BEST YEARS TO COME.

This has been a year of wonderful progress in Wallowa county, yet the progress is only beginning. With an area larger than some Eastern states, magnificent resources in agriculture, fruit, live stock, timber, mines and water for both irrigation and power barely touched, the most enthusiastic real estate agent cannot color too highly the future development.

All these great but latent riches were awaiting the magic of modern transportation. It has come too late this fall to affect the record of 1908, but is here ready to work the transformation in 1909. The pioneers who came to this favored land will or should reap the choicest grain of the golden harvest of development, but there are thousands of splendid opportunities here for new settlers and especially for investors. Land, mines and forests, now undiscovered, will prove veritable bonanza when capital and labor begin the work of development.

So while 1908 has been so far the banner year in Wallowa county, the years to come will far surpass it.

NEED A BRIDGE.

The Bartlett correspondent in this paper notes that on Thursday, December 10, no mail was received at that office as the ferry on which the mail carrier crosses the Grande Ronde river, was not in operation because of ice in the stream. Not only Bartlett, but Grouse, Troy and the entire Garden of Eden country suffered an impairment of their already poor mail service.

It is rare of course for the ferry to be put out of commission by ice, but high water and accidents help to isolate that great region from communication with the rest of the county, and as the correspondent says it is too bad there is no bridge. The big rich county of Wallowa can well afford to build a free bridge across the Grande Ronde river at Troy, or in that vicinity.

The fellows who were hollering so loudly a few weeks ago trying to get statement No. 1 legislators to violate their pledges and vote against the people's choice for senator, have all taken to their heels, and if they had any sense of shame or decency they would pull the heels in after them.
The declarations of two honest men of national prominence, like President Roosevelt and President-elect Taft, make the anti-statement men look pretty small. Governor Chamberlain will probably be elected senator without further attempts at skulduggery by the Multnomah gangsters, and he will fit in nicely with the other honesty-before-party men in that body

MISS LORENZ WEDS
ACTOR F. N. WEEKS

Phoenix, Ariz., Dec. 18.—Following a romance of the footlights and dramatic criticism, a journey by the finanee from eastern Oregon to Arizona Frank N. Weeks, an actor, and his bride, formerly Miss Lulu B. Lorenz, a correspondent of the Portland Journal and the Pendleton East Oregonian, are today spending their honey-moon here.
Mr. Weeks was with the Streeter Bryan company that camped near this city this summer and played every Saturday night in the Enterprise opera house. Miss Lorenz visited with the company for several weeks and made many friends in this city.

Wedding Eells.

On Sunday evening at 6 o'clock, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Shafer, on Alder Slope, Mr. J. E.
Gribling and Miss Etta Ogbourn were united in marriage by Rev. E. Owen, in the presence of the bride's family and relatives and a few of the groom's special friends. After a sumptuous repast they attended church at Alder where many friends greeted the happy couple.

Miss Louise Bauer and Mr. Ralph B. Holmbeck were married at La Grande, Friday, December 18, by Justice Stewart, and will make their home in that city, says the Observer.
The bride is the eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Bauer of this city, and is well known for her beauty and lively disposition. The groom is the son of Mrs. Frederick Holmbeck of Aledo, Ill., and came to Enterprise last spring. He is now an employe of the O. R. & N., with headquarters at La Grande.

How One Doctor Successfully Treats Pneumonia.

"In treating pneumonia," says Dr.
W. J. Smith, of Sanders, Ala., "the only remedy I use for the lungs is Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. While of course, I would treat other symptoms with different medicines, I have used this remedy many times in my medical practice and have yet failed to find a case where it has not controlled the trouble. I have used it myself, as has also my wife for coughs and colds repeatedly, and I most willingly and cheerfully recommend it as far superior to any other cough medicine to my knowledge." For sale by Burnaugh & Mayfield.
