

EDISON

PHONOGRAPHS Furnish Real Entertainment anywhere and all the time.

Haven't you ever noticed that no matter where you start an Edison Phonograph it immediately becomes the center of interest? With each new record, whether a song from the latest musical comedy, a waltz or a two-step by band or orchestra, a selection from grand opera or a ballad of long ago, the Phonograph becomes a new pleasure. An Edison Phonograph in your home means enjoyment for each member of the family. Come here today and let us play some of the latest records for you.

E. B. WHEAT ENTERPRISE OREGON.

City and County Brief News Items

Never-Slip Horseshoes at Keltner's.

Mrs. S. F. Pace is home from a visit with her brother at The Dalles.

F. I. Vergere and mother returned from Portland, Wednesday.

H. N. Williams of Lostine was in the city over Thursday night on business.

R. L. Day is home from La Grande, having gone that far with the jax. Dishman & Day stock shipment.

Roof Palnt for your old roofs. It stops the leaks. For sale at Keltner's hardware store.

M. E. Hotchkiss is home from Portland where he had been with a shipment of stock.

One Minute Washer—satisfaction guaranteed or money refunded, at Ashley's.

Johnny Beggs, ex-mayor of Chico, is testing the new railroad by frequent rides between Enterprise and Joseph.

Begin the mystery story with this paper. A few weeks from now when everybody is talking about it you will be ransacking the house for back numbers of the paper.

W. C. Teal returned Wednesday from his old home at Davenport, Wash., where he had been to spend the holidays. He was accompanied by his uncle, Mr. Humphrey, who will look over the country with a view of taking up a claim.

A jolly sleighing party invaded the home of Mr. and Mrs. O. J. Roe Wednesday evening and were given a most cordial welcome. The guests took light refreshments with them, and the Mountain View Fruit farm is never without resources for the entertainment of unexpected guests, no matter in what number they come, so feasting and fun made the evening pass quickly. Delicious fudge and penuche were made, and games and music added to the enjoyment. The party numbered 21.

NOTICE TO STOCKHOLDERS.

Notice is hereby given that the annual meeting of the stockholders of the Wallowa National Bank, of Enterprise, Oregon, will be held at the office of their banking house in Enterprise, Oregon, on Tuesday, the 12th day of January, 1909, between the hours of 10 a. m. and 4 p. m. for the election of directors for the ensuing year, and for the transaction of such other business as may legally come before said meeting.

Dated at Enterprise, Oregon, December 4th, 1908.

3215 W. R. HOLMES, Cashier.

The reminiscences of Dr. Edward Everett Hale commence in the January Woman's Home Companion and will appear exclusively in that magazine.

ALL THE DAILY PAPERS, MAGAZINES AND THE National Weeklies

at Coleman Brothers
The Best Cigars, Confectionery and Fruit.
Stationery Supplies of all kinds.
First door east of Postoffice.

List ware at Keltner's.

Ruberoid roofing, 1 ply and 2 ply, for sale by S. D. Keltner.

Dr. C. A. Au't went out to La Grande Wednesday.

All kinds of builders' hardware at S. D. Keltner's.

"The Mystery of the Yellow Room." Can you solve it?

Lunches, with hot coffee, at the Women's Exchange.

Lon Davis made a business trip to Wallowa Wednesday.

Go to the Women's Exchange for lunch. Hot coffee.

A Wilson of Eustis had business with the county court Wednesday.

Japalac, varnish stains, linseed oil at Burnaugh & Mayfield's.

Conductor Frank O'Hare and family returned Wednesday to La Grande.

Nice fresh cake made to order by the members of the Woman's Exchange.

Mr. and Mrs. B. B. Boyd left Wednesday for Boise, Ida., to be gone several months.

W. I. Sanner and G. W. Miller of the "Promise country, were in the county seat Wednesday.

Mrs. M. Day of Whiskey Creek left Thursday morning for Portland to visit her daughter.

Deputy Game Warden Joe Clemons is looking after matters up and down the valley.

Before buying a piano or organ see Ashley. He has the agency for almost any make and will sell them on easy terms.

Deputy District Attorney Eberhard of Joseph has been attending the sessions of county court this week in his official capacity.

F. H. Brownlee of Smith Mountain, who is employed by the Palmer Lumber company, was in the city on business Wednesday.

The Advertiser is a home-made cigar, and the best judges of the weed say it is the best 5 cent cigar they ever smoked.

Peter Kuehl, a prominent Smith Mountain farmer, was in Wednesday and renewed his subscription to the great county paper.

James R. Knodel, assistant superintendent of the Oregon Anti-Saloon League, delivered an address in the Presbyterian church Thursday night.

Men can get their overcoats, suits and underwear nicely mended by one who understands the business. Inquire at the Woman's Exchange.

The ladies of the Library association will give an afternoon tea in the library room, Wednesday afternoon, January 13, from 1:30 to 5 o'clock. Refreshments of ice cream, cake, cocoa and coffee will be served for which a small sum will be charged for the benefit of the library. Everybody is cordially invited to attend.

James R. Knodel, assistant superintendent of the Oregon Anti-Saloon League, delivered an address in the Presbyterian church Thursday night.

Men can get their overcoats, suits and underwear nicely mended by one who understands the business. Inquire at the Woman's Exchange.

The ladies of the Library association will give an afternoon tea in the library room, Wednesday afternoon, January 13, from 1:30 to 5 o'clock. Refreshments of ice cream, cake, cocoa and coffee will be served for which a small sum will be charged for the benefit of the library. Everybody is cordially invited to attend.

James R. Knodel, assistant superintendent of the Oregon Anti-Saloon League, delivered an address in the Presbyterian church Thursday night.

Men can get their overcoats, suits and underwear nicely mended by one who understands the business. Inquire at the Woman's Exchange.

The ladies of the Library association will give an afternoon tea in the library room, Wednesday afternoon, January 13, from 1:30 to 5 o'clock. Refreshments of ice cream, cake, cocoa and coffee will be served for which a small sum will be charged for the benefit of the library. Everybody is cordially invited to attend.

James R. Knodel, assistant superintendent of the Oregon Anti-Saloon League, delivered an address in the Presbyterian church Thursday night.

Men can get their overcoats, suits and underwear nicely mended by one who understands the business. Inquire at the Woman's Exchange.

The ladies of the Library association will give an afternoon tea in the library room, Wednesday afternoon, January 13, from 1:30 to 5 o'clock. Refreshments of ice cream, cake, cocoa and coffee will be served for which a small sum will be charged for the benefit of the library. Everybody is cordially invited to attend.

James R. Knodel, assistant superintendent of the Oregon Anti-Saloon League, delivered an address in the Presbyterian church Thursday night.

Men can get their overcoats, suits and underwear nicely mended by one who understands the business. Inquire at the Woman's Exchange.

The ladies of the Library association will give an afternoon tea in the library room, Wednesday afternoon, January 13, from 1:30 to 5 o'clock. Refreshments of ice cream, cake, cocoa and coffee will be served for which a small sum will be charged for the benefit of the library. Everybody is cordially invited to attend.

James R. Knodel, assistant superintendent of the Oregon Anti-Saloon League, delivered an address in the Presbyterian church Thursday night.

Men can get their overcoats, suits and underwear nicely mended by one who understands the business. Inquire at the Woman's Exchange.

The ladies of the Library association will give an afternoon tea in the library room, Wednesday afternoon, January 13, from 1:30 to 5 o'clock. Refreshments of ice cream, cake, cocoa and coffee will be served for which a small sum will be charged for the benefit of the library. Everybody is cordially invited to attend.

James R. Knodel, assistant superintendent of the Oregon Anti-Saloon League, delivered an address in the Presbyterian church Thursday night.

Men can get their overcoats, suits and underwear nicely mended by one who understands the business. Inquire at the Woman's Exchange.

The ladies of the Library association will give an afternoon tea in the library room, Wednesday afternoon, January 13, from 1:30 to 5 o'clock. Refreshments of ice cream, cake, cocoa and coffee will be served for which a small sum will be charged for the benefit of the library. Everybody is cordially invited to attend.

James R. Knodel, assistant superintendent of the Oregon Anti-Saloon League, delivered an address in the Presbyterian church Thursday night.

Men can get their overcoats, suits and underwear nicely mended by one who understands the business. Inquire at the Woman's Exchange.

The ladies of the Library association will give an afternoon tea in the library room, Wednesday afternoon, January 13, from 1:30 to 5 o'clock. Refreshments of ice cream, cake, cocoa and coffee will be served for which a small sum will be charged for the benefit of the library. Everybody is cordially invited to attend.

James R. Knodel, assistant superintendent of the Oregon Anti-Saloon League, delivered an address in the Presbyterian church Thursday night.

Men can get their overcoats, suits and underwear nicely mended by one who understands the business. Inquire at the Woman's Exchange.

The ladies of the Library association will give an afternoon tea in the library room, Wednesday afternoon, January 13, from 1:30 to 5 o'clock. Refreshments of ice cream, cake, cocoa and coffee will be served for which a small sum will be charged for the benefit of the library. Everybody is cordially invited to attend.

James R. Knodel, assistant superintendent of the Oregon Anti-Saloon League, delivered an address in the Presbyterian church Thursday night.

Men can get their overcoats, suits and underwear nicely mended by one who understands the business. Inquire at the Woman's Exchange.

The ladies of the Library association will give an afternoon tea in the library room, Wednesday afternoon, January 13, from 1:30 to 5 o'clock. Refreshments of ice cream, cake, cocoa and coffee will be served for which a small sum will be charged for the benefit of the library. Everybody is cordially invited to attend.

James R. Knodel, assistant superintendent of the Oregon Anti-Saloon League, delivered an address in the Presbyterian church Thursday night.

Men can get their overcoats, suits and underwear nicely mended by one who understands the business. Inquire at the Woman's Exchange.

The ladies of the Library association will give an afternoon tea in the library room, Wednesday afternoon, January 13, from 1:30 to 5 o'clock. Refreshments of ice cream, cake, cocoa and coffee will be served for which a small sum will be charged for the benefit of the library. Everybody is cordially invited to attend.

James R. Knodel, assistant superintendent of the Oregon Anti-Saloon League, delivered an address in the Presbyterian church Thursday night.

Men can get their overcoats, suits and underwear nicely mended by one who understands the business. Inquire at the Woman's Exchange.

The ladies of the Library association will give an afternoon tea in the library room, Wednesday afternoon, January 13, from 1:30 to 5 o'clock. Refreshments of ice cream, cake, cocoa and coffee will be served for which a small sum will be charged for the benefit of the library. Everybody is cordially invited to attend.

James R. Knodel, assistant superintendent of the Oregon Anti-Saloon League, delivered an address in the Presbyterian church Thursday night.

Men can get their overcoats, suits and underwear nicely mended by one who understands the business. Inquire at the Woman's Exchange.

The ladies of the Library association will give an afternoon tea in the library room, Wednesday afternoon, January 13, from 1:30 to 5 o'clock. Refreshments of ice cream, cake, cocoa and coffee will be served for which a small sum will be charged for the benefit of the library. Everybody is cordially invited to attend.

James R. Knodel, assistant superintendent of the Oregon Anti-Saloon League, delivered an address in the Presbyterian church Thursday night.

Men can get their overcoats, suits and underwear nicely mended by one who understands the business. Inquire at the Woman's Exchange.

The ladies of the Library association will give an afternoon tea in the library room, Wednesday afternoon, January 13, from 1:30 to 5 o'clock. Refreshments of ice cream, cake, cocoa and coffee will be served for which a small sum will be charged for the benefit of the library. Everybody is cordially invited to attend.

James R. Knodel, assistant superintendent of the Oregon Anti-Saloon League, delivered an address in the Presbyterian church Thursday night.

Men can get their overcoats, suits and underwear nicely mended by one who understands the business. Inquire at the Woman's Exchange.

The ladies of the Library association will give an afternoon tea in the library room, Wednesday afternoon, January 13, from 1:30 to 5 o'clock. Refreshments of ice cream, cake, cocoa and coffee will be served for which a small sum will be charged for the benefit of the library. Everybody is cordially invited to attend.

James R. Knodel, assistant superintendent of the Oregon Anti-Saloon League, delivered an address in the Presbyterian church Thursday night.

Men can get their overcoats, suits and underwear nicely mended by one who understands the business. Inquire at the Woman's Exchange.

The ladies of the Library association will give an afternoon tea in the library room, Wednesday afternoon, January 13, from 1:30 to 5 o'clock. Refreshments of ice cream, cake, cocoa and coffee will be served for which a small sum will be charged for the benefit of the library. Everybody is cordially invited to attend.

James R. Knodel, assistant superintendent of the Oregon Anti-Saloon League, delivered an address in the Presbyterian church Thursday night.

Men can get their overcoats, suits and underwear nicely mended by one who understands the business. Inquire at the Woman's Exchange.

The ladies of the Library association will give an afternoon tea in the library room, Wednesday afternoon, January 13, from 1:30 to 5 o'clock. Refreshments of ice cream, cake, cocoa and coffee will be served for which a small sum will be charged for the benefit of the library. Everybody is cordially invited to attend.

"The Mystery of the Yellow Room." Can you solve it?

Geo. W. Hyatt returned Thursday from a business trip to Walla Walla.

Not just as good but better than any other 5 cent cigar, is the Advertiser. Enterprise made cigar.

"We begin not to understand." Read the opening chapters of the great mystery story begun in this paper.

Lunches, with hot coffee, at the Women's Exchange.

Lon Davis made a business trip to Wallowa Wednesday.

Go to the Women's Exchange for lunch. Hot coffee.

A Wilson of Eustis had business with the county court Wednesday.

Japalac, varnish stains, linseed oil at Burnaugh & Mayfield's.

Conductor Frank O'Hare and family returned Wednesday to La Grande.

Nice fresh cake made to order by the members of the Woman's Exchange.

Mr. and Mrs. B. B. Boyd left Wednesday for Boise, Ida., to be gone several months.

W. I. Sanner and G. W. Miller of the "Promise country, were in the county seat Wednesday.

Mrs. M. Day of Whiskey Creek left Thursday morning for Portland to visit her daughter.

Deputy Game Warden Joe Clemons is looking after matters up and down the valley.

Before buying a piano or organ see Ashley. He has the agency for almost any make and will sell them on easy terms.

Deputy District Attorney Eberhard of Joseph has been attending the sessions of county court this week in his official capacity.

F. H. Brownlee of Smith Mountain, who is employed by the Palmer Lumber company, was in the city on business Wednesday.

The Advertiser is a home-made cigar, and the best judges of the weed say it is the best 5 cent cigar they ever smoked.

Peter Kuehl, a prominent Smith Mountain farmer, was in Wednesday and renewed his subscription to the great county paper.

James R. Knodel, assistant superintendent of the Oregon Anti-Saloon League, delivered an address in the Presbyterian church Thursday night.

Men can get their overcoats, suits and underwear nicely mended by one who understands the business. Inquire at the Woman's Exchange.

The ladies of the Library association will give an afternoon tea in the library room, Wednesday afternoon, January 13, from 1:30 to 5 o'clock. Refreshments of ice cream, cake, cocoa and coffee will be served for which a small sum will be charged for the benefit of the library. Everybody is cordially invited to attend.

James R. Knodel, assistant superintendent of the Oregon Anti-Saloon League, delivered an address in the Presbyterian church Thursday night.

Men can get their overcoats, suits and underwear nicely mended by one who understands the business. Inquire at the Woman's Exchange.

The ladies of the Library association will give an afternoon tea in the library room, Wednesday afternoon, January 13, from 1:30 to 5 o'clock. Refreshments of ice cream, cake, cocoa and coffee will be served for which a small sum will be charged for the benefit of the library. Everybody is cordially invited to attend.

James R. Knodel, assistant superintendent of the Oregon Anti-Saloon League, delivered an address in the Presbyterian church Thursday night.

Men can get their overcoats, suits and underwear nicely mended by one who understands the business. Inquire at the Woman's Exchange.

The ladies of the Library association will give an afternoon tea in the library room, Wednesday afternoon, January 13, from 1:30 to 5 o'clock. Refreshments of ice cream, cake, cocoa and coffee will be served for which a small sum will be charged for the benefit of the library. Everybody is cordially invited to attend.

James R. Knodel, assistant superintendent of the Oregon Anti-Saloon League, delivered an address in the Presbyterian church Thursday night.

Men can get their overcoats, suits and underwear nicely mended by one who understands the business. Inquire at the Woman's Exchange.

The ladies of the Library association will give an afternoon tea in the library room, Wednesday afternoon, January 13, from 1:30 to 5 o'clock. Refreshments of ice cream, cake, cocoa and coffee will be served for which a small sum will be charged for the benefit of the library. Everybody is cordially invited to attend.

James R. Knodel, assistant superintendent of the Oregon Anti-Saloon League, delivered an address in the Presbyterian church Thursday night.

Men can get their overcoats, suits and underwear nicely mended by one who understands the business. Inquire at the Woman's Exchange.

The ladies of the Library association will give an afternoon tea in the library room, Wednesday afternoon, January 13, from 1:30 to 5 o'clock. Refreshments of ice cream, cake, cocoa and coffee will be served for which a small sum will be charged for the benefit of the library. Everybody is cordially invited to attend.

James R. Knodel, assistant superintendent of the Oregon Anti-Saloon League, delivered an address in the Presbyterian church Thursday night.

Men can get their overcoats, suits and underwear nicely mended by one who understands the business. Inquire at the Woman's Exchange.

The ladies of the Library association will give an afternoon tea in the library room, Wednesday afternoon, January 13, from 1:30 to 5 o'clock. Refreshments of ice cream, cake, cocoa and coffee will be served for which a small sum will be charged for the benefit of the library. Everybody is cordially invited to attend.

James R. Knodel, assistant superintendent of the Oregon Anti-Saloon League, delivered an address in the Presbyterian church Thursday night.

Men can get their overcoats, suits and underwear nicely mended by one who understands the business. Inquire at the Woman's Exchange.

The ladies of the Library association will give an afternoon tea in the library room, Wednesday afternoon, January 13, from 1:30 to 5 o'clock. Refreshments of ice cream, cake, cocoa and coffee will be served for which a small sum will be charged for the benefit of the library. Everybody is cordially invited to attend.

James R. Knodel, assistant superintendent of the Oregon Anti-Saloon League, delivered an address in the Presbyterian church Thursday night.

Men can get their overcoats, suits and underwear nicely mended by one who understands the business. Inquire at the Woman's Exchange.

The ladies of the Library association will give an afternoon tea in the library room, Wednesday afternoon, January 13, from 1:30 to 5 o'clock. Refreshments of ice cream, cake, cocoa and coffee will be served for which a small sum will be charged for the benefit of the library. Everybody is cordially invited to attend.

James R. Knodel, assistant superintendent of the Oregon Anti-Saloon League, delivered an address in the Presbyterian church Thursday night.

Men can get their overcoats, suits and underwear nicely mended by one who understands the business. Inquire at the Woman's Exchange.

The ladies of the Library association will give an afternoon tea in the library room, Wednesday afternoon, January 13, from 1:30 to 5 o'clock. Refreshments of ice cream, cake, cocoa and coffee will be served for which a small sum will be charged for the benefit of the library. Everybody is cordially invited to attend.

James R. Knodel, assistant superintendent of the Oregon Anti-Saloon League, delivered an address in the Presbyterian church Thursday night.

Men can get their overcoats, suits and underwear nicely mended by one who understands the business. Inquire at the Woman's Exchange.

The ladies of the Library association will give an afternoon tea in the library room, Wednesday afternoon, January 13, from 1:30 to 5 o'clock. Refreshments of ice cream, cake, cocoa and coffee will be served for which a small sum will be charged for the benefit of the library. Everybody is cordially invited to attend.

James R. Knodel, assistant superintendent of the Oregon Anti-Saloon League, delivered an address in the Presbyterian church Thursday night.

Men can get their overcoats, suits and underwear nicely mended by one who understands the business. Inquire at the Woman's Exchange.

The ladies of the Library association will give an afternoon tea in the library room, Wednesday afternoon, January 13, from 1:30 to 5 o'clock. Refreshments of ice cream, cake, cocoa and coffee will be served for which a small sum will be charged for the benefit of the library. Everybody is cordially invited to attend.

James R. Knodel, assistant superintendent of the Oregon Anti-Saloon League, delivered an address in the Presbyterian church Thursday night.

Men can get their overcoats, suits and underwear nicely mended by one who understands the business. Inquire at the Woman's Exchange.

The ladies of the Library association will give an afternoon tea in the library room, Wednesday afternoon, January 13, from 1:30 to 5 o'clock. Refreshments of ice cream, cake, cocoa and coffee will be served for which a small sum will be charged for the benefit of the library. Everybody is cordially invited to attend.

James R. Knodel, assistant superintendent of the Oregon Anti-Saloon League, delivered an address in the Presbyterian church Thursday night.

Men can get their overcoats, suits and underwear nicely mended by one who understands the business. Inquire at the Woman's Exchange.

The ladies of the Library association will give an afternoon tea in the library room, Wednesday afternoon, January 13, from 1:30 to 5 o'clock. Refreshments of ice cream, cake, cocoa and coffee will be served for which a small sum will be charged for the benefit of the library. Everybody is cordially invited to attend.

James R. Knodel, assistant superintendent of the Oregon Anti-Saloon League, delivered an address in the Presbyterian church Thursday night.

Men can get their overcoats, suits and underwear nicely mended by one who understands the business. Inquire at the Woman's Exchange.

The ladies of the Library association will give an afternoon tea in the library room, Wednesday afternoon, January 13, from 1:30 to 5 o'clock. Refreshments of ice cream, cake, cocoa and coffee will be served for which a small sum will be charged for the benefit of the library. Everybody is cordially invited to attend.

James R. Knodel, assistant superintendent of the Oregon Anti-Saloon League, delivered an address in the Presbyterian church Thursday night.

Men can get their overcoats, suits and underwear nicely mended by one who understands the business. Inquire at the Woman's Exchange.

The ladies of the Library association will give an afternoon tea in the library room, Wednesday afternoon, January 13, from 1:30 to 5 o'clock. Refreshments of ice cream, cake, cocoa and coffee will be served for which a small sum will be charged for the benefit of the library. Everybody is cordially invited to attend.

James R. Knodel, assistant superintendent of the Oregon Anti-Saloon League, delivered an address in the Presbyterian church Thursday night.

Men can get their overcoats, suits and underwear nicely mended by one who understands the business. Inquire at the Woman's Exchange.

The ladies of the Library association will give an afternoon tea in the library room, Wednesday afternoon, January 13, from 1:30 to 5 o'clock. Refreshments of ice cream, cake, cocoa and coffee will be served for which a small sum will be charged for the benefit of the library. Everybody is cordially invited to attend.

James R. Knodel, assistant superintendent of the Oregon Anti-Saloon League, delivered an address in the Presbyterian church Thursday night.

Men can get their overcoats, suits and underwear nicely mended by one who understands the business. Inquire at the Woman's Exchange.

The ladies of the Library association will give an afternoon tea in the library room, Wednesday afternoon, January 13, from 1:30 to 5 o'clock. Refreshments of ice cream, cake, cocoa and coffee will be served for which a small sum will be charged for the benefit of the library. Everybody is cordially invited to attend.

James R. Knodel, assistant superintendent of the Oregon Anti-Saloon League, delivered an address in the Presbyterian church Thursday night.

JOSEPH

Joseph, Jan. 8.—Mrs. J. M. Mitchell returned Wednesday from a month's visit in Portland.

Rev. Ketchum of La Grande, organizer of Eastern Oregon State Sunday School association, will conduct services in the Presbyterian church Sunday morning.

Frank H. Lamphear of Sherman county has bought Geo. W. Boner's home place, 160 acres of land, lying a quarter of a mile west of town; consideration $12,000.

James Ericson returned Wednesday from Spokane.

Mrs. Thomas Prout is visiting with Mrs. T. H. Lay.

At the Epworth League business meeting Monday night, the officers elected for ensuing year were: Adelle Lay, Pres.; A. G. Smith, vice Pres.; Agnes Leslie, 2nd vice; Lavina Spray, Treas.; W. W. Nolton, Sec.; Joe Lay financial secretary.

Mr. and Mrs. George Houser very pleasantly entertained a number of their friends a few evenings ago. It was an anniversary party for Mrs. Houser and the friends left many tokens of esteem for the hostess.

Benjamin Knapper, who was badly injured playing football Christmas, is fully recovered and is attending to his duties at the bank.

Mrs. J. C. Conley visited over Wednesday with friends and attended installation of the O. E. S. lodge.

Stomach Trouble Cured.

If you have any trouble with your stomach you should take Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets.

Dr. J. P. Klote of Edina, Mo., says: "I have used a great many different medicines for stomach trouble, but find Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets more beneficial than any other remedy I ever used."

For sale by Burnaugh & Mayfield.

Wallowa, Jan. 8.—Rod McCrea is negotiating the sale of Hotel McCrea to J. W. Mitchell and John Decker of La Grande. The deal is not completed but is likely to be closed within a few days. Mr. McCrea has run a popular house and enjoyed a big trade. He has