. Scribner.

County Health Physician E. T. Anderson reports several cases of mild diphtheria at East Grossman, but says strict quarantine is observed, and it is believed there will be no spread of the disease.

DEATH RECORD.

Thomas Brady, a gallant veteran of the great Civil War, passed away at his home in East Grossman, December 8, 1908, aged 66 years, 11 months and 20 days. Funeral was private, owing to the nature of the disease, diphtheria, of which he died.

Mr. Brady was a native of Indiana. He enlisted in company E of the 15th Ind. Vol. Inf., and served his country in the forefront of battle for over three years. He came to Oregon six years ago, and settled on a fine homestead in East Grossman.

Besides the widow, the following children survive: T. C. Brady of Evangeline, La.; Mrs. Lizzie Loyd and B. W. Brady of East Grossman; E. S. Brady of Seattle; Mrs. A. E. Howard and C. A. Brady of Auburn, Ia.; O. H. Brady of Enterprise.

The deceased was a man of sterling integrity whose word was as good as his bond with all who knew him. He was pardonably proud of his war record and took great interest in all that pertained to the Grand Army.
